Having done all that man can do To make or win occasion, Come! just without too much concern,

You happen to be jilted, Don't dedicate your time and lungs To useless objurgation, "Accept the situation."

Have oftentimes befriended, Should sink their sense of gratitude When these good deeds are ended; Remembering there's no bitterness-How sad the observation!-

"Accept the situation." Suppose the metive for your act Has been a brave and true one.

And shrug a dubious shrug, and drop The sly insinuation-But trusting Right, and waiting Light, "Accept the situati n."

The world is full of ups and downs And many curious turnings, And some big men are only clowns, Better the lowly, if it's true,

"Accept the situation." Life's train is whirling past, old boy; In what class do you journey? First, second, third?-the speed,s the same; If third, first needn't spura ye. .

Athes to ashes, dust to dust ! Behold the final station! "Accept the situation."
