

SATURDAY MORNING, - FEBRUARY 7, 1863-

EASTON, MD.

S. M. Pettengill & Co., No. 37 Park Row, New York, and 6 State St.

are our Agents for the GAZETTE, in those cities, and are authorized to take Advertisements and Subscriptsons for us at our Lowest Rates.

BUISNESS NOTICES. Merchants and others advertising by the year their regular line of buisness.

Marriages and Deaths inserted at 50 cents each. Obituary notices charged for according to advertising rates, ($1 for 6 lines close matter.) cedita by the Palmetto State and the paroling of and wounded on the field. Gen. Corcoran was caping. On the Rebel side it is claimed that not retreated across the Blackwater.

NEWS SUMMARY.

A letter from an officer of the squadron, off gard and Com. Ingraham immediately issued a using every precaution for some time past, to proclamation, announcing that the blockading of the open-proclamation, announcing that the blockading of the open-proclamation, announcing that the blockading of the open-proclamation, announcing that the blockading of the open-proclamation and subjugation, let us with united hearts and bands or the open-proclamation of the open-proclamation and subjugation let us with united hearts and bands or the open-proclamation of the open-pr ing of the bombardment of that town, which fleet had been sunk, dispersed or driven out of prevent their escape across this peninsula, and subjugation, let us, with united hearts and hands arrived at St. John, N. B., a few days ago in commenced on the 10th ult. The firing was at "States of the said city of Charleston, S. C., to be of the Royal Oak, when two of them acted as long range but the practice was good, and sev- "raised by a superior force of the Confederate pickets and extended their lines as far as the low our enemies in the above particular. The the vessel had proceeded some distance to sea the low our enemies in the above particular. The the vessel had proceeded some distance to sea the low our enemies in the above particular. The low our enemies in the above particular. The low our enemies in the revealed himself as a deserter from the Fellow our enemies in the above particular. eral shells were thrown into the Rebel works.—
"States from and after this 31st day of January. The masts of the Harnet Lane were seen beyond "A. D. 1863." The foreign Consuls also gave village. In a short time they saw two suspinut forth all his energies for the overflow of the town. New Orleans and Havana letters give a rumor of the escape of the Harriet Lane from of the escape of the Harriet Lane from of the rumor of the escape of the Harriet Lane from of the rumor of the escape of the Harriet Lane from of the rumor of the escape of the Harriet Lane from our enemy. To wrangle and quarrel among receiving his bounty, he succeeded in hara rumor of the escape of the Harriet Lane from of this proclamation and declaration of opinion shall and the remainder of the guard were in a ourselves is exactly what those in rebellion along his name placed on the hospital list, and alterwards escaped to Boston, where he again Galveston, armed and manned for privateering, may be estimated at its right value when the but we doubt its truth. The Brooklyn was said same dispatch that announces it states that there short time acquainted of the fact and immediately gainst the government delight to see. They use enlisted, receiving a bounty of $235, and van to be chasing her, and the Mississippi had gone off the bar.

was at that time a fleet of "twenty blockaders" ately went in pursuit. On arriving at the Oak carrying out the rebellion and let one government in off the bar. out to look for the Alabama, which was reportAdmiral Dupont has, no doubt, the means at search demanded. It was willingly granted—at lortune at another enlistment receiving another ed to be cruising off the mouth of the Mississiphis command to repair the disaster and to keep pi in the hope of capturing some vessel laden the blockade intact. He has at his command a search demanded. It was willingly granted—at the same time denying any knowledge of their

—that of saving the Union, and let quarrels and the blockade intact. He has at his command a search demanded. It was willingly granted—at the same time denying any knowledge of their

—that of saving the Union, and let quarrels and with coal.

On that of the enemy, two killed and several fall wounded.

take the oath of allegiance, and will be released the Administration.

