COODS,

remium, atthe

of six cents, or two t Office box 4586. perior Oil for Wheat e by DAWSON & BEA.

VANCE, OF TWO PULLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if not paid within one month of the time subscribing, or the renewal of subscriptiona falure to noutly a discontinuance is considered

Of one square (six lines,) inserted one TIME for one bollag, and TWESTY-FIVE Cents for each subsequent insertion. Longer ones in pro-

EADVERTISMENS J.

A liberal deduction to yearly adverti . Advertisements not marked the number of insertions desired, will be continued until forbid, and charged accordingly. Marriages and Deaths 60 cents each. Merchants and others. who advertise by the year, will in no case be allowed to meert any ad vertisement not connected with their regular busi-'ess. without an additional charge.

. Il orders addressed to the editor, post paid Will receive prompt attenuon.

Great Reduction in Prices FIRST OF THE SEASON. -OMEW GOODSO-FOR THE SPRING AND SUMMER OF 1865.

JOSEPH RASIN,

THE HOLESALE and Retail dealer in DRT GOODS, GRUCERIES, &c., begs leave to inform his triends and the jublic generally of Talbut and Caroline country that be has just returned from the cities with a well selected stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS For Farmers and Housekeepers,

Purchased at the late decline for cash and will be disposed of to cash buyers and punctual customers at very small advinces. His stock consists of a general variety of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Hollow-ware, Tin-ware, Wooden Ware, Queensware, China, Glass, &c., &c.

His Stock of Ladies' and Misses' Dress Goods consist in part of Biack Dress Silks, All Wool De Lames, Plans and Figured Chailies, // Popims, Groghams, Lawns. Calicurt, Plain and Figured Alpacas, Shawls, Balmorals and H wo Skirts, Gaunttlett Gioves, Hostery, II in ikerchiefe, Collars, Ladies' Cravats, Dress Bullous, Vests, Corsels, &c.

MENS' AND BOYS' WEAR IN GREAT VARIETY. ALSO A GOOD STOCK OF HEAVY GOODS FOR LABORERS: Linens, Osnaburgs, Deniais, Dulings, Jeans, souring stripes, Checks. Doin stas and Tickings, Ble ached and Brown Muslins 3 4. 1-4. 5 4 and 10-4 w Je, Brilliants, Cambric, Swiss and Na.arook Muslims, Irish Linens, Table Linen and Naphins. SADDLES, BRIDLES, MARTINGALES, COLLARS, BLIND BRIDLES, CART SADDLES and breaching, names, balters, whigh, chain and rope maces, brooms, umbreilas, hime, shot Is, pades, forks, rakes, bues, batcuets, axrs, nails, tack-. &c. Carpets, Mattings and Oil Cloths, Is full and complete, and open or exhibition and sale at the above the store room, Ingrain Carpet, 14,5 4 and 6 4 White Canton Matting. 4-4, 5-4, and 6-4. Red and White do. ≥uj+r do. Vennian and Hemp do. 4-4 Concord Matting. 44, 5-4, 6 4 Floor Oil Cloths, Step do., Table do., Table Oil Cloth Covers, Green Baze, Curtain

CARPET WARE ROOM,

Linens, Paper curtains, fire board and wail papers. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN PHILADELPHIA AND IMPORTED

Brandies, Whiskies, Gin., Januarca Sprits. Asple Branties, Port, Sherry, Madeira, Malaga, the hardships and perilous scenes through which) Lisbon, Claret, Champaigne Wines, and Donestic Liquors of all kinds. Also Teas and Ci- early settlers passed. Come with me," he congars. To an examination of which I respectfully invite a call from my triends and the public tinued, "and I will show you the spot on which JOSEPH RASIN. March 25, 1865.

THOMPSON & KERSEY,

Groceries,

HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, brighbor. l'eople of the present day would CHINA, GLASS. WOODWARE. &C., HAVE JUST RETURNED FROM THE CITIES

> PHILADELPHIA BALTIMORE.

WITH AN ALMOST ENTIRELY NEW STOCK OF GREAT FALL IN PRICES!

