as a new engagement.

AGIA.

unent o

iers and

ACE.

RACE.

new and ods.

varticle

cc., &c

mprove

Gloves

an early

SEY.

is ink is

ith Steel,

rash out

.-Pres-

owder, 2

buy all

are WII-

Ir, Horse

chaels-

of that

Chewing

e highest Cash or trade.

BELL.

Bread,

Vol. XLVII.

Easton, Talbot County, Md., October 22, 1864.

for one Dollar, and TWENTY-FIVE cents for each subsequent insertion. Longer ones in pro-A liberal deduction to yearly advertiof insertions desired, will be continued until forbid, and charged accordingly. Marriages and Deaths, 50 cents each. Merchants and others who advertise by the year, will in no case be allowed to insert any ad vertisement not connected with their regular business, without an additional charge. All orders addressed to the editor, post-paid will receive prompt attention.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Of one square (six lines,) inserted one TIME

ALCOHOLIC. A Highly Concentrated VEGETABLE EXTRACT. A PURE TONIC.

of subscribing, or the renewal of subscription-falure to notify a discontinuance is considered

DR. HOOFLAND'S

PREPARED BY Dyspepsia; Jaundice, Cronic or Nervous The knave that stands idly till peril is past, tases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, And victory dawns, is of cowards the worst I such as constipation, inward piles, fullness or sea, heartburn, disgust for food, fullness or That cravens so shamelessly lift the white cheek weight in the stomach, sour eructations, sink- To court the swift insult, nor blush at the blow, ing or fluttering at the pit of the stomach, swim- The tools of the Treason and friends of the foe! ming of the head, hurried and difficult breathing, See! Anarchy smiles at the Peace which they ask, fluttering at the heart, choking or suffocating And the eyes of Disunion flash out through the mask sensations when in a lying posture, dimness of pall pain in the head, deficiency of perspiration, Bear onward, unfaltering, our noble old flag, side, back, chest limbs, &c., sudden stushes of For the blood of your valor is uselessly shed! heat, burning in the flesh, constant imaginings No soldier's green laurel is promised you here, of evil, and great depression of spirits. And But the white rag of "sympathy" softly shall cheer? will positively prevent vellow fever, bilious fever, &c., they contain no Alcohol or Bad Whis-They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred Induced by the extensive sale and universa popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters. purely vegetable, hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventures, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs; and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcohol- And sundered, exists as a nation no more ! ic preparations in plethoric bottles and big belled kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters which instead of carring, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS! Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fitteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not avalled by any similar preparation

The propietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent Clergymen, Lawyers, physicians and Citizens, testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters. Do you want something to strengthen you? Do you want a good appetite? Do you want to build up your constitution?

Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of nervousness? Do you want energy?

Do you want to sleep well? Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling? It you do, use Hoofland's GERMAN BITTERS.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS.

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. land's German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths cle Logan's party to-nght." arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very him by the throat with intense mock-fury. that, if these Bitters were frequently used a- anything!" mong our soldiers, hundreds of fives might be And she still persevered in her spirited mode the rocks.

saved that otherwise will be lost. remarkable and well authenticated cure of one promised often enough to satisfy you." of the nation's heroes, whose life to use his own! "On your honor?" language, has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23rd, 1862 your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my hold you to your promise." cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. gained a point. member of Sherman's relebrated battery, and un-just see how you've scratched my face!" arduous duties. I was attacked in November last est in its pleading expression, she added:

lunds as best suited me. An acquaintance who "Here, Hester, hold the baby. Now, Char-being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

trom whom I have heard nothing for eighteen being for eighteen to be the being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter permitted to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter propose it to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter permitted to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter permitted to her.

The being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter permitted to her.