The Richmond papers report that an iron-clad dashed upon a Rebel Camp at Middleton, Ten-gunboat—the Montauk—engaged Fort McAllis- nessee, and by a brilliant sabre charge succeed- ward cabin to the deck, where they remained ter at the mouth of the Ogechee river, on the 27th ult. They admit that solid shot broke to one hundred prisoners. Among the latter were on board and the last board was about to be mark the February number of this Mammoth.

FRANK Leslie.—Extra fashion plates and an of the loyal States, just as well unusal profusion of first class reading matter on board and the last board was about to be mark the February number of this Mammoth.

Frank Leslie.—Extra fashion plates and an of the loyal States, just as well unusal profusion of first class reading matter on board and the last board was about to be mark the February number of this Mammoth. 27th ult. They admit that solid shot broke to one hundred prisoners. Among the latter were on board and the last board was about to be mark the February number of this Mammoth pieces against the Montauk's sides, but claim the noted Major Douglass and all his officers.

Middletown is a small rillege of Doublesford drawn in. Just at that time one of them made New York monthly. Adults and children can great country. In times of peace and prosperiwe learn that the engagement was merely to test the invulnerability of the Montauk, and that she county, forty miles southeast from Nashville and the invulnerability of the Montauk, and that she county, forty miles southeast from Nashville and in getting on the wharf, but closely pursued by embroidery and other articles of facts in the duties involved in that vocation are similar to the county. In times of peace and prospering the invulnerability of the Montauk, and that she the invulnerability of the Montauk, and that she

The Captain of the steamer Bowen, from Pa
Mr. Rasin. Mr. R. called to him to halt sever such as do not appear in the cheap and unrelithe just administration of good laws afford, and

A few days ago we received intelligence that vana by our war steamers, where she remained The number of the Rebel force was estimated to secure the best medical aid and have him carlong enough to take in coal. She then started at from 3000 to 4000. for Cardenas, but was discovered by the Cayu- From below we have information that all our without further trouble. in pursuit of her. She had on a full head of steam Cuyler. The Orieto, finding her case desperate negro regiments. Caseys amendment, provides them in charge, but at the same time they are Head Quarters of the Middle Department, and relentless foe, who aims to overthrow its insteered for the Bahama Islands, where she was for the enlistment of any number of negroes, not over 300,000, to be paid $10 a month, to be arm. Under full conviction that they did not go beyond Eight Army Corps.—Baltimore Feb. 1, 1863. Stitutions and extinguish its rights and liberties, become the on fire and totally destroyed her. The news by white men. Casey's amendment provides Secessionists have attempted to get up a hue editor and proprietor of the Philedelphia Evening more binding, and he who neglects to observe to the pub.

ence with Gov. Vance last week upon the relathirteen of the militia act approved during Interthirteen of the militia act approved during Inter thirteen of the militia act approved during Inter
the tions of North Carolina to the Rebel Confederaof last session are believed by many Senators to give from the Cambridge Herald:
cover the entire ground of the present bill. other fields to protect the State from the advance of the Federal forces.

The Health Officer of Brooklyn has prolubitweeds which, growing among the rye, have been only a portion of his furniture was saved. roasted and ground up with it.

An intensely shocking murder has been committed in Columbia county, Pennsylvania-a woman having massacred her three step-children, aged seven, nine and fourteen years.

THE EASTON GAZETTE. The Baltimore papers of Thursday brought us the intelligence, through rebel sources, of a serious disaster to our navy off Charleston. We posure, being fiozen to death," may have met with a disaster there, but we presmall steamers. The despatches claim that they Church to-morrow (Sunday.) sunk two of our gunboats and burnt four others. There is however, an evident confusion and first page, this morning, a list of checks, notes, ed in unmeasurable terms, an article from the have never left my command for a single day. will be charged extra for advertisments out of probable exaggeration. The official despatch of her officers and crew. Capt. Tucker, who prob-From Suffolk, Va., we learn that our troops, fusion the Mercedita, which Com. Ingraham considerable, and the losses otherwise incurred to another and more distant day. The first, the food for his armies. We know that the President under command of General Corcoran, had at says was surrendered to him and her officers and may be of great importance. tacked the Rebels, who had appeared on this crew paroled, is stated by the unofficial despatchside the Blackwater, and after a brisk fight the Bebels were forced to retreat, leaving their dead Bebels were forced to retreat, leaving their dead aged and set on fire, but finally succeeded in es-sight, and declaring "the blockade by the United on Sunday night last they went in the direction uphold the sacred cause.

