EASTON, MD.

S. M. Pettengill & Co.,

No. 37 Park Row, New York, and 6 State St. are our Agents for the GAZETTE, in those cities, lar and Kent Islands.

and are authorized to take Advertisements and Subscriptsons for us at our Incest Rates.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Merchants and others advertising by the year will be charged extra for advertisments out of their regular line of buisness.

each. Obituary notices charged for according ed to be "suspended" for plotting for the re-county uniform a notice will also be found in ters and Wm. Schley, counsel for Samuel S. the Gazette this morning requesting a meeting Coston, of Somerset county, filed a petition of all said Boards in the town of Easton, on praying for the issue of a writ of error directed Tuesday the 25th of July inst.

BOARD OF REGISTRATON.—It will be seen by notice in another column, that the Board of the third Wednesday of September, inclusive corn. for the purpose of discharging the duties as officers of Registration.

It is very necessary that this should be done corpus case decided by Judge Bond in May last, sin order that the provisions of the law should be by which Simon Coston and Washington Coscartied out. There are many now professing to ton, negro apprentices, bound to said Samuel be loyal men, for the purpose of getting their county, were discharged from their indentures names registered, who two years ago would and declared tree from the control or custody have considered it a gross insult to charge them | said Samuel S. Coston. The reasons assigned | with loyalty to the United States. Because the in the petition for carrying the case to the Court war is over and treason has been 'overpowered, of Appeals are that said apprentices were with Mr. Coston in Somerset county, and not in the .it is no excuse for traitors to go unpurished and city of Baltimore at the time of the issue of the to regain the reins of government in order to writ of habeas corpus, and that the question of drag the country through another four year's the validity and legality of the indentures of his bloody struggle. Though it may be painful to said apprentices has been unlawfully tried by perform a duty nevertheless men who are ap- under a writ of habeas corpus, and because al pointed to enforce the law must act with firmness so the judgment of the said Judge should have and decision. The Board of Registration must dismissed the said writ and remanded the said be satisfied of a man's loyalty before he has a apprentices to the lawful custody of the petitiright to be registered, and the decisions of the them from his custody. The writ of error as Board are final. There are but fow men in prayed was granted by Judge Alexander, and this county whose predilections are bot well the question relating to negro apprentices in this known to the inembers of the separate Boards State will come immediately before the Court of these men worth saving. He had character.of the county and but little proof or contention per. will be necessary to divide the two classes of loyal and disloyal. Every man of undoubted loyal ty should be thrown upon his own proof . thoroughly loyal witnisess.

of the war, for the perpetuity of the government personal injury among many passengers, but at | sassin's knife. When his sentence was read to and the restoration of Federal authority over all ter the danger had passed was productive of him yesterday, he received it as he has received the States and sympathized with Jeff. Davis, accommodation train had passed the Relay, on ed all the officers of the prisons for kindness Gen. Lee or any others in armed rebellion a- the way to this city, a horse was discovered on shown to him. He told one of them that on gainst the government of the United States are the track immediately in front of the locomotive. the night of the attempting to leave their escape through Maryland. He also says He appeared to desire to speak; but was ev defit on Tuesday, the 25th of July, for content of ac-Boards that is not fully aware of the conduct of mal succeeded in keeping a respectable distance upon him; that he then abandoned him and took every voter in the several districts, throughout ahead all the way to Mount Washington. The to the fields; that he lay under a tree less than the rebellion? If they have not been favorable engineer exercised extreme care and watched a mile from the city limits and slept till morning to the government, they certainly have been the the animal with considerable anxiety until, near. That on Saturday he went out two or three miles Governments' enemies. No man could stand ing the bridge close by the place last named, it and laid in the woods; that he 'remained there this forences. No man could stand ing the bridge close by the place last named, it and laid in the woods; that he 'remained there this forences. No man could stand ing the bridge close by the place last named, it and laid in the woods; that he 'remained there this forences. No man could stand in the place last named, it and laid in the woods; that he 'remained there there for three hours is before me now? May we all meet in the unpon neutral ground, during the terrible strug- imal in passing over the bridge, which was not to town, fixing his disguise and picking up his gle which has just ended. Let the law be car- floored, fell astride a cross-beam, on which his pack on the way; that he believed Mrs. Surratt ried out to the letter, regardless of favor or par- body was suspended with legs depending to- knew about the plot and would help trim through · tiality.

