m in Easton a Fe n selected with the es. In our stock of rench Lawns, Pl'd Swiss, do. ainsooks, &c.

CLOTH ERY, &c.

nestic Goods art of Osnaburgs, plaid les, Verona Twills y and all of which mmodating terms. their patronage, do all in our pow.

& KERSEY.

THE OB MY. 862. CK OF NEW

ldren, Very Cheap. d from the cities, argest and cheaphim for the last it the times. My OWARE, and Glassware, prices. My cusectfully invited w J. Rasix. ANGY eturned from the

ent of Christmas

186 TITS. ies & Nuts too numerous to friends and cusramine his stock nt servant, ROBINSON. NTER OLD STAND EET, or Stock of WG! form his patrons that he has just arge and elegant E READY. e offers at greatinbraces Coats, ality and price: otion; Shirts and nd Suspenders; s; Trunks, Car-A well selected nts' Clothing .kc., &c. n selected with low for cash, mall profits. rateful acknowuance of public SES HERZ on, KER ER, hurch, former-Jump as a Mil-for the very lib-

ed towards him

nnounces to his ublic generally stand, and is rk that may be mers may rely e best manner, ut few unavoid-WATCHthe best manwelry of all deshed with quick eatly executed

the work, and for past favors determined by t a continuance NDERSON. pound or box,

Imonds, Chest-ROBINSON. tment of Gold ed Spectacles, ROBINSON. a-Baga, Dale's and Purple top son & BRO. y of Candies ops, also Lets. DEBOROUGH at $1.00 at

THE GAZETTE IS PUBLISHED BYERY SATURDAY MORNING

TERMS. VANCE, or TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if not paid within one month of the time of subscribing, or the renewal of subscription— falure to notify a discontinuance is considered as a new engagement.

From the American.

And proudly shall history record its story.

Its watchword forever,

To dare and to do.

Fought for a home that tyranny gave us-

Hark to the glory !

Sing it anew!

America's emblem,

See our bright eagle, with pinions untiring;

Let's us adore them in National hymn!

America's emblem,

No flag for us

"If any be distressed, and fain would gather

Some comfort, let him haste unto

Of all our miseries cast up the sum

We mortal are, and alter from our birth;

No man from sinning ever free did live.

- And lead us-

Thou that of all good graces art the giver,

But deliver

With one consent of heart and voice, say

JOHNNY'S FIRST BIBLE.

changed frock and petticoats for a dress more be-

From all evil.

Not into temptation.

As we forgive.

Thou mad'st the earth as well as planets seven,

As 'us in heaven.

Show us thy joys, and let

Thy name be blessed here

Forgive us, Lord, our sins

Thou constant art.

But we do sin-

We pardon them

Into all truth, but

Suffer us not to wander of him, he must have a Bible.

"Sir, I want to buy a Bible."

And flesh, so shall thou free us

Fought, and can fight for, again and again.

The red, white and blue !

See our bright stars, which no darkness can

The banner that's true!

But the red, white and blue!

Who art in heaven.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be the on earth.

Forgive us our trespasses.

The red, white and blue!

America's emblem,

VOL. XLV.

EASTON, MD., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1862.

|all the time making his strongest efforts to speak, |

but could not. The bookseller put his five shil-THE AMERICAN PLAG. Let the bold banner unfurl to the breeze! Where is the flag that shall rival its glory? Proudly triumphant it floats o'er the seas, sidered him a thier, and thought that he had sto- come to vent itself.—Inquirer. len the five shillings. He ran home, threw himselt into his mother's arms, and there lay sobbing, but unable to utter a word that was intelligible. His mother felt alarmed, and begged him to tell her what or who had hurt him, and Short are the years since our brave, gallant

"What is it, then? Do try and tell your mother, my dear little Johnny." -Bible-money-thief."

Proudly they gleamed whilst our cannon were the bookseller.

pardon for the unnecessary pain he had caused "ter the thirty years' war. The drums and tram- we write a new mortification awaits the loyal by the reception that the Rebels had met with in killed and wounded will not come far from 18,- back to me."

