

SATURDAY MORNING, - - - JULY 12, 1862.

EASTON, MD.

S. M. Pettengill & Co., No. 37 Park Row, New York, and 6 State St are our Agents for the GAZETTE, in those cities and are authorized to take Advertisements and Subscriptions for us at our Lowest Rates.

BUSINESS NOTICES. Merchants and others advertising by the year will be charged extra for advertisements out of their regular line of business. Marriages and Deaths inserted free, unless the obituary make over sen lines-then a charge of 50 cents per square (10) lines, will be made. days subsequent, was again the scene of one of those to as occurring on Monday afternoon was the battle paroxisms, so common among the unberry rictime.

of Secessionism in our community for the last twelve and a half miles on ground such that not one-tenth therefore hardly hope to do as well again. months. At about 10 o'clock on the day above of the field was in view from any one point of vismentioned, an unusual commotion might have been ion. Heintzelman's, Sumper's and Franklin's corps vey of the whole matter, the country at large is discerned in the street, a crowd of men commenced were there, and a portion of each of Keyes's and coming to view the situation of affairs as anyto assemble nearly opposite the Court House, and Porter's. They were the rear or right wing of the thing but discouraging. It is shown that although from the "noise and confusion" which prevailed it main army. We further learn from the Richmond the gallant troops suffered almost to the last de was evident that something of an unusual character papers that early on Tuesday the division of Jackson gree of possible endurance, from fatigue and overwas going on. It soon became apparent that a "Se- and Huger attacked McClellan's flank, along the iota of spirit, of cheefful courage, but, on the cesh" demonstration was on band, similar to those James River, while Magruder made a dash at the contrary, are only eager for fresh encounters, and which occurred several times during the past year. right. This battle of Tuesday is the one in which are full of confidence of their ability, with some It appears that a report had just been brought to General McClellan says the Rebels were soundly beat- needed reinforcements, of taking the Rebel Capitown, that Gen. McClellan and his staff had taken en refuge on the steamer Galena in the James River, and General McClellan on the Fouth of July, issued a had made a proposition to surrender himself and his stirring address to his army. It does not read like as it appears, despite all the mystification and entire army to the Rebel Gen. Lee. This announce- the address of a defeated General to a vanquished arment at once created the gratest FUEORE. "Secesh" my, but is full of life and determination. He tells in the aspect of affairs as presented of late. stock immediately rose to an enormous height, while his troops that against superior numbers, and with- this-that whilst the newspaper reports from the general joy was manifested in the most extrava- out hope of reinforcement they had succeeded in the seat of war have generally, and with almost gant exclamations at this wonderful result. A changing their base by a hazardous flank movement, the single exception of that furnished by the .4. stranger at this time would have had an excellent and though assailed day after day with desperate merican, been of the most gloomy character, al-"bird-eye", view of Secession as developed in the fury by an enemy skillfully massed and led, they had most every statement emanating from prominent town of Easton. We learn that one gentleman in every conflict beaten back their foes with enor- brought down his cane most emphatically on the more slaughter, and reached their new resilience. Whilst they admit the hazardous shipman, midshipman, captains and paymasters els marched out from Richmond one hundred the pursuit, advancing cautiously, but steadily. brought down his cane most emphatically on the pursue, and reached their new position compared the reverse. Whilst they admit the hazardous clerk, second and third assistant engineer, masand sixteen complete regiments, and they attacknature of the manœuvre, and, in fact, deplore its clerk, second and third assistant engineer, masand sixteen complete regiments, and they attacknature of the manœuvre, and, in fact, deplore its clerk, second and third assistant engineer, masand sixteen complete regiments, and shelling the forests and swamps in front as pavement, exclaiming "then gentlemen it sall over, plete in organization, unimpaired in spirit, having necessity, they exult in its marked success; and that finishes the business;" another said, "the Con- saved all their guns except a few lost in battle, and as a warrant for the view thus taken of it, point federate army are now doubtless on their way to taking in return guns and colors from the enemy .