grand ovation to the returned Western Mary. cessful the train sped on its journey to Calvert have blamed Mrs. Surratt if she had caused him land soldiers took place at Hagerstown on Station, reaching there considerably behind to be arrested. He never has either said that Thursday. The Washington Star says that a schedule time. The animal made good time, she was guily or inoceut, but has more than once delegation of Marylander arrived the says that a and but for the want of a floor on the bridge said that the conversations of Booth and John delegation of Marylanders arrived there Wednes there would have been a race all the way to this H. Surratt led him to believe that she knew in day for the purpose of engaging the services of city .- Ib. the Hen. Montgomery Blair in 'delivering an FIRE .- One of the most destructive fires that ning away, and said he was sorry if any act of address upon the occasion. That gentleman has ever visited this town took place on Tues- his had proved harmful to Mrs. Surratt. He and from seven o'clock this morning. He drop fell, the blood of Abraham Lincoln was aconserted to comply with the request and left day night last. The 4th had been celebrated in asked for Baptist ministers, and the Rev. A. D. the day before for Hagerstown. Captain the most imposing manner and everything pas. Gillette of this city and Rev. H. L. Strycker of Wm. Colklesser, late Assistant Commissary of the armies heretofore operating against Rich.

Sed away pleasantly. About 11 o'clock our citi- baltimore were sent for. Mr. Giliette was with him till just previous to the execution. His sis- minutes, and Heroid for five. The bodies hung for about eight him till just previous to the execution. His sis- minutes, and Heroid for five. The bodies hung for about eight him till just previous to the execution. His sis- minutes, and Heroid for five. The bodies hung for about eight him till just previous to the execution. His sisthe armies heretofore operating against Rich- dest scene ensued. Persons were hurrying to with him from about seven this morning till the ter reached the Arsenal at a later hour. His in- about twenty minares and were then examined mond, accompanied Mr. Blair and will partici- and fro in every direction and all efforts to stay execution. He slept soundly for about three terview with her gave almost the only redeeming by the inedical officers present and pronounced pate in the ceremonies. Brigadier General the destructive element proved in vain, until all hours between midnight and daylight, and took A. W. Denison, with several of his Staff, and the business portion of the town was laid in his breakfast in the usual manner. When ask. a number of other officers of the several Mary- random wherever, a safe place could be found his friends were too far away to ask for it, and land regiments lately discharged, started for for debosit. the same place.

THE LATE SENATOR HICES .- The Legislature the entire day by direct order of Mr. Martin .- it his duty, and he had no ill will toward Mr. at its recent session passed an act appropriating It is supposed that some careless person throw- Seward personally, that he believed God approv-85,000, to be expended by a committee to be ing fire-balls sentone through an open window ed of his course; but that within a short time he appointed by the Governor, for the purpose of communicated. procuring a full length portrait of the late Sena- By this sad calamity six families are out of ment what he supposed they did, and now felt tor Thomas Holliday. Hicks to be placed in the houseses and homes. Every store house in that he had done wrong and that his punishment Executive Chamber at Annapolis, and also for town, save one in a dmaged condition, is des- was just. He spoke in a trank manner, withthe erection of a suitable monument over his ed. The Post Office, Shops, &c., are in ruins. religeous conversation this morning with his adremains? Yesterday Governor Bradford ap Fourteen buildings in the most business part of visers, and begged them to ask all good men to pointed Hon. John M. Frazier, Speaker of the the town are consumed and thus, in one single forgive him. House of Delegates; Hon. Granger Eichelber- night, years of toil were destroyed. ger, of Frederick county, and Hon. Thomas loss. The insurance is very small and thus falls cation to her of the sentence affected her serious. King Carroll, of Dorchester county, all person- upon those who lose almost everything. al triends of the deceased, as the committee.

claring all acte of the Governor and Legislature them .- Denton Union. of Texas, since the passage of the ordinance of Secession, illegitimate. Refugees from Texas are notified that the United States troops are now in possession of that State, and that they delphia Inquirer, dated yesterday says: can return home with security and resume pos session of their property. The order also notifies the people of Texas that no 'home guards' this afternoon, Colonel Ingraham, Provost Mar- was denied to every one. Later in the evening marked with the initials of the registering offi- Gen. Hancock entered the court accompanied or armed bands for self-protection will be per - shal General of the defenses north of the Poto- Miss Surratt again advised with her mother and cer.

Tennessee Legislature, disfranchising Rebels, Ford, at the theatre, and read him an order from her mother. Mrs. Surratt did not sleep at all shoulder to-shoulder guard on the yard wall, &c., which order is as follows:as the supreme law of the Siate. He calls on General Augur, directing him to prevent any during the night, but spent her time at devotion, and two solid lines within the yard, which is the civil authorities to arrest persous who, under theatrical performances being held in the theat Fathers Wiggett and Walter, of this city, were some three hundred by four hundred feet in "To Major General IV. S. Hancock, the pretence of being candidates for Congress, partment. Soon after a detachment of the Tenare advising the people to nullify the Constitution of the Constitution o

FIRE CECUMBERS .-- Mr. W. H. Hale, will

ick Schley, Esq., one of the ewners of it, having was given Mr. Ford to rectain their with her mother, which was of such a character about forty or fifty feet southeast of the scaffold. thes, carrying on war, maintaining government in time of war, &c., by process of leavernment retired in favor of Daniel M. Smath, Esq., a money.

