Exchange Likenesses,

-In form and feature, face and limb, I grew so like my brother That folks got taking me for him, And each of one another. It puzzled all our kith and kin, It reached a fearful pitch; For one of us was born a twin, And not one soul knew which !

One day (to make the matter worse,) Befere our sames were fixed, As we were being washed by nurse, We got completely mixed; And thus, you see, by fate's decree, (Or rather nurse's whim,) My brother John got christened me, And 1 got christened him.

This fatal likeness even dogged My footsteps when at school, And I was always getting flogged, For John turned out a fool. I put this question frequently To every one I knew, "What would you do if you were me To prove that you were you?"

Our close resemblance turned the tide Of my domestic life, For somehow my intended bride Became my brother's wife, In fact, year after year the same Absurd mistake went on, And when I died the neighbors came And buried brother John.
