LIFE'S ANSWER.

I know not if the dark or bright Shall be my lot; If that wherein my hopes delight Be best or not.

It may be mine to drag for years Toil's heavy chain; Orday and night my meat be tears, On bed of pain.

Dear faces may surround my heart With siniles and glee; Or I may dwell alone, and mirth Be strange to me.

My bark is walted to the strand

By breath Divine; And on the belin there rests a hand Other than mine. One who has known in storms to sail,

I have on board; Above the raving of the gale, I hear my Lord. He holds me when the blows smite-

If sharp, 'tis short; if long, 'tis light;

He tempers all. Safe to the land, safe to the land— The end is this; And then with Him go hand in hand,

I shall not fall.

Far into bliss.
