

SATURDAY MORNING, - - - JULY 11, 1863. at the battle of Gettysburg on Friday.

EASTON, MD.

Subscriptsons for us at our Loicest Rates.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

For State Comptroller, H. H. Goldsborough. For Commissioner of Land Office.

Wm. L. W. Scabrook.

NEWS SUMMARY.

day but was completely put to route in every the two armies has taken place before this. direction and is undoubtedly making its way as rapidly as possible towards the upper fords of Helena, Arkansas. An assalt was made upthe Potomac by all the roads that are available. on Helena, Arkansas, by the Rebels under Gen-Whether there will be another battle cannot yet erals Marmaduke, Price and Holmes. They commenced on the 2d inst. So far there has been no laother Cavalry Fight-Stuart Repulsed-Capbe determined, but the probabilities are that the were totally repulsed, with the loss of fifteen serious opposition or hindrance. All white persons the reported movements of the Rebel army to fight of six hours. Over seven hundred of the lt is supposed that the enrollment will occupy about who set out with the intention of meeting Stu nominations, sent by mail, no stage paid on recampaign will be one of detached skirmishes, as the Union troops under Gen. Prentiss, after a their names, occupation and place of birth registered. wards the several upper fords preclude the possi- prisoners arrived at Cairo yesterday. bility of any grand battle.

Home Brigade, took an active part in the great low to proceed to Washington to present a letter battle of Friday, occupying the post of honor from Jeff. Davis, to President Lincoln, is true. in centre. Their loss in the battle was 18 killed. He stated to Colonel Ludlow that he presented their wheat before the rain set in. Corn and grow- cavalry, attacked an ambulance train of the 74 wounded, and 16 missing. They belonged of truce, and that he was the bearer of a commu to General Lockwood's Brigado, which was to General Lockwood's Brigade, which was nication in writing from 'Jefferson Davis, wheat crop. brought up at a critical moment, and nobly met Commander in Chief of the Land and Naval the tremendous charge of the enemy. Colonel forces of the Confederate States of America, to We have received a few specimens of new escaped uninjured.

tured by our scouts, prove to be of the most deliver the said communication, attended only important character. They are in substance a by Robert Ould, as Secretary, for the purpose peremptory order for Lee to withdraw from communication. On Monday the Secretary of Pennsylvania, and for his transportation to fall War and the Secretary of the Navy respectively back to Hagerstown at once—the reasons as answered to Col. Ludlow and Rear-Admiral Cheering News from the Front ford planted his artillery in direct range. signed being that his position is too hazardous, Lee, that-"The request of Alexander II. Steand that the condition of Richmond is too phens is inadmissable. The customary agents vania longer.

The hanging of a spy here to day is the town talk. Of the fact there is the best demonstra- butions for the relief and refreshments of the tion, as the body of the man is still suspended to wounded soldiers from the battle field of Gettyea tree about a mile from town. His name is burg, making by our citizens, are highly credita-William Richardson, and he is said to be a Baltimorean, who at one time kept a book store at Harper's Ferry Suspicion was by some means. Harper's Ferry. Suspicion was by some means five thousand, nine hundred and eighty-three dol I directed towards him and he was arrested by our lars, whilst a sum fully equal to this has been Large Capture of Prisoners, Cannon, Wagons and scouts on the Minebank road. A search of his contributed through other channels, making person brought to light various papers, giving, thirteen thousand dollars in two days. The there and at other points. &c.. On the finding actively engaged, both on the field and in Balti- and Williamsport, with the intention of crosof the papers he confessed to being a Rebel spy, more, in relieving the pressing necessities of the sing. was tried by a drum head court martial, found wounded, and will require a large sum to meet Their wagon trains are in front and being fer- 4th. "Hail Columbia." guilty, sentenced, and hung at daylight this their expenditures. There are about five thous- red across slowly in tow of two flag boats- | Cargo, July 7 .- A despatch boat has just armorning. His body is to remain hanging un- and of our wounded yet to reach the city, and The Potomac high, the banks full, it is said, rived from Vicksburg. She left at 10 o'cleck til sundown. The man was well known in this we have been credibly informed that not less and they cannot cross in any other way, their Saturday mornig. Passengers announced that spy for some time.