THE subscribers beg leave, most respectfully, to suggest to their many friends and customers of Talbot and the adjoining counties, and to the public generally, that they are now pre- of his sack a piece of meat to roast. Ah! young pared to compete with any House on the Shore; having bought their stock for Cash, and just at man," continued the narrator, "you little know, the point of time when goods was lowest. We der mit unnecessary here to enumerate the different kinds of Goods which comprise our nock; suffice it to say, that almost every possible variety of

LADIES', CENTLEMENS',

AND SERVANTS' WEAR,

will be found therein. OUB CABPET BOOM. JUST ABOVE THE STORE ROOM, a stored with Oil Cloths. Matte and colored) Alicant, Cocoa and Rope Mats.) all sizes.

PAPER CURTAINS, BUFF LINEN AND OIL CLOTH WINDOW SHADES, We again treturn our very sincere thanks to our friends and customers for their patronage mount too well to think I should stand the least Surely Payne cannot be there; I see no one that fun of diest cruelty." This unfortunate work toogs the form of the cate All of which as above staten, have been bought of the cash, and at the mwest pines, and will through the past nineteen years, and still indulge the hope that by constant application to bust- chance of escape it I remained in the camp. Vers Respectibilit. tres and fair dealing to mern a continuance of their favors. THOMPSON & KERSEY.

BIBB & CO., BALTIMORE STOVE HOUSE, No. 39 L.ght Street, Laitimo e. .

Stores, Furnaces, Ranges, &c. Also look Alver Plated Ware. and we what Repairs you want done to vous Notes and send in your orders early that we may Lecute them at once; further delay may cauou inconvenience.

Don't torget that we are still alling that Matchles the Place Store. the "Gem." to heat Ist, 25 and MA od stories, at reduced price, and also the Re-int DU Proted Old Dominion Cook Store, that ta- se notly stood the test over all competition.

BIBB & CO. Battanott Stove House. 39 Light Street.

N. B .- Old Stores and Iron taken in exchange.

XILE GREASE-LEVIS H. CANTBELL. BAL 25

HEVRY HARPER.

Philadelphia. WATCHES.

COLUMBUS ELLIOTT.

with a stock of Boots & Shoes for nele would do will to give them an examina

Our Boys are Coming Home.

Thank God the sky is clearing! The clouds are hurrying past; Thank God, the day is nearing! The dawn is coming fast And when glad herald roices Shall tell us peace bas come. This thought shall most rejuice us: "Our boys are coming home !"

Soon shall the voice of singing Drown war's tremendous din; Soon shall the joy belis ringing Bring peace and freedom in. The jubilee bonfires burning. Shall soon light up the doine. And soon, to southe our yearning, Our boys are coming home.

The vacant fireside places Have waited for them long; The love-light lacks their faces, The chorus waits their song: A shadowy tear has haunted The long deserted room; But now our prayers are granted, Our boys are coming home.

O mother, camly waiting For the beloved son! O sisier proudly dating The victories he has won! O maiden softly humming The love song while you roam-Joy. joy, the boys are coming-Our boys are coming home.

And yet, -oh! keenest sorrow! They're coming, but not all; Full many a dark to morrow Shall wear itaxable pall. For thousands who are sleeping Beneath the empurpled loam; Wint! woe! or those we'r- we-ping. Who perer will come home!

O and heart, hush thy grieving; Wan but a little while! They were and tear beguite. Want for the joyous meeting Beyond the starry dome.

Story of the Maine Woods

For if ere our boys are waiting

To bid us welcome home.

One of the oldest inhabitants of Northern Maine thus relates a race be once had with a ca lamount:

"Young man," said he "when I first visited this town, there were only three families living in it. You who now live at ease can never know the first but ever erected ia this town was lo-

I tollowed silently, until the old man reached the honom of the west side of Paris Hill. "There." said he, "on this spot was erected he hut. I shall never forget the first time ! visited it, and the story I was told. "What is it?" I asked.

"I will tell you. When the first settler mov. ed here his nearest neighbor lived twenty nules distant, in the present town of Rumford, and the only road between the two registors was a path that he cut through the woods himself, so that to case of want or sickness be to ght get as sistance. One spring, I think it was the third season after he had selded here, he was obliged to go to Rumford for provisions. He arose ear y one morning, and started for his nearest, think it hard to make a journer of twenty miles for a hag of putatoes, and on foot, too, but such was the errand of the, first settler. He arrived before noon, and was successful in getting his! potatoes, got some ce reshments, and started for home. But it was not easy to travel with a lead of potators; and finally, at sundown, he threw off his lead, and resolved to make a shelter and spend the night. I have been taken night, I knew the catamount had been watching man of very decent and respectable appearance with him to the exact locality of it; it was situ- to gain admittance; but our windows, you will clad well and cleanly, about mirty years old ave ated just on the other side of the stream, on which perceive, are not large enough to permit a cataare mills in the village of Pinhook, in Wood- mount to enter.