JULY 15, 1865. Poplar Island by Justice Shanahan, upon the dend thousand dollars for his building and erect an- eight, by Marshal Gooding, and he was ordered Taylor, and Joseph Hazlett, privates of Com- heads, in six weeks. Price $1.06-3 packages body of a white man. In the pant's pocket of the other, in a different part of the city, when he was proceed pany F, of the 14th Regiment of the First Corps for $2.00. Sent by mail anywhere, closely deceased was found a pocket-book containing an would be supported liberally by the public. order from Mary Evans to Mr. Rowe, also a sum of money. From a notice in the Baltimore Daily ClipTHE ASSASSINS EXECUTED. District Attorney protested against such action. At ten minutes past one General Hartranst,
In resumase Indee Walis and a clip the court appeared at the prison door opening into the Thomas Rowe, who fell overboard from Capt. Lawson's Sloop "Sprig" some time since, between Pop-03- Dr. George W. Bickley, President of the HIS ADMISSIONS TJ THE PRISON OFFICER. "Golden Circle," has issued an executive general order, dated Fort Warren, June 28, in which he suspends the labors of the several departments of the "Golden Circle" till July, 18-Marriages and Deaths inserted at 50 cents 70. Some of the "Knights" have been sentencto advertising rates, (81 for 6 lines close matter. lease of Rebel prisoners and otherwise assisting the rebellion.

HEAVY RAINS .- Portions of this county have Registration for this District, will meet at the been visited with very heavy rains within the Court House on Tuesday and Wednesday of last two weeks, accompained with high winds every week from the first Monday in August to at times, which was very distructive to the large

THE NEGRO APPRENTICE HABEAS CORPUS To make the actions of all the Boards in the Circuit Court on Saturday Messrs. Wm. S. Wato the Criminal Court of Baltimore for the transmission to the Court of Appeals of the habeas tioner, instead of dismissing and discharging Appeals for its determination .- Baltimore Clip-

TRAIN .- On Thursday morning there 'occurr-d. While giving thanks that his crime has met its on the line of the Northern Central Railway Just puntstrment, give also pity that slavery had Company, an incident which, previous to its ter- waiste, his young life, clothed his heart with No man who has opposed the prosecution of mination, excited considerable apprehension of garments of hate, and put into his hands the ashour was attained by the engineer, yet the ani- the city; that his horse stumbled and partly fell was found necessary to stop the train, as the an- without food till Tuesday night, and then came wards the water. Fully an hour and a quarter but was not sure she would not give him up; was occupied in the efforts made by the engi- that he was almost indifferent to his fate, and neer, conductor and others to relieve the horse had even confidentially given himself up on the THE RETURNED MARYLAND Soldiers.-A from his situation, and after they had been suc- tollowing merning, and would not therefore ashes. Furniture, beds, &c., were scattered at ed if he had any wish to his body, he said that ed by T. T. Martin. It had been closed during had attempted, and replyed that he considered

The Closing of Ford's Theatre.

mitted, as the military forces will be sufficient to mac, called on Mr. Ford, at the theatre, and, in afterwards with the counsel again called at the The military in service for the day comprised for the apparent delay in making the return on a friendly manner, advised him not to give the White House. Something was said about new four and a balt regiments of General Hancock's the part of the General, as it was unavoidable. A. tlemen's Goods, such as About an nour atterwards Brig. Gen. George ties were referred to Judge riou, who told mem in allowed a procla- W. Gile commanding the Provisional Brigade he would see the President. The young lady ed outside the entire Arsenal grounds, a line his possession under and by virtue of an order land to the provisional Brigade he would see the President. The young lady ed outside the entire Arsenal grounds, a line his possession under and by virtue of an order land to the provisional Brigade he would see the President. mation declaring the act recently passed by the of the Veteran Reserve Corps, called upon Mr. spent the night in the prison, though not with outside the Penitentiary building and vard, a of President Johnson, for the purpose expressed,