The good conduct in battle that has been shown merican. Home Brigade, Col. Wm. P. Maulsby. Though | needed now than at any previous time. Thousands the 1st Maryland regiment of the Potomac raised with an especial view to the defence of of our brave soldiers are wounded and suffering .the Potomac, this regiment was, in the recent They have put to flight an enemy that sought to ded on the retreat. Every house and barn for the State, but eager to meet the enemy any- a call in this the hour of need? We hope the Re- prisoners, besides wounded. where. In the battle of Thursday the brigade to which the regiment was attached was ordered to which the regiment was a to move against the enemy's rifle-pits. Col. will give a good account of herself in the good and The slaughter among the Rebel General the most marked and expressive enthusiasin.— the death of C. North Emory. Maulsby showed conspicuous bravery in the noble work. action. Calling upon his men to "remember! Since the above was put in tipe we have receivthe Old Maryland Line," they responded with ed the following from the ladies of the Association. a cheer and successfully carried the position and | Ladies Union Relief Association. well to correct here an erroneous report that Col. | tion. Maulsby was wounded at the Winchester fight: it was Lieut. Maulsby. The Colenel was not at Winchester. lead to important results. A despatch from Ra-Houses of the Legislature went into secret sess. now anchored out in the Choptank. ion on that day to receive a verbal communica tion from the Governor.

on Tuesday, give reports from the neighborhood of McConnellsburg that the entire Rebel army makes no mention of the wounding of Capt. Henengagement being in progress at daylight yester- ed the fact in a letter to his wife: day morning. We must doubt the correctness | Co. B .- Killed-William B. Jones, Edward timore. of this report, though there may have been some Pritchett; Wounded-Francis E. Andrew, Jos. HARRISBURG, July 6-Midnight.-The authori- justly regarded as one of the ablest Lawyers of cavalry skirmishes in the neighborhood.

that Gen. Couch has pushed forward all his ef- Woolford, William Hill; Missing-Elijah Hobs fective force to co operate with and join the Ar. | Co. D .- Wounded - Wm. Cartee.

organised. His advance is already reported to Joshua Townsend. ed to be full of disorganise! treeps from Lee's gan. srmy, and captures are being made every hour. Co. G .- Wounded-Sam'l J. Wright John gagement to day at Favettville, in which he took The troops under Gen. Pearce, formerly Milroy's F. Jester. command, arrived at Chambersburg on Sunday | Co. H .- Wounded - Wm. R. Chaplin, Wm | town and Chambersburg, on the east of South in by the and pushed on to Greencastle, where they cap. H. Price, C. H. Jester, James E. Price, Andrew Mountain.

Jackson, died on Monday from wounds receiv-

S. M. Pettengill & Co.,

brigade was cut off in the mountains near citizens, determined to make some demonstration in peper, to ascertain what had become of Beaure-rent, time feet deep in the channel, and rising with no possibility of its falling to fording depth for a more possibility of its falling to fording depth for a more many thirteen guns in honor of the occasion. The town day. They were captured from the enemy near week to come. The Rebels were endeavoring and Church bells were also rung, which, added to the Shippensburg. Merchants and others advertising by the year by means of two flatboats, but 'were com- ment, while the eathusiasm of our loyal citizens dis- would be forced to turn and give us battle or will be charged extra for advertisments out o shore taking their contents and the horses over their regular line of Luisness. Marriages and Deaths inserted at 50 cents in the boats. It was a very slow process, and each. Objituary notices charged for according almost equal to no means of trasportation at all. greatly astonished to find that Lee had not made his with caissons, broken down wagons and abaneach. Obituary notices charged for according almost equal to no means of trasportation at all. appearance. Our secession friends seemed to be evincieng an utter demoralization of the enemy. As Lee cannot escape to Virginia the two ar. appearance. Our secession friends seemed to be evincieng an utter demoralization of the enemy. than he was to meet it at Gettysburg in the height of its glory.