"He built a shelter, struck a fire, and took out roasting his meat, when he was startled by a cry; so shrift that he knew at once it could come from nothing the but a catamount. I will now relate rettler himsel':

"I listened every moment," said he, "and it was repeated eren houser, and it seemed bearer than before. My birst thought was for my own eatety. But what was I todo? I was at least tend myself with. In a moment I concluded to knew too, that he would ransack my camp, and troped the meat which I had left behind me m gut satisty mis appointe, so he might not follow me alter cating it.

"I had not proceeded more than half a mile, . before I knew by the shrieks of the animal, that he was within sight of the camp. I doubled my THE season is now at hand to buy your Fine Jewelry, solid silver Ware, and superior speed, content that the beast should have my supper; although I declared I would not run it I had my trusty rifle with me. But there could be no cowardice in my running from an inturia:ed catameunt, doubly furious, probably, by temg bunger, and with nothing that could be called a weapon save a pocket knife.

"I had proceeded, probably two thirds of my way home, and hearing nothing more of the teartul enemy, to slacken my peace, and thought HAN just arrived from the city I had nort the to fear. I had lett behind me a. the Spring and Summer of 1865, bou two pounds of meat, beet and pork, which consisting of the variety he usually I hoped had satisfied the monster. Just as I had keeps on hand. Those in want of a grod ar- come to the conclusion it at I would the no more, and was looking back astonished almos Repairing done as here tofore, with neatness at the distance I had traveled in so short a space and despatch. Give him a call at the old stand of time. I was electrified with horror to ugar the animal sufiek again.

"I calmly unbuttoned my frock with the de- and capture. This boy is Harrold. termination to throw it off before the beast. Looking again to the right, and omitting the tearing it to pieces.

should I die what would become of them?

ed through my brain. The catamount shrieked dened criminal. The reader who has read news. Davis, having resigned his commission settled I came to the brook which you see yonder, mine is a truthiut pen-likeness and just estimate ed and commanded the 1st Regiment of Missiswhich was double its present size, being swollen of Lewis Payne, who has been represented in sippi Rifles. The only significant feature in his by recent freshets, and I longed to cool my fever- appearance as simist the reverse of what I have carrer was the fact that he declined a United ed brain in it; but knew that would be as ceitain here states. Those who look upon the crumal death a- to die by the claws of the beast. With will agree with me that he is a most monst rum by the Federal Executive was a violation of three bounds I gained the opposite bank honkingum. and then I could see a light in my log cabio, which was not more than a hundred yards dis Spangier, the carpenter of Ford's l'acatre, who my mind! The catamount was not so far from metrical nead, and light hair, closely cut. me as I was from the house. I dropped my hat. The next of the accused to the right is O'. the only thing I could leave to stay the progress Laughtin, against whom, as yet, the proofed of the beast. The next moment I tell prostrate have not developed anything. He is a small Provisional President of the Rebel confederation in my own cabin." drops from his brow ere he continued.

ed the most tervent prayer to the Almighty that time evinces a figu sensiting of his almost ever crossed my lips or ever will again. My family and myself shortly after retired, but no on the extreme end of the piationin, at a window sleep visited me that night. In the morning looming out to the norm. I'ms is Amorn, against when m, little son, six years old, told me that whom, also, as yet, no testimony has been inhe saw the eyes of the colt in the window that status in the tragical diama. He is a young

"When I looked in the glass the next morn. Valu for evidence or capacity of guill. ing, I was horror struck at my altered appearance. My hair, which was the day before as the other prisoners, at the west end of the redark as in dought, was changed to the snowy porters table, and near her counsel. This wowoods; but as I was saying, he commenced joyed very good health since, I shall never re- bonnett and veil during the session of the comcover from the effects of the tright l'experienced on being chased by a catamount."

