EMORY cities and have

TMENT OF 100 a d with great care avite their friends

a inspection of the [apr 5 F Easton,"

POINT. having had built fine proportion, a every respect caleat safety, would riends and the pub-

o run her regularaston Point every more, and return every Saturday .rill be charged .ore, may be found 2. Wm. S. Paus of the boat in her , left at the Drug companied by the led-to. ARD, Captain.

UMMER

CERIES.

Goods, EAR, SS GOODS, VELRY, NARY, Oil Lamps. WRIGHT, on the city with a the above named n selected with care prices, and will public are invited selves before pur-Volf's Copper Pens fapr 26 CKET LINE. Atkins

IANDING.I. L. Atkins and running between re, for the accomnds and customers. gular packet, leardnesday morning. y. In Baltimore.

bacco Warehouse run to and from be obtained. ill be done by the on to freighters. business being done pal at present in the adopt the CASH STStherefore, no orders lise wili receive atthe CASH. All orsh will be promptly quired for all freight nerchants whose achly, when payment idispensible, in orrequirements of the oney may be left at wson & Brother, Wednesday mornols. CHAMBERS,

Merchant is Mr. nith's Warf Baluly call your atten-

well selected stock 16886

oves, rimmings, ry description, &c., rtment of all kinds Having been in this ars in Philadelphia goods of the very Philadelphia which ling at Philadelphia DWARDS, House where albott lately kept.

e Pegs, Muskrat Traps, Buckets, and a general as-Cheap Cash Store, gton Street, Easton. 1. Nicols & Co. have on handa -"Prince Alberts," s"-in quantities to 1. Nicols & Co.

-Fresh Congress m the proprietors DAWSON & BRO. s of Rags for which ETT & WRIGHT.

ties to suit, for sale DAWSON & BRO. GOLDSBOROTGH, may 3 For sale by GOLDSBOROUGH. jan 18

THE GAZETTE IS PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDA MORNING

TERMS. TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM IN AD-VANCE, or TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if not paid within one month of the time of subscribing, or the renewal of subscriptiona falure to notify a discontinuance is considered as a new engagement.

VOL. LXV.

EASTON, MD., SATURDAY, JUNE 14, 1862.

DR. HOOFLAND'S BALSAMIC CORDIAL,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Croup, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Disease of the Bowels, arising from Cold, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief and (if at all possible) cure of Patients in advanced stages of the latter

The Balsamic Cordial is entirely a Vegetable production, combining the healing properties of the Balsam, with the invigorating qualities of a Cordial, producing a combination so well adapged to the purposes intended, that there are but few cases of disease which will not, at an early period, succumb to its healing and life giving

For ages, has the treatment of pulmonary diseases occupied the greater portion of the attention of the scientific of the medical world, but none acquired more eminence in his treatment of these diseases, than the celebrated Prussian Dr. Hootland, the originator of the Balsamic Cordial. His life was devoted to the production of remedies that would stand unrivalled. How well he has succeeded, the American people are able to judge; and we positively assert, that no preparations that have ever been placed before them, have conferred the same amount of bene fits on suffering humanity, or have elicited se many commendations from all classes of society as the remedies of Dr. Hoofland, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., of Philadelphia.

The Cordial is designed for a class of disease more general and more fatal than any other to which the people of this country are subjectthose springing from a "slight cold." That eminent authority, Dr. Bell, says: "! will not! say that Colds are to our inhabitants what the Plague and Yellow Ferer are to those of other counmes; but I can aver confidently that they usher in disease of greater complicity and mortality! than these latter." Read what the eminent Glass Manufacturer. Jno.

M. Whiteall, says of the Balsamic Cordial. Dr. C. M. Jackson-Respected Friend: Having for a long time been acquainted with the virtues of the Balsamic Cordial in Coughs, Colds Inflamation of the lungs, &c., I thus freely bear testimony to its efficacy. For several years I have never been without it in my family. It also gives me pleasure to state that I have used it with entire success in the treatment of Bowell Complaints. JOHN M. WHITALL, Race Street, above 4th, Philadelphia. Fifth Mo. 17, 1858.

