THE undersigned, as Agent for Dr J. C. Bart, will offer at public sale, at the Court House door, in the lown of Easton, on Saturday, the Ist day of May, next, on Dover ". Thirteen Lots of Ground of 5 Acres each, being a part of the valuable and beautiful e-tate, known as "BROOKLETS," adjoining The Doctor is induced to offer for sale this portion of his farm, finding his professional mgagements will not admit of his personal attertion to the cultivation of the entire tract. These lots will have a front of more than fity yards each, on East Lane, one of the street of said town, extended to the beeof M. Emas-

As trucking and grazing lots, on account of the moisture of the soil, and proximity to the Rail Road Depot soon to be erected. These lots offer very superior inducements. In short, in consideration of the situation, the invaluable, and stand untivaled in the advintages they at this time and will ultimately por
