SATURDAY MORNING

WILLIAM H. COUNCELL, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS.

TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM IN AD-VANCE, or TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if not paid within one month of the time subscribing, or the renewal of subscriptionfalure to notify a discontinuance is considered! as a new engagement.

Vol. XLVI.

Easton, Talbot County, Md., June 27, 1863.

SUNDRIES.

TEEELES and Cotton, Hoop Combs, Thumbles, Shoe-strings, Combs, Buttons, Thread, &c. Also Sugar and Coffee, molasses, Crackers,

Snuff and Tobacco, Cigars, and Notions. Also Costar's Rat, Roach, Bed Bug and Mosquito Exterminator. For sale by PETER TARR. may 23

To Consumptives.

bes:

to be

lures

The

r stocks

Gins.

fact that

to get :

es to sa;

public the

ouble for

e ask al

00D%

es dress

ns, Color

Popleias,

es, Gas

of Cloths.

Gentlemen

ware, Gra

ch will be

CASH-

ds and the

VARE

be found at

ad or ber-

nds, Chesi

JEINSCH.

resh supply
ye, for sie
[mar 9]

THE ADVERTISER HAVING BEEN restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption-is anxious to make known to his teliow-sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it. he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge.) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a SURE CURE for CONSUMP-TION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Rev. EEWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburgh, Kings County New York. ayr 4-3m

Poco-Metalic Paint.

THE experience of the past season warrants the conclusion that the above is the cheapest and best Paint for several purposes, and especially for the bottom and decks of Vessels .-It is said to be, by those who have tried it, fully President Lincoln on Military Arrests. been arrested—that is, I was pained that there sented as being unprecedented, and the ravages "General Willich says he only found one equal, if not superior to the celebrated Patent Paint, for the bottoms of vessels, in preventing them from fouling, and in its durability it has no between President Lincoln and the Hon. Erastus ure to discharge him so soon as I can, by any superior. Its cost is only about 1 that of the Corning and other officers of a democratic meetrecommend itself to vessel owners. We mention the names of vessel owners and masters below, all of whom have tried it, and who will tappears to me that opinion and action, which ing and railroads operation, far exceeds the were in great confusion at first, take shape and purpose to sustain the Union and to support the fall into more regular channels, so that the netake pleasure in giving any information with relation in every constitutional and lawof it in the highest terms: Capt. Ed. LEONARD,

N. E. NICOLS, THOS. C. NICOLS, Jr., Enw. BLAND, Capt. of "Bucephalus

H. M. Nicols & Co. may 16

ware store.

NEWSPRING SUMMER GOODS.

JAMES D. MANSFIELD

Woodware, Plow-Castings, &c.

price, and will be sold accordingly.

JAMES DIMANSFIELD. may 16

Soldier's Bounty! Pensions, Prize Money! Back Pay &c.,

GOVERNMENT CLAIM OFFICE. No. 70. W. Fayette st., (near St. Paul st.,)

$100, and all arrearages of pay, &c.

are entitled to a Bounty of $100. entitled to a Bounty of $100, and Pension.

entitled to Commutation of Rations. Prize money, Naval Bounties, &c. Prompt attention given to all claims against the United States.

WM. B. HILL. ette St. Baltimore, Md. postage stamp is enclosed.

June 20-tf at Trimings for making them up.

JAS. H. GRACE

MAIZENA Custard, Blanc Mange, Puddings, &c., and is an excellent substitute for Arrow Root and much cheaper. For sale by may 23 DAWSON & BRO. SHILE.

GOOD assortment of Black Silks also a few fancy Dress Silks in store and for sale

may 23

vance.

LITTLE FEET.

Up with the sun at morning, Away to the garden he hies, To see if the sleepy blossoms Have begun to open their eyes, Running a race with the wind, With a step as light and fleet, Under my window I heard

The patter of little feet.

This child is our "speaking picture," A birdling that chatters and sings. Sometimes a sleeping cherub-(Our other one has wings,) His heart is a charmed casket, Full of all that is cunning and sweet, And no harp strings hold such music

When the glorv of sunset opens The highway by angels trod, And seems to unbar the city, Whose builder and maker is God, Close to the crystal portal, I see by the gates of pearl The eyes of our other angel-

A twin born little girl.

