LINE

will be three years, or ANY Captain, Two Lieueant, Four Sergeants. sicians, One Waggonelect its own officers. the War Department.

iustered into service as ist adventuring Rebels.

y six men. But must e Hundred. sixty dollars, four rath and one servant.ty dollars, four rations. it. Of Second Lieuars, four rations per Cadet, Twenty-four Sergeant, Twenty dol-, Seventeen dollars per a dollars per month.o rations mentioned awed one ration, or nine

d, and three dollars per same allowances are l to a bounty of One scharged from service. OF THE TROOPS. been made concerning panies, I would remark each man for his full But it is the evident and overnment to afford ses all. To accomplish necessary to keep each neighborhood in which ch as possible. Each ister every day. The lated, will be brought -say once in a month of the times and the in the main.

. It is designated, I pany protect its own he plan and its object. ats and welfare of our e details of the moveommanding officer of For further particu-ES WALLACE. e Regiment of Home [sep 14-tf shoe Pegs, lles, Muskrat Traps, ell Buckets, is, and a general ashe Cheap Cash Store, ington Street, Easton. . M. Nicols & Co. shita" and other Oil

THE GAZETTE IS PUBLISHED EVERY

VOL. LXV.

EASTON, MD., SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 1862.

Eight officers were seated on drums in the center of the square. Another officer was seat-

The Colonel asked—

Ludwig answered—

The Colonel said—

"Margaret? Margaret who?"

little Margaret, I shall love you always.

dearest love, and don't forget your poor little where you kissed it."

"For Margaret."

For the Easton Gazette. The Floral Mania-A Dream.

Twas night, and the stars so bewitchingly bright of them. He was carelessly writing something Were bathing the Earth in their beautiful light, on his knees, which formed his writing desk .- The sun has come again with power; the days and timely in its suggestions. When the silvery moon, in her radiant car, Rode out to her tryst with the Night, Earth and proceedings in accordance with the rules and waters are musical in the valleys, while peeping

I slept; and in slumber beheld, as I ween, A dream, that like Byron's, 'not all was a dream, And the land of aromas and isles of the sea Were fragrant and fair, in that vision, to me.

And not of the wounds from a parricide hand, For ages, has the treatment of pulmonary dis. Not political madness, the bane of the time "What, Ludwig! You a thief But the "Mania Floral," I dreamed and will you as honest as the day is long."

as the remedies of Dr. Hoofland, prepared by That he, who had culled at, was Knight of the which the people of this country are subject - Each time with a treasure more rich than the last, you remember the cottage with the big apple it had no object beyond expending its rage and the Legislative, and the Judical authorities, to gable waters of this State is hereby declared to those springing from a "dight cold." That Till a murmur of wonder gushed forth in a word, tree in the yard? Oh, me! I shall never see home tury; whirling the amazed weather cock till it whom for the time, its administration is intrusted. be entitled to all accretions to said land by the and friends again on this earth!"

Sent down to the Earth a torrent of hail, While the winds moaned a derge with a pitiful was written by the schoolmaster at home.

But this I beheld, when next he was seen,

And the long, raven beard, so gracefully worn, anybody was up in the house I had to be very sparrow chirping and creeping about in the shrub- was in the extremest peril and have been releas-

"Oh! where is the garden of roses?" I asked Yet rainly to answer, the Muses I tasked; No Alcoholic Preparation. So deep are the truths of that redolent clime Twould lesson their grandeur to pen them in

> But this is the legend, I heard in my dream, "This temple of Flora lies down by a stream, unaginings of evil and great depressions of spir- Some rarer exotic unknown to his store, its, and will positively prevent YELLOW FE- Perpetual blossoms his vision by night, His ambition by day, his theme and delight."

Why all this commingling of beauty and blooms? to pay the expenses home of my brother and the American people, and its reputation and sale When the goddss. Aurora, came up in the sky, opened my window. A blue cotton handkerare unrivalled by any similar preparations ex- And the sweet birds of spring-time broke out in chief was hanging on a cord near it, indebted to my friend. Robert Shoemaker, Esq., step to catch up with them, for I wanted to hear hem out of my pay."