"Now, my dear little boy, go home to your mother; beep the Bible for yourself; and read it; Well-may we not ask-how do southern tors remain compromises the honor of the State | chance in the world, bore upon its back two or prevent our troops from crossing.

an honest, upright child to se suspected of dis- upon them in truth before they can be convinc-To these petitions let both church and laymen, honesty; how surely shall the righteous shine at led of the frightful mistake they are making? trial made Johnny to be known, loved, and be-

"Maryland, My Maryland."

Only one more, and a pocket Bible would be his. Iucination when he shouted out frantically, with At last he had the twelve pennies; and taking all the froth and foam of an ancient Pythoness, his four shillings from their hiding-place, and such lines as these :-

er's, determined to surprise and please his moth-er, when he should return and show her his The old time's bugle, fife and drum, Gleesomely did he bound into the shop, say | She is not dead, nor deaf, nor dumb-Huzza! She spurns the Northern scum! "A Bible! What, can you read in the Bible! She breathes! she burns! she'll come, she'll come! Maryland! My Maryland!

Potomac, like the frogs of Egypt out of the sacred Come! to thine own heroic throng, That stalks with Liberty along,

Nor Lee nor Jeff can make her come

The Flight of Locusts upon our Soil.

Who hath forgotten the spirit that swayed us? began to unloose his clothes to find out where the habit of considering the advent of war, inva- rare and great thing in the game of war—oppor- in its life, the Rebel army had given us a pretty he was hurt. He tried to prevent her doing so. sion, military "deliverance," as blessings; and into the State, careless it seems of the fact that a portion of our citizens elsewhere are now find- into the State, careless it seems of the fact that this by Hooker on the right, and Sumner in the ing out for themselves, by personal experience, what may soon be an impassable river runs in centre, whatever after stand was made by them how far these are so. If anything additional its rear. Possibly to be cut off from all rein- was one adopted upon the spur of the moment. At last she understood the words, "bookseller was needed to convince any of what they have forcements it carries a brave front; and allowed Never, too, have our troops been in better to dread from the flight of lamished locusts who at last to escape, it would crown the nation with and the success attending the battle of the South "What!" said she, "have you been to the bookseller to buy a Bible, and he thought you been to the bookseller to buy a Bible, and he thought you been to the Bichmood on—annihilated.

Saturday, Sept. 20, A. M. Saturday, Sept. 20 "Yes—yes—yes," he sobbed out.

She then soothed and comforted him, till his which has been compelled to accept the pressure a "been" from the Cotton States.

What timely valor may accomplish we have seen lately in the reported exploits of some of to conquer or die whenever they next engaged.

They commenced to leave about dusk on them absolutely desperate in their determination to conquer or die whenever they next engaged.

They commenced to leave about dusk on them absolutely desperate in their determination to conquer or die whenever they next engaged.

They saved all their temporatories are a saved all the saved are a saved as a saved as a saved as a save feelings having become more tranquil, he told ence of war as a "boon" from the Cotton States. our own brave 'soldiers in North Carolina, of the foe. To what extent this resolution was carher the whole story, when off she started to see Listen and shudder, those of you amongst us which we will here remind our readers. A Reb- ried, the record of the battle of Sharpsburg will ried off all their wounded but about three hundred The bookseller saw she had been crying, and who, "lapped in ease," rolling in luxury, have el force—so the report runs—some fourteen attest. was still somewhat excited. He told what he had been hitherto invoking to your presence that aw-had done, and why he did it. She thanked him ful vision which ever since the hoganing of a land one, and why he did it. She thanked him ful vision which ever since the hoganing of a land one, and why he did it. She thanked him ful vision which ever since the hoganing of a land one, and why he did it. She thanked him ful vision which ever since the hoganing of a land one, and why he did it. She thanked him ful vision which ever since the hoganing of a land one, and well, could on-land one and why he did it. She thanked him ful vision which ever since the hoganing of a land one, and well, could on-land one and well and some and well and the land one and well and the land one and the land one and well and the land one and well and the land one and well and the land one are since the hoganing of a land one and the land one and the land one are since the land one and the land one and the land one are since the land one are since the hoganing of a land one are since the land one had done, and why he did it. She thanked him ful vision which, ever since the beginning of e- ly muster as effective fighters some three hunmenced on Thursday night. Pursuit on our part General Pleasanton's Cavalry Brigade, who for his well-meant kindness to her child and to her; but told him how much he had mistaken will upon the earth, has been classed as the first, dred men and not a single commissioned officer to lead them. But a brave non-commissioned morning, when a portion of cavalry under com in the pursuit of the Rebel ar-without spelling; that to possess a Bible of his "should do so. It is difficult to see how an enor- Colonel and other officers prisoners, killing a Morrell's division of Gen. Porter's corps advanced Tuesday, by one of our shots passing the kitchown, he had made a resolve to keep away from "mous army can be subsisted in Northern Virginia large number and returning in triumph; the out the Sharpsburg road, and halted about a mile en of the house in which they were, were killed.