Entirely Vegetable. No Alcoholic Preparation. DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED German Bitters,

PREPARED BY Dr.C.M.Jackson & Co., Philad., Pa. Will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaun-Chronic or Nervous Debillty, Diseases of the Kid neys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach. Such as a Constipation, Inward Piles, Fulness or Blood to the head. Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Ful ness or Weight in the stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, fluttering at the heart, choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, dimness of vision, dots of webs before the sight, fever and dull pain in the head, deficiency of perspiration, yellowness of the skin and eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, limbs, &c., sudden flushes of heat, burning in the flesh, constant imaginings of evil and great depressions of spirits, and will positively prevent YELLOW FE-VER, BILIOUS FEVER, &c.

public to this preparation, does so with a feeling tation to she diseases for which it is recommen-

the American people, and its reputation and sale are unrivalled by any similar preparations extant. The testimony in its favor given by the individuals in all parts of the country is immense, annually by the proprietors, and to be had gratis. most skeptical that this remedy is really deserving the great celebrity it has obtained.

Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginmental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining .me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN. Philad'a, June 23, 1860. tory, 131 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa. mar 29-1 y

Something New. we think a valuable machine for Farmers. mar 29

A. COFFEE at six cents per Box. COFFEE at 20 cents per lb, for sale by three cents each, at the Hardware Store of

For the Easton Gazette. The Rising of the Nation.. BY CYMON.

Columbia called upon her brave, To rally in their might Around her flag; THEIR flag to save, And guard their proud birthright.

From Sumter's fort the shock resounds, O'er hill, and vale, and plain; . From Faneuil Hall the tocsin sounds. "Guard ye your vast domain."

The bugle sounded through the land, Our heroes heard the call. And rushed to battle, sword in hand, To conquer or to fall.

The sturdy sons of loyal sires,

With hosts of volunteers,

To join upon the battle field,

To battle rushed from Maine;— New Hampshire's patriotic fires Blazed forth with warmth again.

Vermont's brave Mountaineers. Rhode Island did not lack for zeal, To join the holy cause;-Connecticut heard the appeal,

And did not stop nor pause. New York sent forth her legions grand-New Jersey too, was there-The State of Penn equipped a band_ And little Delaware.

Maryland, tho' torn by faction's power, And rent by civil feuds. Proved her devotion in that hour, And traitors' wiles withstood:

And with Missouri took her stand, For liberty and right, They joined Kentucky's patriot band, All eager for the fight.

And from Pacific's placid shore, The Union Guards arose; Those new-born States their legions pour, Against the Union foes.

The mighty West! our country's pride, So young, so strong, so brave, Her we can trust—whate'er betide, She will our country save.

Resounds, and o'er each plain; Well may the patriot heart rejoin, And swell the glad refrain: "Though ev'ry hill-top bleacd with dead,

Harh! o'er those Western hills a voice

And ev'ry rod a grave. And ev'ry stream with blood run red, We will our country save.

Armed in the RIGHT, we trust, we know, Our cause can never fail. Our nation's risen in her strength-The traitor's heart may quake, The day of triumph comes at length,

And gore fill ev'ry vale,

Deluded men awake. And soon o'er all this broad domain The Stars and Stripes will wave, Prosperity again will reign. And peace be with the brave.

Broad Creek Neck, June 9th, 1862.

For the Easten Gazette. A Leaf from My Journal.

THE EXPERIENCE OF A DAY-SCREET.

tried to look deep down into the dim darkness of rapt my spirit.

