

EATURDAY MORNING. - - AUGUST 2, 1862.

EASTON, MD.

S. M. Pettengill & Co.,

No. 37 Park Rose. New York, and 6 State St.

are our Agents for the GAZETTE, in those cities. and an authorized to take Advertisements and Subscriptions for us at our Lowest Rates.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

their regular line of business.

than heretofore. The government has been act- ful orators to greater exertion. ing with the leniency that a father would to a On Friday, M. Spencer, Esq., who for a heart of hearts, was as true and loyal to the na- our volunteers and their families. That un- ryland, and that we here pledge ourselves in per- and letters are on their way from Liverpool to disobedient child until forbearance has ceased to number of years has so ably conducted the Clas- tion of which she was the centre as any people questionably will be carried out, and in conjunc- son and property to support the Government in London, it would be rash in the extreme to at the a virtue and moderate means, instead of win- ical department, examined his students. In this upon the utmost verge of its circumference.— tion with the bounty which the Government of the prosecution of this war till every rebellious tempt such a description of affairs as may ma ning its enemies and bringing forth praises for department, examined its students. In this department the scholars are well drilled and their indicated the patriotism of your State was eximply acts, it has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your State was eximply acts, it has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your State was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicated the patriotism of your state was eximply acts. It has given fresh indicat courage to those in arms against it and the more to make them understand what they read. emboldened those whose hearts are not stout e-! nough to take part in the fight but show their lower room was well tilled with ladies and genthose who are fighting to separate our country into Ruins of Palmyra" in a masterly manner. petty governments, has received protection when that of the loyal man, who perhaps has given his Life a sacrifice for his country's good, has been lope's orders all the male inhabitants of the vilLife a sacrifice for his country's good, has been loyal state but Maryland, about which I desire to say a word, and that is

News Items.—In pursuance of General fectual blows upon so many Revolutionary batloyal state but Maryland has been deprived of—the necessary quota on the part of Maryland toture to make provision for the inevitable expentrievable disasters which had proved the mean fectual blows upon so many Revolutionary batthe fields—can it ever be said that Maryland, about which I desire to say a word, and that is destroyed. Yet Rebel-sympathizers say they lage of Luray have been arrested, and will be with these memories of the past clustering so the expediency of a draft. are oppressed. Every guarantee of protection required to take the oath of go beyond the army thickly about her-Maryland, that even up to Now, I might dispose of that question, so far ryland quota by volunteers, in our opinion the Federals have really suffered reverses and losses. to both life and property has been given in case lines. General Sigel's advance guard of cavalry this day and moment, feels herself offended at as I am officially concerned, by mentioning a President should call on the militia to fill the de- which make the possession of Richmond hope. nation that enough men shall be had for any e- the Rebel General Ewell's lines at Stannards energency that the country may require. Al- ville. though our army has gone forth in the enemy's From Kentucky we have reports of guerilla States. Is this the proper mode by which to Kentucky Regiment, who drove them back to prosecute a war wherein success entirely depends Home Guard and completely routed, losing all cupon the greatest advantages secured? By such their horses, with eight killed and forty-eight orous and manly action. I cannot, therefore kind. [Applause.] I feel authorized to say to Resolved, That while confiscation and emanci- exchanger. He gains, or thinks he gains, by the means the loyal States are furnishing means for prisoners. Another party of guerillas had taken er obstacles to contend with in loyal States .- ! As for instance there are those living in this State who are disloyal, and as has been clearly evinced York, we have Liverpool dates to the 20th inst. the assistance of my fellow-citizens to furnish liminary to the process of drafting; and that prelim- heartily approve of the policy of confiscating the themselves equal to the emergency." on several occasions in our streets, should an oc- Mr. Lindsay's motion for the recognition of the the quota of troops required, and more particulinary is about to be exercised. What may fol- property of the leaders of the rebellion, and decasion offer, all the aid in their power would be Rebel Confederacy and mediation in American have reached me either through the public prints. ted, upon matters to be hereafter developed, but obligation to obey those who refuse to obey the given to assist the Rebel cause. What is the affairs had been debated in the House of Com- or the various suggestions and different plans my friends, I must be permitted to say, speak- laws of the land. The crushing of the rebellion being determined on, war as a foregone conclusion, but still thought be accomplished. ,can any sane mind suppose for a moment that that "the present position of the contest would ment of the West have pure total and the Star applaud Lord Palmerston's views disposition to render aid to the Rebels, either to pronounces Richmond "for the present disentake the oath of allegiance or go beyond the lines. vent any mishap to the grand army of the Union. the 22d instant to capture the ram Arkansas .land. Unionism or Secession must predominate port-holes of the Arkansas and killed and wound-ter. and the weaker must fall. Any man that is un- ed a number of her crew. Through the same and his country is not worthy of its protection tack on Vicksburg.

the can give his 'honor' to support. straightforward course to eplist under the Rebel banner, but they are daily finding out that their that was ever gotten up for a mean purpose.