As the hour approached for the performance ed by positive order of his medical advisers, and Surratt were quite confident, up to the last mo- the order heretofore given upon the judgment of cheap, for cash, or to old-and punetual customs. to commence, a large crowd gathered in front of of course she was refused admission. Judge ment almost, that she would be reprieved, and the military commission, and you will give this era. Give me a call and see for yourselves, as journal—one of the ablest and most fleurishing ed. A considerable with the performance, the performance of the perfor gentleman well known for his ability as a popular formula and staunch friend of the Union cause. In the first named has been one of the truest adressed and staunch friend of the Union cause. The first named has been one of the truest adressed and staunch friend of the Union cause. The first named has been one of the truest adressed and staunch friend of the Union cause. The first named has been one of the truest adressed and staunch friend of the Union cause. The first named has been one of the truest adressed and staunch friend of the Union cause. The first named has been one of the truest adressed and staunch friend of the Union cause. The first named has been one of the truest adressed and staunch friend of the Union cause. The first named has been one of the truest adressed and the first named has b The first named has been one of the State land of charge in sealed envelopes. Address, Dr. J. vocates of enlightened advancement in the State lance, but rumors have prevailed during the day fire, of the Supreme Court of the district, and Nodd and Lieutenant Colonels McCall and of charge in sealed envelopes. Address, Dr. J. vocates of enlightened advancement in the State lance, but rumors have prevailed during the day fire, of the Supreme Colonels McCall and of charge in sealed envelopes. Address, Dr. J. and will retire with the abiding aespect and that a disturbance would take place if the theatre made affidavit the With Shirfall was not in the Frank Saffy of Pennsylvania. The troops in SKILLEN HOUGHTON, Howard Associated with the abiding aespect and that a disturbance would take place if the theatre made affidavit the With the abiding aespect and that a disturbance would take place if the theatre made affidavit the With Shirfall was not in the Frank Saffy of Pennsylvania. The troops in SKILLEN HOUGHTON, Howard Associated with the abiding aespect and that a disturbance would take place if the theatre made affidavit the With the abiding aespect and that a disturbance would take place if the theatre made affidavit the With the safety of Pennsylvania. The troops in SKILLEN HOUGHTON, Howard Associated with the abiding aespect and that a disturbance would take place if the theatre made affidavit the With the safety of Pennsylvania. kindly wishes of all who cannot lerget timely was opened; but no indications of such a pur whitary services was the ally detained by mili- the yard were commanded by Colonel Charles uon, Philadelphia, Pa. kindly wishes of all who cannot lerget timely pose were visible in any part of the city. Mr. tary authority, When; the she was guilty of any Bird, let Regiment, Hancock's corps, and the pose were visible in any part of the city. Mr. tary authority, When; the she was guilty of any Bird, let Regiment, Hancock's corps, and the scaffold was in charge of Captain Charles Rath, Ford had all his company engaged, with music citine, she was triable by the civil courts; and, Scaffold was in charge of Captain Charles Rath, WHISKEES!

Ax inquest was held on the 10th inst., on be trouble, and suggesting to him to take fifty served on the General at his holes at half-past were William Coxwell, Daniel Shea, P. E. Goff on the smoothest face or chin, or bair on ball

SKETCHES OF THE CULPRITS. LEWISTHORNTON POWELL.

THE MOTIVE OF THE CRIME.

MRS. MARY E. SURRATT. THE HABEAS CORPUS. DAVIDE. HEROLD.

GEORGE A: ATZERODT HIS ABJECT MISERY:

The Prisoners on the Scaffold,

THEIR LAST WORDS: THE DROP FALLS.

Justice Vindicated.

WASHINGTON, July 7, 1863. Department, by order of the President, directed order in return to this writ. Major-General Winfield S. Hancock, commander of the Middle Department, to cause the persons to be thing by the neck until dead, on Fri ceeded to the Arsenal; while some discussion on approval of the sentence by the President; and knowledge of the wants in this business of the day, the 7th mst. The order was obeyed, and the legal points involved in the case followed at the order of excution to General Hancock were people of Talbot. that sentence was carried into effect this after. the court between the Attorney-General and then read from the platform of the gallows by noon within the yard of the Penitentiary; and Judge Wylie, who repeated that he should take Geieral Hartranfi. the four bodies that hung there in the summer no further steps in the matter. inert and obstrusive and repulsive, yet pititully scenes of the last twenty-four hours of his life prison for their uniform courtesy, and asked the asking human and divine compassion, were did not, either, develop any manhood in him .- prayers and forgiveness of all persons. finally find him out, that treason will thence- ered by turns, though he broke into childish tears ratt. the blood of all her murdered children.