this tacit reproof of Nature, I envied the drowsy the impending danger. As a Marylander I have works and as illimitable as space: slumberer, and sinned by wishing myselt buried already great cause for thankfulness; for had trea- And with these latter musings ends the day tween other cowardly, mean and murderous men in a sleep so deep, so sound, that I might re- son succeeded as well here as in Virginia, the so inauspiciously begun. With my first waking of this city, and myself, will appear in the documain unconscious of existence throughout all unboly war which now is sowing the seeds of moments, dark shades of gloom and melancholy ments I leave behind; and I desire my sons to the countless revolutions of an endless eternity. sorrow and spreading dismay all over our belov- settled around my heart; leaden clouds of adver- publish them, even at the cost of their lives. I The hour was propitious for quiet, yet pleasing ed country-in every city, town, village and sity shut out every radiant sun beam of hope, of desire to bear my testimony, even in a dying revery; for profound and profitable meditation. rural district-would have been brought to our joy, of light and of love. I thought my heart as hour, to the perfidy, double-dealing and coward-My heart should have been cheered by the music own doors. The profound silence which now barren of good as the desert waste; or if produc- ly course toward me of that prince of hypocrites The "Old Bay State" her courage sealed, of the tuneful tribes, and my physical system re- reigns along the banks of Miles River would twe at all, it's soil was only adapted to a luxu- and great embodiment of human decent, Campvivified by the bracing atmosphere of the early have been broken by the thunders of huge ar- riant growth of weeds and the filth of sin. As I bell Wallace, the president of the railroad, and morning; but it was not these that I availed my-tillery; our streams would have run red with strained my eye in attempting to look far down one of the great lights of Secession. I warn all self of my stroll. Pausing in my pathway, or the best blood of the State; our fields of clover, my pathway through life, the road seemed to men present, and all who may hear of this stateseating my-lonely-self on the rider of a chesnut wheat and corn-nature's graneries-would lead through a desert wild, without an oasis ment, never to confide in that man. He is sulence, and with my elbows resting on my knees have been "clothed with desolation," and the where my wearied soul might find refreshment premely selfish, notoriously insincere, and would and my face buried in the palms of my hands. I ripening of grain trodden under foot of contend- and repose, and without a single tree or shrub. sell his interest in his God-which, I fear, is not allowed thought to wander whithersoever it lis- ing armies. My own house would have been flower or creeping vine, to cheer and enliven a very large one-for money! ted; and pausing over the tomb where lay the ransacked, and the peaceful village of St. Mich- the prospect. It seemed rugged and steepy, and I must also bear witness to the treachery and earthly remains of all that was once most dear aels, hard by, would have been plundered, or often obscured by impenetrable mists of gloom insincerity of Wm. G. McAdoo, who, while to me on earth, and then rolling back the current perhaps, burnt to the ground. The violent parti- and darkness, and i saw not a single star to guide meeting me with a smile and professing friendof time, early recollections were awakened; old zan, instead of visiting the son of his father with my lonely wanderings toward a cold and silent ship, stated to John Black that I ought to be kept affections, long since crushed by the hand of the olive branch of peace, would have withdrawn grave. But as the day advanced, the prospect in prison during this war, This man was on death, and cherished hopes now blasted forever, his reeking blade from the core of a brother's brightened. Laying my heart with all its load the verge of starvation, and without credit, when were painfully remembered. As my thoughts heart. Instead of peace, the din and rattle of of sin, with all it's I took it upon myself to attend the sitting of our reverted to the present, I contemplated that for a war, the clash and roar of battle, continually inordinate and sinful affections, with it's rotten- Legislature, some years ago, and help make him year and a half, the cheerful smiles and warm would have been sounded in our ears; instead of ness and corruption, at the feet of a sinner's District Attorney. He since lost one wife and greetings of friends, had failed to bring me to life freedom, a political despotism would have con- Saviour, and by one simple act of faith, relief married a second, owning a gang of negroes and -that my responsibility to the law of the land for trolled the actions and if possible, bound the con- came. In a moment, the clouds which had for a rice plantation in Georgia, and has turned over the faithful discharge of my duties as guardian of sciences of men; "persecution would have bran- so long obscured my mental vision and darken- to Secession. I warn my family and friends my deceased father's children, and to the law of dished her sword and slavery clanked her chains.' ed my soul's prospect, were all dispersed. One never to confide in him. God for the moral and religious instruction of my It does not require a violent stretch of the im- single drop of the blood from the pierced side. Fellow-countrymen, I am shortly to be execuown little ones, had tailed to arouse my paralyz- agination to conceive of evils equal to these; for and feet of a crucified God, ted-not for any crime punishable with death, ed energies. Then a morbid sensation of loneli- political sentiment in Maryland being divided on poured on an aching and sinful heart, at once but for my devotion to my country, her laws ness crept over me, and I felt as utterly alone, as the momentous subjects of loyalty and treason, soothed the pain of it's bleeding wounds and ul- and constitution. I die for refusing to espouse if I were living on some lonely desert isle, with- all the fiery passions of man's nature would have cerating sores, and in the first moment of relief, the cause of this wicked rebellion; and I glory in out brother, sister, child or friend to afford me been aroused, every prejudice of the human heart I can scarcely be charged with intellectual weak- it, strange as you may think it. I could have society; without the merry songs of the tuneful excited and the peaceful citizen transformed in ness, if I permitted a tear of joy to bedew my lived if I had taken an oath of allegiance to this tribes, or the pleasing aspect of Nature's varied to a fiend. Let us then encourage sentiments of cheek. Now I am happy; now I am happy; now I am "contented so-called Confederacy. Rather than stultify and beautiful scenery to cheer my heart or enliven gratitude to Almighty God for his gracious in- with my present condition." Once more am I myself, and disgrace my family by such an oath, my drooping spirits—without change; with no terposition in our behalf. magnificent sunrise or gorgeons sunset; with As I continue thus to think, the sun continues to my children, and more than all, to my God . erument, and I trust that no child of mine will never-ending night, and forever without the gold- his descent till the chariot wheels of the great and once more are all these restored to me. My ever do it. Look at the past history of the leaden lamp of day, the fittest emblem of the Sun of luminary are about to scathe the utmost verge old feelings of utter loneliness are now all dis- ers and originators of this Rebellion. There is Righteousness, which rose on a benighted world of the sky. And now my thoughts begin to take persed, for I feel myself to be in the immediate not a man of unstained character to be found amore than eighteen hundred years ago, never to a different turn, and I allow them to wander- presence of Almighty God. I am not lost for mong them. Yancey is a convicted murderer, set again. Yes, I felt utterly alone, and for the being in a meditative mood-at will. The sun society, for I feel (if I am deluded let me remain who killed his uncle (Dr. Earl, of South Carononce, believed that the great Omnipresent, who in his descent, grows considerably larger, and the so) that the Holy Ghost is communing with my lina.) and instead of going to England to intrigue had forever withdrawn himself from me