- to the terrible punishment inflicted upon the ene-Washington," a third exclaimed, joyfully, "ock ar- He tells them, further, that they are prepared to a- my. And as confirmatory of the views we have my will now soon be in Maryland." Interspersed gain meet the enemy upon the lines be has establish- advanced, and for fear the article may have been with all this tumult was an occasional cheer. for "Jeff. ed and to convert their repulse into a final defeat .-Davis' and "Beauregard," but by whom we have The Government, he says, is strengthening the arnot been able to learn. In the midst of all this ex- my with the resources of a great country, and be de- Gen. McClellan's army, in which they claim citement, some one or two Union men, doubtless pi- clares on its behalf to the Rebels that the tying the condition of their unfortunate fellow-citi- "Army shall enter the Capital of the so-called Con- following-as we deem them-substantial reazens, showed them the Baltimore American of the federacy-that our National Constitution shall pre- sons : preceding day, which contained a statement in its ternal peace and external safety to each State, must purpose of McClellan, viz : so to change his local columns, exposing the very canard which caus- and shall be preserved, cost what it may in time, base as to secure the co-operation of the gunboats. molify the existing excitement. Had it not been for These, we repeat, are not the words of a despair- accomplished by the enemy, viz: the prevention cated that all is quiet and the army in good this however, we are not at all certain that a town ing or defeated General. They are rather those of of McClellan's move for the James river bank, spirits. meeting would not have been called, measures adop- one who has fully tested the strength of his enemy, and securing our immense supplies at the White Capture of the Rebel Gunboat Teazer. the beginning of the war, and since the battle of Officers and men went down by hundreds; but "Secesh" flag which was displayed here some 12 him. months since, run up to the breeze, if perchance it was still in existence. The enthusiasm however, was kept up during the entire day, and in the after- admits that the Rebels were out-generaled by tion, two for one on our side. noon, just previous to the arrival of the stramboat, McClellan's movement across the Chickahominy, and expenditure of munitions cannot be replac- Address of Gen. McClellan to the Army large numbers proceeded to the landing, hoping to and that "the glory and fruits of our (their) vic- ed, whilst ours can, instanlly almost. bear a confirmation of the news. As the boat near- tory" was "seriously diminished" by this "grave "5th. In the relative condition in which the ed the wharf the crowd assembled in front and wait- mishap or fault." The same print puts the num- battles left the sick and wounded of the two coned with breathless anxiety the result. The captain ber of prisoners who had been brought to Rich- tending forces. Our wounded and sick all bewas bailed, and in response to their inquiry stated mond at four thousand five hundred. General ing like rotten sheep, through their entire lack of ted the valor and endurance of the American ing like rotten sheep, through their entire lack of ted the valor and endurance of the American that there were no papers and no news later than Sumner, the Examiner says, is wounded and a any and every description of hospital stores and soldier. Attacked by superior forces and with All the enthusiasm and high wrought anticipations prisoner: This probably refers to Gen. McCall. supplies; and thus creating a state of things in and around Richmond appalling to the whole ed in changing your base of operations by a flank of the day had come to nothing, and the whole party returned to town, sadder, although we cannot tion urging the prompt response of Maryland to say, wiser men. The following day, Sunday, was the call for additional troops. Governor Bradone of comparative quiet, owing to the exhaustion ford ably and concisely states the paramount contakes two well ones to carry him off the field, Upon your march you have been assailed day takes two well ones to carry him off the field, of the day before, and also to the fact that the schoosiderations which should influence our State in and so throws them out of combat for the time, after day with desperate tury by men of the same besides discouraging an army greatly by the race and nation, skilfully massed and led. Unweekly trip. On Monday morning, however, it was the present crisis, and shows that the one great besides discouraging an army greatly by the race and nation, skilfully massed and led. Unevident that the symptoms of Saturday were return-ingular crowdal large to collect on the cidencia. and that until it is punished and suppressed to ing; large crowds began to collect on the sidewalk; and that until it is punished and suppressed no upon late results, especially taken in connection beaten back your foes with enormous slaughter the more sanguine secesh sympathizers arowed their attention should be paid to the minor issues with with the other substantial reasons adduced.—