The news from the seat of war in Western ters were at Hagerstown on Wednesday. The come to the conclusion that the rebellion was a hoax. General Smith's militia force is pushing on rumor that heavy fighting had taken place at There is one thing however, which they begin to rapidly, and has now reinforced the wearied Maryland and Pennsylvania is of the most grati- Williamsport, appears to be false. The main perceive very distinctly, and which they have here- troops of Meade. The military is pouring in fying character. The Rebel army was not only army of Lee was at that point however, and as tofore ignored, viz : that there is a government of rapidly, and being organized and sent forward. thoroughly whipped in the great battle of Fri. Gen. Meade was advancing from Frederick in the United States, and like all culpirts who are Captain Jones, of the New York cavalry. the two armies has taken place before this.

We have another Fourth of July victory at hundred men, killed, wounded and prisoners, by and free blacks between the ages of 20 and 45 have

It appears that the story of the Rebel Vice-Colonel Maulsby's regiment, of the Potomae President Stephens having come down the James river on Sunday last, and asked to be al-The despatches from Jeff. Davis to Lee, cap- same Confederate steamer to Washington to objection to the quantity. and channels are adequate tor all needful militadefenceless to warrant his remaining in Pennsyl- ry communication and conference between the Abandoning Wounded Officers. United States forces and the insurgents."

THE SOLDIERS' RELIEF FUND .- The contrisection, and had before been under suspicion. than eight thousand of the rebel wounded have pontoon bridges having been destroyed by a large General Pemberton sent in a flg of truce on the N adjourned meeting of the Stockholdrs of It is said he has been regularly employed as a been left in the vicinity of the battle field, all of force of infantry.

repuised the enemy mr their immediate front. In In View of rescent events the ladies of the Union dead. Major General Hood was wounded in Tullanona, July, 6, 3 A. M.-Major General July 11, 1862 that day's battle the regiment lost nearly two relief association here resumed their efforts for the arm. Generals Beth, Pender and Picket al Thomas has succeeded in crossing the Eik hundred in killed, wounded and missing. Of the relief of the sick and wounded soldiers, and are also known to be wounded. Generals Barks- river, with a corps and a division of cavalry, unofficers they had killed Lieuts. Smith, Eader earnestly solicit contributions for this purpose. All dale and Garnett were killed. and Wilmer, all of Frederick county. The two contributions will be left at the store of Dawson former were buried here on Saturday with mili & Bro. Besides money, linen, suitable cloathing, tary honors, General Kenly sending in an est wines, jellies and other delicacies will be thankfully bridge just built across the Potomac, above their wagon train and rear guard, cort of the 1st Maryland volunteers. It may be received and carefully forwarded to their destina- Williamsport. If so, it is feared their main force Major General Sherman occupied Winchester

There are numerous indications that the State in the hottsst of one of the late fights and the regi- mostly in our hands. We have buried large mountains without suffering a severe loss, and of North Carolina desires to return to the Union. ment sustained a loss of 36 men. It was at first numbers of their dead. General Farnsworth's perhaps being forced into battle. Our loss dur-The Portsmouth Virginian of the 2d inst, an- feared that Capt. Hennisce, well and favorably nounces that such return is an event that may known to our citizens, had been killed, but it was af- effort to gain a strong position on South Moun- more than double, besides about 1,000 prisonbe daily expected. A disaffection towards the terwards ascertained that he was but slightly wound- tain Gap. He is, however, and country roads, lers; and, without a battle, and the necessary loss Bills Discounted, Government of Jeff. Davis, radical and wide- ed and that he was the only officer in the regiment which are almost impassible and his men and of life, the enemy have been driven out of Ten- Stock Purchased, spread, exists in the State, and overtures have that received an injury. All honor to our Talbot animals are reported to be almost exhausted nessee .- Corr. Times. been made to Gen. Foster which will shortly boys, and shame to a few of that regiment who re- with great fatigue. leigh, dated the 1st inst., announces that both fused to go in the defence of their State, and are FREDERICK, June 6.-General McReynolds .