States were slaughtered on Maryland soil, by a boats. the hour of peril. Let us lap ourseives no lon of the exchanged prisoners. timent of the South would be heard, and we?"

whole power. Their whole power means every available force in talent, in material and not less in man. If there is surplus strength when this is done, it is better so than otherwise, for the

of the pupils of the Easton Academy by the must suffice: Trustees of that institution. Thursday was devoted to the English department presided over by Mr. W. H. D. Harper. We are informed ed applause, said : that the examination of the pupils in this depart- Baltimore, for the exhibition of your kindly re- His interposition, his execution of the laws of selves. thighly creditable to all who were examined. have had before a similar pleasure. The last gitive Slave Law would be executed there as [Applause.] A Maryland man, if I can prevail promptly and with greater accuracy than was Merchants and others advertising by the year the case under the old regime. In the evening, with a few faithless officials, had in a single day and applause.] will be charged extra for advertisements out of at 8 o'clock, those who had done so well in the struck a death-blow at the great commercial inmorning closed the exercises of the day by an ex- terests of our State metropolis, and tarnished her Marriages and Deaths inserted free, unless the hibition in the Town Hall. The speakers gen- fair fame until her reputation as a loyal State came in front of the speaker's stand.] The Govobituary make over ten lines—then a charge of ceally knew their parts perfectly and delivered al men everywhere looked askant at us, and our I was proceeding, my friends, to give you the Secretaries, and on being put to vote were all men everywhere looked askant at us, and our I was proceeding, my friends, to give you the Secretaries, and on being put to vote were and trepidation which usually confuse young best as equivocal, even by the most charitable of with respect to the proposed calling of the Legis-15 We can judge anything at all by pas- speakers. The exhibition was decidedly a suc- our neighbors. I know, you know, thousands lature. There is another, however, bearing still the State of Maryland, have not been properly apprehensions that both at Charleston and at swag events we think there is sufficient cause to cess. The Easton Band was in attendance and come to the conclusion that the rebellious and played several well-selected pieces of music.their sympathizers are about to be dealt with in The Hall was crowded with simling and attena manner that is far more befitting the occasion tive faces, which will no doubt spur the youth-case already? Gen. Pope in the valley of Vir. sists that the time draws near when the Governto remedy such evils, and Gen. Hallack, we be- arrived. The London Herald's Paris correspon-Washington-making every one that shows a mediation to the United States. The Moniteur guished body, but I will say, in truth, I have the entitled to a very material deduction, in point of Railroad Company, and a large majority of their swamp upon the recent battle field of Fair Oaks.

and ought to have a free passport to parts that THE LATEST.—Chicago special despatches are no - and how difficult it was - were to pass a bill they are to sacrifice life and fortune upon the been almost wholly uninterrupted, and it is the on an average, from day to day. Since the breaking out of the rebellion various but that which the telegraph furnishes to-day, on the suffering soldiers and their families. [Applause.] thought suggested by what their communications with regiment did its duty. It promptly took every . Questions have been brought to draw off the authority of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no levely of men called upon to see and held it until level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no levely of men called upon to see and held it until level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Times, outstrips all prece Now, I say and repeat again, that no level of the Chicago Tim minds of the masses from the real object in view, dent. It is that ten gunboats, mailed with six inches that ever assembled in the National or State halls living under the protection of the same Govern- ly free and easy; that they have officers commis- ordered to retire. It was our good fortune to and distractionists have been playing upon harps of iror, and mounting from ten to thirty guns each, patriotism and intelligence than the State Legis- anything in its defence, but are secretly plotting city and State, ready to aid any military demon. Oak Swamp, with the enemy upon our flanks anything in its defence, but are secretly plotting city and State, ready to aid any military demon. Oak Swamp, with the enemy upon our flanks anything in its defence, but are secretly plotting city and State, ready to aid any military demon. Oak Swamp, with the enemy upon our flanks are secretly plotting city and State, ready to aid any military demon. of a thousand strings to entire men from their built in England for the Rebels, have broken the lature of Maryland. It was, I am inclined to to put it down. I say it is a test of your patriot- stration on the borders of the State; and these and front, the fate of our regiment hung tremb then resort to drafting.

Four or five hundred of the Rebel prisopers con- subjects of State government, for the purpose of placed side by side with us. [Applause.]

fined at Fort Delaware when they found they were dividing a portion of the loyal element. This My friends, there is one class of my tellow- States and ask his immediate action in the reshall render success probable, speedy and eco-about to be sent South took the cath of allegings. We fined at Fort Delaware when they found they were was very palpable on the question coming up in citizens that I have looked to see beside us in moval of all disloyal persoas from authority in accept the office. The Governor would make a good General, but for his physical ability to a physical ability to a possible on the question coming up in citizens that I have looked to see beside us in moval of all disloyal persoas from authority in accept the office. The Governor would make a possible on the question coming up in citizens that I have looked to see beside us in moval of all disloyal persoas from authority in accept the office. shall render success probable, speedy and eco- about to be sent South took the nath of allegiance. Congress for the liberation of the slaves in the this struggle, and I regret to say, so far as Balti- our midst. al States put forth their whole power. There attack upon them, but were soon checked.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM EVINCED.