The name given to this bands is the appearance of the name given to the parameter of the name given to the parameter of the name given to the name given to the parameter of the name given to the name given to the parameter of the name given to the bookstalls and bookshop windows, where he "during the coming winter. Everything that it bravest dash we remember as on record during this side of the river, while our batteries content of Antietann." might be tempted to spend his pennies, but "consumes will have to be transported there from the war. Cannot this brave deed be emulated ded with a Rebel battery posted on the other side of Antietam." Our Father,

For we of hope and help are quite bereaven

Bible; that he had kept his resolve, and the five that he had kept his resolve th shillings he laid down for his Bible were the pa- "the extent to which this unfortunate portion of own doors, to still "watch and wait?" Who art in heaven.

Thou showest mercy, therefore for the same
We praise thee, singing
Hallowed be thy name.

The good old gentleman, who was a pious with the state has been desolated. At the end of word field the state has been desolated. At the end of word field the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. Full 2,500 dead were found lying on the field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that spee. In the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that the state has been desolated. At the end of word field mortification of late reverses, in hopes that the state has been desolated. At the end of the cit plings of three conquests have not produced citizens of Maryland in the stately assumptions Maryland, they vented their rage upon this little 000 to 20,000. "Go home, ma'am, and send your little son beliefsewhere the ravages and waste which the of the Rebel General's "proclamation" just anstruggies of the Southern and the Northern hosts nounced. He dares to extend from the for- the people confiscated to their and the Rebel Generals Ripley, Walker and Next day, little Johnny started for the shop. have caused in Piedmont, Virginia, during the sworn gang at Richmond "protection" to Ma- use. Among the homes destroyed was that of Hays, were wounded.

As soon as the bookseller saw him, he stepped have caused in Piedmont, Virginia, during the sworn gang at Richmond "protection" to Ma- use. Among the homes destroyed was that of The Rebels on Thur As soon as the bookseller saw him, he stepped "past and present summers. It will take one hunto the door, and called him in, took him by the "past and present summers. It will take one hunryland, torsworn, too, himself; he quietly plants william Himes, of whose residence the Rebels on Thursday night burnt the rathto the door, and called him in, took him by the hand, patted his head, asked his pardon, and led him into the shop, and told the gentlemen who him into the shop, and told the gentlemen who him into the shop, and told the gentlemen who him into the shop, and told the gentlemen who him into the shop, and told the gentlemen who him into the shop, and told the gentlemen who him into the shop, and told the gentlemen who him into the shop, and told the gentlemen who him into the shop, and told the gentlemen who him into the shop, and told the gentlemen who him into the shop, and told the gentlemen who him by the "past and present summers. It will take one nunhis foul flag upon our soil, defying loyal hands leaving, destroyed it. Reel, and others, lost or remove it, whilst charging that the State is leaving, destroyed it. Reel, and others, lost into the country on Thursday night to escape behim into the shop, and told the gentlemen who "is by the majority of its inhabitants, it is not "reduced to the condition of a conquered prov- many head of cattle, while every house was ri- into the country on Thursday night to escape bewere there at the time, the history of the way in "easily perceived how the scattered remainder ince." Rejecting his degrading assumptions fled, and all articles of value borne away.

Stainest I shall call at your mother's to see you."

Nor did the good man ever lose sight of JohnNor did the good man ever lose sight of JohnTHE BATTLE OF SHARPSBURG.

THE BATTLE OF SHARPSBURG.