Your conduct ranks you among the celebrated They are subsisting on what is terined half ra
It must not be inferred from the above account the substantial reasons. government had suppressed it; the newspapers of friends. Friday were brought out, readers selected and the crowd edified by extracts which were supposed to give plausibility to this view of the question. As the Baltimore papers of Thursday that Judge R. the reading proceeded, peal upon peal of laughter B. Carmichael and I. C. W. Powel, Wm. H. but expect a good account from it.

attendant otherwise on their presence with it, and and unimpaired in spirit. The enemy may, at thus, all ready for further operations, we cannot but expect a good account from it.

attendant otherwise on their presence with it, and and unimpaired in spirit. The enemy may, at thus, all ready for further operations. Since the occupation of but expect a good account from it.

and unimpaired in spirit. The enemy may, at thus, all ready for further operations, we cannot but expect a good account from it.

At the Calcal P. M. the last gap was fired. saluted the ear, similar to that of an audience on Nabb and A. A. Pascault, and other State pris- In view of all this, we insist, then, once more let them come, and we will convert their repulse witnessing the performances of a clown at a circus. oners have been removed from Fort McHenry to that the partial panic based on the receat opera- into a final defeat. Confidence was again established and about 4 o'- Fort Lafayette. The statement in reference to clock large numbers of the faithful were waiting the Mr. Pascault is incorrect, as he was released American people would only remember that the lion's birthday we declare to our foes, who are arrival of "Bob's" messenger, hoping to hear of the several weeks ago, by taking the oath of alle- financial centres of the country abound with Rebels against the best interests of mankind, that time the messenger arrived and the papers distributed, when the awful fact was announced, that Me- from a private letter, dated on board al arms; that they magnify it, trumpet it abroad, pievail, and that the Union, which can alone Clellan, instead of surrendering, had successfully ex- Commodore Farragut's flag ship on the 29th ult. for the sake of speculation in public securities of insure internal peace and external security to | ecuted his flank movement, repulsing his enemies an interesting account of the operations of our falsehoods are welcomed by them with the ut. What it may, in time, treasure and blood. no less than six times and defeating them on the last fleet up to that date before Vicksburg is given. most eagerness—they would be slower to credit occasion (Tuesday) with great slaughter. The re- No mention is made of General Butler's canal these frequent stories of reverses—they would by which a new channel of the Mississippi was not thus suffer themselves to be plucked by these lapse. Those who came from the country discoverto be opened, but it was understood on the arrivAnd now, the question occurs: how long as one o'clock, P. M., on Friday, July 4. The street corners were suddenly reminded that pressing by a combined army and navy assault. engagements required them elsewhere. In a word, they all "skeedaddled." So ended this last exhibition of Secesh insanity.

It appears that the rumors which caused all this clamor originated at the Stock Exchange, in Baltimore for the purpose of speculating in United States qual in number to his losses during the seven the very outset of this conflict? and, although seventeen are now in James river, protecting the available troops at Richmond, except so much woods on the west of the field lay, in about expected the seven the seven woods on the west of the field lay, in about expected the seven the sev timore, which he doubtless obtained from the above source. We perceive that the authors of the report in Baltimore have been arrested and sent to Fort McHenry, and we think it time that the government had taken in hand and punished all who originate or circulate these infamous and unfounded rumors. So far as our own community is concerned they have proved in every case utterly false, and jet the credulous victims of these canards are just as ready to receive the next one that may be started, as if they time there has arrived at the port of New York would have been any more certain of "recogni o is for some ,chimney-sweep to stand on the street corner and sing out "Jackson's in Maryland," and man from Prince George's county, Md., was a we to include in these cowardly fears? how ly suffered less than the enemy, who was literal-Richmond on Tuesday night. instantly we will have a repetition of the above dis- mong the Confederate killed in the battle near dare we do so when we think of our children- ly butchered, but our own loss is, nevertheless, graceful scenes. All that we can do is to pitty their Richmond, on the 26th ult. infatuation, and wait patiently until events shall awaken them to a sense of the reality.

safety of his army, all are now beginning to fairly understand the affairs before Richmond, and find of "mediation" in American affairs. been discounted in advance, we are justified in looking upon matters from a more encouraging point of of the James river flotilla.

of Gen. McClellan in changing the base of his operations in the very face of the enemy and the difficulplete satisfaction of its commanders and with a per-be driven from the field by the utmost efforts of the enemy. The conduct of the troops in every com- phraseology adopted-it was called a "retreat" mand, and under all circumstances, was admirable. of the National troops; when, in truth, it was Friday, June 27, when Gen. McCall's Division was,

Richmond Examiner, the editor of which was in the loss here on our (Rebel) side was terrible." Despairing of carrying the situation, General Hill retir-

605- Governor Bradford has issued a proclama- South."

al of reinforcements the place would be attacked will this severe lesson last our people? After following is their substance, omitting military and a large portion of his army corps is on the er of a great Government like this, whose might slaughter. by this time probably received reinforcements ewhole civilized world, grown in strength from whole civilized world, grown in strength from seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river, protecting the lates and the most seventeen are now in Lames river.

will be promptly responded to. The country is nationality, cease to give way to these follies, to forts of the enemy. The conduct of the troops whole division on land. They admit that the Great numbers of horses were killed on both