suffered not a little from feelings of indifference difference differently we estimate the comforts of life while hand of death, or of the living by the nipping | Wigfall, a Confederate Senator and a General to all around me. The inhabitants of the bough in our tull and undisturbed possession, but how frosts of time, I am cheered and comforted by fled from his native State of South Carolina to no longer sang for me; the fields and forest, now highly prized when about to be removed, or after believing that God loves me more than all these Texas to escape the horrors of assassination; befull-clothed in their new vestments of liveliest or they have gone. The sun having almost finish- could have done, even if death had not deprived came a collecting attorney for large amounts, and "Though carnage ev'ry field should strow, deepest green, I now thought were no longer beau- ed his daily course, the whole face of the earth me of the affections of some, or if the inconstancy then swindled his employers out of their dues, tiful; and our noble river, on whose banks I once becomes overspread with shades. The tree and of the human heart had not caused those of the murdering as many as two men in Texas. Floyd, loved to stroll, admiring its placid, mirror like sur- chimney-tops are yet tipped with streaming sil- living to decay. And now I hope once more, while Governor of my native State, was guilty face and indulging in pleasing or profitable revery ver, and catch the last smiles of departing day. in an early morning walk, to see grandeur in the of swindling the State out of some thirty thounow had lost its charm, and, at best, but served The light trembles for a moment on the topmost glorious sunrise, and beauty in the face of ver- sand dollars of the Washington Monument to awaken memories of joys forever departed, and leaves and then expires. How like this the dant nature; to hear music in the bird-song and Fund, entrusted to his care; while in Buchanan's of hopes never to be realized. As the great lamp mutability of every earthly hope and joy. The to feel invigorated by the bracing freshness of the Cabinet, in violation of his oath he stole, besides of the Universe slowly and majestically rose a- first is scarcely created in the human heart, ere hour. The effluvia of the violet and the helio- large amounts of bonds, the guns, forts and ambove the horizon, filling our hemisphere with it is blasted forever; the latter is scarcely tasted trope will again be fragrant, and I shall with munition of the Federal Government, to aid in floods of light. I was indifferent to the glory of ere the cup is removed from our lips and dashed pleasure cultivate the green growing corn. My carrying out this infamous Rebellion. Slidell, his coming, and experienced nought, save per- to the ground. haps, a deepening and wilening of those dark While thus musing, the golden lamp of day lonely and desolate heart, and the companion tion of soul in his life, assisted, while in the Ushadows of gloom and melancholy which now slowly sinks behind the western horizon, and re- ship of friends I shall again appreciate. As the uited States Senate, to pass through Congress environed my spiritual existence. With such signs the world to the gradual approaches of morning of my life has been boisterous and tur- that great swindle of the age, the "Houman's thoughts and feelings, I returned from my morn- night and darkness. And now all is so quiet, bulent, rather by giving loose rein to angry and Land Grant"-a swindle so gigantic, and a cheat ing stroll to partake of a frugal breakfast, and so calm, so serene; not a breath of air is stirring; unruly passions, than by the afflictions of adverse so enormous, that the next Congress revoked then begin the performance of the ordinary du- not a "catspaw" ruffles the clear, placid surface fortune, I trust it's erening will be calm and cool, the grant. Benjamin, your Secretary of War, ties of the day. Marvel not then if I said in the of our beautiful river; not the slightest movement peaceful and happy.

to business had been "arduous and difficult." has stood the test of a twelve years' trial before ty of the hour, invite me to repose and medita- once more I feit free from the combined powers then all is perfect quiet.