THE BATTLE OF SHARPSBURG.

THE BATTLE OF SHARPSBURG.

I shall not lose sight of you. benefit of the Cotton States, to render this beaustores of the refugees. Once at their homes, and they were found twice desolate indeed. They sance of the enemy's position. They met with That trespass against us; Forgive us that is past, a new path tread us;
than all he had promised to be.

That trespass against us;
accept prospective "starvation," ruin for their families, desolation and bloodshed for their State?

Why the Enemy was not engaged they were found twice desolate indeed. They sance of the enemy's position. They met with families, desolation and bloodshed for their State? field of blood? Could brain-struck idiotcy itself! You may learn by this story, dear children, do more than many here are doing, go about THE REBEL DEAD AND WOUNDED. Us from the fierce assaults of world and devil stood; how careful you should be in judging of with faces shining as they contemplate the posothers and of their actions; bow painful it is for sible advent of such horrors, and must it come

If the Cotton States were indeed mad in "prefriended by many to whoo, but for this circum- cipitating" the war, there was "method in their ing stance, he would never have been known. How madness," because they made express provision JOHNNY'S FIRST BIBLE.

do you spend your pennies? Have you a Bible?

lt you have one, will you not save your pennies own door; nay, they felicitated themselves on I do not yet know whether he is falling. candystalls; but bookshops and bookstalls he not a Bible, save them to buy one for yourselves; their superior tact and management in having to an interior position or crossing the river. could never pass without wishing he had money for by this Book you may be made wise unto done so; but here are men, sensible men-so reto buy somothing. His library consisted of all salvation, through faith in Jesus Christ, and puted-who, witnessing this, invite the foul demanner of little story-books; but he had no Bible ready and able for every good word and work. mon of war to their own households, and consider themselves amply paid when patted on the · shoulder by men who murder whilst they em-In Scotland, both old and young appear in the sanctuary with a Bible. They would no more think of zoing to a place of worship without their think of going to a place of worship without their cauley says all poets are, sat down in a cheerBible, than without their coat and box. All box of the State might look on with pity and Our victory was complete. The enemy is attended to; neither were there any surgeons left. The Rebels Defeated by Gen. Roscerans. Bible, than without their coat and hat. All his brothers had Bibles to take to church and Sab. less garret in Charleston, and produced a song, bath-school, and why not he? A Bible he must which he thought, no doubt, was to move the that it may consume its neighbors: which in have; but how he knew not. It was no use, he people of Maryland, even as the burning words that it may consume its neighbors; which in bookshop, to be tempted to give your pennies for little story-books, but lay them up till you have of a man who supposes he has fired the train to of cureblane by more constant, or window of a sneer, the Charleston Mercury, and the poet sat was ourselves—we, the loyal men of the State contestor we do not not approached within a mile of the river, it was approached within a mile of the river. little story-books, but lay them up till you have of a man who supposes he has fired the train to of ourselves by men gone mad, from whatever that the battle would be resumed the next day, Virginia side of the Potomac, there was planted by noon, when the enemy retreated in a Southplan thought of then it was asted men. Of an avaleries to about a stand off in silence and be and that too at a very early hour, the fact was a Rebel battery, which endeavoured to dislodge erly direction.

Our loss is a plan thought of, than it was acted upon. Often of an explosion to shake heaven and earth.—
were the pennies counted, and long did the time But we waited, and watched; and content with idly deprecating the evils thus inpatent to the entire army that the Rebel force our troops by its fire.

Content with idly deprecating the evils thus inpatent to the entire army that the Rebel force our troops by its fire.

Was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and that the To this battery of the Fourth Y was worsted in that engagement, and the thing Y was worsted in that engagement, and the thing Y was worsted in the thin appear to be, yet he kept his purpose; and when all was in vain. His expected explosion a vited here, and make no effort to repel them?— was worsted in that engagement, and that the vote to the Fourth New killed and wounded. The Rebel loss was not entire strength of their arrow was brought for Vork replied, and so effectually, too, as to cause ascertained but is believed to be greater than the pennies amounted to twelve, he got them exthanged for a shilling in silver. The shillings slowly multiplied; one, two, three, and four.—

The certainly was laboring under a great bal
The leept his purpose; and when all was in vain. His expected explosion awited here, and make no effort to repel them?— was worsted in that engagement, and that the great in that engagement, and the great in that engagement, and that the great in that engagement, and the great in that engagement in the great in that engagement in the great in the great in that engagement in the great and delivered over to perdition? Making a one doubted for a moment that the dawn of for the purpose of crossing the river, seizing the prisoner.