For poetical prose in the Easton Gazette. From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the

THE COTTON HANDKERCHIEF.

the captains, and I went up to him and asked captain, said-him if they were going to drill the men there. "No," said he, "we are going to try and shoot turn to our dear native town which I shall never These medicines are for sale by all respectable a soldier belonging to my company, for having see again. I ask of you as a favor to a dying Ordnance Captured since the Com-"What!" said I, "surely you are not going to handkerchief for me. Tell her as long as I lived punishment, justice and mercy and humanity this hideous tragedy. I soon heard a volley of rebels: had all been duly provided for in the Rules of musketry—the signal that all was over.

small, for points and heels of ploughs, price these matters," the captain added, "I will give regiment had disappeared. Nature's autumnal Elizabeth City, you a good place, We shan't be long about stillness once more reigned there. But in fol- Bowling Green,

I followed the captain. In a few moments the regiment halted. It and hard by a new mound of fresh turned earth. Columbus, was drawn up in the form of a square. Near I cut down two pine boughs, made a rude cross Fort Clinch, the edge of the pine trees, and behind the second with them, and planted them at the head of poor l'ea Ridge, OCK SALT-for salting Stock-just re- line of the soldiers, a half dozen men were dig- Ludwig, who is now forgotten by everybody ex- New Madrid, ing a grave. They were commanded by a sub- cept by me and-perhaps by Margaret. grave-digging.

[From the Country Gentleman.] The Seasons—Spring—April.

ed on a drum to the left, but a little in advance Spring has come. And April is with us .- Philadelphia Press is truthful in its assertions I found be was writing the formal record of their are longer, birds sing, buds swell, the dancing regulations in such cases made and provided. Howers and springing grass invite us forth to tenderness—the indulgence—the more than mag-The accused soldier was ordered out from the breathe the sweet air of the new-born year.

pearance. He was tall, and his face was as sap in all the vegetable kingdom, sending it danc- and their friends. I do not complain of it. said amount of one hundred and fifty dollars, honest and good-natured as I have ever seen .- ing joyfully along into every spray and leaf and There is doubtless a profound philosophy in it, under the provisions of the last preceding section; A woman soon joined him. She proved to be flower. And do not the clouds feel the electric which after ages will appreciate. But it is but it the widow have no children and the de-The Balsamic Cordial is entirely a Vegetable It was spring time, when winter had lingered too the witness, the only witness in the cause.—

fire, and swell with warmth and gratitude, and strange that the objects of those gentle complication of the clothe themselves in shoutful attire in shoutful a

Thanks for this change of seasons! Bach new who takes up arms and fights in a bad one; but to confess everything, I did steal a handkerchief April is a new era in life to the farmer. His I do not profess to be able to separate that action Governor shall be empowered to fill all vacancies The Colonel said—
"What, Ludwig! You a thief! I thought you as honest as the day is long."

Ludwig replied—
Ludwig replied—

Colonel ever since I have been in the army.

The Colonel said—

general cultivations have been made, to be sure; from direct infamy, and ingratitude which consists in remaining in a loyal district and State, in asking for and accepting the kindness of a loyal district and State, all Government, and which responds to these

Colonel ever since I have been in the army.

The Colonel said—

general cultivations have been made, to be sure; from direct infamy, and ingratitude which consists in remaining in a loyal district and State, in asking for and accepting the kindness of a loyal district and State, all Government, and which responds to these

Address Public—Chapter to Separate that action in office which now exist or may hereafter exist. for the filling of which no provision has been made by the constitution or laws of this State, the law to take effect from its passage.