WE learn from the Clerk of Carotine county. that Judge Carmichael, a few days ago, sent

005- Commodore Wilkes is put in the command

Army Before Richmond.

fect slaughter of the enemy. Despetches from Gen. Sift the accounts that come in from our own richly deserve; let press and politicians and peostate that the army now occupies a position afford. What we have since been furnished by the Riching greatly superior advantages for the co-operation mond papers, and nothing is plainer than that A 7. H. of our gunboats, of which seventeen are now in the the Rebel host suffered a most signal and disas-James river. Our forces, Gen. McClellan says, trous repulse. . The only feature that could at the "Were not beaten in any conflict, nor could they first glance have indicated anything else was the

at the onset, overwhelmed by superior numbers, and tions, a mere manaurre, hazardous, it is true, as twenty-five pieces fell into the hands of the enemy." are all great changes of the kind in the face of Of the heavy losses of the enemy, and their un- determined and superior force, but yet, when doubted defeat, on Monday and Tuesday, we have successful in this case, constituting a real trithe confirmation of their own admissions. The umph. In this regard, all that has been written since the first account of the affair appeared in the Interican has only gone to confirm the subfight and had his arm shattered by a bullet, says stance of what was then stated; and in the cheerthat the fight of Monday afternoon was most severe ful view, of the result then given, there is nothing The divisions of Hill and Longstreet drove the Union to take back, hastily furnished as it was from forces back a mile and a half, when the Unionists amidst the excitement and confusion incident to were reinforced and made another stand, and "the the scene of operations so vast in their character We have said that it was the Rebel force that They had calculated to overwhelm with accumued amid vociferous cheers from all the Union lines. lated numbers, thrown upon the field from time "The loss of life," the Examiner adds, "exceeds that to time in fresh masses, the extended right wing The New Pension Law for the Present of any other battle or series of battles yet fought." of the Army of the Potomac, and it must be con-One Rebel division which went to the field on Fri- fessed that all that self-sacrifice and persistent day fourteen thousand strong had only six thousand courage could accomplish they achieved. But OUR town on Saturday last, and for several effective men on Tuesday. The fight here referred opposed by thorough discipline and good generparoxisms, so common among the unhappy victims of White Oak Swamp, extending along a line of two of Secessionism in our community for the last twelve and a half miles on ground such that not one-tenth of their forces have been sacrificed, and that they can and privates, employed in the military service,

It is cheering to know that, on a calmer sur-

This, we say, is the latest aspect of the case, croaking of which it has been so fruitful.

overlooked in the body of our last issue, we have reproduced from the Washington Star some late the recent battles as "Union rictories," and for Capture of the Gunboat Teazer.

wounded, and prisoners, and men otherwise put 00- An article from the Richmond Examiner, hose de combat, was, at the very lowest calcula-

-that one wounded foe embarrasses an antago- your guns except a few lost in battle, taking in The conscription there is a reality.

tions of the army before Richmond was needless. Your Government is strengthening you with sordid men, on the watch all the time to serze this army shall enter the Capital of the so-called upon the slightes, apparent reverse to the Nation- | Confederacy; that our National Constitution shall every kind; that a batch of wholesale rumors or each State, must and shall be preserved, cost what has so often occurred, will they not accus operations not proper for present publication. presence of the always timid or the too sanguine, Statements of the casualties in the severe bat-

Finnally, the army needs something besides gun. we believe of Captain Ayre's, and several contract with the Government by which he a- battle-field differed in appearance from any of ordinary stores and ammunition of war that it others in various parts of the field. We could grees to raise the vessels sunk at Gosport Navy the preceding days. In the track of the ene-Although the country was in suspense for some days in reference to General McClellan's move—that county, to pext October.

I and and prisoners, it amounts to over a million of dollars, and consists and no wasted commissary stores. The had consists and no wasted commissary stores. The had consists and no wasted commissary stores. Lord Palmerston has reiterated in the British never sustain any serious reverses. But if it spite all the enemy's attempts to cut us off therey sees the country lacking faith in it, if it has to from. In failing to do this he suffered the retreat, stand up against the efforts of its foes, with no whereas in the pitch of battle we beat him back words of cheer from its friends, it is subject to a with immense loss, and so crippled that he was degree of injustice as it is unwarrantable. Just- either unable or unwilling to fire a gun next day. ly proud itself of its late exploits, it has met lit- The gunboats Arastook and Galena are entitled ties and hard fighting the army had to encounter Richmond, the more plainly does it appear that and, to the extent of its deliberate undertaking, duce a panic among them. from superior numbers, in making such a change, the success in all its essential points was on the triumphant! Let the nation in sheer justice to A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer cur gallant troops, accept this view of the case; furnishes the following additional particulars: side of General McClellan and his gallant troops. Let them have the verdict-"well done"-they so McClellan to Washington on Friday of last week, side as closely as we may, and then add to these ple cease to press upon them words of needless detach our divisions, and crush them in detail.—