As follows his twinkling feet.

And I asked to be taught and directed To guide his footsteps aright, So that I may be accounted worthy To walk in sandals of light, And hear amid songs of welcome From messengers truly and fleet, On the starry floor of heaven The patter of little feet.

A full supply constantly on hand at the Hard- response are embraced in the following extracts from his letter:

against the dangers of rebellion or invasion.

PRUNES and DATES.—Just received from that the constitution is not, in its application, in you would have one in a far off land do by your der implicit obedience to the second command. A land slide may be said to be a fine specithe city some very fine Prunes and Dates, all respects the same, in cases of rebellion or in- own dear boy. Go to him and kindly taking ment, my advice to him is to keep out of such men of "ground tumbling." which will be sold by the pound, at a small ad- vasion involving the public safety, as it is in him by the hand, whisper words of cheer and scrapes as I got into on the battlefield of Champtimes of profound peace and public security. - comfort in his ear. Speak to him of home and lion Hills, which was as follows: My horse Apropos - A railroad is soon to be constructed cussion, the liberty of speech and the press, the bend him almost as a young tenderil. Kindness to desist in prospect of being left on the road law of evidence, trial by jury, and habeas cor- is the key that unlocks the fountains of the side. The Rebels were advancing-were alreapus, throughout the indefinite peaceful future, heart. which I trust lies before them, any more than I am able to believe that a man could contract so strong an appetite for emetics during temporary illness as to persist in feeding upon them during the remainder of his healthful life.

And yet, let me say, that in my own discreed the arrest of Mr. Vallandigham. While I cannot shift the responsibility from myself, I hold immense growth of trade the promising abun- him. He then commenced an unearthly bawl, that, as a general rule, the commander in the dance of growing crops, and the immense traffic which I interpreted as my Juneral dirge, and field is the better judge of the necessity in any in bacon and live stock. One of our merchants which would undoubtedly have proven so, had