> From a Correspondent of the N. Y. Times. Personal Appearance.

and contemplate the countenances of the prison- the norrible tragedy of the most cold-blooded, ers, and his eyes rapidly pass from all other of- neartiess character, she but once seemed disturb. dollars i" ten miles from home, and there was not a single jects in search of the accused. There sits a row of fifteen men against the west wall, on the cess of her other teatures. She seems a wo- "Y-e s," besitatingly replied the other half; thought of self detense, but I had nothing to de platform behind the railing. Which is Payne? manot unuaunted metal, and fitted for Mac- but I can't put you out at interest." Which is Harrold? the visitor rapidly asks beth's injunction to "bring forth men children timself, and be mentally answers as rapply:- only;" and yet she does not appear as Lady Go "Go to grass!" said a mother to ber roled; that other may be Dr. Mudd but I don't about 10 mones in length passes from one ancie ejaculated the fair damsil. see any such man as the would be assessin of to the other, and is there attached to an iron "Why so I" asked the astonished mother. Mr. Sewaid is represented to be. You begin bond that encircles each leg. Her hands are with the man of the extreme left, and next to Ali the other prisoners except Dr. Muld are the door leading to the cells. Here is a man ap- in at ly robed. Their feet and ankles are from i parently about 41 or 42 years old, say five feet eu as in the case of Mrs. Surrait, and attached ten inches in height, slender, red or sandy hair to each leg is a chain about six feet long to a nusband may open a wife's letters on the of thin growth, pale oral face, somewhat in- Bestues this a bar and bands like mose about the Thropinius l'aisons of Cambridge, that, "the teligent, medium size, bluk eyes, high forehead feet countre their nauds. When the prisoners husband and whe are one, and the husband is rather prominent nose, thin lips, and a red heavily moned, are required to move about the mit of bairon the chin. He does not seem to other in attenuance upon him carries the tail. be distressed, but is interested in the trial .-He is dressed genteely in black, and wears slip - to their rooms. pers. The movements of his limbs are some-! This cap is constructed of cotion cloth, pad- in hous do it.) it will amount at the end of that what restricted, for a small chain surrounds each ded, and covers, beline: like, the entire head and time to nine thousand three hundred and sixtywrist and extends from arm to arm, and a like meanly all the lace. It was suggested some six feet, or a mile and a quarter of tobacco, half chain is about his ankles and coulders his legs. He by building his head against the prison walls. Pais man is Dr. Muid. against whom it was at hist supposed but little it any thing, of guilt could te shown, but again-t whom now the testim of thus far seems tearfully pointing.

You look surther to the tight, passing over the alternate man, who is an officer, and you ob stamp, you know!" a laded blue suit, whom you would scarce cal. be one and not know it.

