The honorable gentleman who precided, told us. 1 that to prevent abuses in our government we will; assemble in convention, recall our delegated pow ers, and punish the servants for abusing the trust reposed in them. Oh, sir, we should have fine times, indeed, if to punish tyrants it were only sufficient to assemble the people. Four arms wherewith ) you could defend yourselves are gone; and you have no longer an aristocratical, no longer a democratica spirit. Did you ever read of any revolution in any ) nation brought about by the punishment of those ; in power, inflicted by those who had no power at ; all? You read of a riot act in a country which is ) called one of the freest in the world, where a few neighbors cannot assemble without the risk of being shot by a hired soldiery, the engines of despotism. We may see such an act in America. A standing army we shall have also, to execute the execrable Speech in Virginia Convention, June 4th, 1788.