two hundred of whom were paroled. The scout fear, also, somewhat disgraceful, because it might least, to arouse suspicion. consisted of 150 men of the 1st Arkansas Cav- have been prevented, but there is nothing urreally and 10th Illinois Cavalry, under command trievable about it. Its effect ought to render the blockading fleet and intended to enter upon dred and thirty-five killed and fifty wounded and was joined by Mr. Hougland in the pursuit, who low a rate (83 per annum,) as to make the telligence (believed to be reliable) that she has Forrest, the Rebel guerrilla chief, is reported ga, the Cuyler and other vessels, which started divisions had arrived in front of Vicksburg, ex cept Logan's, which was expected to arrive soon.

ed the sale of Rye Coffee in several stores, a re- last, the Hotel at Queenstown, kept by Alex bey, a small port-monie with one two dol- Ludlow ordered the District Attorney to prespectable German family of eight persons hav- Maxwell, Esq., was entirely consumed by fire cents in it, and was found therein a small piece pare indictments, and by implication ordered ing been poisoned by the seeds of poisonous Mr. Maxwell was in the city at the time and of paper about two to three inches long and two the Grand Jury to endorse them—thus uniting DEATH FROM Exposure.—The body of a man the other side, Dec. 26, 1862, witness Asa lison, of the same Court, has "arbitrarily arwas found on the Dover road, on Wednesday Lawrence, and in pencil nearly delaced B. M. rested." Ludlow in his career by direction. morning last, who it is supposed died from ex- Rogers. The mony and ambrotype and other District Attorney to send no such is the posure. Justice Wheeler held an Inquest over tion to William Rea, in whose care they are. District Attorney to send no such indictment until directed by the majority of the Court. the body when the Jury rendered a verdict that The deceased was rather a stout man, good "said unknown man came to his death from ex- looking, would weigh probably 170 and presum-ACCIDENT .- We regret to learn that on Mondict when the truth of the matter is known, the day last, Rev. J. B. Jones was thrown from his our course "was not conservative enough—that "We hear, with sorrow, of the attempt now whole affair will have quite a different coloring buggy, had one of his shoulders dislocated and the acts of the Administration ought to be de- being made at home to overthrow the Goren. from that which the Richmond papers have giv- was found on the road insensible. The accident nounced." To the first we can only say, that ment, on the part of the malcontents of commufrom that which the Richmond papers have giv- was found on the road insensible. The accident hounces. To the first the course and plung- and we understand that they are assisted by certhe Federal fleet at four o'clock on Saturday ness, which caused his horse to runaway. We ing the country into a civil war, which has caustain braggarts and poltrooms, wearing shoulder. morning during a fog, and is claimed by the are glad to be able to say that he is much bet-Rebels to have been a complete surprise. The ter, but will be unable to preach and in conse-Rebel fleet consisted of two tron-clad gunboats, equence of which we have been requested to state vative, it is impossible for us to be conservative. Out upon these tories and men of threadbare the Chicora and Palmetto State, attended by three that there will be no preaching in the Meth. P.

agreements, and other instruments of writing Richmond Examiner, in reference to the duty of During this time the feeling of the men has un-Com. Ingraham, commanding the Rebel fleet, which require stamps. Not only persons in the State of North Carolina to the rebel Govern- dergone but one change, and that is in favor of public business will find this a great convenience, ment. It would be good advice in a better using more power in crushing the rebellion here but every man will find it advantageous to cut cause than the one in which it has been used : and its abettors at home. out the slip and put it in a convenient place for . However provoked, we have no time and they be, have sound common sense. They know ably commanded the other Rebel iron-clad, is reference. In some cases if the requirements of cannot afford to wrangle among ourselves now, that the enemy has all of his fighting men in the sel and set another on fire. To add to the con the law are not complied with, the penalty is Let us postpone personal and party grievances field, and the balance of his population raising

