I'VE BEEN THINKING.

I've been thinking, I've been thinking, What a glorious world were this, Did folks mind their business more, And mind their neighbor's less, For instance, you and I, my friend, Are sadly prope to talk Of matters that concern us not, And other's tollies mock.

I've been thinking, if we'd begin To mind our affairs, That possible our neighbors might Contrive to manage theirs. We've faults enough at home to mend-It may be so with others; It would seem strange if it were not, Since all mankind are brothers.

Oh I would that we had charity For every man and woman; Forgiveness is the mark of those Who know "to err is buman." Then let us banish jealousy-Let's lift up our fallen brother ; And as we journey down life's road, Do good to one another.

YOUR MISSION.

If you cannot on the ocean Sail among the swiftest fleet, Rocking on the highest billows, Laughing at the storms you meet, You can stand among the sailors Anchored yet within the bay; You can lend a hand to help them As they launch their bos ts away.

If you are too weak to journey Up the mountains, steep and bigb, You can stand within the valley While the multitudes go by; You can chant in happy measures, As them slowly pass along, They may forget the singer, They may not forget the song.

If you have not gold and silver Ever ready to command, If you cannot toward the needy Reach an ever open hand, You can visit the afflicted, O'er the erring you can weep, You can be a true disciple, Sitting at the Saviour's feet.

Do not then stand idly waiting For some greater work to do, Fortune is a laty goddess, She will never come to you, Goand toil in any vineyard, Do not fear to do and dare, If you want a field of labor, You can find it ANYWHERE.