Lewis Thornton Powell, who will got into history as Lewis Payne, was the only one of He was frank and generous, simple and honest, and, under other, influences and surroundings than those his boyhood knew, would have RACE BETWEEN A HORSE AND RAILWAY grown into worthy and commanding manhood. general terms what the plot was. He conthe authorities could do what they pleased with it The fire originated ma drinking saloon, own He was asked about his motive for the deed he convinced that the North had not heretolare

Mrs. Mary E. Surratt evidently had not bely. At eleven o'clock fast night her attendant Numbers of the citizens are left in a destitute physician procounced her dangerously prostratcondition, but few of them being able to rebuild, ed, and wife with other stimulants were admin-Comeral Sheridan has issued an order de- unless contributions from abroad are furnished isteren to her frequently during the night. She clearly and pointedly said she had no hand in the murder of the President, but was silent with respect to knowledge of the conspiracy. Her A special Washington despatch to the Phila- daughter Anna reached the prison soon after the promulgation of the sentence, and was with her mother for three hours. Thence she and one of The performance announced to take place at the Catholic priests and her mother's councel, Major-General of Volunteers, commanding." Ford's Theatre, this evening, was prevented by went to the White House and endeavored to see On the reverse was written, "Between I a. M. fore the court. The writ was returnable at 10 this afternoon Culosed Ingraham Program Mer. He, by advice of his physicians and 24. M," and each pass was registered and o'clock, but nearly, two hours after that time Cheap as evidence in Mrs. Surrati's behalf, and the par- corps, under command of Brigadier-General C. He proceeded to read a return in which Gen. Mozambiques,

THE FREDERICE : Examines.—This excellent epiciously to front of themselving. I Finding to present the transfer persons assembled there. THE FREDERICE Examines.—This excellent epiciously in front of the militiary of the military of the military of the military of the prison assembled there.

The Frederice Examines.—This excellent epiciously in front of the military of the as to effect eventhe guards todeans

> Aiken asked that he be Bued for contempt. The gesting the duty he would require of them. In response Judge Wylie said: "It the court appeared at the prison door opening into the were to decide at this moment that General yard, and was followed by the senior members J. N. BAIRD, D. D. S. Hancock was in contempt, the only process of his staff, and then by the prisoners in the folwhich it Would issue would be an anachment lowing order: Mrs. Surrait, Aizerodi, Herold and for the disregard of its authority. But why is- Payne, each supported on the left by an officer sue an attachment against the whole military and on the right by a private soldier, and fellowpower ef the United States ? This court ac- ed by their respective clergymen, number of knowledges that the laws are silent, and that it persons within the yard at the time, exclusive of is wattout power in the premises, and therefore the soldiers doing guard duty was perhaps three declines to make any order whatever."

> White these proceedings were taking place, ted within the inner line of sentries, all other Oatsand just after the Judge in another part of his persons being kept between the inner and outer remarks had again said he would not issue an lines. attachment, General Hancock, at a quarter before twelve, appeared in court, accompanied by by those who supported her, especially when most of his staff, and also by Attorney-General they came to the steps leading up to the gallows. Speed. He apologized to the Judge for not ap- In addition to her prostrate physical condition bearing at the proper time, saying he had been the chains upon her feet served to impede her near St. Paul's church, on Hillsborough circuit, detained by imperative duties, and then, orally progress. On arriving upon the platform of the commencing on the 28th of July. and in writing acknowledging the service of the gallows, she was seated in a chair at the ex- The adjoining circuits, are most cordially and writ, made return that he did not produce the treme northern end. She wore a plain alpaca affectionately invited to encamp with us. body of Mary E. Surrait because of the order of dress, with black bonnet and veil. the President indorsed upon said writ, which was in the following words :-

"EXECUTIVE OFFICE; July 7, 1865. "To Major-General W. S. Hancock, Com'dg, &c. | slight redness, but otherwise his manner was as collected and firm as usual. "I; Andrew Johnson, President of the United Next on the platform, but over the other drop, Late in the afternoon of Wednesday, the 5th States, do hereby declare that the writ of habeas was seated Herold, fithy and dejected of appearmst., the President lying on a sack bed, signi- corpus has been heretofore suspended in such ance, wearing dirty plaid pants, an old brown has at the shop next to the fied his approval of the sentence which the mili- cases as this, and I hereby especially suspend coat, and a black slouched hat turned down atary commission had passed upon Mary E. Sur- this writ and direct that you proceed to execute round his face. rati, Leni, Payne, Dvaid E. Her. I., and George the order heretofore given upon the judgment of Atzerodt. Immediately thereafter the War the military commission, and you will give this old, sat also Atzerodt, an image of hopeless Harness shop. He has a corps of excellent

ANDREW JOHNSON, President." General Hancock then left the court and pro-

to see the President, they addressed a note to near. Mrs. Johnson being quite sick, it was deemed Atzerodt was the first up. His arms were bound Ino. R. Griffith, every Tuesday, Thutsday expedient by the ushers not to deliver it, and behind him with a strip of white cotton cloth .- and Saturday, returning every Monday, Wedthey then returned to the Argenal.