West Indies, at 75 cents per bottle. Be sure and but the wreck of my former self. Thus thinking ly along by the strong arm of the oysterman; we are designed.

phere as it was borne along by a gentle gale from pect of sundering the ties which for eighty years hand of Almighty God, and best descriptive of Thus I was taken out of the hands of a Majorthe far-off South, and made oderiferous by the have bound together the sections of a great Em- his Omnipotence-my soul becomes lost in won- General and of his Secretary of War by a worthperfume of a thousand flowers, would serve to pire-an empire built up under the special pro- der and utter amazement. I am told that I can less little Confederate lawyer, and thrown into dispel the deep shades of gloom that had settled tection of Almighty God as a home for the op- now behold but a very small part of his works; the common jail of this county; refused bail, around my heart, and scatter the murky mists pressed of all nations, and as a great political how wonderous then must be his entire creation! when the best the county affords was offered; of melanchoty that obscured my intellectual sky. school to indoctrinate the world in principles of As I for a moment contemplate the vastness of and up to this eventful hour, I have been denied. But all this was to no purpose, for my heart con- republican freedom and self-government, and for the universe, how humbled I am! how excess- a trial and an opportunity to defend myself betinued to ache, and my spirits were unrevived. the solution of great political problems-aimed ively mean I feel, and how mortified to think I fore the court condemning me to an ignominious As the grayness of the dawn slowly decayed, a terrible and horrid blow at constitutional free- ever should have cherished any conceited appre- death. The proof of all that is here charged will the fleecy clouds became tinged, and the dappled dom; which had it been successful, would have hensions of myself. Yet I read not here all that be found in the correspondence cited, which I appearance of the horizon changed to a deep and resulted in endless rum and unmitigated woe, and is most calculated to excite wonder and amaze- have placed in the hands of a friend for publicaardent blusn, as if the skies were ashamed to would have convinced the world that an intelli- ment, or fill my head with a deep and profound tion. It will show that these parties, one and find halt a world yet slothfully buried in the gent people can never be taught to govern reverence for the Deity; for by the great written all, have acted a treacherous part towards me, arms of slumber, while the song-birds were al- themselves. If the attempt at Secession should revelation of God's will to men, I am taught to and have violated their pledges and faith. Their ready on the wing, or, perched high on the tree- in the end prove unsuccessful, we cannot be too believe that however vast the extent, and mighty perfidy and treachery are absolutely disgraceful top, were pouring forth strains of sweetest melo- grateful to the great Governor of Nations for the the works of his (perhaps boundless) creation, his to their bogus Government, if, indeed, such a fills the immensity of space with his presence, shadows of objects, just before they become blend-spirit, and assuring me that I am a child of God, against this Gouernment he would have been in ed with the shadow of a world, are considerably and bidding me to "hope on, hope ever." If I prison had he not been pardoned by the Govern-In addition to this sensation of loneliness, I lengthened. These facts remind me of how in have lost the affections of loved ones by the cold or of that State.

beginning of this day's record, that my attention of the elm-leaves or locust-blossoms is percepti. Parson Brownlow's "Last Dying Speech ble, and the smoke from our kitchen chimney But these feelings and thoughts have now, as slowly ascends in a perpendicular line as if aimthe sun draws nearer the horizon, almost, if not ing to attain to the zenith of the skies. My ser-C.—, H.—, Friday, May 31st, 1862.—Another day is drawing near its close. Another myself before my Almighty Maker, and with a wend their way homeward with their last load, for delivery on the scaffold when he expected to The Proprietor in calling the attention of the day of anxious cares, business and bustle-of penitent heart confessed my sins, and implored is pouring forth with a stentorian voice, the last for delivery on the scaffold when he expected to sissippi member of Buchanan's cabinet, while troublous turmoil and angry strite-of bitter dis- his forgiveness. While struggling with the notes of his evening song, and the air for a mile be hung in Knoxville. The danger was imminent. Secretary of the Interior, was a partner in stealof the utmost confidence in its virtues and adap. appointment and blighted hopes—of sore tempta. burning passions and evil desires of my corrupt around is made vocal with the peculiar yet plain. Several Union men had already been executed, ing some Indian Trust Bonds, and, when about tion, wickedness and sin. Having performed heart, faith spring up, and in a moment the bur- live music of a negro melody. These last notes and the infuriated troops in camp and the liquor to be dismissed for the offence, fled from the the ordinary duties of the day, the refreshing den which had for so long embittered my existance about the town were clamorous for the Federal capital by night to avoid a prosecution.