For the Easton Gazette. By the third resolution the meeting indicate Mr. Epiron: There seems to be an erroneous ing, and call for gratitude to that Supreme the day, was falsely posted, according to orders, their opinion that military arrests may be con- impression prevalent among many people that, Power who so richly blesses us in connection and that when the attack began he (Willich) 1863, stitutional in localities where rebellion actually when a man throws aside his civilian garb, and with our national chastisement. The Scien- was at headquarters protesting aginstst the poexists, but that such arrests are unconstitutional becomes a soldier, he can no longer deport him tific American, under the head of "War and Government and the Revel Confederacy to a in localities where rebellion or insurrection does self decently and with gentlemanly propriety.— Increasing Wealth," has the annexed para- great elephant kicking and striking at a dog biting shall not be made "outside of the lines of neces- belief existing in the mind of enlightened and re- graph"sary military occupation and the scenes of in- fined people. It is unfortunately too true, that I "As the present war has been and is being 'de elephant gets mad and drives de dog into surrection." Inasmuch, however, as the con- there are many in the army who never felt any conducted on the soil of the enemies of the Con- a corner and tramples de life out obde dam beast." stitution itself makes no such distinction, I am respect either for themselves or friends. There stitutional Government, industry therein has unable to believe that there is any such consti- are some, who by their ungentlemanly and inde- been paralyzed and the destruction of property AS just returned from Baltimore with an tutional distinction. I concede that the class of cent conduct bring a reproach on the whole ar- has been producious. The seceded States are, "physical appearance" of some men sometimes Lelegant assortment of Spring and Summer arrests complained of can be constitutional only my. But I appeal to you, should it be so? Is therefore, necessarily becoming impoverished changes the current of events. A case occurred Goods consisting of every variety of Ladies' when, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the pub- it not gross injustice to the men, who have for while the war is being continued. On the oth- a few days ago. The children of two neighbors Dress Goods, with a very nice selection of fancy | he safety may require them; and I insist that in saken everything and periled their lives, to guar- | er hand, the Northern Stafes persue their indus-Cassimeres for Gentlemens' suits, plain Cash- such cases, they are constitutional icherteer the antee liberty and freedom, to that very class of trial avocations in peace, and if they are "livmerets and plaid Cassimeres for Boys wear, also public safety does require them-as well in persons who are apparently so willing and ready ing within their income," they must be grow-Calico, Muslins, Denims, Cottonades, plaid Do- places to which they may prevent the rebellion to set affoat a tale of scandal that shall prejudice in ing wealth. Perhaps the best signs of increasing children to have been sadly maltreated, and bemestics, plaid Oznaburg, Blue Domestic Calicoes, extending as in those where it may be already a community against them. Rest assured that wealth in any country are new buildings-Brown Linen, Linen Ducks, Linen Drills, and prevailing; as well where they may restrain mis- some as true hearts beat in the breasts of soldiers manufactories, houses, bains, ships, ect., and way to settle the differences between their housemany other articles too tedious to mention, to- chievous interference with the raising and sup- as ever throbbed in any man's bosom. And be- a decrease of common mercantile and mortgage holds permanently would be to chastise the head gether with, Groceries, Hardware, Queensware, plying of armies to suppress the rebellion, as sides, a man is not a soldier always. Why debts At present all these good signs may be of the other family, although as yet he had nevwhere the rebellion may actually be; as well should he be shuned? Who will dare say that noticed on every hand in all the loyal States, er seen him. He thereupon procured a raw-These goods have been selected with great where they may restrant entiring men out of our parents and relatives at home, and even we except, perhaps the Border ones. In New hide, and abruptly entering his neighbor's tenecare and purchased at the delivered nett Cash the army as where they would prevent mutiny ourselves, do not in times of peace hold the high. York there are more new ships and steamers ment, inquired in a threatening tone for "the in the army; equally constitutional at all places est position of respectability, and have some of being built than at any former period within our man of the house." The public are respectfully invited to give me where they will conduce to the public safety as the most important responsibilities devolving recollection, and in almost every street many upon us? If a man is a gentleman, he cannot new houses are being erected. In Brooklyn of six feet, and weighing some two hundred and Take the particular case mentioned by the fail to show it wherever he goes. It he bears the same signs of increasing wealth may be seen twenty pounds, as he approached to learn the St. Michaels, Md. | meeting. It is asserted, in substance, that Mr. | the true stamp of nature's nobility on his brow, everywhere. In the Eastern States new fac- business of his neighbor. Vallandigham was, by a military commander neither the army, nor all the unhallowed influ-tories are in the course of construction in alseized and tried "for no other reason than words ences that can be brought to bear upon him, most every town, city, and village, and New addressed to a public meeting, in criticism of the will demoralize him, or cause him to swerve Jersey and Pennsylvania the same signs of course of the administration, and in condemna- from a gentlemanly line of conduct, and give increasing wealth are just as plentiful. From tion of the military orders of the general." Now, way to degeneracy. Is it just and right, to make the West also, the same cheering news came if there be no mistake about his; if the assertion one degenerate man, a stanard by which to judge, floating on the breeze. A correspondent of the is the truth, and the whole truth: if there be no the others. Would it not be with equal proprie- New York Times, signing himself "A Veteran other reason for the arrest, then I concede that ty that you should esteem a community as be. Observer," writing from Ohio, asserts that the BALTIMORE, Mp. the arrest was wrong. But the arrest, as I un- ing devoid of the finer feelings of gentlemen, debts in that State were reduced $20,000,000 found expensive and troublesome, I now use derstand, was made for a very different reason. simply because there are perhaps some half- last year, and he is confident that the wealth of half gallon stone jugs for tomatoes, cherries, WIDOWS of soldiers, who have died in the Mr. Vallandigham avows his hostility to the dozen or more licentious fellows residing in that the country is increasing at the present moment service of the United States are entitled war on the part of the Union, and his arrest was locality? Think you that when a soldier, who at the rate of over six hundred millions per the fruit; heat it in a preserving skillet until just to a Pension for life in addition to the bounty of made because he was laboring, with some effect, has torn himself away from friends, home, busi- annum. We have no doubt but this intelligent to prevent the raising of troops, to encourage de- ness and every other tie; has endured hardships observer is correct in his estimate. Never be-Children and heirs of deceased soldiers where sertions from the army, and to leave the rebellion almost extravagant to tell; who has perhaps fore in the history of the world has God bles- twine; set the jug in a pot of hot water and boil there is no widow living are entitled to bounty without an adequate military force to suppress spilled his warm life-blood on the battle field, sed a nation with so much outward prosper- for two or more hours. Let the water cool it. He was not arrested because he was damag- and all to insure the safety of those who either ity in the midst of such a chasitisement as this before taking the jug out, and seal over the Discharged soldiers, who have served two years ing the political prospects of the administration, cannot or will not eclist their energies in the great civil war. or the personal interests of the commanding gen- same noble cause, I say do you think it is en- Universial bankruptcy was predicted for this tan red. Some years before the can came into Discharged soldiers, who have not served two eral but because he was damaging the army, up- couraging to him, when he returns home weary entire nation by the London Times, at the begin- use a lady who had spent some time on the years, but who have been wounded in battle are on the existence and vigor of which the life of and broken down, to find that the very individu- ning of this contest, but while the Government Island of Bermuda, told me that they put up the nation depends. He was warring upon the als for whom he has perilled his life, either re- borrows from its own people, and while they Soldiers who have been produce of War are military, and this gave the military constitution cognise him with a cold, distant, freezing man-expendless than they produce, the nation can-Seamen in the U.S. Service are entitled to Vallandigham was not damaging the military perhaps do not deem it worth their while to no- ed ignorent of the source of oar nation's wealth large family found that jugs suited me better.