The Rebel force was stated to be 15,000, unlodgment in our very vitals and proclaiming a Rebel horde. Every step the latter made backpurpose to stay there, must we make no effort ward only rendered the chances of its escape the by the One-hundred and eighteenth Regiment. The battle took place two miles east of luka, the frightful ruin he has left in the region from whence he has just emerged, every engine to dislodge so deadly a foe? Forewarned by the frightful ruin he has left in the region from lay in their rear presaged the easy capture of a commanding officer of this Regiment, was inwhence he has just emerged, every engine larger portion of their army. should be put in motion which can avail to pun- On Thursday morning, as you have already ment was encamped, and said to the men who Major General Halleck, General-in-Chief: ish his audacity; every hand should be armed been informed, the Rebels were granted an arm- were resting upon the ground: -"Boys, fifty General Rosecrans, with Harley's and Ham-That was all very well for a crack-brained which can strike a blow for the safety of the ranting, son of renegade Maryland in 1861. But Company to the safety of the dead. Those who are disposed to be criminally others from the brigade, to cross the river and Price, South of this village about two hours bethe facts of the case do not agree thereto. In the Commonwealth. To day we yet have the opmonth of September, say on the sixth of the portunity afforded us of saving the honor of Ma- mission of General McClellan. We are of the One-hundred-and-eighteenth who will volun- closed in. General Ord was to the north with month, in the year of grace 1862, General Lee, ryland by standing up manfully against the in- number who, although disputing the policy of teer for that purpose?" with a host of men, the dirty, ragged, hungry vader of our soil and of our rights; to-morrow such an arrangement, argue that the advantage The speech was magical, for almost in the had some skirmishing with Rebel pickets. This chivalry, came swarming no out of the morrow to build the had some skirmishing with Rebel pickets. This chivalry, came swarming up out of the muddy the foe may be scourged from our borders by othPotomac, like the frogs of Egypt out of the sacred the foe may be scourged from our borders by othto their subsequent movements. Nile, shouting as they arose on Maryland soil : ers, and a blot be left upon the hitherto proud The retreat from Sharpsburg, across Black- time calling to the officer who was to command found that the enemy had been evacuating duescutched of the State which all the efforts of ford ford, it must be remembered, was not com- them, (Captain Ricketts, of Sixth and Vine St., ring the night, going South. Hamilton and the future may not suffice to wipe away.

Fire shillings."

And down went his five shillings on the country.

The chivalry will probably go back ter.

The frantic poet will, perhaps, induce the commended to the country.

The down went his five shillings on the country.

The down went his five shillings on the country.

The chivalry will probably go back ter.

The frantic poet will, perhaps, induce as to render a batton, they advanced, under cover of darkness, to the fighting our battles, whose record will be clear. We may fail mour most obvious duty, but the subsequent day imminently danger the river front. There the Fourth Michigan is from four to five hundred. The enemy's loss on either side in killed and wounded to the river front. There the Fourth Michigan is from four to five hundred. The enemy's loss on a darkness, to the river front. There the Fourth Michigan is from four to five hundred. The enemy's loss on a stored will be large. We have a another song to nuter forth the grief and indignation that it was Price's intention.

"audacity" has this time reached a fatal limit, the work of Thursday, and this was the princi- and the Rebels had fled.

and will "stumble on the dark mountains" to pal reason assigned for the delay. There was a | A half hour later the body returned, and were but could not. The bookseller put his five shillings in his drawer, and the Bible back on the shell, and said to Johnny.

The poet was mad when he wrote before. As it is only needful that it be once commended to he sits in his garret and grinds his teeth at her utter refusal, he will naturally become more of the limit in its advance. Compelled to retreat, ed in four hours. What credence is to be given merly news editor of the Inquirer. At an early "I see how it is. Go home and tell your moutter refusal, he will naturally become more ther to come and see me."

and every rock by the wayside becomes at once to this rumor we are not advised.