Since the above was put in type we have re-Since the above was put in type we have re-ceived the following list of killed and wounded troyed as to be impracticable for the retreating subject however to the approval of the Secreta- Specie, was at Hagerstown and Williamsport, a brisk nisee, there is no doubt of it. Col. Wallace stat-

Hayman. . Our despatches from Harrisburg announce Co. C.-Killed-S. Arnold; Wounded-Jos. to day.

ture! five hundred prisoners, two wagons load Satterfield, Corp. James H. Gossage, Wm. Hull, A person representing himself as General bonor of the great victories achieved by the Union gard's troops, and was very anxious to know are our Agents for the Gazette, in those cities. The Potemac was Wednesday asurging torare our Agents for the Gazerre, in those cities. The Potomac was Wednesday asurging tor-and are authorized to take Advertisements and rent, nine feet deep in the channel, and rising with to get their wagens across at Wikiamsport booming of the cannon, created considerable excite- There was every indication that Lee's army AN OLD LADY RESTORED TO COM. mies will again be in contact within the next for- mystefied at the results of the late few days, like a General Gregg says it was the Rebel Briga- Last winter one of my grandsons presented me ty eight hours. Gen. Meade's troops are repre man who has received a dreadful blow and unable dier General Longsworth who was killed -not with half a dozen pottiles of your Bitters, and sented to be in fine spirits, are moving forward to comprehend where it came from. Some insisted Longstreet. greatly strengthened and reinforced. He is now that though Vicksburg had fallen, nevertheless, The Potomac is rising rapidly. The river is feel as it I was thirty years younger; for I can Lee was "all right," while another declared that he impassable at Williamsport.

-- Hy. C. Long.

Lee's scattered troops are retreating rapidly brash—my constant companion for the last torty in better condition to meet Lee's shattered army Lee was "all right," while another declared that be impassable at Williamsport. neight of its giory.

Intelligence from the Army of the Potomac, such a place as Vicksburg, or that there were such in official circles that the fords on the Potomac versus years. My grandson, when he saw the good et-Intelligence from the Army of the Potomac, such a place as vicksourg, or that there were such in official circles that the fords on the Potomac fects of the Bitters, advised me to send you this men as Davis, Lee or Meade, and in fact seemed to jare all in the possession of our troops. before the majesty of the law they have violated.

> THE ENROLLMENT .- The enrollment in this county, my collectively. two weeks before completion.

rain on Tuesday and another on Wednesday. The great majority of our farmers were through cutting Maulsby was in the thickest of the fight, and "Abraham Lincoln; Commander-in-Chief of the potatoes from our old Friend Billy Willson, the Land and Naval forces of the United States of America," and that he desired to proceed in the quality is very fine, but we have a very decided ed 867 prisoners, among whom there were a Wheat—Fair to prime, White,

RETREATING IN FRAGMENTS

Trimble, the Bridge Burner, a Prisoner. CAVALRY FIGHT PROGRESSING.

High Water in Potomac.

Horses.

as I am told, for I have as yet to take the story Ladies' Union Relief Associations, the Christian | Harristung, July 7, 6 P. M.—Information at second hand, giving sketches of the fortifica- Commission. Adams Express, the gentlemen of received here proves, without doubt, the contintions around Baltimore, the number of troops the Union Relief, and other organizations, are ued retreat of the Rebels towards Hagerstown is no doubt making a desperate fight.

nels as well as Privates. The enemy are abandoning all their woun- tly reliable. inovement of the Army of the Potomae, attach- descrate our soil, lay waste our homes and subject all, Generals and Colonels, as well as privates. to the Secretary of the Navy from Admiral ed to the Twelfth Army Corps. The regiment us to Jeff. Davis' tyranny. What lady is there in All their wounded will fall into our hands- Porter, of the surrender of Vicksburg on the 4th went willingly, making no objections to leaving the county, that will not give a hearty response to We have taken thus far over six thousand of July, was received a few minutes before 1 THE Co-partnership heretofore existing un-

