The bee has to work for the honey, The drone has no right to the food, As he who has not earned his money, Will get of his money no good.

The ant builds her home with her labor, The squirrel looks out for his mast, And he who depends on his neighbor, Will never have friends, first or last.

In short, 'tis no better than thieving, . Though thief is a hard name to call-Good things to be always receiving, And never to give back at all.

And do not put off till to-morrow The thing that you ought to do now, But first set your share to the furrow, And then set your hand to the plow.

The time is too short to be waiting,