Notation Public—Chapter to Separate that its constitution or laws of the law to take effect from its passage. "Colonel, ever since I have been in the army, before him, and the influences of the Winter are solicited kindnesses by continued sneers at the ball not be lawful for any public to I have tried to do my duty; with what success revealed, he frequently finds it necessary to change General Administration and continued attacks shall not be lawful for any notary public to the books will show, for before to-day I have the plans he had already decided upon. So that upon the war. There are, however, some things sigh and issue any protest not previously stamp-here as a thief, believe me I did not steal for my- the year. will speak of some of the incidents of the season, a Government to serve and to save. I understand be rejected as evidence in law or equity on ac-rains, and their influences; those powers of the versary. And I understand, also, that this ad- printed forms, with his stamps thereon, to noair, that for a season seem to wage herce war in versary, bloody, crafty, and remorseless as he is, tories, and take their receipts thereon. the heavens, and present all the fury of a battle has thousands who wish him success in his ca- Rights of Riparian Proprietors.—Chapter 129 between the retreating Winter and advancing reer of carnage and of crime. If a Government adds the following to art, 54 of the public gener-"Don't you remember Margaret, Colonel !- Spring. The air comes whistling and moaning thus doubly altacked is worth defending, it is to be all laws, to take effect from its passage. The At home, hard by the gate of Nuremberg. Don't through our barns and chimney tops, as though defended by every means confided to the Executive, proprietor of land bounding on any of the navicreaks and complains in its despair of ever des- I say by every means, and if one remedy fails, recession of said water, whether heretofore or "What do you mean, Ludwig? I don't un- ignating the quarter whence the unruly one let another be supplied and another, until at last hereafter formed or made by natural causes or cometh; rattling windows and slamming blinds the effective cure is found. I assume of course otherwise, in like manner and to like extent as "Then here, Colonel, read this letter. It will until the nervous members of the family care that nobody doubts that this is a death-struggle such right may or can be claimed by the proexplain everything better than I can do, for it fully wedge and fasten all "as tight as a drum;" between freedom and despotism, or between a prietor of land bounding on water not navigable. tossing and scattering the clouds and smoke, driv- Government of law and order and a fierce and The proprietor of land bounding on any of the Ludwig gave a letter to the Colonel, who read ing so many stout vessels on our dreadful coasts, it aloud. Every word of it sunk deep into my and giving over the poor fellows on board to the who lives in the loyal States and oppose the cause in the colonel, who read ing so many stout vessels on our dreadful coasts, desperate banditti. How, then, can any man, to be entitled to the exclusive right of making who lives in the loyal States and oppose the cause memory, and if I live a thousand years I am sure mercy of the waves.

I can repeat it word for word to my dying hour. season naturally calls up in the least sentimen- tion his friends in the Seceded States have tions as above provided for, shall pass to the suc-"My own dearest love, my own Ludwig, tal of us. After the grass has fairly clothed the dedicated their lives? And yet this class not on-Withelm is going to leave here to morrow for meadows in their beautiful verdure again, when ty heartily sympathize with the rebellion, but in tached as incident to their respective estates .your regiment, in which he has listed, so I send the sun rises clear and warm, the blue birds are all their covert acts claim and too often receive But no such improvement shall be so made as A change had passed o'er him, and sad was his by him this letter and a silk purse I have knitted flying from post to tree-top, with their clear lifor you by snatches early in the morning after quid melody, the robin warbling flute-like, the as were arrested at a moment when the country that we will be happy together many and many sparrow. And then does not every one feel that known notorious Secessionists walk the a day yet, please Heaven. Won't we? And the season gives him a new lease of life, that new streets of Washington and Baltimore, enjoying even it you don't come back and see your poor health and strength are rising in his frame—that the blessings of this Government, collect their Chapter 96 amends the law prohibiting free ne-"I told you I would love you till death and be and welcome to him.

your wife that Chrismas Day when you picked. As the sun takes a broader sweep over the Which glides to a home in you beautiful bay"- up my blue cotton handkerchief, when we were earth, its rays penetrate the soil, impart unusal ferent feeling in the public mind. All doubtful the said penalty or twenty dollars and costs (to Dr.C.M.Jackson & Co., Philad., Pa. (There was music in dream-land, thrilling the lay, all dancing under the mistletoe, and I love you warmth and cause free evaporation; the cold surmen were compelled to show their devotion to be paid to the officer or person making the arso much I can never love anybody else. So you face water is thus taken up and scattered abroad, the Union, and more than one of those now so rest) and expenses incident to his or her arrest Liver Complaint, Dyspepsin, Jaun- For e'er when my thoughts float out on the deep. will come back to your own little Margaret, returning in gentler rains filled with the elements boisterous against the Union, were too ready to and detention, and upon his or her failure to do Blue Chesapeake's waters, that loveingly sleep won't you? When, Ludwig, dear, oh! when of fertility which they have sifted from the atshall we meet again? Everybody tells me the mosphere and which now find their way down of our country from their residences. The prime by the sheriff at public sale after ten days' noneys, and all diseasestarising from a disordered Liver of Stomach.