It is certain that Lee's army was a whi Johnny saw and felt that the bookseller con- a way in which his madness would probably a miniature fortress whence the crack of the lt is certain that Lee's army was a whipped tre column was advanced across the river, as altrusty rifle carries swift destruction to the harri. one on Wednesday night, and that nothing was so those upon the other wings. ed and fatigued foe.

And as to our great army now in the field to circumstances on Wednesday that rendered our There are those among us who have been in watch the Rebel movements it has at last that position a peculiarly favorable one. For once the character of her son, and that this rash act had well night broken his little heart. stating to land land. We quote:

to lead them. But a brave non-commissioned morning, when a portion of cavalry under command mand of General Pleasanton, among which was levery house in Sharpsburg was struck by our him the effects it had produced on his mind and feelings by his thinking him a thief, and that he "The "Confederacy at this store of the way is for the assault. Gather that famous regiment, the Eighth Pennsylvania located in the centre of the way in the store of the went forth to hunt a feelings by his thinking him a thief, and that he "The "Confederacy at this store of the went forth to hunt a feelings by his thinking him a thief, and that he "The "Confederacy at this store of the went forth to hunt a feelings by his thinking him a thief, and that he "The "Confederacy at this store of the went forth to hunt a feelings by his thinking him a thief, and that he "The "Confederacy at this store of the went forth to hunt a feelings by his thinking him a thief, and that he "The "Confederacy at this store of the went forth to hunt a feelings by his thinking him a thief, and that he "The "Confederacy at this store of the went forth to hunt a feelings by his thinking him a thief, and that he "The "Confederacy at this store of the went forth to hunt a feelings by his thinking him a thief, and that he "The "Confederacy at this store of the town." The following is a specimen of echo poetry feelings by his thinking him a thief, and that he "the "Confederacy at this stage of the war is, or more than four times his own in numbers and in time only to capture a few stragglers of the "The citizens who remained escaped injury by which possesses high merit, both as a literary love of books, even before he could read them love of books. It is in fact a matter of necessity that we love of books, even before he could read them love of books. It is in fact a matter of necessity that we love of books, even before he could read them love of books. It is in fact a matter of necessity that we love of books are read to be a love of books. It is in fact a matter of necessity that we love of books are read to be a love of books. It is in fact a matter of necessity that we love of books are read to be a love of books. It is in fact a matter of necess had stolen the money. She then told him of his "should be, a transfer of hostilities to the enemy's bravely making the attack, three miles from his army, that had crossed some ten hours previous at Staying in their cellars. One child was killed."

As 'us in heaven.

As 'us in hea

on Thursday.

The Retreat of the Rebels frem Maryland. Treatment of Sharpsburg People.

A HASTY AND PRECIPITOUS RETREAT. HEADQUARTERS ARMY POTOMAC. ?

September 19, 8.30, A. M. Major Gen. H. W. Halleck, General-in-Chief: But little occurred yesterday except skirmish-

I do not yet know whether he is falling back! We may safely claim a victory,

GEORGE B. McCLELLAN, Major General. LATER.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY POTOMAC, ?

Major General.

G. B. McClellan,

menced until eight o'clock on Thursday night, Philadelphia). "put down my name, Captain, Stanley, with the cavalry, are in full pursuit.and then only, we surmise, because the fact was and mine." Once organized and joined by their This will, no doubt, break up the enemy badly. Whether we do our duty in this great and fear- evident to Lee and Jackson that our reinforce- comrades, who were to partake in the expedi- and probably force them to abandon much of But Maryland, the chaste and dignified moth ful exigency or not, there are those on our soil, ments were of such a nature as to render a bat- tion, they advanced, under cover of darkness, to their artillery.

But the bookseller gave him a piercing look, and said, and said, "You able to how a few able to how a You able to buy a five-shilling Bible! Where ode. We give him gratis a hint as to the cheapton get that money? Bid your mother give est mode of finishing his task. Let him money the constant will be considered. did you get that money? Bid your mother give est mode of finishing his task. Let him mend to countenance the savage raid, will be consign by a five-shilling DALL of the infamy they have so earnestly sought.

