It is also said that it was occupied by our troops against orders, directions having Leen given some time since to abandon it. Both Houses of Congress have directed the Committee on the conduct of the war to investigate the facts as to the massacre of our troops, and the military neglect which left the Fort exposed to such an attack.

The Rebel General Chalmers remarked to a Federal officer that he intended to show no mercy to home-made Yankees, meaning Tennesseeans who had taken the oath of allegiance and joined the Union army, but that genuine Yankees would be treated as prisoners of war.