The song of our "Banner" my spirit charms.) officers hold you in esteem, and all your comthe light and porous soil to supply the roots of object of these men has been that of a steady setrades love and respect you. You don't know plants which are about ready to commence their cret support of the cause of the traitors, To this how glad I am when I hear you so well spoken new work for the year. Vegetable life is reani- end they will appeal to the courts for damages State; and should there be any surplus of the I wish the two years you have still got to mated, and shows returning signs of vigor and against the Federal officers who, in some cases, sale of negroes sold under the provisions of this serve would pass away, and let us marry and activity everywhere. The buds are swollen and effected their arrest. Believing that the Federal act, or the one to which it is a supplement, such live in peace and quiet. Good bye, my own the tree-tops thickened up long before leaves or Judiciary is in sympathy with them, they em- surplus shall be paid over to the negro at the blossoms have shown themselves. MARGARET."

you send it to me. I know I shall instantly find tivities of either vegetable or animal life, and in the justice of the war, and are ready to sacri- had so done." When the Colonel ended the letter, Ludwig what gradual smile ere it breaks out into full successfully prosecuted, suffer in both. while State's attorneys shall prosecute or defend all "Withelm gave me the letter and purse last coming in of spring, with all its charms in such tion and embarrassment. Meanwhile the great presentments or indictments, for which he shall night, just as you gave me my lodging billet.— a country where the transition is so rapid that a primal obligation of preserving the Republic is be entitled to such compensation as may be al-I could not sleep a wink all night for thinking of tew days change the scene from a waste of snow subordinated in the clamor thus created by re- lowed by the county commissioners, or in Baltiyellow green from the rapidly opening leaves; their homes; and in many cases are executed like Governor. cousin, who left the regiment five days ago. - how quickly the maple trees are covered with felons and assassins, without trial or defence.-When I got up this morning to come away, I crimson blossoms; how brilliant flowers are fast Millions of dollars have in this way been confis- that the comptroller shall issue no warrant to springing up through the dead leaves in the for cated to the cause of the rebellion; and in no case any person having a claim against the State it "It was just like Margaret's, the very same on every bank where the snow lay a week berolor; with the very same stripes in it. I reach: Construction of the leader of th ed out my hand, took it and put it in my knap- dy from hundreds of birds which have been for tion on the part of those whose hearts are enlist- his claim.

sack. I know I did wrong. I had not gone months silent. annually by the proprietors, and to be had gratis Tis said that surroundings oft fashion the mind; twenty paces from the house when I felt asham. Much of this charm lies in the associations .ed of myself, and I turned around to go back. It may be that there is something in the physi-and return the handkerchief, when all of a sud-cal constitution of the observer, superinduced by den this woman came running after me crying the season itself, that makes him in spring more and horror. They do not sympathize with the this State for any person or persons. "Stop thief!" I was arrested. The blue cotton open to pleasurable emotions from the sights men who have sworn to destroy alike the Union handkerchief was found in my knapsack. This and sounds of nature. But much depends on and the Constitution, and to sacrifice precious is the whole truth. I know the rules and regu- associations and contrast; novelty has much to do lives. They behold only a mass of infuriated lations require me to be shot. Shoot me, but with it. Everything tells of happiness; and we madmen, deaf to all the instincts of mercy or of from any simple preparation, in the hope that he October was near its end, and the winter's winds less, when the vote was taken on Ludwig's in are not less rich in hue, or less fragrant in odor may thus contribute to the benefit of others. had not yet dispersed all traces of the summer. nocence or guilt, he was found guilty by a u- than the first; yet the first violet of spring had a lan's German Bitters," prepared by C. M. Jack- were filled with ripe fruit. At some distance heard his sentence with perfect self-possession. can never hear the blue bird's voice, we can never they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am ward on the road I followed. I quickened my "Please lend me four francs. You will take thrill through our hearts which is not repeated.

in the meantime with diligent and assiduous "Captain, in two years from now you will re- care. c. N. D. New York, April, 1862.

mencement of the War.