"I knew then that my lears were realized .- . man; he seems but nineteen or so, about five; The heast had undoubtedly entered the camps feet four inches high, ducky black neglected hair ate; and followed after me. It was about three lively dark hazel eye slight tufts of beard along Rebel, with two powerful armies at his back, is miles to my log cabin, and it had already be- the chin and jaws and faintly surround thinge to-day a criminal in the hands of the governcome dark. I re-doubled my speed, but thought mouth, rather sound face, full but prominent ment captured with a price set upon his head as I must die. And such a death! The recollect mose, full lips, toolish, weak, boy ish, confirming an assassin. There is every probability that he tion of that belong comes to my mind as vividly, countenance, indicating but tittle mielligence, w as though I knew the animal was pursuing me, and not the taintest trace of ferocity. And this such crimes as treason and murder. But I am no coward, though to be torn to piecs is the poor creature, who seemed to live but in and almost raten alive by a wild beast was hor- the smile of the assassin, who devotedly follow- tucky) and in the same year (1808) that gave ed him in his flight sharing his privations, perils should approach me hoping thereby to gain ad- alternate guard, we come to one of the most revantage of him by the time he would loose in markable face in the group; a face which once He settled, when Jeff. was very young, near seen, may never be torgotten; one whose moral "Another shrick, and I tossed the garment status is readily determined by making a survey were admissable to good (Mississippi) society, behind me in the path. Not more than five of his face. The man is clothed sparingly; he and old Davis had a little difficulty in establishminutes had elapsed before I heard a shrift cry is his shirt sieeves-a sort of steel mixed woolen ing himself in life. He was able a few years as if he came to it. How that shriek electrified shirt his pantaloons are dark blue common cloth, after to send his sou to Kentucky to complete me! I bounded like a deer. But in a moment neck band and shirt collar unbultoned; he is ful - Lexington. He had in fact become so popular the animal made another cry, which told me ly six feetings, sleder bony angular form, square through the indusace of his money and popular plainly that my garments had only exasperated and narrow across the shoulders, hollow breast minuters as to be able to secure for his hopeful tes, hair black, straight, irregular cut, and hang- progeny an appointment to West Point, which "On, God," I said, and "must I thus die? - ing indifferently about his torcheau, which is yound Jeff, entered at sixteen, forming part of I cannot, I must live for thy wife and children; "crather low and narrow; blue eyes, large starting near the foot of the class, and commissioned in and I ran even taster than I had done before, and and at times wild; returns your look steadily the 1st Intantry to Brevet Second Lieutenant, unbuttoning my wastroat, I dropped it in the and significantly; square face, angular nose, the lowest rank that could be given him. He path as I proceeded. The thoughts of my wife thin at the top, but expanding abrupity at the was sent to Florida and served very creditably and children urged me to the most desperate nostrils; thin lips and a slightly twisted mouth, for which he got a commission as First Lieuapped, tor I thought more of their unprotected covered unsymmetrically a little to the left of the tenant in the 1st Dragoons. In 1532 he offendstate than the death I was threatened with-for middle line of the face; a wild, sarage looking ed tien. Tay for by running away with and marman bearing no scientially of culture or refine. It ing his daughter, and old General never recog-"In a moment all the events of my life crowd- ment-the most perfect type of the ingrain, parlouver, and tast as I was running he rappidly paper descriptions of this man will not guess his hear Vicksburg and entered upon the arena of approached me. Nearer and nearer he came, name-the very opposite of my picture is that porties, in which he was so far successful as to until I tancied I could hear his bounds. At last which has been given to the public, and jet be elected to the lower House of Congress.

Again, looking to the right, we come to is believed to have been Booth's accomplice in caused by the death of Mr. Spergut. At the en-"I had proceeded but a short distance when I preparing means of escape from the meatre. - suing election, in 1848, he was elected to fill the heard the plunge of a catamount behind me. I As yet no proofs have been offered against him, term expiring in 1851. On his return to Missisleaped with more than human energy, for it was and be is, on that account and upon others, not sipply he became the State rights candidate for lite or death. In a moment the catamount gave worthy of special description nere. The pro. Foo e, his it e-ime enemy, who has since been another wild shriek, as mough he was alread he man seems to have left only enough sensibility in Ludiow street Jail in New York. About the should lose his prey. At the moment I yelled to understand that he has got into a very un- same time he stumped the State for the purpose to the top of my voc.e to my wir, and in a mo comfortable position somehow or other. He is ment I saw her approach the door with a light. of short, nick stature, full face, bearing indica-"With what vividness that moment comes to hous of excessive dring, dud grey eyes, unsym.

lace, black eyes, slight black Whitekers, dencate "How long I laid after I fell, I know not; but silk mustache and a thin goates. His counteing on my cude cours and my wife was bahing gent, with no special mateaupas of day kind.

my head with cold water, and my children were Again to the right of this man is one, whomgazing anxiously at me. My wile told me that it would appear from the testimony thus far ada- soon as I tell, she immediately shut the door duced, was to have performed a very important and barred it, for she knew that I was pursu d, act in the terrible plot. Aizeroit is pointed out but by whom or what she knew not; and that as as the person to whom was intrusted the assas soon as I had fallen, and the door closed, a fear- sination of President Johnson at Kirkwood geverally, it might have existed a few months ful spring was made upon it; but the door was House. This crinal is a man of small staiple, longer. strong and well barred, and withstood the spring | Duich tace, sailow complexion, dull, dark blue eye, ratuer nant colored nant, bushy and neglec- complicity of Davis in the conspiracy for the "As soon as I recovered I kaelt down and offer. lev; wows fatuer unconcernedly on, and at no

The fast of the mail prisoners on trial sits upcountenance and one in which we could look in whiteness you now see; and athough I have en- man is diessed in full mourning; she wears her laige, Amazonien class of woman, square built, masculine hands, father full face, datk grey, meress eye. hair not decidenty dark, complexion swarmy; al ugether, ner face Genotes more than as nearly as I can in the language of the old The Assassination Conspirators-Their od nary intergence. She seems too strong to Star. be weight a down by the crushing trainmony a. galust ner, and whilst conclusive evidence was The stranger visitor is naturally curious to see poems rencered, which, it tive, makes her part in nd. Her eye is talber soft in expression and which is appended a ball weighting fifty pounds. ground so often and so tersely stated by Mr. Neariy all the accused are required to wear a to li a manduring fitty years chews erepeculiar cap, when they return from the court weeks ago by the attempt of Pame to take his when we married you Mary ?" "A s'amp, Charliel what for, pray?"

