THE WERZE TRIAL .- The Werze trial is still prosome of the proceedings that they abandoned their client, but from the urgent appe ofall the prisoner they again returned. It is suppressed that there will be about three hundred witnesses summoned on the Assistant Judge advecate Hosmer, testified that he was told that there were between thirty and thirtyfire thousand prisoners there; he did not find much i difficulty in obtaining medicines, excepting a few of the rarer articles; the men presented the most horrible specimens of humanity he ever saw; a large numexposure and the absence of the comforts of life; there malaria from which had a most fatal effect upon the patients; the insects, or white ants with wings, were for a man to open his mouth at sundown. The witness heard that there was a dead-line, and one of his such interview. patients had been killed, but he did not see him shot; he stated the circumstances under which the prisoner his duties as surgeon, and all the surgeons came to inflicted by order of Captain Werze.

Martin E Hogan testified to his having been a prisoner at Andersenville; the men were in a miserable condition, as bad as possibly could be; the men were so thick they could scarcely elbow their way; some lay in their own filth, calling for water and crying for food, but no attention was paid to them.

He also testified to other circumstances attending bread, which was sour; the beef, when it was served, after the most obscene abuse from Captain Werze, he for them, and thus get it off their hands. was fastened by the neck and feet, and remained; there sixty-eight hours.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culvertwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Sperma orrhæa, or seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Phisical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Or Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents. The celebrated author in this admirable essay passed March 21, 1865, relating to the registra- application of the knile-pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically. This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