2 Evausport, 5 Other Potomac batteries, 65 Newbern, N. C, 15 On vessels, Total,

The Leniency of the Government-Acts Passed by the Maryland Legisal-

The annexed letter of "Occasional" to the LETTER FROM "OCCASIONAL."

WASHINGTON, April 17 .- The leniency-the nanimity of the General Administration to the widow have no children and the decedent is solranks. I was struck not only by his youth (he April animates all living things; quickens the traitors and to those who sympathize with them, was not twenty), but by his noble, manly ap- blood, giving it new fire and force, and starts the is as consistent as the treachery of these traitors and apply to her own use such property to the cause, and I can even fathout the motives of one never had even a mark against me. It I am April often demands the principal engineering of I do understand—things which are not depend- ed with the stamp of the Comptroller, under Since spring then has already greeted us, we more clear or strong. I understand that we have and one-half to the informer; but no protest shall "Not for yourself? For whom then did you whether they come a few weeks earlier or later. that this Government is being assailed in the count of the absence of said stamp; and chapter And these are the Spring blustering winds and battle-field by a formidable and ungrateful ad- 120 enacts that the Comptroller shall issue blank of these States, claim the protection of a Consti- improvements into the waters in front of his It is difficult to repress the feelings which the tution and the benefits of laws to whose destruc- said land; such improvements, and other accreronage of the Administration.

A little more than a year ago there was a difwhere that face may be said to put on a some- fice their fortunes and their lives that it may be State's Attorneys.—Chapter 177 enacts that under this hypocritical clamor for the Constitu- case his indebtedness shall first be deducted from ed against it, the Adminstration shall be embarrassed and the great object of the war defeated ? enacts that no register of wills or deputy registhe battle-field.

"when we read that the deluge covered the whole social and political exuality. 10 earth, the inference is that the inhabitants thereof were all drowned. Now, Naaman, the Sy-10 rian, was commanded to wash seven times in the river of Jorden-what inference would we Chicago have inaugurated a movement to purdraw from that?"

the precocious one's answer.

All orders addressed to the editor, post-paid will receive prompt attention.

Merchants and others who advertise by the ness, without an additional charge.

ADVERTISEMENTS,

The following are the provisions of several laws passed at the recent session of the Maryland Legislature: Testamentary Law .- Chapter 101 amends section 292 of article 93 by providing that "if the Vacant Offices .- Chapter 68 enacts that the ent upon precedents or upon lawyers to make penalty of $500, one-half to be paid to the State to interfere with the navigation of the stream of water into which the said improvement is made.

No patent hereafter issued out of the Land As an offspring to Flora, perhaps, had been shorn. secret about it, for lather does nothing else but bery and hedges for new quarters to "go to house ed, not only bring suits against the Federal offiscold me for loving you as much as I do, be keeping;" and ha! sweetest of all sounds of cers who discharged their duties in securing eian proprietors, as explained and declared in cause he says you will never come back here Spring! there are those simple notes that thrill their arrest, but in some cases threaten the lives the two sections next preceding this section, and again. But I know you will come back, and through the very heart—the voice of the song of these officers! Even as I write, it is believed no patent shall hereafter issue for land covered by navigable waters.

Punishment of of Non-resident Free Negroes .he has returned to a landscape that is familiar rents, and in some cases luxuriate upon the pat- groes from coming into the State, and requiring their arrest, as follows:

"Any such free negro so offending shall pay In this favored land we are conscious of emoto stir up all the elements of discontent by in been sold; and the said negro as herein before "P. S.—Try and send me something from ions of peculiar delight, when we see the face, flamatory appeals to the junes. While these in provided for shall leave this State in ten days France, not because I am afraid I may forget of nature renewing its loveliness after winter, you, but because I want to have something of where yet the influences of the dreary season maintained of "fidelity to the Federal Constituyours to carry always with me. Kiss it before are never so absolute as quite to quench the action!" The result is that loyal men, who believe a second time, and be as hable as it he or she

Claimants against the State.—Chap. 180 enacts

Prohibition to certain Officers .- Chapter 179

Imperial Marriage in Japan.