SPEECH OF GOV. BRADFORD. The Governor who was greeted with prolong-

I thank you from my heart, fellow-citizens of [Enthusiastic applause.]

ets protection and kindly acts, it has given fresh recitations show that great care has been taken hibited, and I should mistake it as I have ever looks behind. [Applause.] vet done if you will now shrink from any of the And here allow me to take this occasion to of Maryland are lalse to their allegiance, two-such an impartial view of the position as may be After the examination in the morning, the obligations or responsibilities which that posi- congratulate you, my fellow-citizens of Balti- thirds of her people are loyal to the Government gathered from the telegrams which appeared in tion involved. [Cries of "Never," "Never," "Never." more, upon the popular triumph achieved in the of their full share the papers of yesterday morning. With the ex-Your country is assailed by an open rebel host, passage of this ordinance-a triumph achieved, of the buildens of this war, personal and financial, ception of the Times, all our cotemporanes pub patriotism in the cause they advocate by being themen eager to hear the original essays to be in which you, not only as an integral portion of I am happy to note, without any violence that but are not willing to follow all who are ready lished the same telegrapic summary of the news boisterous and engendering tumult and discord read by the young men. We noticed the follow- that great country, have a common interest with deserves the name, and congratulate particular- to lead them. They are entitled to be treated brought by the China. The significance of the at home. The government is about to awake to ing as well worth mentioning: "The Soldier other loyal States, but a particular interst before by those in authori- exception will presently appear. a sense of its duty in this particular and is be- From Bingen." spoken by Master W. Golds- and above all others—that Rebel host, now pres- and efficient interference in arresting the first ty over them; to have men who enjoy their consing men of every description, the old and the outbreak that the circumstances with impulsive fidence selected by the Government to lead them correspondent at Cork whose duty it appears to ginning to find that such a course, if continued. borough. An essay on Ireland by R. J. Trippe, sing men of every description, the old and the true man, compelling men were so well calculated to excite. [Ap- in the field, and to have the confidence and re- be to put a strong Confederate coloring on the young, the traitor and the true man, compelling men were so well calculated to excite. [Ap- in the field, and to have the confidence and rework nothing but evil to the country. While in which the essayist showed that Ireland's prest the latter at the point of the bayonet to foreswear plause.] You profess to be, and you are, ad-spect of the Governmedt expressed by the eleva-news received at Queenstown. Accordingly, thas been putting forth its energy, its money and men to crush the rebellion, in many instantial rule; but that as our own country will come out reluctant arm in striking down the cherished over the striking down the cherished of the supremacy of the law, and let me too to responsible commands of a due proportion of Maryland men competent to command with the sensation announcement—"The armies and thought to be so by their fellow citizens— of General McClellan and of the Confederates ces, its object has been partially frustrated by of the present struggle a brighter and greater own Maryland would be the first green spot on your right, to the majesty of the law, and that And in the hope that this will be so for the furnishment of the first green spot on your right, to the majesty of the law, and that the round men of the first green spot on your right, to the majesty of the law, and that the round men of the first green spot on your right, to the majesty of the law, and that law the round men of the first green spot on your right, to the majesty of the law, and that law the round men of the first green spot on your right, to the majesty of the law, and that law the round men of the first green spot on your right, to the majesty of the law, and that law the round men of the first green spot on your right, to the majesty of the law, and that law the round men of the memories of his flag, is on its march, and our your right, trust the ultimate preservation of and thought to be so by their fellow-citizens .- of General McClellan and of the Confederates The enemy in the rear. Every important move- Republic, so will Ireland throw off her chains which he would feast his eyes should he ever power that ever regulates that majesty itself— ture, we earnestly invoke the young men of the fore Richmond." Unobservant persons did not ment of our army has been made known to the and become a nation. A thoughtfully written escape from that deserted and Godforsaken re- the ultimate, invincible power of public opinion State to tender their services to the Government look at the dates, and did not suspect that the Rebel commanders and secret communication is cssay on Casar by R. Goldsborough. Valedic- gion that he would leave behind. [Applause.] —and your rights will ever be vindicated. [Ap- to fill up the Maryland quota, in the full confi- portentous intelligence was simply a repetition now constantly being held between the Rebels tory by Wm Goldsborough. At the request of Maryland, whose revolutionary his-And shall Maryland, shall it ever be said that plause. Leave all violent demonstrations to dence that the people of the State will supply the of what had been known for three or four days. and our own State, and the property of the audience the same gentleman spoke "The tory is so thickly studded with the brightest down in the streets their country's soldiers.— unteers of Maryland on a full footing with those proclaimed another "Federal defeat," and Congems of patriotism-Maryland, that in those days [Applause.] There is another suggestion, my of the most liberal State:

knew not only how to vote, but how to strike, friends, connected with the means of supplying | Resolved, That if the neglect of the Legisla- were chuckling over the ignominious and inthe rebellion should speedily cease, but those occupied Madison Court House, directly south any doubt or imputation upon her loyalty-Ma- simple fact,-that for such a draft as is now re- ficiency, whereby, while the Government will less, at least for the present. But it may also who "fired the Southern heart," still persist in of Sperryville, two or three days ago, driving out ryland, thus threatened with invasion—that Ma- quired to meet the exigencies of the present cri- secure the requisite men, the disloyal men of the turn out that the position we have described has their iniquitous work, until at last the whole na- the Rebel Cavalry who had possession. Our ryland can call to mind these old memories with- sis I possess no authority beyond the authority beyond t troops sustained no loss. Madison Court House out rushing to the rescue? [Applause.] Not which any other State possesses to call out any their wickedness has imposed upon the country. tained. We confess, at any rate, to a strong wish tion is becoming aroused and evince a determi- is northwest of Gordonsville, and not far from only is her own territory menaced with invasion portion of the militia of the State, upon any e- Resolved. That military power is the only ade- that the political economy of our Northern friends but this glorious Union and the hopes of the U- inergency, reaching beyound the period of three quate means for the suppression of the rebellion, was as unimpeachable as their valor. They niverse that hang upon it—all, all assailed by the months in any one year, which would be en- and the energy of its use should know no other would not then "raise a cry to prevent the ex crowd of rebels and traitors now endeavoring to direly inadequate to the demands of the present limits than the laws of war, the requirements of portation of gold." The revival of this old, stupid march hither; and that Maryland will falter, will crisis. If, therefore, a draft is to be made at all, the Constitution and the necessities of the case; protectionist fallacy in a city like New York is a midst all undue violence has been abstained from movements. A party of guerillas on Tuesday pause, will he sitate a moment in responding to the power of drafting is to be exercised only by that armed traitors can avoid their severities by wonderful anomaly. If there be any advantage in person or property, when some of them to- demanded the surrender of Mount Sterling .- that small request that she will send to the front the Federal authority. Whether they mean to laying down their arms, and those in arms have in keeping gold at home, it can only be because day; or did a short time ago. receive their regu. They were repulsed by the Home Guard, and four regiments to be enrolled in such a cause. I exercise it or not, I am not prepared to say. It no right to complain; and the traitors who swarm gold is preferred to something for which it might Jar dividend accruing from stocks held in loyal on retreating came in collision with the Eighth do not believe. [Applause.] But, my friends, I will probably depend upon events not yet fully in our streets, giving aid and comfort to their be exchanged. No one in New York or Boston came not here to make a speech. I am in no developed; but one thing I am prepared to say, confederates in arms, are entitled to no more ten- is at all disposed to send us gold for nothing in more appropriately employ the very few min- you that orders have already passed, and I am pation of the property and slaves of Rebels may transaction; and to attempt to prevent him must. utes with which I shall trespass upon your pa- now in the daily expectation of receiving them, not be an efficient means of suppressing the re- in the long run, prove as hopeless as to prevent their own destruction. The government has oth- possession of Russellville, but as a Federal regi- tience than by adverting to some of the consid- which will command a complete and thorough bellion, they are essential to cripple the power of Southern ladies from flouting Federalist officers.

dy. Still, when asked if I will not call the Leg-that must be subtracted from it.

The streets of New York were filled with rumors there is continually lurking in our midst a band after you, would you barter them for all the young and energetic men should be commissionsubjects of State government, for the purpose of placed side by side with us. [Applause.]

can be no mistake as to what constitutes their The War Meeting in Baltimore, means for that purpose, quietly as they may the Constitution and the Union-Inpplause |- United States be and is hereby-requested to in have been, those who professed a similar put- but where are the representatives of the Geni of struct the General in command of this Military pose, who professed an extreme anxiety for the Ocean, that I have been taught to believe are Department to require all male citizens above nothing else than the agitation that would arise patriotic by instruct? I see them in New York, the age of eighteen years to come forward and The war meeting which was held in Balti- from it when the act was passed, continued and in Philadelphia, and I hear of them in New Or- take the following oath, and that all persons re more on Monday last was attended by some 20, increased that agitation, showing conclusively by leans, but I have looked in many of our ranks to fusing to take said oath shall be sent through our their temper that they were not advocates of that find them here in Baltimore-[A voice from one military lines into the so-called Southern Congovernment risks everything for humapity, for 000 persons to respond heartily to the call.— measure, but were the same as those sectional of Colonel Schley's men-'Here is one of them.' federacy : the cause of liberty, and for itself. Self-preser- Speeches were made by Gov. Bradford, Dr. C. agitators with whom we are surrounded in Ma- After paying a tribute to the patriotism of vation may yet teach what reason has failed to C. Cox and other distinguished gentlemen. We ryland. They continued it until they saw that Inshmen in general, Mr. Bradford stated the would like very much to be able to publish the the effect of their agitation was thereby aliena- pleasurable feelings and emotions with which giance to the United States, and support and sup would like very much to be able to publish the direct of their agriculture was thereby and sugard, and they pursued that agriculture of the Irish regiment tain the Constitution and laws thereof; that I will discourage discourage of the enlistment of the Irish in Baltimore, and they pursued that of all Slate; County, or Corporate powers. to the District of Columbia from the neighboring of the enlistment of the Irish in Baltimore, ap- that I will discourage, discountenance and tocounties, and nothing arrested it but the honest pealed to them in the name of the gallant Meagh- ever oppose Secession, Rebellion, and the dising interposition of that man who for his honesty er and Corcoran, to their own green flag, which tegration of the Federal Union; that I disclaim and patriotism now challenges the united suffra- was never unfurled save in the cause of liberty, and denounce all faith and fellowship with the ges of this people. I mean Abraham Lincoln, and to the valor of their countrymen in the so-called Confederate States and Confederate ar.