> Officers has been very great. Major General The intelligence was at once communicated to All persons indebted to the late firm will please Trimble is a prisoner within our lines with his the President by Secretary Welles in person. left foot gone. Brigadier General Kemper is a prisoner and in a dying condition. General FROM GEN. ROSECRANS! ARMY. as I am compelled to many prisoner and in a dying condition. General FROM GEN. ROSECRANS! ARMY. to the Orphan's Court. Armisteed, who was captured on Thursday, is

> The enemy are reported to have a trestle Bragg's army, with every prospect of capturing [THE subscriber has purchased the stock of

Col. Wallace's Reciment. - We have learned from to harrass the enemy's rear. The Rebels have pushing them hard. a private source that Col. Wallace's regiment was abandoned their wounded, and they are now It is thought that Bragg can hardly cross the body was recovered to-day.

sent torward a force to day to discover the ene- E.S. Home Guards, who refused to go to my towards Harper's Ferry.

Despatches from Harrisburg, received late from Col. Wallace's regiment. Although it Rebels. The Rebels are retreating in all directry of War. A wagon train conveying the wounded was WH-HON. WM. TINGLE, for many years an aspast forty-eight hours, which must necessarily about 67 years of age .- Princess Anne Herald. July 11-11 my of the Potomac, and that he is also hurrying) Co. E. - Killed - Wm. H. Eaton; Wounded I destroy all the fords, and there being no bridges | Co. Marrial law has been declared through. other regiments forward as fast as they can be - Wm. E. Perry; Missing - Alfred Townsend within striking distance of Lee's army, all means out the State of Delaware, by Gen. Schenck, of have come in contact with the retreating enemy | Co. F .- Wounded - John Ayers, Ino. D. A despatch, which was received to night by The mountains south of Harrisburg are report Moore; Missing-Samuel J. Cooper, Geo. Mor. Geo. Couch, states that Gen. Gregg, with a

The first and three pieces of artillery.

It is stated on doubtful authority that the Reb Co. I.—Wounded—Corp. Wm. W. Adams, tured near Hagerstown on Bridge, arrived here to day. He states that Longstreet and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opposed the invasion of Mandand and Lee Co. K.—Killed—Anthony Sterling: Wounded both opp Pennsylvania believing that it would be disaster-Left Baltimore and were not on the battle field, jous; but President Davis would not listen to

The cavairy of Gen. Pleasanton has been Alex. Roc. F. A. Porter, John Eaton, son of their objections, and gave the order for the adcapturing horses, wagons and prisoners in great Capt. T. Eaton.

prisoners have thus far been taken by our ar-ture of an .Imbulance Train and Nine Hundred and Sixty Seven Prisoners. FREDERICK, MD., July 6 .- General Buford, the vicinity of Boonsboro'. He whipped him ceipt of $5 by FINE RAINS .- This section was blessed with a fine badly. There is no further reliable information. Deserters from the Rebel army represent that they are much dispirited and out of ammunition. Yesterday Gen. Kilpatrick, with his division of of ambulances and wagons to the number of one hundred and sixty, a great many of which he destroyed. His artillery demolished many of the wagons before the Rebels surrendered.

large number of wounded officers, from Colonels to Lietenants. The prisoners arrived here to- Corts-White, day. He also captured the enemy's artillery of / Yellow, two small pieces. Our loss was very light and Ours-Maryland. that of the Rebels beavy, althaugh they mady but a slight show of resistance after Gen. Bay

CLORIOUS NEWS.

VICESBURG HAS SURRENDERED.

OFFICIAL DESPATCH.

WASHINGTON, July 7 .- The following des- La clared on the Capital Stock of the Miles patch has this moment been received (I P. M.): River Bridge Company, payable on and after UNITED STATES MISSISSIPPI SQUADRON, Flag-ship Black Hawk.