The being permitted to rejo months: for, gentlemen, 1 am a loyal Virginian she said, fondly, pulling down one corner of the moved it about in her arms—pressed it closer; disabling and honorable wounds in the service and Confederate of Sept. 24: from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your in- shawl. "Look, Charlie!"

statement, as we had despaired of seeing our snow crackling under the feet of their horses. | Cu:

comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health. JOHN CUDDLEBACK, 1st New York Battery. GEORGE A. ACKLEY, Co. C., 11st. Maine. JOHN JENKINS, Co. B. 106th Penn.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS. See that the signature of "C. M. JACKSON."

ticle, do not be put off by any of the intoxicat- come back," Virgie said. Then added, anxious- gie's pale face seems paler yet, contrasted with the contrasted with t ing preparations that may be offered in its place ly, as she again deposited the child in her arms. her black dress. The cradle looks so desolate, to carry these and all other constitutional meas- General, like him, will escape with only a body. but send to us, and we will forward, securely "The creek is deeper than I thought; and standing always back in one corner of the nursery. ures essential to the salvation of the country in-guard.

Packed, by express. JONES & EVANS,

Chiphell, Raston, who will supply the count to meet them, and took the sleeping babe from though a sadder man; for at the temperance over to meet them, and took the sleeping babe from though a sadder man; for at the temperance over to meet them, and took the sleeping babe from though a sadder man; for at the temperance over to meet them, and took the sleeping babe from though a sadder man; for at the temperance over to meet them, and took the sleeping babe from though a sadder man; for at the temperance over to meet them, and took the sleeping babe from though a sadder man; for at the temperance over to meet them, and took the sleeping babe from though a sadder man; for at the temperance over to meet them. ly town in the United State. my made at manufacturers prices. [July 21-17 Virgie's poor, tired arms.

The Chicago Surrerder.

BY BAYARD TAYLOR.

What! hoist the white flag when our triumph is nigh? What! crouch before Treason? make Freedom a lie? ety of his boon-companions. What! spike all the guns when the foe is at bay? And the rags of his black banner drooping away? Tear down the strong name that our nation has won? BITTERS, And strike her brave bird from her home in the sun?

DR. C. M. JACKSON, Phila'd, Pa. He's a traitor who mocks at the sacrifice poured; TATILL effectually cure Liver complaints, Nameless and homeless the doom that should blast Debility, Disease of the Kidneys, and all dis- But he who submits when the thunders have burst blood to the head, accidity of the stomach, nau- Is the old spirit dead? Are we broken and weak, vission, dots or webs before the sight, sever and Give thanks, ye brave boys, who by vale and by crag little lat thumb in his mouth. vellowness of the skin and eyes, pain in the Strong arms of the Union, heroes living and dead,

> How captives are nursed by the masters of slaves, Or, living, still linger in shadows of death,— Puff out the starved muscle, recall the faint breath, And shout, till those cowards rejoice at the cry,

> By the God of our Fathers! this shame we must share, But it grows too debasing for freemen to bear, And Washington, Jackson will turn in their graves, When the Union shall rest on two races of slaves, Or, spurning the spirit which bound it of yore,

[From the New York Mercury.] WINE'S WORK.

BY HOWARD GLYNDON.

"Promise me, Charlie!" She was leaning playfully over the back of his we better stay?" she asked, persuasively. chair, looking down into his face. By "she" I mean Mrs. Gale, and "Charlie" was her husband. He had just settled himself for a quiet, ously snatched it from his hand, threatening to exposure, so she commenced making her adieux. citizens in States where civil law exists in full sons have shed their blood, and millions of treast to the field. withold it until he gave her the desired promise. And now she laid one hand caressingly on his give the babe to her before they started. she looked archly yet half earnestly down into out to them: the dark deeps of his eyes, with her tender blue ones, as she repeated:

"Nonsense, Virgie!"

And he tried to put away her hand. "Oh, Charler !" reproachfully.

he said, half impatiently.

tions incident to camp life. In the lists, pub- attack upon him, pulling his head back as far as babe through. She hoped he would not think soldiery of our army, who are and have been 4. The Chicago Platform says not not a ed by holding intercourse with gentlemen. It lished almost daily in the newspapers, on the she could get it, and making believe to clutch to ask her for the child, and was nerving herself in the field under the flag of our country; and sylable against the rebellion, but denounces, an exchange could be effected, I don't know but large proportion are suffering from debility. Ev- "Stop, Virgie, stop! Why, what are you a- in sight of the water.

Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting for this little mischiei! There, now, you'll put bright as day. Virgie thanked God for that!- so nobly earned. from disorders of the digestive organs are speedi- out my eye with that pin in your sleeve. Oh But she shuddered as the roar of the waters tell ly removed. We have no hesitation in stating murder! my face! I'll promise. Oh yes- on her ear; and she saw it foaming white in the of enforcing an argument. He shouted out: We call particular attention to the following "Yes, yes, yes! There, now, I hope I've whose names are appended, and who were fully of petted young wives when they have just your horse over safely, as you are." lam, and have been for the last tour years, a "You saucy little puss, how dare you? And She made him no answer.

"Certainly! Yes, of course!" "Oh, Sir, I thought I could bring you to terms.

der the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ay- "Shall I kiss it and make it well?" she asked, lly and angrily. res. Through the exposure attendant upon my playfully. And then, while her face grew earnwith inflamation of the lungs, and was for sev- "Oh, Charlie, you do not know how auxious | deed!" enty days in the hospital. This was followed I have telt about this party every since we deby great debility, heightened by an attack of dis- cided to go. They always have such a gay I suppose you think I'm drunk?" entery. I was then removed from the White time at Uncle Logan's. And you know, dear.

House, and sent to this city on board the Stea- though you would not do a wrong thing yourmer "State of Maine," from which I landed on sell, how easy it is for your companious to make the 29th of June, Since that time I have been you go too far, because you are such a dear, Give him to me, I say! Do you think to devotion of the American people to their country? about as low as any one could be and still retain good-natured case. But now that you have brave meso? Give him here this minute." scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did lorget when the boys begin to get too gay, come only serve to infuriate him; and what will not now constitutes the strength of this rebellion, and plain and practical questions: Answer them now, if Early was withdrawn, from taking a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was promised me, I feel quite easy. And, dear, don't Resistance, she knew, was useless. It would lorce a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up stairs to me and baby." And he promised.

cumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians was a good five-mile ride from Glendale, out it once—then drawing the thick blanket closer that while we uphold and maintain the acts and we fight the rebels a little longer, it is safe forev-field. With this we can succeed. If one-half who had been working faithfully, though un- into the country, over rough roads, with Maple over the shawls which enveloped the little fig- proclamations by which the Government, in its er. if we give them to understand, in Novem- the men now absent without leave will return to Successfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the Creek-swollen by recent rains, and flowing ure, sne covered the face again, and gave him own delense, has aimed a death-blow at this gi- ber next, that the only Road to Peace lies through duty, we can defeat the enemy. With that hope dread Archer, trankly told me they could do no wild and dark within its banks—to be crossed.— into her husband's arms. more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman. So it was still early of a clear, frosty evening, and to make such disposition of my limited; when Virge came out equipped for the ride.

present condition, was a difficult, almost dan- breaking! Poor young mother! Should your nearest druggist not have the ar-

W-For sale by Dawson & Bro., and L. H. to drop in. Aunt Lizzue came out to the door. Let us hope that Charles Gale is a better the action of the Government. the Christmas-eve party were already beginning Bible.

laying her head on his shoulder as they were on abstinence pledge. the point of separating. She, for aunt Lizzie's; comfortable room above stairs—he, for the soci-

"Never fear for me!" and he went gayly a- How shall we End the Rebellion-

Alas! for the promise made to the fond, credulous wife, sitting up stairs in the quiet matrondignity of her position at such a time. In less than half an hour, Charles Gale had 30. Read and compare the two Here they forgotten his promise, wife, child, everything, are:and again and again his glass was filled, and his voice raised in riotous chorus with the loud-

