TO ANNIE.

BY A. STAFFORD, U. S. Y.

I gave you a ring, darling Annie, It was made of the virgin gold; I gave you a heart with the ring, love-A heart that will never grow cold. I gave you a hand with the heart, love-A hand, ever ready to lend, Assistance to those who are weak, love, And you and my country defend.

I got in return, darling Annie. A treasure, of value untold, A heart that is warm, and more pure, love, Than my gift-the circle of gold-I got not only a heart, love, But a hand and a soul ever true-A model of beauty and grace, love-That model, dear Annie, was you.