ment was very thorough, and although no prep- membrance in selecting me as your presiding the nation, taught the reverse of the Government of the United aration had been made, the result was very grat officer, and in the cordiality of this greeting. It which these political agitators were arguing, surances that when these four regiments are States." ifying to trustees, parents and instructor, and brings to my mind many occasions wherein I and had made known to the slaves that the Fu- completed they shall form a Maryland brigade. occasion, more especially, upon which I had the well as in Pennsylvania. [Applause.] I say, on the appointing power, shall take its command, Our informant states that the exercises showed honor of appearing in this position, now some my friends, that if I open the halls of the Legis- and one in whom you can place implicit confi- The "Great Misleading Jonrnal" Again that the school was conducted on a much better nine months ago, was when your State and the servery probability that those halls dence [Applause;] and what I hope to see from plan than that pursued a few years ago. The were in a condition of jeopardy and alarm from will be appropriated to the discussion of these such instrumentality is, that Maryland will not boys were more self-possessed, answered more which nothing but your ballots could rescue it. same agitating topics, and after a discussion of only be fully represented in the future battle-fields the negro question for sixty days they will ad of the nation, but that Maryland homes and fire- latest date received by the Etna) thus exposes The efforts of petty demagogues, combined journ without doing anything else. [Laughter sides shall be protected by Maryland's own

Here the procession from the different wards

them understandingly. We saw no hesitancy purposes and position were considered at the some of the reasons which operated against me adopted without a dissenting voice. of us know, how seriously this had misrepre- more directly upon that expediency, which would represented in the councils of the State or Nation, Richmond the Federals have suffered severe sented our position, but it rested upon your bal- of itself, I think, be conclusive with me upon the nor understood by the Government of the United losses and mortifying checks. As to the former lots to place our position beyond suspicion., subject, and that is that you will have your- States. Nobly did you respond to that appeal, my fel- selves, in a week at foremost, a municipal legis- Resolved, That any division of the National assailants have been suspended for the summer low citizens; nobly did you come to the rescue lature of your own franchise, which will un-territory is fatal to the greatness, security and months. It is possible that a similar decision upon that momentous occasion: conclusively did questionably be loyal [applause;] one branch of prosperity of the American people and especial- may by this time have been taken with regard to you show to the world that Maryland, in her which has already the most liberal provision for ly ruinous to every interest of the people of Ma- Richmond. Writing while our American papers erations by which I was influenced when I re- enrollment of all men throughout the State of those now in arms to embarrass the restoration Such follies are unworthy of an intelligent, brave sponded, as I did, by a proclamation, to the re- Maryland. [Applause.] A voice—'Rebels first!' of peaceful and constitutional government after and resolute people—the people who, whatever By the steamship Austrian, arrived at New quest of the National Government, and invoked This, you know, my friends, is a necessary pre- their military power is broken; and therefore we temporary reverse they may sustain, will prove government to do under such circumstances? | mons. Lord Palmerston treated the issue of the which the object we have in common view may ing my own individual sentiments, that I should | Resolved, That the cause of the Union in Mary-The first that has been suggested was a call ever become necessary, in answering the call those in authority to discriminate—in accordance an Editorial in your paper of the 19th instant. there are still to be enemies lurking in the rear ence." He appealed to the House to leave the of our Legislature in extra session. That was, now made upon the patriotism of the country, with the remonstrances of loyal men—between which does great injustice to the officers of this to apprise their confederates of all important matter in the hands of the Government, and the loyal and disloyal in Government employ- Regiment. It states that but three officers were moves of our forces, as has been too often the motion was finally withdrawn. The Times in obvious consideration that presented itself to me, nowhere else but Maryland. These are my ments; that in our opinion much the largest a present during the eight days fighting, that rewhich I maturely weighed before I ventured to own individual sentiments to that effect, and I mount of Government patronage and contracts cently occurred. This is not true. Every officall in the assistance of my fellow-citizens to am sure they are the instinctive sentiments of has been allowed to find its way in this city into cer capable of doing duty and many who were supply what I thought we had no reasonable every true son of our good State. [Applause.] the hands of men and firms notoriously disloyal, not able, were at their posts. It must be remem ment of the West, have pursued the right course and contend that the time for mediation has not hope of resting upon the legislature to furnish. I know very well, my friends, that when you and not a few of them actually engaged in aid- bered that this regiment had recently left health My fellow-citizens. I will not say I entertain come to estimate the quota required of Maryland ing the enemies of the Government; that the con- ful and comfortable quarters in Baltimore, came lieve is about to inaugurate the same system in dent asserts that the Emperor is about to offer the most respectful recollection of that distin- upon the basis of her entire population, she is trolling authorities of the Baltimore and Ohio down here and went into camp into a poisonous islature, can hardly avoid replying as an old. But still, even when that disgraceful element some of them avowedly, disloyal; and that the of the buried dead, that were dug necessarily We give some later and interesting accounts friend of mine once did when invited to attend a is subtracted, and you take as the basis of that same is true of the persons in control of the line shallow, soon gave us a lengthy list of sick. This is a proper blow in the right place, and as from Vicksburg. Through Rebel reports we fox chase. He was not particularly adapted to quota the loyal vote of the State, you have not of steamers engaged in the Government trans- Some of our sick officers and men were sent to precantionary measures are being taken to pre- learn that an unsuccessful attempt was made on robust exercises of that description, and when yet come up fully to the measure which is re- portation between Baltimore and Fortress Mon- the rear, but many preferred to march with the asked waether he would not unite the next day quired. When these four regiments are raised, roe, and that the Union men of Baltimore regard regiment; it was those who straggled, and the we should not be at all surprised if the test The gunboat Essex and the ram Monarch were and said : "A fox chase! why, I did attend a can stand side by side with any other loyal State, fidential relations with the Government, as no endurance required to carry one through those .oath system was resorted to throughout Mary- engaged in the affair. A shot entered one of the lox chase once, nearly a year ago." [Laugh- and, pointing to your loyal supremacy, say we information can safely be deposited with them eight days and nights fighting, and marchinghave met the Government's call, and then, should which the Government wishes not to be com. There is not the slightest foundation for the as-And, my friends, we had this Legislature on the draft come, we will find a place for Rebels municated to the Rebels. That this city is now sertion that the noncommissioned officers comwilling to swear allegiance to stand by his flag force we have a statement that a large Union it a large Union is and his country is not manufacted to the Rebels. That this city is now sertion that the noncommissioned officers companies. All through the fighting. tions at its hands, and I need not go far for wit. I can well understand, my fellow-citizens, that the Rebels of provisions, munitions, medicines of the Thirty Eight officers commanding the besses who will tell you that their utmost efforts the loyal portion of our community, ready as and information, the transmission whereof has field, Staff and Line, Twenty seven were present, torious for their sensational, untruthful character, with the petty appropriation of $30,000 for our altar of their country, can but poorly brook the prevailling belief in this city, as well as the boast | Our friends at home may rest assured that the of legislation were ever more distinguished for ment as themselves not only refuse to furnish sioned, men organized and arms hidden in the meet with very small loss. At one time at White blockade off Mobile by dint of superior strength and believe, the very redundency of the qualities ism which you can illy brook, but it is a test things ought to be remedied, and could be remedied.