A Kanagawa correspondent of the New York cannot help sympathising with it. Here is where humanity, resolved upon no peace that does not World, writing on the 1st of January, says that sufficient reason why a man may not testify to Castle to Orleans. It was in that delightful seathe benefit he believes himself to have received son which France always enjoys in autumn.— life, could not conceal their emotion. Neverther the hundreds of violets that we find in April hatred of the Government animates their foes in over the approaching nuptials of the daughter of the Mikado, or spiritual Emperor, to the Tycoon, Pretended regard for the Constitution animates or political Emperor. The betrothed lady ar-I do this the more readily in regard to "Hoof- The leaves were still on the trees, and the orchards nanimous vote and sentenced to be shot. He charm that all these combined possess not. We their foes in the Free States, who, while laugh- rived at Yedo on the 16th of December, with a ing at the bravery of our heroic soldiers, secretly train of 14,000 attendants, and was twenty-five son, of this city, because I was prejudiced a before me a regiment of the Foreign Legion After it was pronounced be went up to the caper and the common enemy. Two com- days on her journey from Miako to that place, Acbut the first blue bird, the first swallow, sent a binations are engaged in the work of undermin- cording to court etiquette, she made the first and ing the fabric of our free institutions. They last stages of her journey in a carriage drawn by April ushers in the round of months in which work with unceasing industry and perseverance. bullocks. The most of the tour was, however. the farmer finds the duties of his occupation the One is composed of the armed traitors who, after performed in a norimono, or litter, made of sik! and for encouragement to try them, when suffer- But before I could reach them the band ceased "Here ma'am," said he, turning to the General Government, en threads, of a peculiar structure, and borne on stealing the property of the General Government, en threads, of a peculiar structure, and borne on will give the whole of ing from great and long continued debility. The playing, and all I heard was an occasional drum of the handkerchief, "here are four francs. I do disappeared, cold winds are tempered. blowing now devote themselves to the task of taking the men's shoulders. On reach Yedo she went into use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident

I had followed them for a short time—could it more than that; but even if it is, I am going to composed of politicians who, in a thousand ways, minated when the correspondent wrote. When relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and not have been more than half an hour-when all pay so much for it. I hope you will let me off sun, unlocks itself and grown light and porous. labor to misrepresent, assail and cripple the Ad- sne entered Yedo, all fires in the city were order. before, and had almost despaired of regaining.— small plain surrounded on three sides by pine I therefore thank God and government to scatter before, and had almost despaired of regaining.— small plain surrounded on three sides by pine I therefore thank God and government to scatter before, and had almost despaired of regaining.— small plain surrounded on three sides by pine in the took the blue cotton handkerchief from the big seed in generous hope, and wait in the same votion to the Constitution. Every victory in on the route she took were entirely cleared of the constitution. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing trees. I had a slight acquaintance with one of woman, and then he kissed it, and giving it the spirit for the fruition of the harvest-cultivating the battle-field by the first elevates and strength- people, the houses closed, shutters of doors and ens the second. Every triumph at the ballot box | windows all drawn, and no one was allowed to of the second elevates and strengthens the first. peep through a crack at the august personage. Shall we profit by this lesson? Our duty is as This marriage is the precursor of important re plain as our path. Harmonious action in the forms in Japan. The Mikado has hitherto been warlike and in the political struggle. No divis- the real Emperor, the Tycoon requiring his con-Our forces have recently captured a very large ions among common friends pledged to a com- sent in order to render valid all important measing breath. But don't tell her the price I paid amount of ordnance and munitions of war from mon cause. No conflict overnames. No rivalers ures. Until recently, the Mikado had not given the rebels, many of the guns having been stolen among leaders. No criticisms upon brave men his assent to two or three articles between the are counterfeit. Principal Office and Manufac- of War which govern the Foreign Legion. You He knelt and prayed in silence for a few min- by Floyd from the United States government, in the field or good men in the councils. No Tycoon and the United States, and the Japanses to the field or good men in the councils. No Tycoon and the United States, and the Japanses to the field or good men in the field or good men in the councils. No Tycoon and the United States, and the Japanses to the field or good men in the field or good men in the councils. No Tycoon and the United States, and the Japanses to the field or good men in the councils. No Tycoon and the United States government, in the field or good men in the councils. No Tycoon and the United States, and the Japanses to the field or good men in the councils. No Tycoon and the United States government, in the field or good men in the councils. No Tycoon and the United States government, in the field or good men in the councils. No Tycoon and the United States, and the Japanses to the field or good men in the councils. No Tycoon and the United States, and the Japanses to the field or good men in the councils. No Tycoon and the United States, and the Japanses to the field or good men in the councils. know we don't belong to the country, and our utes. Then he rose and walked with a firm step while many of them came from abroad. Since hesitation to vote supplies in Congress. No did not, therefore, feel that their engagements to the brink of his grave, for it was there the the breaking out of the rebellion the Federals more leniency to trattors. With these mottoes were binding. Hitherto the Tycoon has never have lost thirty guns captured from them at on our banners we shall rescue our country been bonored with an alliance with the ac-PPLES, Oranges, Lemons, &c —A few barrels of very nice Apples: also Oranges also Oranges also Oranges also Oranges. It will stand all the ravages of sons occupying that station having, from time greatest monument of human wisdom. It seem—I turned my head and walked away rapidly barrels of very nice Apples; also Oranges, look of the state of the st chief lords adopt their numerous progeny. From 10 Batteries on Potomac 10 TEACHING THE YOUNG IDEA .- A wise father, these repudiated children the Tycoons have hith-17 Shiprin' P'nt buttery, 6 once endeavored to teach his son the nature of erto chosen their brides. The present marriage 7 an inference. "Thus, for example," said he, may be regarded as an admission of the Tycoon's chase a homes tead for Gen. Sigel, and to present "That he must have been plagued dirty!" was him with a sword of plain steel, which shall have engraved on its blade, "The Germans of America to their first combatant." The homestrad is What you leave at your death, let it be with to be purchased in that State the German citi-