tion. My attention to business through the day of the world, the flesh and of Satan. The strug- A little while ago, the fields and the pine low:has been arduous and difficult—rendered so by gle had been long, arduous and painful, and I woods, the river and the oaken grove, all glared Fellow Countrymen :- I have often addressed at a time when he was acting under oath, as the the most intense thought anxious, active and of times suffered myself to repine at the afflictive with intensest light; but now how changed, as many of you, upon different topics, but never head of the Treasury Department. Davis your most prominent and well known physicians and painful. I have suffered myself to indulge too providences of Almighty God; but my heart our continent becomes wrapped in darkening under circumstances like those which now sur- President, after his State had borrowed millions, industrial and well known physicians and treely in sad recollections. freely in sad recollections of the past, gloomy danced within me to the musical and soothing glooms. As the shades of approaching night round me, as I feel that I am speaking for the led the way in repudiation and defrauding Misand a careful perusal of the Almanac, published contemplations of the present, and as I sometimes whisperings of a divine influence that now en- seem to settle around us, the most profound si- last time. I suppose I have been sentenced to sissippi's honest creditor. Toombs, the big man lence begins to reign, and all nature seems to be hang by a court-martial sitting in this city; I say of your Government at Richmond, was the conof any of their Agents, cannot but satisfy the a mysterious future, I painfully indulged in most The trials of a day (I might say of a year) sinking in luxurious repose and undisturbed rest. I suppose so, for I have never had any trial, or federate of Keitt and Brooks, in their attempt to fearful forebodings of evils yet to come. With being now seemingly over, I accepted of the The entire animal creation seems to harmonize even a notice of a trial being in progress. So it assassinate Sumner. Swan, your Congressman the earliest dawn of Aurora, I was aroused from kindly invitation of old Dame Nature, and seat- with the quiet of inanimate nature. The pastures has been with those who have been executed be- from this District, and an original Secessionist, From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the disturbed slumber by an unhappy dream, and in ing myself in an easy chair beneath the shade of were jocund and sportive with life and gavety; fore me. It is alike a matter of indifference is the forger of the Johnson letters to Lawrence, a moment, I was painfully conscious of my utter the linden elm growing in front of our dwelling the gamesome lambs frolicked with unrestrained whether I was tried by that court-martial in my with a view to swindle the latter out of ten thous-Although not disposed to favor or recommend loneliness. This sensation of loneliness has long -which uniting its branches with those of the sportiveness and merriment. But now they are absence and in the absence of witness and coun-Patent Medicine in general, through distrust of since become morbid. For a while I suffered locust, formed a verdant canopy and cast a most wearied of their romps, and are lazily resting sel, or whether I had been present; the result them, are the men who originated and are carrytheir ingredients and effects, I yet know of no a most intense realization of the truth, that never refreshing shade—gave myself up to peaceful with their dams in the barn yard; the cattle with would have been death. The Judge Advocate, ing on this Southern Rebellion. Ought not any sufficient reason why a man may not testify to again am I to see ber who is now no more; nev musings. The little birds were pouring forth happy contentment, reposing on beds of straw, Thomas J. Campbell, is a perfidious man, as honest man prefer to hang rather than act with the benefit he believes himself to have received er again, when lying prostrate on the couch of their strains of sweetest melody in grateful ac-slowly chew their cud; the tired ploughman destitute of real honor and purity of purpose as such men in a wicked crusade against the mild from any simple preparation, in the hope that he disease, will her tapering fingers smooth my knowledgement of the goodness of their beneficent drags his wearied limbs from the field of his la- he is of true courage and manly virtue. weary pillow, or bathe my aching forehead; nev. creator. Before me lay stretched out a most bor and toll, and fully participates in the general Associated with him is James D. Thomas, a I do this the more readily in regard to "Hoof- er again will she share my joys, or alleviate my beautiful prospect, very suggestive of most pleas- rest prepared for him by nature and natures God. man who was expelled from the Methodist Min- with confidence that the United States Governlan's German Bitters," prepared by C. M. Jack- soriows; never again to live as the centre of all ing reflections. The