weight of metal, and opened that port to the com- that defeated practical legislation. This numer- which you can nobly bear. Crime and died, by the adoption of a more vigorous, active became a soldier; the danger was apparent to all. merce of the world. The despatch does not explain ical superiority of statesmen and patriots, where immorality of every hue contribute nothing to- and intelligent policy in the administration of and yet through the coolness and courage of both fine spun theories turn out to be the veriest bosh how these iron-clad gunboats were built without any. all were so well enabled to lead, and so few were wards the great moral reformation in which man- this military department, and placing in authori- officers and men, the regiment was eventually body here knowing anything about it, where they body here knowing anything about it, where they whenever you came to enter into the details of any particular subjuct there was such discreption.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in were provided with the armament, or how they left any particular subjuct there was such discreption.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in were provided with the armament, or how they left any particular subjuct there was such discreption.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in were provided with the armament, or how they left any particular subjuct there was such discreption.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in were provided with the armament, or how they left any particular subjuct there was such discreption.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in were provided with the armament, or how they left any particular subjuct there was such discreption.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in were provided with the armament, or how they left any particular subjuct there was such discreption.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in were provided with the armament, or how they left any particular subjuct there was such discreption.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in were provided with the armament, or how they left any particular subjuct there was such discreption.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in were provided with the armament, or how they left any particular subjuct there was such discreption.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in were provided with the armament, or how they left any particular subjuct there was such discreption.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in were provided with the armament, or how they left any particular subjuct there was such discreption.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in the requisite local and withdrawn with safety.

In the work of volunteering go bravely on in the particular subjuct the particular subjuct the particular subjuct the particular subjuct the our State. Let her not be the hindmost one in England so quietly that nothing of their departure ancy of views that the most of the great objects enterprise. I know that you are apparently sub- an immediate enrollment and reorganization of unteers to do their duty, and should not be particular sub- an immediate enrollment and reorganization of unteers to do their duty, and should not be particular sub- an immediate enrollment and reorganization of unteers to do their duty, and should not be particular sub- an immediate enrollment and reorganization of unteers to do their duty, and should not be particular sub- an immediate enrollment and reorganization of unteers to do their duty. furnishing mea for the late call of the President. was heard. Absence of all previous knowledge on which the people had at heart fell ultimately still- jected to privation, that you are compelled to the militia of the State; and this meeting urges lished except upon the most reliable foundation readers. It should be borne in mind that though our State these points is sufficient to destroy the reliability of born by their side. We cannot anticipate a dif-submit to losses in person and estate, but let me on the Govrenor of the State the importance of It will be observed by the unprejudiced readers has been in comparative safety for the last twelve the story, but if this is not sufficient we need only ferent result again, for I do not see ask you, my fellow-citizens, would you to-mor- taking steps to accomplish that measure; and that in the same date there are several articles months, we, were rescued from the very jaws of mention that we have Richmond papers to the 27th acquired any numerical strength. They respectfully represent to him that the neces- and letters published that directly and positively they respectfully represent to him that the neces- and letters published that directly and positively in the traitorous monsters by the strong arm of the govgermment, and in doing which patriots of other the strong arm of the govgermment, and in doing which patriots of other

the strange of the extraordinary powgermment, and in doing which patriots of other

the strange of the extraordinary powgermment, and in doing which patriots of other

the strange of the extraordinary powgermment, and in doing which patriots of other

the strange of the extraordinary powgermment, and in doing which patriots of other

the strange of the extraordinary powgermment and inferences in the strange of the legislature.