Off Vicksburg, July 4th, 1863. To Hon. Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Nary: Sir-I have the honor to inform you that Vicksburg has surrendered to the United States forces on this Fourth of July. Very respectifully, your obedient servant,

D. D. PORTER,

Acting Rear Admiral Particulars of the Surrender. Cairo, July 7 .- Vicksburg surrendered July

morning of the 4th, and offered to surrender if A: the Dover Bridge Companey will be whom will be sent to Baltimore. Bultimore . I. Our army is fast following the enemy up and his men were allowed to march out. General held in Easton on Grant is reported to have replied, that no man by all the Maryland regiments that have yet | We copy the above in order to remind the Ladies | The Enemy's Trains Stuck in the Med He .1. | should leave, except as prisoners of war. Gen- at 10 o'clock A. M. for the Election of Direccome under fire has been again exemplified by Union Relief Association that their services are more | Landons all Wounded - Generals and Colo- eral Pemberton, then, after consultation with his tors, and Officers for the ensuing year. A commanders, surrendered. The news is perfect punctual attendance is required.

The News at Washington. Washington, July 7 .- The brief despatch o'clock to-day. The news spread with astonish- der the firm of Cheezum & Emory, was der Gen. Stanley, and is in close pursuit of this morning, his advance driving out the rear! HANOVER, July 6th.—Our cavalry continue guard of the Rebels, and at last accounts he was and now offer them at reduced rates at his store ing the campaign in killed is between 400 and Statement of the Easton Bank of Md, Our scouts report that Lee straining every 500; wounded about 200. The enemy's loss is

> The men belonging to Company K of the Baltimore, have been disbanded and dishonorcaptured, with its guard of nine hundred and sociate Judge of this Circuit under the old Consixty-lour men to-day. They will go to Balti-stitution, died at his residence in Snow Hill, Md., on the 25th ult. Judge Tingle, was very ies here are in costasies over the news received Maryland; was a man of pure character, and unsullied integrity; and his loss is great to the The Potomac has risen-six feet within the community in which he so long lived-He was

Male or Female. 4,000 prisoners. Fayetteville is between Cash- If you have been suffering from a habit indulted

> WHICH CAUSESSO MANY ALARMING SYMPTONS. And is the greatest evil which can betall

MAN OR WOMAN. See symptoms enumerated in Advertisement and if you are sufferer, with Cut out the Advertisement.

And send for it at once. Delays are dangerous. Ask for Helmbold's Take no other. Cures guaranteed. Beware of Counterfeits and Linitations. July 11

PARATIVE YOUTH BY HOOF. LAND'S GERMAN

BITTERS. PHILADELPHIA, June 5, 1854.

induced me to try them. I did so, and I now

Yours. &c., MRS. ANN PATTERSON

Cherry below Ninth. Ask for Hoffand's German Bitters, take Gen. Gregg states that about twelve thousand These Bitters are for sale by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, and South America, at 75 cents per bottle. [July 11

Confederate (Redel) Money. Fac Simile Treasury Notes, exactly like the art, had a fight with him to day somewhere in nominations, sent by mail, postage paid, on re-

> W. E. HILTON. 11 Spruce Street, N. Y.

DENTISTRY. J. N. BAIRD, D. S. EASTON, Md.

MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, July 9, 1863. 1 75a81 80 1 53a&1 W 90a93 cts 91a94 cts. 82a84 cu

CATHOLIC CHURCH TO ELIGIOUS services will be held by Rev. Father Cornell, a Catholic Clergyman, in the town hall, in Easton, on Sunday, 19th of July, at 10 o'clock, A. M. All who feel disposed are invited to attend. [July 11-2w NOTICE. DIVIDEND of 6 per cent. has been de-

July 9th, 1863. By the Treasurer, LLOYD LOUNDES, July 11-1t

Secretary.

WANTED. WOMAN of experience, assistant bousekeeper, in a small white family, where there are a sufficiency of colored servants to do the cooking, washing &c. To one who will render satisfaction, liberalwages will be paid. Enquire at the office of the Gazette, or of Mr. Edward Harrison, Merchant, St. Michaels.

NOTICE.

Wednesday, the 15th inst.. J. W CHEEZUM Sec., P. T.

Dover Bridge Co. july 11--tm

call and settle their accounts as soon as possible

as I am compelled to make a return of the same

JNO. W. CHEEZUM, Sub. Partner. NOTICE.