and sunk at the Navy Yard in great haste. They condolence, when, in fact, the congratulations of General McClellan was everywhere through the now he in about thirty feet of water, and it is the people should ring out like a trumpet call to fight, directing reinforcements to be sent whereencourage them to further gallant efforts.—Batti- ever the front seemed weakest. General McCall, lies in eleven fathoms of water, and it is the inmore American,

GEN. McCall in Richnond-He is Slightly manders named, and within supporting distance will be partially submerged by being partly filled Wounded .- The Richmond papers announce the of them all. arrival in that city of General, McCall, I have At four o'clock in the afternoon dispatches from the best authority the following facts rela- were received at headquarters that the enemy of steam pumps, bring her up. It will be recol-No guus have been lost since the engagement on more properly a mere change of the base of opera- tive to the capture of our brave Philadelphia were being successfully repulsed at all points General. During the battle he had been wound- with the exception of General Kearney's, wh ed slightly, my informant thinks, in the arm, but reported that the enemy were to strong for him, the injury was not sufficiently severe or painful and were forcing him from his position. to cause him to leave the field.

his pistol or sword, he was a prisoner. The Aid ty. escaped, but not without having a volley dis-

Both Houses of Congress have just agreed on whether regulars, volunteers or militia, and in seen to fall from his horse, mortally wounded in the marine corps, since the 4th of March, 1861: His staff gathered around him, and begged to and privates; eight dollars per mouth. The pen- Cali, was moratally wounded. month; professor of mathematics, master, assis- in Richmond.

Provision is made in case of death for the wid- past five days. ow or children to receive the pension.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

vice, eight dollars per month.

ARMY. Washington, July 6. - Advices from the Ar-boat Teazer, on the 4th instant. Very impor-of the Potomac. HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, CAMP NEAR HARRISON'S LANDING, July 4, 1862, [Soldiers of the Army of the Potomac! - Your and around Richmond appalling to the whole ed in changing your base of operations by a flank movement, always regarded as the most hazard-If an assertion credited to Beauregard be true ous of military expedients. You have saved all housed comfortably in the hospitals of perhaps each of you may always, with pride, say I behalt a dozen different cities, whilst the Army of long to the Army of the Potomac." You have abundance of bacon, rice and corn, but no salt ted fire of our cannon and musketry, both before REMOVAL OF STATE PRISONERS.—We see by the Potomac is thus relieved from the anxiety reached this new base complete in organization nor coffee, nor other small stores that go to make and subsequent to our efforts to storm the enemy may, at

GEO. B. MCCLELLAN, [Signed] Major General Commanding,

There are already abundant indications is there a nation on earth to-day that dares at the of eight days cannot yet be furnished. Our that the call of the President for additional troops tack it? Let us, for the credit of a yet splendid forces were not beaten in any conflict, nor could see that the call of the President for additional troops tack it? their vain fears—exciting the pity, perhaps some- forts of the enemy. The conduct of the troops recent movement of Gen. McClellan was a massides, and the sight of their disfigured carcasses prepared to put at least one hundred thousand thing worse, of our friends—encouraging to new in every comamnd and under all circumstances terly stroke of policy, and that his present posi- and the stench proceeding from them added more men in the field within the present month. insolence our foes. Had the Army of the Po- was admirable. No guns have been lost since tion is infinitely stronger than the one he aband- much to the loathsome horrors of the bloody field. Movements of Specie.—Up to the present bodily, as the result of the late conflicts, who eral McCall's Division was at the onset over-tion," of success, than they are at present? If The battle of White Oak Swamp was scarce- putations with only cold water and bandages. we have made up our minds that defeat, in the ly second to that of Gaines' Hill in point of loses The reported death of Stonewall Jackson is KILLED.-Dr. Washington Hilleary, a young end, is an utter impossibility, what right have of life, wounded and prisoners. We undoubted united. Dr. Oliver saw him alive and well in where discernible through the forests. In some or all that depends upon needed stability in a enormous. We lost all of Mott's battery but a THE WRECKS IN HAMPTON ROADS.—T. F. four feet in thickness, were burst open and split single gun, the whole of Randall's battery, one Welles, Esq., of this city, has just completed a to every shreds. In one remarkable respect this view. Notwithstanding the gigantic undertaking The Summing up of the News from the tle else than words of pity-pity verging, almost the mest unbounded credit. They came into | Congress upon insult, as it has striven through as owa action just at the right time, and did first-rate officers to make the nation aware that it was not service. The rebels have so long held our gun-The more we learn of the recent battles near whipped, but that it was in reality successful, boats in awe that their mere presence will pro-