ARREST OF DESERTERS AND ONE OF THEM SHOT able and barbarous enemy. having been made acquainted with the fact that or slights they have received, cannot sympathize forward into an age of progress never before still pushing them, and at last accounts they had a man was killed nor even one of their vessels deserters from the Federal army were frequently with them in any measure that may tend to im- known. Let us be honest men, then, and lay seen passing from this direction toward Denton the common safety. The time will come for the ded. On the return to Charleston, General Beaure- and other points, himself and guard have been redress of all domestic grievances, but till then, Mr. Lane's premises were surrounded and a carrying out the rebellion and let our govern- glish stramer and made a trip to England and small but powerful fleet of iron-clads, including whereabouts. At length in searching the sta- disputes be settled afterwards. the New Ironsides and several of the Monitor ble of Mr. L., which was locked and the keys in Colonel Harrison telegraphs from Fayetteville, gunboats, with a large fleet of modern war ves- his possession, five men, supposed to be deser-Arkansas, the success of a scout just returned sels. Before this the Charlestonians have unfrom Van Buren, having captured the steamer doubtedly sufficiently recovered from the intox-Julia Roan and three hundred prisoners, about two hundred of whom were parceled. The disaster is a sad one, and we two hundred of whom were parceled. The case of the disaster is a sad one, and we take the family that are more shock. With the vessel at St. John. He said that his patience with those journals that are more shock. Week from the State during his absence, and in

of Lieut. Col. Stewart. No loss on our side.—
On that of the enemy, two killed and several of the pest-bed of our National troubles, shall under a guard until about six o'clock on Mon-Assurances have been received at Washing- boat. There they were placed under the charge ty. The bank in question is the Marine Bank, ceremonies which welcomed his transition from Two hundred of the prisoners taken to St. ton, says a correspondent of the Philadelphia In- of Messrs. Joseph Rasin and Stephen Hougland, and the detalcations amount to about six hun- the country he had so lasely deserted and rob-Louis from Murtreesboro,' including many captured in the battle, have signified their desire to and take strong ground in favor of sustaining to be taken to Marshal Mc-louis and take strong ground in favor of sustaining to be taken to Marshal Mc-louis and the detalcations amount to about six hundred thousand dollars. They date back to the local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining the control of the Guard, to be taken to Marshal Mc-louis and the detalcations amount to about six hundred thousand dollars. They date back to the local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and the detalcations amount to about six hundred thousand dollars. They date back to the local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and the detalcations amount to about six hundred thousand dollars. They date back to the local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and the detalcations amount to about six hundred the favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong ground in favor of sustaining local policy and take strong quiet until just besore the steamer reached the tion are to be the cashier. Carver, for 8517,upon oath and giving bonds to reside in some of On Monday last a regiment of loyal Tennes- whart at Cambridge when two of them formed 000; the assistant cashier. Spink, for $84,000, those who "exert their influence and talents in see Cavalry and one of Kentucky volunteers, an excuse to be allowed to come from the for- and one of the tellers, for $12,000. harmlessly against her sides.

Stood it successfully, the Rebel balls breaking ducah, reports a brilliant success at Fort Donel- al times, but he paid no attention to it, when son.

The Captain of the steather Bowen, from Palant, Rasin. Mr. R. caned to nim to nait sever- able magazines of the day. A vast amount of considering the blessings they confer ample com-One battery of four guns was taken by the Mr. Rasin elevated his pistol and fired, but still valuable information may be gathered from the pensation for the labor we have to undergo and another Rebel privateer had made her escape by the blockading fleet and intended to enter upon the blockading fleet and intended to enter upon the rebel loss is reported at one hunfired two shots. He ran some distance further work both accessable and desirable. been destroyed. She had been chased into Ha- to have been wounded. Col. McNeill was kill- when he tell, mortally wounded. The Guard directed Deputy Marshal Jackson of Cambridge ed for. The other four were taken to the city

