DR. HOOFLAND'S

CERMAN BITTERS,

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, Phila'd, Pa. WILL effectually cure Liver complaints, Dyspepsia; Jaundice, Cronic or Nervous Debility, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, such as constipation, inward piles, fullness or blood to the head, accidity of the stomach, nausea, treartburn, disgust for food, tuilness or weight in the stomach, sour eructations, sinking or fluttering at the pit of the stomach, swimming of the head, hurried and difficult breathing. futtering at the heart, choking or suffocating rission, dots or webs before the sight, fever and pall pain in the head, deficiency of perspiration, reliowness of the skin and eyes, pain in the side, back, chest limbs, &c,, sudden flushes of beat, burning in the flesh, constant imaginings eferil, and great depression of spirits. And will positively prevent yellow fever, bilious ferer, &c., they contain no Alcohol or Bad Whister! They will cure the above diseases in niney-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal pepularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, purely vegetable, hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventures, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whiskey, vilely come pounded with injurious drugs; and christened Topics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big belhed kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters which instead of carring, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS! Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation. The propietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent Clergymen, Lawyers, physicians and Citizens, testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you? Do you want a good appetite?

Do you want to build up your constitution? Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of nervousness?

Do you want energy? Do you want to sleep well?

The False One.

BY T. H. BAILEY. I knew him not, I sought him not-He was my father's gust: I gave him not one smile more kind He sat beside me at the board,

But oh! I never heard a voice

The choice was not my own,

Wish half so sweet a tone.

A face he thought so fair.

And at the dance again we met-Again I was his choice-Again I heard the gentle tone Of that beguiling voice: I sought him not- he led me forth. And told me he had never seen

Ah! wherefore did he tell me this? His praise made me vain: And, when he left me, how I longe'd To hear that voice again! wondere'd why my old pursuits Had lost their wonted charm,

And, why the path was dull, unless

I len'd upon his arm. Alas! I might have guess'd the cause-For what could make me shun My parents' cheerful dwelling-place To wander all alone?

And what could make me braid my bair, And study to improve The form that he had deigne'd to praise-What could it be but love? Oh! little knew I of the world,

And less of man's career: I thought each smile was kindly meant-Each word of praise sincere: His sweet voice spoke of endlesss love-I listen'd and believed,

That sweet voice had deceived. He smiles upon another now-And in the same sweet tone He breathes to her those winning words I once thought all my own; Oh! why is she so beautiful? I caunot blame his choice-