He has said to one of the officers in charge of bound in the same manner; the operation with him that the part be was to take to the abduc- the latter requiring mote time than with the oth tion plot was to shut off the gas in the theatre at lers, from the difficulty of dealing with her dress: the proper moment, and asserts that he refused Her bonnet was removed only at the idstant the to have any thing to do with the final plot; but latal noose was put around het beck and the at last consented to see that Payne undertook white cap drawn over bet head: Atzerodt was assigned to the murder of the ly too much prostrated to do so. He ejaculat- tion in reference to the duties assigned them as would not accomplish any thing.

this forenoon. He was attended by the Rev. other world. God help me now!" . M. L. Old, of this city, and of the Episcopal Herold appeared repeating someting to him- THE Officers of Registration for the Easter Church, and received the sacrament about eleven | self, and at the last moment gave some brief dio'clock at his hands, and expressed himself rection about the adjustment of the knot. ready to die, though he thought John Surratt. Payne stood at his full height, and just before who led him into the business, more deserving losing sight of the world, simply said to the ofwith a young lady friend who visited him was "1 thank you; good bye." very tender and touching.

George A. Aizerodt, never made to be much Wiggett while she was being pinioned, and af- ties as officers of Registration; according to the trial closed, and the guard report his bearing phrases of Latto prayers. city was with him a short time last evening, were knocked suddenly away at the bottom, the deeply touched at her shame and sorrow, and utes longer before they were cut down. begged her to forget him. He denied to the last A swift and sharp shudder was thrown through that he ever intended killing the Vice-President, the hearts of all present by an over-officious cotand complained that more time was not given poral, who, ascending to the platform to cut the cattle turning-Asheroft's Ruta Baga-good for to prepare for death.

This seriatim and detailed record of the last before the soldiers below were ready to received received and for sale by hours of these four criminals omit, it is believed, it, and it came down heavily upon the ground. none of the material facts, whether of their word The bodies were then taken out, laid out in LANDRETH'S TURNIP and action, or of the word and action of their the rough boxes, and carried away for burial .friends and advisers. There are various rumors, The families of Herold, Atzerodt and Mrs. Sur- RED TOPPED (strap leaved) turnip—the best but it cannot be learned that there is any truth ratt applied for their bodies, but up to a late for family use. in those of importance, and all others may be o- hour this evening they had not received favor.

memory was cool and spleasant. Hundreds of she left the paison, were to her brother, Mr. Jen- just received by persons who had a vague hotion that they might kins-"Good bye, take care of Anna." What july 1 either get into the Arsenal grounds without a the poor girl, whom sorrow and pain have pass, or at least reach some eminence from strangely touched in these long weeks since! which the execution could be observed, passed that eventful night of her mother's arrest, will down Four-and-a-half street belore ten o'clock, do, no one yet knows. If there is anywhere a while hundreds more besieged the office of Gen- mong all the desolate souts of earth one who de prepared to turnish the Farmers Merchants and Beyond those given to the necessary officiale serves the charity of a merciful thought, that Mechanics of Talbot county, with boys from 8

sted. The pass was as follows: HENDQUARTERS MIDDLE MILITARY DI-7 VISION, WASHINGTON, D.C., July 7, 1865. "Major General J. F. Hartranft, Military Governor Military Prison.

"Admit to the military prison, this day. "WINFIELD S. HANCOCK, the theatre, but no one was allowed to enter. Holt had been informed of what the counsel the appearance at the Arsenal, about twelve o'- order in return to this writ. please accept our thanks for a lot of the finest Large posters, with the words "closed by order proposed to do, and had a final interview with clock, of Major T. T. Rekert, of the War Deof the War Department," were placarded con- the President and it was announced to Miss Bur- partment, created some excitement among the

The plain undressed-coffins stood near. gentleman well known for his ability as a popu- Mr. Ford has protested against this proceed. Meantime during the morning other and more General Hancock was present and had generbe welcomed by all who feel that another able &c., and the play announced was the Octoroon. on this showing, he demanded a writ of the parties who performed the duty of dropping the court of the parties who performed the duty of dropping the produce her before the court. This writ was the platform from which the assassing swung on the smoothest face or chip, or her to grow the court of the platform from which the assassing swung on the smoothest face or chip, or her to grow the court of the platform from which the assassing swung on the smoothest face or chip, or her to grow the court of the platform from which the assassing swung on the smoothest face or chip, or her to grow the court of the platform from which the assassing swung on the smoothest face or chip, or her to grow the court of the platform from which the assassing swung on the smoothest face or chip, or her to grow the court of the platform from which the assassing swung on the smoothest face or chip, or her to grow the court of the platform from which the assassing swung on the smoothest face or chip, or her to grow the court of the platform from which the assassing swung on the smoothest face or chip, or her to grow the court of the platform from which the assassing swung on the smoothest face or chip, or her to grow the court of the product of the produc met at that hour. Half an hour passed away of Veterans, who volunteered on the call of the sealed, on receipt of price. and General Hancock did not appear, and Mr. | captain for four able-bodied men, without sug-

hundred. The members of the press were admit- WHEAT-White,

Mrs. Surratt required to be almost lifted along

Next her, to the south end over the same drop. was seated Payne, wearing dark blue pants and copy. shirt, both cut in sailor style. His eye showed misery, so abject that his appearance might workmen. All materials are bought by, and work have brought puy to a heart of stone. The findings of the military commission, the whose long experience has given him an exact