Was. www. w. P. power of the country, then his arrest was made tice him at all, saying as an excuse, "oh, he is and streamgth. The great essential of daily life! on mistake of fact, which I would be glad to a soldier now, and all soldiers after being in the to any people is food for man and beast, and in my method, they thought their was no advancorrect on reasonably satisfactory evidence. army a short while become unprincipled." This this essential no other country, with equal tage in boiling the jugs after they were corked. I understand the meeting, whose resolutions is but a poor recompense given him by the very pepulation, can compare with the United States. I tried one jug without and it spoiled by fermen-Government Claim Office, No. 70. W. Fay- I am considering, to be in favor of suppressing individuals, who profess to love the Government, The vast grain crops of our Western valing in a few days.—Phil. Dollar Newspaper, the rebellion by military force-by armies. Long and reverence the soldier, while their love and leys and plains are of more value than moun-N. B. No letters will be answered unless a experience has shown that armies cannot be reverence when put to the test oozes out at their tains of gold and silver. In these consist the The Arch Rebel.—According to the Richmaintained unless desertion shall be punished finger ends, and they politely intimate that they palpable power of the Republican, and no mond correspondent of the London Times, the by the severe penalty of death. The case re- would like us all the better, if we would only European can appreciate the magnitude of that stories of the ill health of Jeff. Davis are true. ASSIMERES.—The largest—prettiest and the law and the constitution sanction, fight incessantly, and not desire too close and fa- power without traveling extensiving America. "His excellency," the head Rebel, is suffering this punishment. Must I shoot a simple-mind- miliar a friendship with them. There was a Our educational establishments, the fine arts, under a severe bronchial affection, his cough is cheapest lot of Gentlemens and Boys CAS- ed soldier boy who deserts, while I must not time when freedom first beamed upon our land, and manfactures in general, are sustained by "exhaustive and distressing," and although it is SIMERE for suits &c., ever brought to this touch a hair of a wily agitator who induces him when a soldier was appreciated, and taken by the surplus products of the soil. From every his practice to ride twenty miles on horseback market, together with the nicest and newest style to desert? This is none the less injurious when the hand, with the close and cordial grasp of section the cheerful assurance comes up that daily, his condition is such as to inspire "consideffected by getting a father, or brother, or triend, amity and unity. They felt that it was the sol-crops of the seasons afford pro mises of a most erable uneasiness." into a public meeting, and there working upon dier, who were to guarantee and procure for abundant harvest, thus inspiring hopes of con. This writer, however, adds a statement which his feelings till he is persuaded to write the sol- them, that carnestly desired freedom. But in tinued material prosperity amid the havoc and is curious, and "important if true." He remarks dier-boy that he is fighting in a bad cause, for a these degenerate days, a young Miss, or a stay sorrows of the great national conflict." DREPARED from Indian Corn for culinary wicked administration of a contemptible govern- at-home, must perchance turn up their noses in purposes, is much used for Ice Cream, ment, too weak to arrest and punish him if he contempt for the animal—designated soldier. the agitator and save the boy is not only consti- haps, you have sons, brothers, or relatives in the lifyou wish to try the calibre of a man's The collection and save the boy is not only consti- haps, you have sons, brothers, or relatives in the If I be wrong on this question of constitution power, my error lies in believing that certain block and the terms of the collocation suggests an inquiry whether army. Would you not desire that even strangers should attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block and the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block and the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block and the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block attentively to the remarks he addresses to the second Nebustian block at the second Nebustian block attention block at the second Nebustian block at the se al power, my error lies in believing that certain kindly and tenderly adminester to the wants of animal when, as is sure to occur before the torong and animal when, as is sure to occur before the torong animal when, as is sure to occur before the torong animal when, as is sure to occur before the torong animal when, as is sure to occur before the torong animal when, as is sure to occur before the torong animal when, as is sure to occur before the torong animal when, as is sure to occur before the torong animal when, as is sure to occur before the torong animal when, as is sure to occur before the torong animal when the torong animal wh proceedings are constitutional when, in cases of your soldier boy, and say some kind word, that close of the trip, a division of sentiments springs turned out to grass in expiation of his sins? rebellion or invasion, the public safety requires should fall upon his ear as sweet music, and up between the two, as to which is the proper The Hon. M Pruny, American minister to them, which would not be constitutional when, cheer and encourage the poor, weary, wanderer, in absence of rebellion or invasion, the public Would you have others go ahead of you in good known to utter small "damns' under such try England, France and that country. safety does not require them; in other words, works? Then act towards the poor soldier, as ing circumstances. If the reader wants to ren-ness, without an additional charge.