The night waned, and the guests began to Union, under the Constitution as the only solid system of taxation; and that it is the duty of eve- that it should not and I then put a man in comdisperse. Virgie sat in the dressing-room all foundation of our strength, and happiness as a ry loyal State to sustain the credit and promote mand who I knew would strike a manly blow ready for the ride, holding in her lap what seem- people, and as a framework of government e the use of the national currency. ed to be a huge bundle of blankets and shawls, qually conduct ve to the welfare and prosperity but which was in reality little Charlie, who lay of all the States, both North and South. curied up in his warm nest fast asleep, with one said, at last, impatiently.

and say I'm waiting?" spoke told her all. She knew at once that he liberty and private right alike trodden down, such power to obtain new footholds for monar er, when Polk, and when General Stephen D. And you, ye war martys, who preach from your graves was intoxicated, though to others only a very and the material prosperity of the country essentially impaired justice hymenity liberity and the material governments, sustained by a foreign mili- Lee was sent to her assistance. Miserable man. slight excitement was all that appeared unus- tially impaired, justice, humanity, liberity, and the tary force, in near proximity to the United The man who uttered this was a scoundrel. ual about him.

him. All her thought was to get him away OF HOSTILITY, with a view to an Julimate AMERICANS! Here you have the two right qualities to command, would I not be wrong "By the hands of the Union we fought for, we die!" before he betraved his condition to other eyes. "Give me the child," he said.

> unsteady. "Oh! I dare not trust the baby with him." was her thought, but she was silent. know the mortifying truth.

"It is so late, and it is growing colder." Virgie thought of the dreary five miles ride means and power under our control.

thought better of it.

But liquor had made him sullen. "No, we must go home," he said, surlily after-dinner cigar. But Mrs. Gale had mischiev- the matter with him; but only lead to a painful imprisonment, trial and sentence of American which thousands and tens of thousands of our are as rapidly as they become old enough going

"Look out for the creek!"

"All right!"

As they rode on, she saw that he was sinking or friends in the army to the fact that "Hoof- anything stronger than pure cold water at Un- termined not to let him have the child when public interest and common humanity. they came to the crossing, but to trust to her Resolved. That the sympathy of the Democratof the diseases induced by exposure and priva- And forthwith she made a small but savage own arm and courage to carry herself and the ic party is heartily and earnestly extended to the Redellion." With which do you agree? for a refusal, in case he should, when they came in the event of our attaining power, they will re- with intense bitterness and venom, everything that I might be induced to recognize Butter.-

moonlight, as it swept in a strong current over

Charles roused himself. "Where's the boy?" he asked.

am strong enough for it." Mesers Jones & Evans:-Well, gentlemen, Recollect you have said on your honor.' I shall ry him over, indeed! Give him right straight in our power to aid the Government in quelling, honors which a greatful nation can bestow. told, where will he shield himself? It is upon here to me !"

"Ha! What do you mean by that?"

your arm is very unsteady, just now. It is in- return to their just allegiance to the Constitution which is to be the corner-stone of the new Con- the Shenandoah Valley -was not sent here. It Again she was silent. "Give me the child!" he said, fiercely.

"O Charles! For God's sake—"

a drunken man do?

"Don't be a fool!"

eyes from the other two, until they had nearly tence of Slavery whithin the limits or the jurisas a forlorn hope to try your Bitters, and kinly, in his other, and sprang lightly into the saddly.

The procured a bottle.

T tated her into the water, when her attention was people are due to the soldiers and sailors of the TWO-THIRDS OF HIS ARMY ABSENT taking them the gloomy of death re-have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of insanity, if any one had been absured enough to pleton you were to think I couldn't bring him them some permanent recognition of their patriot vis at Macon, Ga., Sept. 23, 1864, is extracted really, it would be dangerous to cross in the She never passes it without having her heart to full and complete effect.

THE TWO ROADS TO PEACE.

Shall we Coax it, or Crush it? Every American Citizen wants the Rebellion ly circle with her babe on her knee, so proud ended and Peace restored. Two plans have He's a coward who shrinks from the lift of the sword; and happy—for it was her first child. And been proposed for doing it: one, by a Conven-encouraged by a liberal and just policy. what young mother ever failed to appreciate the tion which met in Baltimore, June 7; the other,

THE CHICAGO PLATFORM.

