It is no new and untried article, but on that has stood the test of a twelve years' translets the American people, and its reputation and said are unilvalled by any similar preparations of ant. The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well known physicians and individuals in all parts of the country is immeast, and a careful perusal of the Almanac, published annually by the proprietors, and to be had grass most skeptical that this remedy is really deserring the great celebrity it has obtained. From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicine in general, through distrusted their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to "Hoo; lan's German Bitters," prepared by C. M. Jack the Lungs often originate in Neglect of Teeth .- indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq. for the removal of this prejudice by proper les use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by eviden relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining-I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
