SONG OF IRON. I am mighty in the saber, Fiercely wielded by the brave, Glorious in the stalwart steamer, Laughing at the storm and wave.

Beauteous in the palace pillars, Saving in the pointed rod, As it brings the deadly lighting. Quelled and harmless to the sod.

But there is a glorious essence, Where Itake my grandest power, Giving to the race my surest, Sweetest aid, in danger's hour. See ! before me fly diseases !

See the darkest hydras bow ! See the rose of health and beauty, Take the palest cheek and brow, Fly, dyspepsia ! fly consumption ! Yes, all ills are crushed at length,

For I give what human nature, Only ever needed-strength ! Shall I tell in what great essence, I can thus your spirit cheer up? Pallid, trembling, dying sufferer,