with the Pennsylvania Reserves, was stationed tention of the contractor to raise her by means of in the rear of the several points held by the com- four whaleships of four hundred tons each, which

Word was immediately sent to General Mc-Some hours after, accompanied by an Aid, he Call to advance to his relief, which his men did rode into a piece of woods for the purpose of or- on the double-quick, notwithstanding their pre- diving apparatus. dering a body of our troops he believed to be vious fatigue and exhaustion. They were soon there to fall back, when a party of Rebels sud- engaged in the thickest of the fight, which grew denly advanced and ordered him to halt. At the hotter, as every moment brought fresh troops commencing the work. He will employ some. same instant one of the vandals seized his horse from Richmond to replace those whom our by the rein, and, before the General could draw brave Reserves were levelling with terrible rapidi-

The cannon cut whole lines down, and opened charged after him. Fortunately, none of the great gaps through the advancing masses, but suffered a repulse, and everything confirms it.— balls struck him.—Correspondence Philadelphia still they came on, fresh regiment after regiment, until our gallant and bleeding men were overpowered by exertion and decimated by the dead ly volleys of the enemy. Had we but received reinforcements, our guns would not have been We understand he is to commence operations at lost. As it was, it was impossible to hold them against the superior numbers thrown upon our

> Lieutenant colonel, and all officers of a nigher be allowed to bear his body to a place of quiet rank, thirty dellars per month; major, twenty- and safety. "No," said he, "let me die on the TERRIBLE SLAUGHTER OF THEREB. five dollars per month; captain, twenty dollars field," and in the momentary confusion which per month; first lieutenant, seventeen dollars per the fall of their beloved leader made, his division month; second lieutenant, filteen dollars per was slowly driven back. Almost at the same [From the Richmond Examiner of Friday, July month; and non-commissioned officers, musicians time, Captain H. J. Biddle, aid to General Mc-sion for total disability for officers. tearrant or Still the contest raged more madly, the efforts pelly officers, and others employed in the naval of his men to reach him being almost frantic .service of the United States, shall be as follows. In this desperate charge the loss of life on both viz: Captain, commander, surgeon, paymaster, sides exceeds anything that has occurred since and chief engineer, respectively ranking with com- the contest commenced. The dead lay in piles played in the action of General Jackson and mander by law, lieutenant commanding and mas- as high as tents. Among the slain were Lieuter commanding, thirty dollars per month; lieu-tenants J. H. Kuhn and W. M. Watmouth .-It is tenant, surgeon, paymaster, and chief engineer, re- General Meade was severely wounded in the gruder and the troops under his command. We spectively ranking with lieutenant by law, and abdomen, and General Reynolds was taken pris- now propose to give such particulars as we have passed assistant surgeon, twenty-five dollars per oner. It is since ascertained that he is unhurt obtained on the field after the battle.

twenty dollars per month; first assistant engineers more severe than that of any preceding day. Our before, continued his retreat in a southeasterly and pilots, fifteen dollars per month; passed mid- whole army was more or less engaged. The reb- direction towards his gunboats on James river. ters' mate, and all warrant officers, ten dollars ed our lines in fine order. They have followed and shelling the forests and swamps in front as per month; all petty officers, and all other per- us up after each day's fighting, and have dis- he progressed. This method of advance was sons before named employed in the naval ser- played admirable generalship. Their loss is es- kept up throughout the morning and until four timated at near thirty-four thousand during the o'clock P. M., without coming up with the en-bles them to fill up the gaps and press our army. Our own loss is variously estimated at from seven to thirteen thousand killed, wounded, straggling artillery, of about fifty pieces, could be plainly and missing. Beauregard and Jackson have certainly reinforced Lee, and the rebels have now fighting force of 150,000 men.