I. M. Nicols & Co. 50 bushels of white S. T. KENNARD.

VANCE, or TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if not paid within one month of the time of subscribing, or the renewal of subscription—a falure to notify a discontinuance is considered as a new engagement.

DR. HOOFLAND'S BALSAMIC CORDIAL, FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Croup, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Disease of the Bowels, arising from Cold, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief and (it at all possible)

cure of Patients in advanced stages of the latter production, combining the healing properties of long, the Balsam, with the invigorating qualities of a long, woman, he was interrupted by the prisoner, who green, in purple and white, and sparkle with them so coldly, I can understand why a man such property to the amount of seventy-five dollars." few cases of disease which will not, at an early tion of the scientific of the medical world, but none acquired more eminence in his treatment. of these diseases, than the celebrated Prussian And first'inid the pictures of dream-land was seen, Dr. Hoofland, the originator of the Balsamic A neat rural town, set in silver and green, Cordial. His life was devoted to the production And the murmur of voices, and echo of feet, of remedies that would stand unrivalled. How And the clatter of wheels rang out in the street. well he has succeeded, the American people are able to judge; and we positively assert, that no I looked, and, behold! like a garden in air, them, have conferred the same amount of benefits on suffering humanity, or have elicited so Came a tribute from Flora, which well might many commendations from all classes of society,

Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., of Philadelphia. The Cordial is designed for a class of disease more general and more fatal than any other to And oft, and again, did the chariot pass, eminent authority, Dr. Bell, says: "I will not And "where is the Garden of Roses" I heard. say that Colds are to our inhabitants what the in disease of greater complicity and mortality than these latter." Read what the eminent Glass Manufacturer. Jno. M. Whiteall, says of the Balsamic Cordial. ing for a long time been acquainted with the virtues of the Balsamic Cordial in Coughs, Colds Inflamation of the lungs, &c., I thus freely bear The dreamer of day dreams can tell the tale best. testimony to its efficacy. For several years I have never been without it in my family. It also gives me pleasure to state that I have used it with entire success in the treatment of Bowel

JOHN M. WHITALL, Complaints. Race Street, above 4th, Philadelphia. Fifth Mo. 17, 1858.

Entirely Vegetable. DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED German Bitters,

PREPARED BY Will effectually cure Chronic or Nerrous Debillty, Discuses of the Kul- In the half embrace of Old Ocean's arms.