The strange of the extraordinary powgermment and inferences in the strange of t grateful measures of your country, with the to elect their officers according to the Constitu- goes a great way to refute the statements conappliastigated and cheered on by those who were on Thursday of fighting on the Peninsula, growing of determined traitors, who are constantly look hoarded gain that treason can amass, when it ed by him, who are able and willing to devote Little better than fiends. Let Maryland not only out of the charter of several ressels by the Governing for some means, by force or fraud, whereby must go forever under with the harvest of infamy their time to the placing the State in a condition show her loyalty, but let her show a spirit of ment for service in the James river. It is probable they may aid, comfort and assist the open Reb- which awaits it in all the virtues of the future? of safety; and to maintain it by their swords, and gratitude to those who rushed to her rescue in that these transports are to be used in the conveyance els now seeking to crush us. [Applause.] And ["No."] The Rebel who openly arows himself having so far the confidence of their cotemporato those who have observed the sign of the times, and places himself in the fight, to some extent ries that the young men will tollow when they ger in a sentiment of certain success. We once The President has favorably, received peopositions instrumentalities which they use has been to in the prowling, skulking, contriving, conspiring the prowling, skulking, contriving, conspiring to the prowling of the exchanged prisoners.

The President has favorably, received peopositions instrumentalities which they use has been to in the prowling, skulking, contriving, conspiring to the prowling, skulking, contriving, conspiring to the prowling of the exchanged prisoners.

The President has favorably, received peopositions instrumentalities which they use has been to in the prowling, skulking, contriving, conspiring to the prowling of the exchanged prisoners.

The President has favorably, received peopositions instrumentalities which they use has been to in the prowling, skulking, contriving, conspiring to the prowling of the exchanged prisoners.

The President has favorably, received peopositions instrumentalities which they use has been to in the prowling of the exchanged prisoners.

The President has favorably, received peopositions instrumentalities which they use has been to in the prowling of the exchanged prisoners.

The President has favorably, received peopositions instrumentalities which they use has been to in the prowling of the exchanged prisoners.

The President has favorably, received peopositions instrumentalities which they use has been to in the prowling of the exchanged prisoners.

The President has favorably processed propositions in the prowling of the exchanged prisoners.

The President has favorably processed propositions in the prowling of the exchanged prisoners.

The President has favorably processed propositions in the prowling of the exchanged propositions in the prowling of the exchanged propositions in the prowling of the exchanged propositions in the prowling of the exch flattered ourselves with immediate success derito facilitate enlistments in the old regiments, and residuously and industriously work, so as to get trainer—the moral guerilla of this war—is the legislative accounting the facilitate enlistments in the old regiments, and residuously and industriously work, so as to get

trainer—the moral guerilla of this war—is the legislative accounting the facilitate enlistments in the old regiments, and residuously and industriously work, so as to get

trainer—the moral guerilla of this war—is the legislative accounting the facilitate enlistments in the old regiments, and residuously and industriously work, so as to get

trainer—the moral guerilla of this war—is the legislative accounting the facilitate enlistments in the old regiments, and residuously and industriously work, so as to get

trainer—the moral guerilla of this war—is the legislative accounting the facilitate enlistments in the old regiments, and residuously and industriously work, so as to get

trainer—the moral guerilla of this war—is the legislative accounting the facilitate enlistments in the old regiments, and residuously and industriously work, so as to get

trainer—the moral guerilla of this war—is the legislative accounting the facilitate enlistments in the old regiments, and residuously and industriously work, so as to get

trainer—the moral guerilla of this war—is the legislative accounting the facilitate enlistments in the old regiments, and residuously and industriously work accounting the facilitate enlistments in the old regiments, and residuously and industriously work accounting the facilitate enlistments in the old regiments, and residuously and industriously work accounting the facilitate enlistments in the old regiments and residuously and industriously work accounting the facilitate enlistments in the old regiments and residuously accounting the facilitate enlistments and residuously accounting the facilitate enlistments and residuously accounting the facilitate and we have discovered that the devil fights well forted to favor the proposition to pay no more other means the inordinate agriculture assemblies or any most despicable of all the traitors, without the ment of this meeting to appoint a committee of Md. Eastville is some forty miles distant from and we have discovered that the devil fights well. Ported to favor the proposition to pay no more other means, the inordinate agitation of section courage to fight for his own country or any other. five gentlemen to examine into the charges made to favor the proposition to pay no more other means, the inordinate agitation of section courage to fight for his own country or any other. five gentlemen to examine into the charges made to favor the proposition to pay no more other means, the inordinate agitation of section courage to fight for his own country or any other. five gentlemen to examine into the charges made to favor the proposition to pay no more other means, the inordinate agitation of section courage to fight for his own country or any other. five gentlemen to examine into the charges made to favor the proposition to pay no more other means, the inordinate agitation of section courage to fight for his own country or any other. five gentlemen to examine into the charges made to favor the proposition to pay no more other means, the inordinate agitation of section courage to fight for his own country or any other. They left for their new oam? We once flattered ourselves that the Union senthen resort to drafting

We once flattered ourselves that the Union senthen resort to drafting

I would sooner have these men in the aforegoing resolutions; and to proceed at aggerated views of national policy as applied to fight for their new oam?