IMPORTANT STATEMENT OF A REFUGER.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 6 .- Intelligence has Bull Run has been acting as Assistant Surgeon yet, undaunted and unwavering, our line dash-"3d. In the fact that the Rebel loss in killed, been received here of the capture by our gun- in the Rebel army, reached Washington on Sun- ed on until two thirds of the distance across the boats in a bend of James river of the Rebel gun- day. He had persistently relused to take the field was accomplished. Here the carnage from the oath of allegiance to the Rebel Government, but withering fire of the enemy's combined artille was compelled to do so ou Tuesday last. He ry and musketry was dreadful. Our line wavered was detailed in charge of twenty-five ambulances a moment and tell back to the cover of the woods filled with wounded to go to Lynchburg. Be- Twice again the effort to carry the position was ing possessed of the countersign, he determined renewed, but each time with the same result.to take advantage of the existing confusion to Night, at length, rendered a further attempt inget away. He bribed a negro in Richmond to judicious, and the fight until ten o'clock was kept swap clothes with him, and after passing the up by the artillery of both sides. To add to the pickets by means of the countersign, he tramped horrors, if not the dangers or the battle, the eneto Fredericksburg and got, into the lines of the my's gunboats from their position at Curl's Neck. Union army at that point. He has had a good two and a half miles distant, poured on the field opportunity to observe the condition of affairs in continued broadsides from their immense rifle population of the South, between the ages of fif- suggested, whether any serious loss was inflicteen and forty have been forced into the army .- ed on us by the gunboats, the horrors of the willingly, and would gladly get away from the ploded with a concussion which seemed to shake tyranny of the Davis autocracy. Dr. Oliver has the solid earth itself. The moral effect on the been in Richmond for the last two months. The Yankees of these terror-inspiring allies must hundred and fifty thousand. They admit a loss consisted their greatest damages to the army of tions, by which is meant only the substantials, that the slaughter was all upon our side. We communication with Texas, their supplies of At ten o'clock P. M., the last gun was fired beef are brought from Florida, where there is an from our side. Each side held the position ocis pretty well exhausted.

will not be promptly responded to by volunteers, been examined and dressed, they were sent to this but that there will be sufficient delay to afford an city. opportunity for foreign intervention before they During the morning the enemy evacuated his are forced to give up. Dr. Oliver says the Reb- position and retreated, still bearing in a southretreats in the field, and that in every battle reig- ing to lessen the distance between him and his tom themselves to face events more bravely? There had been no fighting since Tuesday ter having fought for a little while. In this way The battle-field, surveyed through the cold rain OF General Burnside is at Fortress Monroe will they not learn that needed faith in the pow-of Beauregard's army as stopped at Charleston, qual numbers, the blue uniformed bodies of the and about 35,000 of the same army left in Mis- enemy. Many of the latter were still alive, havsissippi. The Rebels are terribly alraid of the ing been left by their friends in their indecent time this year $21,750,000 in specie has left the supposes for one moment that that event, even, pieces fell into the hands of the enemy.

20 gun ship. 84 " " 44 . 44 Columbia United States 50 " "

.Ply mouth Germantown Cumberland Dolphin

2 new Rebel steamers-water boat, powder boat The two new Rebel steamers, it will be recol-The rebels fought with desperation, hoping to lected, were all ready for sea, and were scuttled with water, and then after attacking to the sunk. en ship will, by means of the rise of tide and use lected the Merrimac was plated with eight bundred tons of iron, all of which, it is expected. will be recovered. The Congress and Cumber.

> will, without doubt, be recovered by means of The undertaking involves an outlay by the contractor of some sixty thousand dollars before thing like two hundred men, among whom will be twenty divers, who will descend to the sunk. en ships in the Wells & Gowen submarine armor. Such of the ressels as are not raised will be blasted with gunpowder, and all the materal that is of value recovered.

land each had iron sales aboard, containing respectively $35,000 and $18,000 in specie, which

The contractor is the same party who raised the steamer Ene from Lake Erie in 1854, and has been engaged in other submarine operations. once, and is to receive forty-five per cent, salvage

REBEL ACCOUNTS.

THE BATTLE OF TUESDAY AS DESCRIBED BY THE RICHMOND EXAMINER.

"The battle or Tuesday was perhaps the fier. cest and most sanguinary of the series of bloods conflicts that have signalized each of the last ser. en days. We have already adverted to the part others, but, as yet, have made little mention of the oparations upon the occasion of General Ma.