The above facts we learn from the Guards but was closely pursued by that fast sailer, the ago a bill was passed granting permission to raise fortunate affair more than the parties that had lease was granted:

reached Havana and was confirmed the follow- that no recruiting stations shall be opened in and cry over this matter, and have denounced it Journal, confined in Fort McHenry, for the pub them when such evils threaten, is looked upon ing day by the arrival of the Creole, a vessel that Slave States, or parts of States excepted in the President's Emancipation Proclamation, without as cowardly, outrageous, &c., and some have "Davis' Message," in that newspaper on Jan-President's Emancipation Proclamation, without said publicly that the perpetrator of the act ought uary 20th, 1863, and for the publication of other stigmatized as an enemy.

If he who fails to meet? The New York Legislature on Tuesday elect- thereof, and thereby in these States no slaves of to be hung by the civil authorities, when at the articles of a like dangerous character, tending to the Rebel. If he who fails to meet his obligations as a cited on the first ballot ex-Governor Morgan as loyal men shall be enlisted—the loyalty having same time had every man received his just dues the support and encouragement of the Rebellizen, in the troublous time of war, is branded an Dinted States Senator for six years from the 4th of March next. The result is important not on- Wickliffe objected, on the ground that in such one more within its walls to-day. Besides seces-Instead States Senator for six years from the still because it is likewise a deleat of the radical factor because it is likewise a deleat of the radical factor because it is likewise a deleat of the radical factor because it is likewise a deleat of the radical factor because it is likewise a deleat of the radical factor because it is likewise a deleat of the radical factor because it is likewise a deleat of the radical factor bears of the radical chusetts, Harrison and Horton of Ohio, Winfirm supporter of the Government in its war a gainst the rebellion.

The Tennessee and
gainst the rebellion.

The Tennessee and
gainst the rebellion.

The Tennessee and gainst the with my proper authority or has been made by other persons, agents or employees, without my sanction and intention.

And I do hereby give to Major Government in the seroll of infamy.

And I do hereby give to Major Government in the seroll of infamy. the exception of Casey, of Kentucky, who voted A jury of Inquest was held over the deceas- And I do hereby give to Major-General Rob-

Jeff. Davis is reported to have had a confer- aye. Considerable doubt exists as to its being ed's body, who lived but a short time after he ert C. Schenck, commanding the Middle Defound in the ranks of our foe, and with deadly led on Monday February 2, 1863, soon after the depature of the Steamer from the wharf, at the foot of High Street, to hold an inquest over write, print or publish, or permit others in my to deprive us of our rights as these renegades for counterfeiting Ayer's Pills, has now been the body of a stranger; upon the assemblidg of name, to write, print or publish any articles who wear the uniform of the hostile army. The Richmond Whig of Saturday last, an indicted in Toronto, with one G. C. Briggs of the jury and hearing of the evidence, the jury having such a dangerous character, or tending In this class of miscreants are found all who nounces the capture, by our blockading squad- Hamilton, C. W., for conspiring to defraud the returned a verdict that the deceased came to his to the support or encouragement of the Rebelare engaged in occupations whose successful attempting to run into Charleston. The capture ment, though it be for years, can scarcely pun death from a pistol shot in the hands of Joseph Raisin or Stephen Hougland of Easton, Md. It true and loyal citizen of the United States, indesirable, and whose profit makes the intelligence that attempting to run into Charleston. The capture ment, though it be for years, can scarcely punbeing proved before the jury that while the deintending only to support the Government, the of reverses and disaster to our arms tidings that is an important one, as the Princess Royal has ish enough the heartless villain who could execeased, who it was presumed was in the custody Constitution and the Union, as a faithful citizen yield pleasure. They with evil to our cause, beon board an extremely valuable cargo, which it cute such an imposition upon the sick. The of these gentlemen as Military officers and who should. was especially desirous that the Rebels should wicked rascal who, for paltry gain, could thus had been apprehended as a deserter from Burn- And it is to be further understood that these repulses. They are cast down by our victories, mot receive. The cargo in part consisted of eight trifle with the life and health of his fellow man —take from his lips the cup of hope while sink—take from his lips the cup of hope while sink—take from his lips the cup of hope while sink—take from his lips the cup of hope while sink—take from his lips the cup of hope while sink—that Raisin discharged three pistols about at him weekly payrenger called the Democratic Leader. Our sea-Whitworth guns, four steam engines, six hun

