SELECT POETRY. FINISH THY WORK.

Finish thy work; the time is short, The sun is in the west, The night is coming down; till then Think not of rest,

Yes, finish all thy work, then rest; Till then rest never; The rest prepared for thee by God, Is rest forever more.

Finish thy work, then wipe thy brow; Urged thee from thy toil Take breath, and from each weary limb Shake off the soil.

Finish thy work; then sit thee down. On some celestial hill, And of its strength reviving air Take thou thy fill.

Finish thy work; then go in peace, Life's battle fought and won; Hear from the throne thy Master's voice "Well done, well done!"

Finish thy work; then take thy harp, Give prise to God above, Sing a new song of endless joy And heavenly love.

Give thanks to him who held thee up, In all thy paths below, Who make thee faithful until death, And crowns thee now.

ANKLES. There's magic in a lady's feet

And well the ladies know it , And she who has a pretty one Is pretty sure to show it; At times, you too, are martyred by The nicest little ankle, That shoots an arrow through your eye, Within your heart to rankle.

But when it tips along the street, Through wind, and mud, and vapor, By sheerest accident you see -How beautiful the taper; And as it steps upon the walk, Amid the crowd to mingle, Two roguish eyes look up and say;