Prayers where then made for each of the crimsum and held all eyes for a half hour, hung David E. Herold seemed utterly devoid of inals by their respective clergymen, who knelt there blind to all the sweet sights of the fair manhood from the first, and his simpering frivoli- by their side, and Payne, Herold and Atzerodt, earth, and deal to the sighing of friends and the ty in court was, at times, absolutely shocking to through their spiritual advisers, then thanked EASTERN AND WESTERN SHORE reproaches of enemies-hung there, heavy and any one who considered his probable tate. The General Hartranit and all connected with the hateful but eloquent witnesses that man's sin will During yesterday afternoon he whined and simp- No word was said on behalf of Mrs. Surtorth be held as the blackest of crimes, and tha when his sisters visited him early in the even. The prayers and remarks were brief and the example Company, will run as the republic lives and will righteously avenge ing. They were with him several hours, and cellent taste. Payne was visibly affected during follows:

alterwards called at the White House to see the the prayer of his friends, and for a few moments President in his behalf; but, like Miss Surratt' his eyes were suffused with testes which did 7 o'clock A.M. were refused admission to his room. This morn- credit to his manhood. Good words of charity ing two of them again called there, and, failing towards him were heard from many who stood Steamer Massachusetts; Capt. Wm: H. Nor. Mrs. Johnson, and expressed a hope that she The prisoners were then raised to a standing would not turn a deal ear to their pleadings .- position and brought forward upon the drops .- Choptank Rivet-Steamer Champion, Capt.

He was similarly bound at the knees and at the nesday and Friday. Herold slept about four hours during the night ankles- Herold; Payne and Mrs. Surratt were

Vice-President, but that Booth was afraid he ed in a husky and nervous voice, "Gentleman officers of Registration. take war-"; meaning, probably, "take warm july 15 Four of Herold's sisters were with him a good ing"; and as the cap was drawn over his face part of the night, and the whole family-mother he exclaimed, "Good bye, gentlemen. Who death. His parting with one of his sisters and ficer who had pinioned him and fixed the noose, Mrs. Surratt said a word or two to Father of a man, has broken entirely down since his terwards in a low but audible voice, repeated provisions of an act of the Gelleral Assembly of yesterday alternoon and last evening as pitiable At twenty-five minutes past one, the signal the Registration of the voters of the State. in the extreme. He consented to see a Luther- was given by General Hartrantt, through Capan minister, and the Rev. John G. Butler of this tain Rath; the upright posts supporting the drop moaned unceasingly all night, and ate no food renged, and justice sat stern upon her throne. this morning. His mother reached here this Mrs. Surratt and Atzerodt were instantly killhim till just previous to the execution. His sis- minutes, and Herold for five. The bodies hung trait of character he has manifested. He was dead, though they were allowed to hang ten eninable answers to their requests.

The morning of this day ot sad but blessed The last words spoken by Mrs. Surratt, before Beyond those given to the necessary officials, one is this doubly orphaned girl, -whose father to 15 years and Girls from 8 to 13 years. probably not over one hundred and fifty were is- died a rebel,-whose mother died on the scaffold,-whose brother is an outcast in every quar- tained trom Leonidas Dodson, Esq., Easton ter of the civilized globe. DIXON.

> TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, July 7 .- This morning Judge Wylie granted the application of Mrs. Surratt for a writ of habeas corpus, demanding of Gen.

are advising the people to nullify the Constituthe Regiment Veteran Reserve Corps, headed by the this morning.

Though unsuccessful in two about fifty feet from the door out of which the thouse again at eight o'clock this morning.

The door of the Perille, and direct that the writ of habeas tationed guards at the doors and on the sidethouse again at eight o'clock this morning.

The door of the Perille, and the sacrement was administered to the northeast corner of the yard, and states do hereby declare that the writ of habeas corpus has been heretolore suspended in such thouse again at eight o'clock this morning.

The counted and some of the friends of Mrs.

The counted and some of the friends of Mrs.

All of the above goods will be The doors of the President's room were still clos- The counsel and some of the friends of Mrs. this writ, and direct that you proceed to execute

> "A RDBEW JOHNSON, President." The court remarked that no further s:eps could;

in time of war, &c., by process of law.

Address, WARNER & CO., Box 133, Brook. yn, N. Y.

MARKETS:

BALTIMORE, July 13, 1865: Sales as follows:

Camp Meeting Notice.