-take from his lips the cup of hope while sinkthat Raisin discharged three pistols shots at him weekly newspaper called the Democratic Leader ing expression to sighs and groans. Our seadred barrels of gunpowder, rifles, machinery, ing, and substituted an utter delusion and cheat, and Hougland two, one of which shots took ef-&c., the whole amounting to about nine hun-would falter at no crime, and should be spared fect; entering below the left scapulæ and passing itself, and to any other newspaper that may be ness and gloom, and they are never so happy as dred tons. A party of English workmen, skilno punishment. Some of his trash is still exthe deceased gave way and after running some the deceased gave way and after running some
the deceased gave way and after running some
They are in sympathy with our truculent foe, wide, written thereon, on one side John Hig- in his own person the functions of complainant, gins, Eagle Harbor, Lancaster, County, Pa., on prosecutor, inditer and judge. Bu. Judge Aled to be about 25 years of age.

WE have several times heard it said that el sympathizers and traitors at home: ed thousands of other evils to spring up—we say straps, who are loading in our large cities, and if that course is deemed otherwise than conser- prating about the demoralization of our armies. As to the latter part of the quotation we would for it is as true as steel, as brave and as patriotic here adopt for our use and the benefit of those as ever. who think that every act of the Government I have served in this army, which was for-great duty of every true Southron is to put forth has done, and is doing, all that he can to crush all his energies for the overthrow of our implactine latter (which is a work that must be done

Let those who profess to be Union men fol- ton, claiming to be a British subject. When that of saving the Union, and let quarrels and to St. John.

ed at the allegal imprisonment of one Rebel in case of the suspension of this provision. he

GREAT BANK DEFALCATION .- The Chicago hoop, all of which he bore with admirable day morning, when they were sent to the steam- Times announces a great defalcation in that ci- sang froid and seemed not ill pleased with the

A. D. Boileau, Esq., Editor of the Philidel- do our utmost to correct abuses, to see that phia Evening Journal, was arrested a few days wholesome laws are impartially enforced, and ago and placed in Fort McHenry, on the charge new laws introduced, and we keep a watchful of eulogizing the message of Jefferson Davis and zealous eye on the conduct of the rulers. and speaking in the most disrespectful terms of ever, not onerous in the time of peace. But that of Mr. Lincoln's. The following is Mr. Boi- though light and easy of performance, he is re-order, in behalt of the Government, I have been grade our honor, despoil us of our property, dearrested, my sacred parole of honor, that upon stroy our institutions and overthrow our liberties. William Rea, Justice, of the peace, was cal- being discharged from my present imprisont There are others, members of the same commu-

There was found on his person some tobacco, There is a difference of opinion among the when he is sorrowful."

Fire.-We learn that on Wednesday night a knife, a pistol rammer, an ambrotype of a Philadelphia Judges in the Boileau case. Judge

WHAT WE ARE FIGHTING FOR .- A correspondent from the military department of North Carolina to the Press, speaks as follows of Reb

These men, humble and simple-minded the' We assure our friends in North Carolina that the former by able Generals, that we may end a ressel on which he sought passage from Bos-

The craft was obliged to enter Portland, when 105- Nobody, says the Louisville Journal, can be left her to visit his wife and children, but weakening the hands" of Government, "and strengthening the power of the enemy." It will

The Duties of Patriotism.