The Rebels then fleeing, some soldiers connection the fact that the force in the rear was alled to the infamy they have so earnestly sought.

The Rebels then fleeing, some soldiers connection the fact that the force in the rear was alled to the infamy they have so earnestly sought.

The Rebels then fleeing, some soldiers connection to countenance of the energy and skill would be consign to the infamy they have so earnestly sought.

The Rebels then fleeing, some soldiers connection the fact that the force in the rear was alled to the infamy they have so earnestly sought.

The Rebels then fleeing, some soldiers connection the fact that the force in the rear was alled to the infamy they have so earnestly sought.

The Rebels then fleeing, some soldiers connection the fact that the force in the rear was alled to the infamy they have so earnestly sought.

No. 41.

needed but a continuance of the action on the Sharpsburg is a town containing some twelve Rebel loss was found to be lar greater-particuor thirteen hundred inhabitants. After the occu- larly in killed—than was at first supposed.

[pass s hand and returned to him his five shillings, say- "when the winter has rendered the other night is captured or driven from the State. Every people on the day our troops made their appearable, will be an experiment not day's delay to accomplish this deepens that humiliation put upon us; every moment the trai- ance. The family horse saved by the merest A large amount of artillery has been posted to and even the "last crust" was shared with the made to occupy the Virginia shore this morning, Northern soldiers. There are a number of Se- but with less success. cessionists still remaining at Sharpsburg, upon Colonel Barne's Brigade, with a portion of whom the Union residents have vowed venge- Gen. Syke's Brigade, with some cavalry and ance, not "loud, but deep," the moment a favor- two batteries of artillery, crossed the river and able opportunity arrives, ford Ford is described by the residents of Sharps- enemy emerged from under the cover of a wood, burg to-have been characterized by much con- having a line of infantry nearly a mile long.fusion. From nine to eleven o'clock on Thurs- Both troops soon became engaged, when an orday night, the Rebel artillery, cavalry and infan- der was given to retire, which was done in good try was jammed en masse in the vicinity of order, the enemy following closely behind. As Last night the enemy abandoned his position, Groves' Farm, within a mile of the river. Some soon as the enemy came within range, they were of them state that had our troops then pounced opened upon by twenty pieces of artillery postdown upon them, their capture would have been ed on the Maryland bank, with such effect that complete. They were frightened and terror- they were forced to retire out of reach. Their stricken; and, in their haste to cross the ford, loss from our artillery fire must have been heamany of them got beyond their depth and were vy, as the explosions of our shells were seen to all indicate that the retreat of the foe was hasty The troops safely returned to the Maryland shore, Lospital tents were everywhere visible, while a with them, and thus, in their rags, covered with blood and filth, they were left to the care of our Retreat of the Rebel Gen. Price. soldiers, if they did not die before our troops

There is a little incident of the advance of moving from Rienzi, to luka, Miss., yesterday slowly multiplied; one, two, three, and four.— He certainly was laboring under a great hal-bounds amonst these merciless marauders, to banks of the Potomac, and the centre column came from the head-quarters of the corps to pro- of Mississippi, was killed in the battle, and Rebdisarm us that we may be bound hand and foot advanced within three miles of that stream, no cure a hundred men from the different regiments, el General Whitefield was wounded and taken formed of the fact, he rode up to where the regianother song to utter forth the grief and indigna- a nurried retrograde by the strong arms of the Couch's Division, the stragglers of the army the mill just across the canal (for a canal inter- reliable information that it was Price's intention that it was Price's intention to the couch's Division, the stragglers of the army the mill just across the canal (for a canal inter- reliable information that it was Price's intention to the couch's Division, the stragglers of the army the mill just across the canal (for a canal inter- reliable information that it was Price's intention that it was Price's intention that it was price in the canal (for a canal inter- reliable information that it was Price's intention that it was Afready, it is 'cheering to know that the har- banle of Wednesday. This statement is con- dan's sharp-shooters, and the fourth Michigan and of the endurance of the troops under him.dy yeomanry of the loyal States adjoining as are in motion, already their hurrying thousands confirmed by a number of respectable citizens of regiments, headed across the river and up a crag- General Ord's command showed untiring zeal, but the direction taken by the enemy prevented planted only a few minutes previous, only, how- them taking the active part they desired. Price the find that the battery had been withdrawn force was about eighteen thousand.