Such as a Constipation, Inward Piles, Ful- "And not only the queenly and glorious rose ness or Blood to the head. Acidity of the Stom- In that bower of beauty her fragrance bestows. ach. Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Ful- But the stately magnolia exhales by her side, ness or Weight in the stomach, Sour Eructations, In all the regalia of perfume and pride." Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach. Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult 'Each blossom that blushes to meet with the Sun. Breathing, fluttering at the heart, choking or Each fruit that his glances to sweetness have suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, dimness of vision, dots of webs before the sight. And every shrub-tree, and climber and vine. fever and dull pain in the head, deficiency of Found north of the tropics, that bower doth enperspiration, yellowness of the skin and eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, limbs, &c., sudden flushes of heat, burning in the flesh, constant "But still doth its master go seeking for more,

VER, BILIOUS FEVER, &c. The Proprietor in calling the attention of the public to this preparation, does so with a feeling But, I asked will the boney-bee, as on the Nile, home and Margaret. She asked me to send her to universal warmth, verdure and beauty. We vengeful and disaffected partisans. The proper- more by the judge of the Criminal Court; and of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adap- Be moored on this stream in his palace ere-while? something from France. I have no money now. have observed with admiration, how soon the ty of the Union men in the South is seized and in no such case shall counsel fees be paid by the

It is no new and untried article, but one that has stood the test of a twelve years' trial before These were my queries, but still no reply. tant. The testimony in its favor given by the a song, most prominent and well known physicians and That broke in cn my slumber, and dream-land color; with the very same stripes in it. I reach- fore, and how the bushes are ringing with meloindividuals in all parts of the country is immense, and a careful perusal of the Almanac, published of any of their Agents, cannot but satisfy the The Knight of the roses to letters inclined, most skeptical that this remedy is really deserv- May cause us to bless the "Rose Mania" yet, ing the great celebrity it has obtained.

Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicine in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no I was returning on foot last year from Bardy don't look on me with contempt. gainst them for years, under the impresssion that might be descried. They were marching for tain of his company and said: for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, their music-I am very fond of military music. The captain gave them to him.

ine to the use of them. J. NEWTON BROWN. Philad'a, June 23, 1866

Druggists and dealers in medicines in the Uni- robbed the person on whom he was billeted." | man, find out Margaret. Give her this blue ted States, Canadas, British Provinces, and West Indies, at 75 cents per bottle. Be sure and try, condemn and execcute the man all in the I loved her, and that I blessed her with my dyget the genuine, with the signature of C. M. same day?" tory, 131 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

mar 29-1y Lemons, Figs, Prunes, Rasins, Currents, Citron and Cocoanuts, just received by mar 15 DAWSON & BRO.

three cents each, at the Hardware Store of H. M. Nicols & Co. it." LARGE stock of fine Cigars; Thomas' and Gravely's best chewing Tobacco, for sale CHARLES ROBINSON.

ceived and for sale by mar 15 CAMPBELL & GOLDSBOROUGH. DOWDER-just rec'd and for sale by S. T. KENNARD.

period, succumb to its healing and life giving But not of the sorrows that thrill through the land, in that woman's house."

preparations that have ever been placed before (Which, they say, in the East is surpassingly Plague and Yellow Ferer are to those of other coun- Then clouds draped the heavens; and winter again derstand you." tries; but I can aver confidently that they usher Looked back for a moment, and meeting the rain,

DR. C. M. JACKSON-Respected Friend: Hav- But still, did the Knight of the roses seek on, The dreamer of day-dreams can tell the tale best.

tation to she diseases for which it is recommen- Why ail this munificent wealth of perfumes? I have pledged my pay for the next three months, brown poplar woods put on a flush of tender forfeitd: they are driven from their firesides and State, unless to counsel specially retained by the discipline must be severe."

ST. MICHAELS, April 16th, 1862.

I wandered in the woods for at least an hour. Fort Henry, UST received a large lot of Plough bolts, "If you would like to see how we manage! When I returned to the scene of the tragedy the Roanoke Island, lowing the edge of the woods to regain the high- Fort Donelson, way, I perceived on the ground traces of blood, Near Bird's P't, Mo. 6 Miscellaneous

It may, perhaps, be thought difficult to decide rule; there are rules and regulations even for Ir a man is doomed to the stake, he would which is the most destructive—the mortar in the out controversy, else the lawyers will be your zents of which shall subscribe most liberally to generally prefer that it should be beef or renison. battle field or the mortar in the drug store.