Resolved, That this Convention does explicitly ted States can never fegard with indifference the ter. Let the dead bury the dead. Let us, with declare, as the sense of the American people, that attempt of any European power to overthrow one arm and one effort, endeavor to crush Sher-"I wonder what makes Charles so late?" she after four years failure to restore the Union by the by force, or to supplant by traud, the institutions man. I am going to the army to confer with experience of war, during which, under the pre- of any republican government on the Western our Generals; the end must be the deleat of our "Aunt Lizzie, will you please send for him, tense of a military necessity or war power high-continent; and that they will view with extreme enemy. It has been said that I abandoned Georer than the Constitution, the Constitution itself jealousy, as menacing to the peace and indepen- gia to her tate. Shame upon such talsehood.-He came at length. But the first words he has been disregarded in every part, and public dence of their own country, the efforts of any Where could the author have been when Walkpublic welfare, demand that IMMEDIATE EF- States. Oh! the shame! She hardly dared speak to FORTS BE MADE FOR A CESSATION Convention of all the States, or other peaceable plans for ending the Rebellion, restoring peace, if he was not removed? Why, when our army

the Federal Union of the States.

with a drunken husband, and then the creek! - Resolved, That the aim and object of the Demo-She had before refused to say, but now she cratic party is to preserve the Federal Union and Rebellion to be stopped by immeriate efforts make bread. But should they know of any young the rights of the States unimpaired; and they FOR A CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES on the man keeping away from the service, who cannot "What do you think of it, Charles? Hadn't hereby declare that they consider the Adminis- part of the Government. The Baltiore Platform be made to go any other way, let them write to trative usurpation of extraordinary and danger- propose to "quell it by FORCE of ARMS."- the Executive I read all letters sent me from ous powers not granted by the Constitution, the The first is Surrender—the last Victory! Which the people but have not the time to reply tothem. subversion of the civil by military law in States do you prefer? She knew it would avail nothing to argue not in insurrection, the arbitrary military arrrest, 3. The Chicago Pletform brands the war in forty-five left. The boys, God bless the boys, By dint of gentle coaxing she induced him to force, the suppression of freedom of speech and ures have been expended—in which our soldiers The city of Macon is filled with stores, sick of the press, the denial of the right of asylum. have won imperishable renown by their gallant and wounded. It must not be abandoned when forehead, and stealing the other under his chin As they rode away, Uncle Logan shouted the open and avowed disregard of State rights, devotion to the flag of the country—in which threatened, but when the enemy comes, instead the employment of unusual test-oaths, and the more victories have been acheived than were of calling upon Hood's army for defence, the interference with a denial of the right of the peo- acheived before by any nation—in which the old men must fight, and when the enemy is driv-Virgie's heart was too heavy for a reply; but ple to bear arms, as calculated to prevent a restrebels have been stripped of three fourths of the en beyond Chatanooga, they too can join in the Promise me, Charlie. Now do; that's adear!" Charles shouted back with maudlin cheerful toration of the Union, and the perpetuation of a territory they held at the start—in which one afgovernment deriving its just powers from the ter another of their strong places have been cap- a sort of Yankee capital. I have heard that one consent of the governed.

Resolved, That the shameful disregard of the been destroyed, and which is just about to end defeat Sherman. I have tried every means, "Pshaw! do let me go.: You'll choke me," into a drunken stupor! On, if they were only Administration to its duty in respect to our fel- in a final and glorious triumph of the old Flag conceded everything to effect an exchange, but sale at home, how gl'ad she would be! And low-citizens who now and long have been pris- and Constitution,—this war the Chicago plat- to no purpose. Butler, the beast, with whom "And so I will," she cried, merrily, "if you then she thought of the wild creek yet to be oners of war in a suffering condition, deserves form brands as a FAILURE, and demands that no Commissioner of Exchange would hold in-We call the attention of all having relations don't promise me, this very minute, not to drink forded; and every breath was a prayer. She deceive all the care and protection, regard and kind- the Government has done to put it down. The But in the future every effort will be given, as

THE BALTIMORE PLATFORM.

