The propietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent Clergymen, Lawyers, physicians and Citizens, testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you? De you want a good appetite? Do you want to build up your constitution? Do you want to feel well?

Do you want to get rid of nervousness? Do you want energy? Do you want to sleep well?

Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling? liyou do, use Hoofland's GERMAN BITTERS. ATTENTION SOLDIERS, AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "Hoof land's German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposure and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were frequently used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost. We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life to use his own

Poetry for the Fair.

The following ballad by John G. Whittier, entitled Barbara Fritchie, accompanied with photographs of the heroine, are for sale at the Frederick county Table, at the Baltimore Fair. narrates an incident of the present Rebellion that happened in Frederick city during the Rebel raid in which Stonewall Jackson took a conspic-

Up from the meadows rich with corn, Clear in the cool September morn, The cluster sp'res of Frederick stand, Green-walled by the hills of Maryland. Round about them orchards sweep, . Apple and peach tree fruited deep. Fair as a garden of the Lord To the eyes of the famished Rebel horde. Over the mountains, winding down, Horse and foot, into Frederick town. Forty flags with their liver stars, Forty flags with their crimson bars, Flapped in the morning wind; the sun Of noon looked down and saw not one. Up rose old BARBARA FRITCHIE then, Bowed with her fourscore years and ten; Bravest of all in Frederick-town, She took up the flag the men hauled down; In her attic-window the staff she set, To show that one heart was loyal yet. Up the steet came the Rebel tread, Stonewall Jackson riding ahead. Under his slouched hat left and right, He glanced-the old flag met his sight. "Halt!"-the dust-brown ranks stood fast, "Fire !"-out blazed the rifle-blast. It shirered the window, pane and sash; It rent the banner with seam and gash; Quick, as it fell from the broken staff Dame Barbara snatched the silken scarf;

She leaned far on the window sill, And shook it forth with a royal will; "Shoot, if you must, this old gray head, But spare your country's flag," she said. A shade of sadness, a blush of shame, Over the face of the leader came; The nobler nature within him stirred

To life at that woman's deeds and words; "Who touches a hair of you gray head Dies like a dog! March on ?" he said. All day long through Frederick street Sounded the tread of marching feet; All day long that free flag tossed Over the heads of the Rebel host,

Ever its torn folds rose and fell On the loyal winds that loved it well; And through the hill-gaps sunset light Shone over it with a warm good-night. Barbara Fritchie's work is o'er, And the Rebel rides on his raids no more.

Honor to her! and let a tear Fall, for her sake on Stonewall's bier. Over Barbara Fritchie's grave, Flag of Freedom and Union, wave! Peace and order and beauty draw Round thy symbol of light and law; And ever the stars of love look down
