At the dedication of the Wildey Monument in Baltimore on the 20th inst., will be the greatest turnout of Odd Fellows ever before known. Delegations from all parts of the country will be there, North, South, East and West. The subordinate Lodges from all accessible points will turn out en masse, great preparations having been made for their accomodation, by the City Lodges. It is expected that not less than thirty thousand Odd Feliows will be in the procession, headed by the Grand Lodge of the United States, together with the Grand Louges of all the adjacent States. This great crowd of the Order, will meet to do honor to the founder of Oddfeilowship in this country in the place where it was first started, by ces.
