NEVER MIND.

What's the use of always fretting, At the trials we shall find, Ever strewn along our pathway, Travel on and Never Mind.

Travel onward-working, noping, Cast no lingering glance behind, At the risk we once encountered; Look ahead and Never Mind.

What is past is past forever; Let all tretting be resigned, It will never help the matter, Do your best and Never Mind.

And if those who might befriend you, When the feelings are unkind; Take them for real value, Pass them by and Never Mind.

Fate may threaten, clouds may lower, Enemies may be combined; If your trust in Ged is steadfast, He will help you-Never Mind.