CAMP meeting will be held by the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Providence willing, in Capt. Levi Duke's woods

Centrerille and Denton papers please

SADDLES, HARNESS, &C.

TOHN A. MURRAY, Jr., Easton Bank, an extensive and choice selection of the articles At the extreme southern end on the with Her- usually kept in a well stocked Saddlery and done under the eye of Mr. Murray, senior.

> In prices and quality he invites a comparison with city shops,

CHANGE OF ROUTE.

STEAMERS.

On and after Thursday, July 13th, 1865, the steamers of the Individual Enter-

Leaving Light St., Wharf; foot of Camden at To St. Michaels and Miles Rivet Ferry, man, every day and return (Sundays excepted.) Oxford, Cambridge, Deuton and Landings ou

P.S. Extra Boats ready for Peaches. C. K. CANNON

NOTICE.

HE Officers of Registration for the seven! District, of Talbot County, are requested to meet at the Court House in the Town of Easton,

District, will meet at the Court House in the Town of Easton, on the first Tuesday and Wednesday, of every week from the first MONDAY in August, to third WEDNESDAY of September inclusive, for the purpose of discharging their du-Maryland, passed March 24th; 1865, relating to EDWARD D. THUMPSON,

JOSEPH RASIN. MELVILLE SHERWOOD. Officers of Registration, 1st District Talbot

NOTICE. Lure bave been received and are feady fot delivery to those entitled to receive them. SAML. T. HOPKINS, Clk. LANDRETH'S RUTA BAGA SEED-

NEW-CROP, Yellow Ruta Baga-or Swedish, the lamous cords, severed that supporting Atzerodi's body the table, and an attractive market variety. Just

SEED-NEW CROP-

Large Notfolk,) Large Glober Turnips.

LEVEN H. CAMPBELL: Children's Aid Society.

The Children's Aid Society of Baltimore is The annual report of the Secretary can be ob-

For further information apply to the Society's Local Committee of Talbot County:

J. H. McNEAL. LEONIDAS DODSON, CHAS. M. JUMP.

For Cash N elegant assortment of Ladies and Gea-

Chalhes, Crape Mantels,

Berage, Linea Lawns, Organdie Lawns, Black Silks, Black Silk Coots, Lines Drilling, Cassimeres. Bleached and Brown Muslins, Tick-

All of the above goods will be disposed of nothing is charged for showing goods by

Your humble servant, BAMUEL PATCHETT.

THE attention the Gospel, led to the following tration of births; State. As the o the law is a hig july 8 St SA AN ACT; To pro

Births, Marriag Section 1. Be it bly of Maryland, Courts of the seve the Court of the city, shall receive for the purpose, t the births, marria; or city separately same in the order designating in set In the record births, the place if it have any,) the names of the father, the residen of the record. 2. In the record the marriage, the place of residence the person by wi places of residenc and color of each er single or wido date of record; the marriage license required as above minister or other under such licens make return ther 3. In the recor the death, the na color, the condition or married.) the tion, the place names and place discease or cause and the date of re Sec. 2. Be it ed books provided (shall be truly alphabetically in with the name of and if it have no the lather, if its and if its mother name of the mo with the names and in the case o seased, or if said name, then mother of said de Sec. 3. Be it give notice of the Clerk of the cour city in which a b every householde birth and dea eldest person ne the death of his? hospital, a husho shall give notice pening among t riage ceremony s person neglecting tice for the space riage or death, s exceeding five d Sec. 4. Be it en ing attended a po ness, shall when after the deceas furnish informati sickness, the dise or cause of death bearly as he can Sec . 5. Be it en ner, Undertaker of the obsequies the interment of less person, shall the Clerk afores which the decea he facts require said officer conce neglecting or ref in one month the sum not exceedi Sec. 6. Be & the person solem

ed to be furnishe cording to secti venience ber der Prace, residing the birth, marria shall be the du Peace to transm three months. Sec. 7. Be it ethrt aloresaid s first day of Febr of the Senate, ce the births, marri have occurred in year ending on t

> Cierks of said co riages or deaths legal porceeding ficate signed by office affixed the dence of any su Sec. 9. Be it shall receive fro ag, recording. Secretary of the birth, marriage case recorded as the Secretary of pay a sum not itty dollors, for orm any duty

> > Sec. 10. Be the Senate that pare and furnis

counties and th

blank books of used as books of der the provisi for returns on r accompany the explanations as Sec. 11. Be the Senate sha him for each y volume, with a from the return der them of pri to each regular do all other th the provisions in the name o eits or penalti this act, and h of the duties it thousand dolla cy occurring in otherwise il Governor umi Sec. 12. Be ly of the Clerk the city of Bal name of the S tures and pens hre of this set Sec. 13. Be act, shall be s day of July ne 10 HOUS lution p sealing or sto

Juse 24

pound-for sa