BY FORCE OF ARMS, the rebellion now rag- Which is the best and the truest praise?

traitors arrayed against it. of the Government of the United States, not to these sufferings, and who persist in continuing I have been asked to send reinforcements from "Do you take me for a fool?" he said, rough- compromise with rebels, nor to offer any terms of the war which has brought them on. peace except such as my be based upon an un- 7. The Chicago Platform has not aword to say in numbers is just as great as it is in Georgia.— "Now. Charles, don't do so? You know conditional surrender of their hostility, and a lagainst slavery, which has caused the war, and Then I have been asked why the army sent to and laws of the Uniten States, and that we call federacy the rebellion seeks to establish. The was because an army of the enemy had pene-"Ah, I understand you now. So, Madam, upon the Government to maintain this position Baltimore Platform brands it as a curse to the trated that valley to the very gates of Lynchburg and to prosecute the war with the utmost possible country, and calls for its complete externation and General Early was sent to drive them back. rigor to the complete suppression of the rebel- from the soil of the Republic, at the hands of This he not only successfully did, but, crossing lion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrifice, the the people, through an amendment of the Con- the Potomac, came well nigh capturing Washpatriousm, the heroic valor, and the undying stitution. Which is wisest and best for the count on itself, and forced Grant to send two corps of try and its free institutions. as it must be always and everywhere hostile to wisely! This is not a party contest. Political Lynchburg, and putting a complete cordon of "Wait till I fix him," she said; but her voice the principles of republican government, justice distinctions have nothing to do with it. It is a men around Richmond. I counselled with that and the national safety demand its utter and com- contest for the life of the Nation! If we surrender great and brave soldier, General Lee, upon all stomach. Life could not last under these cir- gan's was no small affair, considering that it Uncovering the little sleeping face, she kissed plete exterpation from the soil of the Republic; and to the rebellion, the Union is gone forever. If these points. My mind roamed over the whole ganue evil, we are in tavor, furthermore, of such the Victory of the National arms, the contest is I am going to the front. I may not realize this "Charles! For the love of God be careful." an amendment to the Constitution, to be made by over! THE ELECTION OF LINCOLN AND hope, but I know that there are men who have the people in conformity with its provisions, as JOHNSON IS THE DEATH-KNELL TO looked death in the face too often to despend. So they plunged in, and she did not ake her shall terminate, and forever prohibit the exis- THE REBELLION!!

the tollowing speech made by Jefferson Dabetter. Though I have taken but two positions, I incomply the speech and I am now, thank God. The tollowing speech made by Jefferson Dabetter. Though I have taken but two positions, I incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter incomply the speech and the placed the bundle in her arms. "What a simbetter of the country; and that the memories of those | Ladies and Gentlemen, Friends and Fellow Citi-

of war, and that any violation of these laws or sons, except one of eight years. She wrote that of the usages of civilized nations in the time of she wanted me to reserve a place for him in the war by the rebels now in arms, should be made ranks. The venerable General Polk, to whom I the subject of full and prompt redress.

power to this nation—the asylum of the op-|country, known to me. pressed of all nations-should be fostered and | Wherever we go we find the hearts and hands Resolved. That we are in favor of the speedy wherever the eye may fall or the step turn.by a Convention which met at Chicago, August construction of the Railroad to the Pacific. Resolved, That the national faith, pledged for hearts of our people. I know the deep disgrace the redemption of the public debt, must be kept | telt by Georgia at our army falling back from

