GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1863.

Great Literary and Pictorial Year! custom.

The publisher of Godey's Lady's Book, thankhish a magazine for the last thirty-three years of a larger circulation than any in America, has made an arrangement with the most popular authoress in this country— MARION HARLAND, Authoress of "Alone," "Hidden Path," "Moss Side," "Nemesis," and "Miriam," who will furnish a story for every number of the Lady's Book for 1863. This alone will place the Lady's Book in a literary point of view far ahead of any other magazine. Marion Harhad writes for no other publication. Our other tavorite writers will all continue to furnish articles throughout the year.

THE BEST Lady's Magazine in the World, and FALL the Cheapest.

THE LITERATURE is of that kind that can be read aloud in the famly circle, and the clergy in immense numbers GROCERIERS, are subscribers for the Book. THE MUSIC is all original, and would cost 25 cents (the price of the Book) in the music stores; but most of it is copyrighted, and cannot be obtained except in vitie my customers and the public generally.

OUR STEEL ENGRAVINGS. All efforts to rival us in this have ceased, and we now stand alone in this department, giving, as we do, many more and infinitely better engravings than are published in any other work.