I would sooner have these men in the aforegoing resolutions; and to proceed at aggerated views of national policy as applied to fight for their new oam? aggerated views of national policy, as applied to armed and placed in front of us than have them once to Washington with said resolutions and on Monday 21st instant.—Cambridge Herald

pomical in lives and treasure, only when the loy- Their more violent comrades attempted to make an District of Columbia. Whilst we who were anx- more is concerned, I have looked in vain. The Resolved, by the loyat citizens of Baltimore in through the necessary fatigue, on the battle field. jous to defeat that measure by using all proper Germans to a man are rallying to the support of mass meeting assembled, That the President of the -Ib.

Peninsula, to come forward and enroll them- mies, and pledge my property and my life to the sacred performances of this my solemn oath of guards-her own gallant, glorious sons.

THE . RESOLUTIONS. After the speaking was concluded the following resolutions were read by Mr. Rich, one of tion to put a false construction upon the news of should prove a serious obstacle to filling the Ma- | "Well, it may be, as we have said, that the feel deeply humiliated and morufied should it land has been greatly damaged by the failure of MR. Entron:-I have just read with surprise most kindly and friendly feelings toward that to fact, for that disloyal, aye, disgraceful, element employees now in the employees now ernment, are and have been hotoriously, and and the deleterious gasses arising from the graves

It is hardly necessary for me to tell you that reminiscences of the children who are to come tion, and that for the general and staff officers tained in that editorial.

TEST OATH.

A Moderate English View.

"Strong as are our sympathies with the Free

States of America, we have not the least disposi-

The London Morning Star of July 15 (the the tricks of the London Times in giving "news" of the battles on the Peninsula:

late events. If the people of the North are what we take them to be, they can bear to hear the truth, and will resent its suppression, whether city, it is now known that the operations of the Resolved. That while one-third of the people prove, an effort to set before the English public federate sympathizers in the city and the club

Correspondence of the Blue Hen's Chicken. FROM THE 2D DELAWARE. HARRISONS POINT, JAMES RIVER, Va.,

July 21, 1862, $

I am very respectfully your ob't serv't. WM. P. BAILY. Lt. Col. 2d Del., commanding.

COL. WALLICE' REGIMENT.—By a correspondent we are informed that Col. Wallace' reg

We learn that Ex-Governor Hicks, has bees

Call at your Drug tybody's Almanacs find in it much usefu in faror of Hoofias al than can be produ for Lung disease. &

DEN

J. N. Ba HAS the pleasure that he may be foun several weeks from of attending to the de

DR. ODC LIQUID Is invaluable for e TEETH and GUM

ACHE and all NEU It imparts a delightf Prepared by J. N. feb 1-ly MA BALT

Sales as follows: WHEAT-Fair to pi New White New Red Corn-White, Yellow, Oars-Maryland.

NEAVITT.-In Br ult., Joanna Neavit She died as she She had been a me copal Church from right walk and chri the confidence and Her disease was s son most of the tit short, but in her luc ly of Jesus and of mony that she had pilgrimage on earth

she followed Christ [Baltimore Sun : CASSIMERES. U meres, all W variety of Patterns. ware, in great varie VEW WHEA per, Extra a Wheat, just receive and bbl. at IZ ERSEYS, KI Mallalieu & 3-4 and 6-4 all W Kersey, manufact

Eastern Shore, Md Z ERSEYS, KI ory, have jus tory of Mallalieu & ment of Fine Cass Boy's wear. Also To an inspection friends and the put exchange for Kers DROPOSALS and Court H current year, will Commissioners for Tuesd At which time the such applicant as may determine.

aug 2-it S Trappe ( J. C. Brook HE exercises Mond After the commen from a distance can

ing in the family arrangements will aug 2-6t LUMB VINCENT TAS re-taken t II nue, first Ya

-and is again pro Building Lumber, &c. Also on han N. Carolina Cypre Baltimore, July

AND FARM JOHE farm innu county road

Easton to Trappe, pied by William longing to Mrs. M .at private sale. T by recent survey, The land is kind a son wishing to pu es by calling on M For Terms app SAML:

NEW TUST received p of Hosiery, Ladie's Paris cors

july 19-4t S

GEM HOOPS which is decidedly for sale by GLOVES .- Ju of Ladie's and Ge Kid Gloves, Ge Ladies' Mohair M of the best quality GENTS VEST

lisle thread and co and for sale by COLLARS._I black and fancey

STRAW HAT Ply of chip and G straw, which toa for men and boys,

FLOUR AND the best brands c Family Flour, an of country bacon