> Resolved, That we approve the position taken made to nourish the soil before the prize was by the Government that the people of the Uni- won. It does not become us to revert to disas-means, to the end that the earliest practicable and preserving the Union. They differ in every was falling back from Northern Georgia, leven And as he did so, she feit that his arm was moment peace may be restored on the basis of essential feature. They agree in scarcely any heard that I had sent Bragg with pontoons to unimary authority of the United States in the 1. The Chicago platform says not one word take up his musket. When the war is over and She could not bear that those around should recent elections held in Kentuckey, Maryland, in condemnation of the Rebellion or of those our independence won, and we will establish our Missouri and Delaware, was a shameful viola- who have wrapped the nation in the flames of independence—who will be our aristocracy?— "I do wish you would stay all night, Virgie," tion of the Constitution, and the repetition of civil war. The Baltimore platform brands the I hope the limping soldier. To the young ladies spoke up Aunt Lizzie; renewing her entreaties, such acts in the approaching election will be Rebellion as a gignantic crime, and demands the I would say that when choosing between an held as revolutionary, and resisted with all the punishment of the rebels and traitors who have empty sleeve and the man who had remained at brought it on. With which do you agree?

2. The Chicago Platform proposes that the sleeve. Let the old men remain at home and tured, and one after another of their arms have of their Generals said that their exchange would platform demands that it be "prosecuted with the if we could consent to the exchange of negroes, ery case of that kind can be readily cured by bout? Only let me get clear, and I'll pay you The moon shone lown, making it almost as a noble was a long to the Republic have Baltimore Platform applauds and upholds the far as possible, to effect the end. Government in its efforts to subdue the rebels, We want our soldiers in the field, and we and promise continued support in this endeavor. want the sick and wounded to return home. It

Which is the most patriotic? Resolved, That it is the highest duty of every A- 5. The Chicago Platform has no thanks or men in the field, but this I will say, that two merican cuizen to maintain, against all their honors, nothing but "sympathy," for the gallant thirds of our men are absent, some sick, some enemies, the integrity of the Union, and the para- soldiers and sailors who have suffered and died wounded, but most of them absent without leave. mount authority of the Constitution and laws of in uppholding the honor of the Stars and Stripes | The man who repents and goes back to his com-"Never mind, dear, he's sleep, and I don't the United States; and that, laying aside all dif- and promises them only "care and protection" mander voluntarily, appeals strongly to execulike to disturb him. I can carry him over. I ferences of political opinions, we pledge ourselves in the event of their attaining power. The Bal- tive clemency. But suppose he stays away unas Union men, animated by a common sentiment imore Platform demands for them, at the hands til the war is over, and his comrades return "What is the woman thinking of? You car- and aiming at a common object, to do everything of the American people the highest thanks and home, and when every man's history will be life. There is no mistake in this. It is vounch- And she came around and seated herself on But, Charles, you are not in a condition to ling against its authority, and in bringing to the 6. The Chicago Platform denounces our own to their duty, but after conferring with our Gened for by numbers of my comrades, some of his knee very demurely indeed, after the manner hold him. I shall be thankful if you can guide punishment due to their crimes the rebels and Government on account of the sufferings of our erals at headquarters, if there be any other remprisoners in rebel hands; but it has not a word edy it shall be applied. I love my friends, and Resolved, That we approve the determination of censure for the rebels themselves, who inflict I torgive my enemies.

FELLOW-CITIZENS! These are plain and instead a raid. It so, Sherman's match into Resolved, That Slavery was the cause and practical issues: Study them well. These are Georgia is a raid. What would prevent them valuable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which And the little one gave a soft coo, in answer "My child! My little child! My Charlie! who have falien in its defense shall be held in zens—It would have gladdened my heart to have Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again huge bundle of shawls, and patted the tiny, clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to rosy face just neeping out of its snug inclosure. The quick eve of the mother method with the mother method are dearest to rosy face just neeping out of its snug inclosure. The quick eve of the mother method with the mother method are dearest to rosy face just neeping out of its snug inclosure. The quick eve of the mother method with the mother method are dearest to rosy face just neeping out of its snug inclosure. clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to rosy face, just peeping out of its snug inclosure. The quick eye of the mother was just in time to practical wisdom, the unselfish patriotism, and rosy face, just peeping out of its snug inclosure. The quick eye of the mother was just in time to practical wisdom, the unselfish patriotism, and rose dearest to rosy face, just peeping out of its snug inclosure. me in life.

