Baltimore is to be "bombarded," "shelled," "burned with fire," "blotted out," "wiped out," "annihilated," "swept off the face of the earth," "leveled with the ground," "ploughed with cannon balls," "covered with gunpowder," "sacked," "ravaged," "pillaged," "given up to the lust and wantonness of an abolition army," "made an example of," and a place for "Yankees" to live in, if we don't "behave ourselves." — The Northern Press passim.

Mr. Eugene Kelly, merchant, of New York, has given $10,000 to the Southern Relief Fund, and will give $10,000 more if the people of New York will raise a like amount. Mr. Kelly is a native of Ireland, and has probably never seen a slave in his life. He is opposed to the institution of slavery, but he considers the present war unconstitutional, and he considers the conduct of the Administration in the matter of the Baltimore riots, and the subsequent arrest of Marshal Kane, and the imprisonment of Baltimore citizens without warrant, and the suppression of Baltimore newspapers, and the refusal to allow the Legislature to meet, and the refusal to allow the Governor to return to his home, and the refusal to allow the Mayor to return to his home, and the refusal to allow the Police Commissioners to return to their homes, and the refusal to allow the Sheriff to return to his home, and the refusal to allow the Clerk of the Superior Court to return to his home, and the refusal to allow the Clerk of the Court of Appeals to return to his home, and the refusal to allow the Clerk of the Circuit Court to return to his home, and the refusal to allow the Clerk of the Criminal Court to return to his home, and the refusal to allow the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas to return to his home, and the refusal to allow the Clerk of the Orphans' Court to return to his home, and the refusal to allow the Clerk of the Register's Office to BALTIMORE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, May 21.

COFFEE.—Nothing doing. Stock 1,000 bags.

FLOUR. The Flour market continues inactive. Sales on Change were 500 bbls. Howard Street Superfine at $5.37½. Ten bbls. choice do. at $5.40, and 100 bbls. Ohio at Extra at the same figure. There was also a sale of 500 bbls. Ohio Extra at $5.50. The market closed steady at $5.37½ for good brands of Howard Street, Ohio and City Mills Superfine.

GRAIN. The receipts of Grain continue to come forward slowly, and to-day the total offerings at the Corn Exchange amounted to only 4,000 bushels. For Wheat there is quite a good demand, but there is not enough offering to supply the wants of either shippers or millers, hence prices rule quite buoyant. There were sales of 1,000 bushels red at good to prime at 120@125 cts.; 120 bushels common white at 125 cts.; and 800 bushels primo do. at 130 cts., the latter figure being an advance on yesterday's rates. Corn was in better demand to-day, and sold at rather higher prices, especially yellow, which were a shade firmer. There were sales of 500 bushels white at 60 cts. and 1,000 bushels yellow at 60 cts. Oats were rather inactive. There were 2,500 bushels at market, but only a small part sold at 30@32 cts. for good to prime Maryland. We quote Pennsylvania at 32@35 cts. Of Rye we had reported sales of 200 bushels Pennsylvania at 85 cts., being a decline of 5 cts. per bushel.

In Provisions and Groceries there is nothing to note.

WHISKEY. Sales of 200 bbls. Ohio at private terms. Prices ruled at 17½ cents.

Latest News.

We are indebted to Mr. Henry Taylor, Sun Iron Building, for New York papers of this morning from which we compile the following intelligence:

Wholesale System of Espionage.

The American Government is determined in every way to equal that of Austria. The New York Tribune says that at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, by order of the Government, a descent was made by the United States Marshals upon every news depôt in the principal cities throughout the Free States, and the agents placed in charge of the packages until permission was granted.

The object was to obtain evidence of the operations of the Southern people with their Northern accomplices which the contraband traffic in newspapers between them could most certainly furnish. The warrants of the Marshals were made out generally the same hour, so as to prevent the destruction of evidence which might have followed the first act of a wholesale inquisitorial character.

By this bold move on the part of the Government has come upon the surface a class of men deserving of the most condign punishment. The secret organization of Northern traitors, on land here, and those who are aided and abetted in the ultimate downfall of the liberties of the citizens of the free States, is now in the hands of the Federal Government, and it is to be hoped that the most condign punishment in regard to the law, for the most atrocious crimes ever committed against the peace and freedom of any people, will be meted out to the traitors. The Government has at last come to the conclusion that the people of the North, the progressive spirit of the age, and the Government of the United States, are worthy of a better fate than to be ruled by a set of traitors, who have for years been plotting the ruin of the Government and the people.

Aggressive Movements.

The Washington correspondent of the Tribune says:

Gen. Butler is preparing to move with Massachusetts and Gen. Scott's old regiment, the 4th Infantry, to the Potomac front. His movements are under the greatest secrecy. A massive force is concentrating at Annapolis for the Southern front.

Troops for Harper's Ferry.

A regiment was ordered to Richmond Ferry, opposite Harper's Ferry, to-day. Gen. Scott has ordered that no more troops shall be sent to Harper's Ferry. The regiment now there is to be withdrawn. Preparations are now being made to forward troops to Harper's Ferry.

Refused to Take the Oath.

Lieut. Lockwood, in the Topographical Department, refused to take the oath of allegiance, and was consequently dismissed.

The Southern Mail.

The Post-office Department has suspended the carrying of the mail to the Southern States. Mails for the South are now made up at the New York Post-office, and will be forwarded to their destination.