ADVERTISEMENTS,

Of one square (10 lines,) inserted one or THREE TIMES for ONE DOLLAR and TWENTY-FIVE cents for each subsequent insertion. Longer ones in proportion. A liberal deduction to yearly advertisers. Advertisements not marked the num ber of insertions desired, will be continued until forbid, and charged accordingly.

Merchants and others who advertise by the year, will in no case be allowed to insert any advertisement not connected with their regular business, without an additional charge.

All orders addressed to the editor, post-paid, will receive prompt attention.

RETREAT OF REBELS.

Rebel Loss 18,000 or 20,000.

REBEL GENERAL STARK KILLED. FIGHTING ACROSS THE POTOMAC.

[Correspondence of the Associated Press.] HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC, ?

After our forces occupied the whole field the

LATER.

led the animal, while the father jogged on be- The Fourth Michigan Regiment, with a few the floors were greased, the walls defaced, and succeeded in reaching this side of the river on the furniture broken and destroyed. Yet, beg- their return with but slight loss, bringing with . gars as they were, many of them, all was done them four pieces of artillery which they capturin their power to relieve the wants of our troops, ed from the Rebels. The attempt was again

The retreat of the Rebel army across Black- after the troops had been placed in position the make gaps in their lines. Our loss in killed and The appearance of the roadsides and the camps wounded and prisoners will reach about 150 .-

Cario, Sept. 20.—Gen. Resecrans commenced

Our loss is stated to be between 400 and 500 an armed force of about five thousand men and

U. S. GRANT, Major General,

A pocket-Bible, sir." The bookseller then took down a very common "Such as that, I suppose." "No, sir. I want a better." He took down a better, saying,

"That, then, will be the thing; won't it ?", "It is low priced," said he; "only half a "I don't like it. I want a better. What is the price of those bound in red ?"

"Well, what kind of a Bible do you wish?"

got that five shillings in a right way?"

I heard the mighty humbug! hum!

Maryland!

This was too much for Johnny's honest heaft. Pride, grief, and indignation so swelled his little bosom, that to give utterance to a word in reply was impossible. He burst into a flood of tears, and God Almighty bless you! Give your mether sympathizers here like the picture presented by more deeply in the eyes of the world.—Interi- three children of tender age, the mother of whom the five shillings; and whenever you want a the Richmond artist, and are they ready, for the can of the 12th. If we repent our faults, thou ne'er disdainest I shall call at your mother's to see you."

By the grace God, Johnny soon learned to love his Bible and the Sabbath-school, as he had never loved them before; and at an early age he ful picture before their eyes, still ask that Mary-We, thine own people and thy chosen nation gave his heart to his Savioto at length he him. land to be converted to another "Golgotha," self went to be a missionary of the cross to the the place of skulls; another "Aceldema," the perishing beathen.

fitting a boy, and felt himself a man every inch thought, to ask his mother for one; he was too of Rouget de Lisle roused revolutionary France, committing suicide, drags the innocent to des- Special Correspondence of the Inquirer. young. His brothers were older than he was and be to the people of Maryland all that the truction along with it? before they got theirs. In this dilemma, the "Marseillaise" has been to the French. It was bought flashed on his mind:

But there is another phase to all this. Let us Notwithstanding the fearful character of the ure in recording, illustrating as it does the brave
During the afternoon his advance came in Notwithstanding the fearful character of the ure in recording, illustrating as it does the brave
During the afternoon his advance came in Notwithstanding the fearful character of the ure in recording, illustrating as it does the brave
During the afternoon his advance came in Notwithstanding the fearful character of the ure in recording, illustrating as it does the brave
When we had contact with the nickets on the enemy, and head his twelve pennies, off he started to the booksell- I hear the distant thunder hum,

Maryland! My Maryland!

But neither bugle, fije nor drum, To us she's dead, or deaf and dumb; She spurns us all as Southern scum!