Desperate Speech of Jeff. Davis.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALON E.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALON E. We fully concur in the truth of the above missus' absence—they started off, the light, crisp down the current, and the rapid waters flowed ham Lincoln has discharged under circumstances forget the State in her day of peril. What snow crackling under the feet of their horses. On:

"Give Charlie to me, Virgie," her husband In his drunken unconsciousness Charles had vid when they resolved the state in her day of peril. What is a substitute of the presidential office; that though misfortune has befallen our arms from responsibilities of the presidential office; that the state in her day of peril. What is a substitute of the presidential office; that though misfortune has befallen our arms from responsibilities of the presidential office; that though misfortune has befallen our arms from responsibilities. said, when they reached the creek and reined in let the sleeping infant slip out of the blanket, and we approve and indorse as demanded by the emernothing could be heard above the deafening roar gency and essential to the preservation of the Sherman cannot keep up his long line of com-"Keep close to me," he added; and not anoth of the waters. He did not know it till the mother word was spoken until they reached the opposite pank; for the fording of the creek, in its present condition was a deficient and retreat. Sooner or later he must, imeasure and acts which he has adopted to defend the nation against its open and secret foes; and when that day comes the fate that befel the Emancipation, and the employment as Union Moscow will be reacted. Our cavalry and our wrung anew; and she will sit for hours, folding Resolved, That we deem it essential to the By the absentees of Hood's army returning to Lights were glimmering from the windows and unfolding the little clothes, and her hands general welfare that harmony should prevail in their posts; and will they not? Can they see the as they rode up to Uncle Logan's gate; and the, linger lovingly among them. There is a pair of the national councils, and we regard as worthy banished exiles; can they hear the wail of their number of horses and vehicles already congretury worm shoes in the drawer of her work-table, of public confidence and official trust those only suffering country woman and children and not WFor saie by Druggists and Dealers in eve- gated around it showed that the invited guests of and a lock of fair, soft baby-hair in the great in the

"Remember Charlie!" she said, imploringly was the first to come forward and sign the total distinction of color, the full protiction of the laws lers of old. I know of one who has lost all her read the letter, knew that woman well and said Resolved, That the foreign immigration which it was characteristic of her; but I will not weary in the past has added so much to the wealth and you by turning aside to relate the various incithe development of resources and increase of dents of givieg up the last son to the cause of our

> of our noble women enlisted. They are seen They have one duty to perform; to buoy up the inviolate; and that for this purpose we rec- Dalton to the interior of the State. But I was Resolved. That in the future, as in the past, ommend economy and rigid responsibility in not of those who considered Atlanta lost when we will adhere with unswerving fidelity to the the public expenditures, and a vigorous and just our army crossed Chattahoochee. I resolved for the city, and many a Yankee's blood was .

He was not a man to save our country. If I knew that a General did not possess the Resolved, That the difect interference of the trast: The man who can speculate ought to be made to home and grown rich, always take the empty You have not many men between eighteen and ted as an effort of his to get hunself white-wash-is not proper for me to speak of the number of these reflections that I rely to make men return

Virginia to Georgia. In Virginia the disparity his army to protect it. This the enemy denom-Let no one distrust, and remember that if gentlus is the beau ideal, hope is the reality. PRESIDENT DAVIS' SPEECH AT MACON. [From the Charlesion Mercury.] We make no comments upon this speech, not make up our minds that he delivered it. We hope speedily to be able to deny its authenticity.

Mr. Gooch-Were you on board the gun boat

Gen. McClellan-I do not remember.-Report Were there two-or was there one boat? Do you seek-or did you shun boat?

I don't remember!

I DON'T REMEMBER! Is your platform peace or war? Hate you slavery or adore? Tell us what you're really for.

Pendleton! Do you and he In your politics agree? Which of you will master be? I don't remember!

Are you for the artifice Of a rebel armistice? What's your plan if that should miss ? 1 don't remember!

Name the loyal men and true, Who are advocating you. Call us off at least a few. I don't remember!