fields of wheat were thickly As my attention is directed to all these, feelings istry for whipping his wife, and slandering his ment will crush this Rebellion during the comson, of this city, because I was prejudiced a my earthly affections, the motive power to my covered with luxuriant grain; a gentle gale, now of gravity pervade my spirits. How fit the hour venerable old father-in-law! This man Thomas ing spring and summer. Mark my prediction! gainst them for years, under the impression that every action, and the leading star of my existence; bending, now raising each flexile stock, opened for silent meditation! If my heart has been has advocated on the bench, in open court-marthey were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am never again to be near my side in whom to live, a way for the inroads of the sunbeams which through the day buoyant with high hopes; or, tial, the sending of the Union masses of East I must resign my self to my fate. indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for a while these agonizfor the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement and for e for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffer- ready sickened heart, I was forgetful of the many the yeoman's barn. The fields of clorer were deep- or, if my soul has aspired for worldly fame, per- and the hanging of the Union leaders here! — of a cold-hearted world. I hope the Union men and seek to favors which kind Heaven has lavished upon ly set in a standing repast for our cattle, where ishable honors or useless preferment, let now this Justice at the hands of such a set of men is the me, and believed myself to be the most unhappy our oxen and our horses are made strong to labor, buoyancy be checked, these idle longings be sub- last thing I would expect. Indeed, there is more impress their minds with what is true—that they ning of the present year, was followed by evident of men I forgot that the little one so quietly, so and from whence our "kine may bring home dued, these vain aspirations be restrained, and glory in being put to death by such men than in are not disgraced, but honored by my death. relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and innocently sleeping at my side was my own child; their udders distended with one of the richest let my thoughts be as grave and solemn as the being acquitted, after going through the forms of the richest let my thoughts be as grave and solemn as the being acquitted, after going through the forms of the richest let my thoughts be as grave and solemn as the being acquitted, after going through the forms of the richest let my thoughts be as grave and solemn as the being acquitted. Banner and let my children's I forgot that I was surrounded by numerous and healthiest liquors in the world." The for- close of the day, or the face of things around me. a trial. triends, that I am not assailed by the stings of rests lay bathing in the silvery light of a setting As we travel along the pathway of life; is it not left home children know that the last words I uttered on noverty, and that I am not assailed by the stings of rests lay bathing in the silvery light of a setting As we travel along the pathway of life; is it not left home children know that the last words I uttered on therefore thank God and my friend for directing poverty, and that I am above want. I thought Sun, affording lodging for the birds, and shade proper occasionally to step aside from the busy to avoid personal violence, and was out of the carth were: myseif alone-utterly alone, with none to love- for the beasts-every tree standing ready to "fur- scenes of active existence, and in solitude and leach of the mob, who could not find me, after that I should live on week after week and month nish timber for a palace, masts for a navy, or retirement, especially at this silent meditative repeated efforts by squads sent out, by that archafter month, without hope or joy; light for my with a more condescending courtesy, fuel for our hour of eve, and calmly, seriously consider the hypocrite and would be murderer, W. B. Wood, These medicines are for sale by all respectable soul, or love for my heart. Life had lost its every hearths." The broad waters of Mile's River begreat purposes of Almighty God in placing us of Alabama. In my concealment, I was information of the broad waters of Mile's River begreat purposes of Almighty God in placing us of Alabama. In my concealment, I was information of the broad waters of Mile's River begreat purposes of Almighty God in placing us of Alabama. In my concealment, I was information of the broad waters of Mile's River begreat purposes of Almighty God in placing us of Alabama. In my concealment, I was information of the broad waters of Mile's River begreat purposes of Almighty God in placing us of Alabama. Druggists and dealers in medicines in the Uni- charm; society had ceased to be congenial; my yound all these, bore upon their placid and un- here? What the great object, aim and end of ed, by a letter from Major-General Crittenden.