We perform our part in upholding the Government, in maintaining the majesty of law with the greater cheerfulness and fidelity, because we are aware that our individual interest is bound up in the general prosperity. We are careful to

The duties involved in citizenship are, howled in the manufacture of projectiles, were captant and purchasers should be wary of whom paces, tell and expired near the end of the wharf. ruary, 1863. (Signed) Albert D. Boileau.

They are in sympathy with our tructurent and rejoices when he rejoices, and sorrowful

A Fiscal Problem for Sec sers to Bol On both sides of the Atlant the friends of the Rebellion a our gigantic war expenditures, proportions of our public de short a time. Such burdens regretted But is'at it rather parties who sing those dolorou behoof have no notes of wa regard to the heavy expenses debt of their pet Confederacy? few days ago some figures Rebel finances, from the late re minger, which should inspir the Jeremiahs who have hithe lamentationse xclusively to lo In that document they will t Rebel debt in December last w That the Confederates require tween now and the first of J

Making an aggregate of - -Our debt and expenses to th be about $1,200,000,000, and ly a hundred millions incurred began. It wiil theretore be sei war will have cost us, by the e 100,000,000, it will have cost t same time 8914,000,000. In expenditures theirs will stand a while their population stands b ty-one, including both slave at gain, although the numbers wi the burden of their debt are less population, their obligations ar elevenths. When we come to the proportion stands in our fav to nothing." If, then, with our twofold an ing numbers, our broad expan lands, our untiring industry, or terprise and thrift, our fresh vi energies, if with all these great favor, there is any real cause debt will bear us down, how is such fears in Secesh circles, ei the other side of the Atlantic, las load of indebtedness on the els? If we shall stagger ben they must inevitably be sunk slough of bankruptcy, and rep Yet we do not find in the Angl reproaches of our "misguided S for their boundless and reckles. yond any possible ability to 1 hear of such reproofs among s Why is this? Is such palpal of that blind prejudice that will of a great conflict; or is it beca of the Rebellion regard our d that will be paid, while they see scrip but so many false promis to be redeemed ?-Philadelphia

The Rebel Conscription The work of conscription i prosecuted by the Rebels in so nessee. We find the tollowin Uвюп: "The doughty Forrest in I Franklin, the county seat of a lively time in enforcing the On arriving there with his ca spot, placed guards around it the male citizens in the 'town without a moment's delay. T and hurried to the rendez vous all who were within the limit tion law-except those wh negroes-to come along with the Confederate army, and th every traitor to the devil who ment. One of the unfortunat mustered into service, the C named Robinson, approached to be allowed to go to his roor utes to make some necessary this unexpected campaign. drawing his pistol, and, clu poor fellow several times over it frightfully. After this exhi the crowd walked off after F as the negro gangs which he auction when he plied his voc der at Memphis."

Some of the most eminent ccuntry endorse Hooffand' ters. See advertisement in

MARKE

BALTIMORE, F Sales as follows: WHEAT-Fair to prime, Wh CORN-White. Yellow.

MARRIA

OATS-Maryland.

STEVENS-HOXTER .- At : Hillsborough, Caroline Co., by Rev. George F. Bevan, and Miss Gulia E. Hoxter.

LOVEDAY-STEVENS .- AIS the 5th inst., by the same, (day, and Miss Annie E., dat vens, all of this county. BOAT FO

KETAS FOUND on the sho on Monday, February carrying two Sails-about 2 to 5 feet wide. The owner will please come forward, p charges and take heraway. DROWN AND BLEAC -A large stock of Bro

Muslin; also a large and fine burgs, (both plain and stripe Flannels, (both bleached a large stock of Linen Duck and vants' wear-LOVE POND'S EXTRACTOF F WITCH HAZEL-for I Bruises, Soreness, Lameness tism, Boils, Ulcers, Woun Headache, Neuralgia; Sore 7 Cholic and Diarrhæa. Just (june-7)

BRUSHES-Combs-S Cosmetics-Extracts for bdk let waters. dec 6 CAMPBELL & VIANTED--Any quan Hides for which the will be paid. PPLES-By the barrel ty, for sale by

LSO another lot of that