All orders addressed to the editor, post-paid will receive prompt attention. I can no more be persuaded that the government one, you will touch a tender chord, and will be I borrowed a mule to ride along the lines. We can constitutionally take no strong measures in able in a short while to ascertain whether or not (the mule and I) were travelling towards the time of rebellion, because it can be shown that he is deserving of your kindness. Perhaps he left, in the immediate rear of Hovey's Division, the same could not be lawfully taken in time of may be friendless and alone; if so kind words then fighting desperately for the ground on which peace, than I can be persuaded that a particular work like a charm, and seem as a soothing balm it stood. Pretty soon Hovey had to fall back. drug is not good medicine for a sick man, be- to his troubled spirit. Perhaps when you speak of I tried to indicate to my long-cared steed that cause it can be shown not to be good food for a home or mother, you will bring to his mind ten- I wished to do the same, but he evinced a stubwell one. Nor am I able to appreciate the dang- der recollections of the past, and in many cases, born disposition to advance instead of retreat. er apprehended by the meeting that the Ameri- you may see his sight grow dim, and his eyes I pulled first one rein and then the other, but can people will, by means of military arrests become suffused with tears. Then is your time the mule wouldn't stir. I spurred the animal, during the rebellion, lose the right of public dis- to speak kindly and tenderly to him. You can but it only made him kick, and I was obliged

> WILLIAM T. PIERSON. Camp Chase, Ohio, June 13th, 1863.