get the genuine, with the signature of C. M. Jackson on the wrapper of each bottle; all others tory, 131 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Thus thinking by along by the strong arm of the obsterman; we are designed.

While debating these questions, the scene jamin, to give me passports and a military escort within their crystal currents swim a variety of which I feebly attempted in the foregoing to on fire, I arose, unrested, unrefreshed, from my to the Federal Government; and I was invited leaving my room—as was my wont—I at serving at the same time a cheap and plenteous quently protects me from the heat of a midsum- hours, where he promised me that I should be mense vividness. And as we repeat it, we only tempted to engage in private devotion; but my supply of food for the poor man's table, and to mer's burning sun, being now no longer of ser- furnished with said passports. supplication was without faith-without hope tickle the appetite of the most fastidious epicure. vice, I leave; and looking upward, a new scene I was there within the time specified, accom- sudden approach of our forces upon the Crescent ARMERS and all interested are respectful. —and was but the cry of despair. I thought that Being now comfortably seated I let fancy by, presented itself. The blue ether of the starlit panied by Colonel Baxter; the arrangement was City, and the excitement incident thereto: ly invited to an examination of "the Cur. God had turned a deaf ear to my petition, and and allowed my thoughts to be exercised on a firmament is enlivened by the absence of the made, and the Company of Captain Gillespie I walked the streets both up and down; ware Store.' It is really something new, and we consider the store of the confidence in the atoming than the season or the scene; I mean our latesigwe think a reliable mean our latesigof a solar system of much greater magnitude than before sundown, I was arrested upon a warrant because of my lack of confidence in the atoming than the season or the scene; I mean our latesigof a solar system of much greater magnitude than before sundown, I was arrested upon a warrant because of my lack of confidence in the atoming round—
But the white folks, dey was running round—
But the white folks, dey was running round merits of the blood of his Son, and of the im- nal victories over intestine treason-victories our own, and a thousand times ten thousand issued by that disgraceful specimen of our nature. H. M. Nicols & Co. | proper manner in which I approached him; for which pour joy through the present age, and worlds, each revolving round some common cen- Commissioner Reynolds, upon the false oath of UMMEL'S PREMIUM ESSENCE OF approached his footstool with a heart full of will, perhaps, transmit their influnce through tre, may now be seen by the naked eye. The Attorney Ramsey, a corrupt man, for whom no doubt of the truth of the whole and every part of generations yet unborn. Our beautiful flag, nearest of these suns, or centres of systems, is of decent Secessionist entertains any respect. The fuss was about. "Why," says a nigger, "don't the great plan of salvation and a truth of the whole and every part of generations yet unborn. Our beautiful flag, nearest of these suns, or centres of systems, is of decent Secessionist entertains any respect. The BACON & STICKNEYS DANDELION the great plan of salvation, and at the same time emblem of unity, and painted with the blood of such immense and inconceivable distance from charge against me was treason, founded upon you know? it's noting, only) cherished inordinate affections, centred upon the heroes of '76, has been pulled down, insulted our earth, that a shot thrown from a cannon, and editorials, one of which has been published, in PATCHETT & WRIGHT. Objects which I had not nerve enough to nurren- and trailed in the dust; our haypy constitution, the flying with unabated rapidity, would have to part, by Ramsey, in the Knoxville Register; and der for Christ's sake. I then went out of doors, great palladium of our political liberty, has been continue its course for seren hundred thousand although the miserable man swore that the edi-UST received a large lot of Plough bolts, hoping in the stroll at this sweet hour of prime, most shamefully violated by contending political years to reach it. As my understanding begins torial was published since the tenth of June, at small, for points and heels of ploughs, price to be comforted by Nature's consolations; and parties, both North and South, for the accomplish- faintly to comprehend some small portion of the which time the State was voted out, my files that a taste of the freshness of the early morn, ment of the basest party purposes, and the boas- teachings of the great book of the skies—a book will show that it was published on the 25th of heads of tobacco have arrived in Cincianati from together with respiration of the pure atmost ted chivalry of the South, rejoicing in the prost written in huge yet glowing characters by the May.

dy, in praise of their Atmighty Maker. Despite special interposition of his providence in averting disinterested love of man is even greater than his Government can be disgraced.

restored to the world, to society, to my family, I agree to die! I never could sanction this Gov-little boy's prattle will once more cheer my once another intriguer, who never had an honest emo-

and Confession."

Parson Brownlow, in his recent speech in Bos-It is no new and untried article, but one that coolness of a late afternoon, and the calm sereni- tence, now fell from my wearied shoulders, and blood of the Parson. Under these circumstances | Cobb, the Georgia member of Buchanan's he prepared, in prison, the remarks which fol- cabinet, speculated in stocks, using Government and dollars. These and a host of others like ted States, Canadas, British Provinces, and soul no longer aspired, and I felt myself to be ruffled surface a fleet of little canoes urged swift- our life should be? What we are, and for what in command at this place, that he was instructed Song for the Season.—We have never unby the Secretary of War at Richmond, Mr. Ben- til hearing or the capture of New Orleans, been Southern ports.

for each subsequent insertion. Longer ones in proportion. A liberal deduction to yearly advertisers. Advertisements not marked the num ber of insertions desired, will be continued until forbid, and charged accordingly. Merchants and others who advertise by the year, will in no case be allowed to insert any advertisement not connected with their regular business, without an additional charge. All orders addressed to the editor, post-paid will receive prompt attention.

ADVERTISEMENTS,

and one of the men engaged in deceiving me, was expelled from a New England College for stealing money and jewelry out of the trunks of his fellow-students; he afterwards got into the Senate from Louisiana by turning from a Whig to a Democrat, and became the partner of Slidell in the Houman's swindle. Thompson, the Mismoney, and was detected in it-and all this was sway of the best Government on earth? But I must close. Solemn thought! I die

Star Spangled Banner, and let my children's "Forever float that standard sheet! Where breathes the foe that falls before us. With Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!"

ask the reader to imagine the gradual, and then

(So I stopped an' axed 'em what all dis ere "Picayune Butler's coming !-coming !

Picayune Butler's comming !-coming !-Oh! Picayune Butler's coming to town." During the past two weeks about 3,000 bogs-