.. Why and thes ata't legal without a penay!

serve, setting beside the latter fellow dieserd in Welt is dreadful easy to be a fooi-a man can will be condemned and executed. Such an end will be a fitting termination to a life marked by Jell. Davis was born in the same State (Kenbirth to Abraham Lincoln. Davis was born on June 3, and was the illegitimate son of James Davis, a noted horse trader, of Hopkinsville, Keutucky. The tather fell under suspicion as a horse threef, and was forced to fly from justice .-Vicksburk, Mississippi. At that time borse and

Jefferson Davis, of Mississippi.

When the Mexican war brokeout, Davis rais-Diales commission as Brigadiel General of Vol-

He re-emered political life in 1817, having been appointed by the Governor of Mississippi to till the Vacancy in the United States Senate of advocating the repudiation of the State debt, and was sub-equently honored as the originator and prime mover of that great swindle. In 1853 he was called by Pierce to a seat in his Cabinet, as Secretary of war. In 1857 he was re elected United States Senator from Mississippi, which he held until his resignation (January, 1861,) on the secession of his State. He was chosen man weigning about 130 pounds, 5 teet 5 inches of State February 4, 1801; was mangurated Feb-Here the old settler paused and wiped the biz was, bueny black nair of tuxuriant growth, page tuary 22. 1801, and re-elected in 1862 for the term of six years, for only half of which time he will be permitted to act. His administration of the affairs of the rebellious States has been mark when I was roused to conclousness, I was lay | nauce is emmently Spanish, tolerably intelli- et by no great bil ancy or judgment. He hasbeen the Marplot of almost every one of the Rebe el campaigns, and has done more by his obstinacy, envy, Jediousy and malice to destroy the unity and effectiveness of his Government and his armes than any other of its leaders. If the con ederacy had possessed a leaderless obstinate in the pursuit of bad plans, less envious of the fame of his subordinates, and less quarrelsome

What evidence the Government has of the assassination of Mr. Lincoln has not yet been divulged. Davis is not a whittoo good or too wise to engage in any simular infamous or hopeless undertaking.

ARRIVAL OF GOV. BROWN. OF GEORGIA, AT WASHINGTON. - The rebel Governor Brown, of Georgia, arrived at Washington on Thursday evening. in the 5 30 train, in charge of a Lieutenant of the 4th regular cavairy. Upon reaching the station here he was placed in a hack and driven to Colonel Ingraham's office from whence he was alterwards taken to the Old Capitol prison in a back undar enarge of Lieutenant Sharp, of Colonel Ingraham's staff. The Governor was weil dressed in an old-tashioned, but neat Auother, and the last and mest p.omment of and clean black suit of clothes, and appeared to the accused, is Mrs. Suitall, Who sus apart from have plenty of money, as he paid for the backs (which had been hired at his request) in greenbacks. While on his way here the Governor was quite communicative, and expressed great regret at the assassination of President Lincoln. When aliusion was made to Jeff. Davis, be appeared to be very butter against hun, and disapproved ofmany of his actions. Brown was still in the Old Capitol this morning, but it is believd he will be released on parole.- Washington

Cr "Wile," says a broker a day since, "do you think I shall ever be worth fitty thousand

"Am't I worth that to you?" said the confid-

"Well, thea, I suppose I'll have to matty," "Because all med are grass." It is said the old lady survived. 3. A Massachusetts Judge has decided that ity cay two inches of sold plug tobacco, (and ili w bas, becrd ericur cwi cus and will

.. 33- Del the preacher put a stamp on you when called upon to recie tils lesson, was asked, "Ol what is the German Diet composed?" The boy replieds .. Sour grout, settaapps, lager beer, and nix-com-rous." W- Brauchna's Hotel, at Cambridge, Md. bas been sold to Henry and Chas. Bennett.