Goods of the late firm of CHEEZUM & ENORY, room, in Easten. He solicits the continued patronage of the House, from his friends and the public generally. JNO. W. CHEEZUM. July 11-3t

Monday, July 6th, 1863; 8323,096 85 10,539 55 12,000 00 Real Estate, Expenses, Notes and Checks of other Banks, U. States Treasury Notes, 50000 00 59.252 31 Due from other Banks, 44,973 34 8597,143 14 8200,000 00 Capital, Notes in Circulation,

6,333 04 Discounts Received, Surplus Profits. 224,914 25 Deposits, 3,101 13 Due to other Banks,

THE subscriber having pure Grist and Saw Mill, at 7 conducted under the firm of Fo on, he desires to inform his frie ic generally of Talbot, that the have to do work as heretofore. ntends to give his personal au hose entrusting him with their assured that nothing will be le satisfaction.

INCOME

A LL persons are requested t A of their Income for the year ent it to the Assistant Assessor venience of Farmers Blanks ha and left at the following places : Dawson & Bro., Levin H. Delahay, II. Clay Dodson, 20. S. Leonard & E. T. Benso and at the office of the Assist Persons failing to have lists Assistant Assessor shall call, w.

will have to render their lists at ton within ten days from, that tional assessment of fifty per cel and a fine of one hundred dolla

July 11___Ast. Assessor IN virtue of two decrees of the for Talbot County, sitting subscriber, as Trustee, will offe. Le auction, on Tuesday, the 4th day at the Court House, in the tow

2 o'clock. P. M., that valuab Tread Haven Creek, in Talbo " George W. Merling, com Pecks Point," containing the 296 Acres of more or less. This is one of th productive farms in the county; ted on the salt water and with the town of Oxford. The Steam to a to Baltimore pass immedithe dwelling, and take off and visiting the farm. The reasour provement of the land, (already erhaustable supply of rich loan provements consist of a large will built DWELLING, and pocessary farm buildings. waters abound in Ducks, Oyst Terapins and Fish in season. god is thickly settled, with ple the people. TERMS OF SALE .- The purch paid in cash on the day of sale and free of incumbrance, wil purchaser on the ratification of JAMES LL. July 4-ts

PROVOST MARSHAL FIRST DISTRICT

Men Wanted for the In Only those faitaful soldiers w or the hardships of war, are a active field duty will be receiv of Honor. Enlistments will b unless sooner discharged. Par same as for officers and me States Infantry; except that bounty for enlistment will be will not invalidate any pensi which may be due for services The following uniform has officers and men of the Invalid FOR OFFICERS.—Frock of cloth, with dark-blue velvet co other respects, according to the for efficers of nafantry. Shoulder straps-According lations, but worked on dark-bl Pantaloous-Of sky-blue clo stripes of dark-blue cloth down each stripe one-half iach wide tween of three-eighths of an i

Forage cap-Presen, regula FOR ENLISTED MEN.due kersey, with dark-blue tr a cavalry jacket, to come tae abdomen. Trowsers-Present regulatio Forage cap-Present regulat Mea who are still in servi

I form effective field duty, d to this corps. Medical Inspectors, Surger Hospitals, Military Command having authority to discharge ings and regulations, are forbi charges to any men under t may be fit for service in the It For the convenience of serv le selected for three grades who are most efficient and a rapable of performing guard d be armed with muskets, and a nies of the First Battalion. 7 degree of efficiency, including lest a hand or an arm; and th acluding those who have los the companies of the Second of are will be armed with sword

The duties will be chiefly cuards and garrisons for citie jutals and other public building orderlies, etc. If found neces assigned to forts etc. Acting Assistant Provost ! are authorized to appoint Office Service, or of the Invalid Cor the oath of enlistment to those completely fulfilled the prese mission to the Invalid Corp

2. That he is fit for the dutie indicated above. 3. That, if not now in the conorable discharged. 4. That he is meritorious a For enlistment or further the Board of Enrolment aich the applicant is a resid JOHN. FRAT

. That the applicant is unfi

Capt. Pro July 4, 1863-3m ONCENTRATED LYF just received; also Solidi LAVORING EXTRA

Lemon, Orange, Almo COAL OI THE best Cresent Coal Of

the Manufacturers agen' JAMES