War and Increasing Wealth.

particular case. Of course I must practice a general directory and revisory power in the matiter.

just returned from a business visit to the cities riving there just in time to save myself. I have studiously avoided mules ever since and in One of the resolutions expresses the opinion the trading men of those places that the pres- tend to do so for three years, or during the war. of the meeting that arbitrary arrests will have ent season was never equalled for the extent Reader, if you don't want an incentive to swearthe effect to divide and distract those who should of its demands upon their various stocks; ling don't ride a mule.—Vicksburg Correspondence. be united in suppressing the rebellion, and I am specially called on to discharge Mr. Vallandig-ham. I regard this act as, at least, a fair appeal their pressing orders, owing to the scarcity of to me on the expediency of exercising a consti- competent workman to manufacture the need. Strength of the Rebellion.-General Willich, to me on the expediency of exercising a constitutional power which I think exists. In red goods. The trading and floating populaer some months ago, has returned, and has been sponse to such appeal I have to say, it gave me pain when I learned that Mr. Vallandigham had tions of these two great marts of trade, is repreto Washington: should have seemed to be a necessity for arrest- of an unparalleled civil war seems to have giv- man connected with the Government at Wash-An interesting correspondence has taken place ing him—and that it will afford me great pleas- en a new life and energy to every branch of pression of the rebellion, and that was the Presi-Patent Paint, and in this particular it should ing recently held at Albany, N Y. The meet by it. I further say, that as the war progresses, laboring men, in the various branches of min- after endeavoring to get a hearing from the gard to it that may be desired. They all speak ful measure to suppress the rebellion, but at the I have every reason to desire that it should cease viously realized for such services. Unbounded Willich found a patient, interested and attensame time denounced military arrests, especialfor the opinions and wishes of those who, like financial stabilities of the Government, millions dat de Confederacie is a leetle bladder financial stabilities of the Government, millions the meeting of Albany, declare their purpose to These resolutions, by order of the meeting, were sustain the government in every constitutional of dollars are weekly invested by them in its secu- with a great stink. General Willich came JNO. BECKWITH, Capt. of Schooner Easton. forwarded to President Lincoln, who returned a land lawful measure to suppress the rebellion.— rities, notwithstanding the sorrowful fact that back determined to expose the faults of certain JAS. CHRISTOPHER, Capt. of "Eliz. Jane. lengthy reply. The main points of Mr. Lincoln's Still, I must continue to do so much as may "grim visaged war," with all its expenses and commanders, but found that they had turned seem to be required by the public safety. and horrors, knows no ametioration or abate- over a new leaf, and he remains silent. He ment. These circumstances, we say are cheer-son's Divisions, which was roused so early in

A Paragraph on Mules.

The constitution itself makes the distinction; and home associations, and ten thousand chances to giving decided evidences of physical exhaustion in the Car-path-ian mountain.

dy within rifle-range-and the bullets were whistling in pursuit of our men, not of me, I thought, for they surely would not hit a noncombatant. And still the mule would not turn back. I pulled again on the reins with all my might, but the wayward animal only backed From every quarter of the loyal portion of himself up against a tree in response, and reso-

ADVERTISEMENTS,

Of one square (six lines,) inserted ONE TIME for one Dollar, and TWENTY-FIVE cents for each subsequent insertion. Longer ones in proportion. A liberal deduction to yearly advertisers. Advertisements not marked the number of insertions desired, will be continued until forbid, and charged accordingly advertingly.

bid, and charged accordingly. Marriages and Merchants and others who advertise by the year, will in no case be allowed to insert any ad vertisement not connected with their regular busi

Deaths, 50 cents each.

GENERAL WILLICH'S OPINION OF THE

at his feet. Hethinks the war cannot end until

WHERE IS THE MAN OF THE HOUSE.-The their daily quarrels and fights, which resulted occasionally in bruised faces and torn gar ments. The father of one family believing his ing a passionate man, concluded that the surest

"I am here, sir," said a personage of upwards "Did I understand you, that you were the gentleman of the house?" "Yes, sir."

"Well, I-I just dropped in, sir, to see if this is your raw-hide.

TO PUT UP FRUIT FOR WINTER.

After experimenting with cans, which I dewberries and currents. Peel, stone or stem hot all through; then fill the jugs; put in long, tight corks; tie the corks down tightly with cerks with a mixture of rosin, beeswax and venetomatoes in black glass bottles in tis way. commenced on the bottles, but having a very

P. S .- In talking with two chemists about that "the extreme lateness and coldness of the spring have had an unfavorable influence upon the President's bronchitis, and have arrested the