Early on Tuesday morning the enemy, from tant surgeon, assistant paymaster and chaplain, The fight on Monday is represented as being the position to which he had been driven the night my. But between four and five o'clock our Our artillery has made sad havoc among their troops reached a large open field, a mile long and ranks, but their preponderance in numbers ena- three-quarters in width, on the tarm of Dr. Carter. The enemy were strongly entrenched in a > dense forest on the other side of this field. seen bristling on their freshly constructed earth works. At ten minutes before five o'clock P. M., Gen. Magruder ordered his men to charge across the field and drive the enemy from their position. Gallantly they sprang to the encouster, rushing into the field at a full run. Instant-Dr. D. G. Oliver, tormerly of Grant county, ly from the line of the enemy's breastworks a Wisconsin, recently of Holly Springs, Mississip- mu.derous storm of grape and canister was buried Richmond. He states that the entire white male guns. Though it is questionaule, as we have fight were aggravated by the monster shells, Numbers who are in arms are doing duty un- which tore shricking through the forests and ex-Rebel force in Virginia is estimated at fully two have been very great; and in this, we believe.

abundance of wild cattle. The stock of whiskey cupied when the fight begun, and during the remainder of the night each was busily engaged Dr. Oliver says the greatest depression be ob- removing their wounded. The rumble of the served was produced by the intelligence that enemy's ambulances and wagons, in rapid and President Lincoln had called out three hundred hurried motion did not cease even with the dawn. thousand additional troops. The opinion pre- At ten o'clock Wednesday morning they were vailed that if these troops should be promptly still busy, and discontinued their labors, not be furnished the Rebel game would be ended. They cause their wounded had been removed, but for have exhausted their resources for soldiers, and fear of our advance. Our wounded were carried would be unable to contend against a fresh army from the field directly to the farm-houses in the of that size. Their only hope is that this call neighborhood, whence, after their injuries had el plan of fighting is not with reserves, but by easterly direction, and apparently not attemptdently, before reaching this point, thrown away everything that could retard his hasty retreat. Nothing was to be found on this portion of the field but killed and wounded Yankees and their guns and knapsacks. Gold was at 16 cts., premium at N.Y., yesterday ICK HEADACH PERFEC PHILADE

DR. C. M. JACKSO troubled from childh Sick Headache, acco mon and painful o sought relief for eigh the persuasion of m greatly benefited by .Hoofland's German grarified to be able to fected a perfect cure. was formerly very in ly restored, and I fee. Yours truly

MRS. C Ask for Hoofland's v druggists and stor village in the United South America, at 7: DEN

J. N. Bai HAS the pleasure that he may be found several weeks from t of attending to the de

DR. o D o Is invaluable for cl

TEETH and GUMS ACHE and all NEU It imparts a delightfu Prepared by J. N. feb l-ly MAF

Sales as follows: WHEAT-Fair to pri Cons-White, Oars-Maryland.

MARI CAREY-PRICE .-Easton, on the 10th ler, Thomas E. Care of this county. DATH BRICK-

TUST received by I Macaroni—fresh der. (ju 12) CAN

TOR BATHING perior bathing large and small piece The Hiel

THE collectors fo tnake their rep soon as possible. MOILET WATE In plain and ha Patchowly

Jockey Club, Jast Millefleurs, Geranium. Sweet Briar. Mar Just received and for TRURNIP SEEDS by (jul2) CAM Purple Top Strap Large White Nor

Dales' Hybrid. Purple Top Yeilo Luceerne and M Drumhead and Flat Easton Ban

Yellow Aberdeen

NOTICE is here! of this Instituti place at the Banking day of August next, b 3 o'clock, for the pu tors to serve for the e july 12-3t S Statement of E land, Mond

Bills Discounted, Stock Purchased, Real Estate. Costs of Suits. Expenses. Notes of other Banks Due from other Bank

Depos

ju 12-lt S 🔟 F NEW TUST received per

Ladie's Paris corsett GEM HOOP SK which is decidedly th for sale by GLOVES.-Just

of Hosiery, Gl

of Ladie's and Gents Kid Gloves, Gents Ladies' Mohair Mitt of the best quality, f GENTS VESTS liste thread and cotto and for sale by

COLLARS.-Pa black and fancey No sale by STRAW HATS. ply of chip and Gerr straw, which makes for men and boys, a FLOUR AND B the best brands of C Family Flour, and J of country bacon in

> CONCENT and for sale low by