I speaking through their constituted authorities. The same correspondent says that the Government has ordered Gov. Sprague's regiment at once to Washington, and will concentrate a large force there with which to more upon Richmond. Prominent secessionists, however, say that Col. Stone has made a mistake in crossing the Poto-I mae, having avoided instead of intercepting a force of (9000 men from Harper's Ferry, marching on the Maryland side of the river. This force they I say can be thrown on the unprotected side of Washington, while the 67,000 at Manassas attack

Arlington Heights. 🕡 Gen. Scott is reported to have said that he will not be Commander-in-Chief of the Army, if civilians continue to be appointed over the heads of . Lieutenants in the regular army. I learn from Fortress Monroe that active prepatrations are making for a forward movement toward Richmond. There are indications here of an advance of outposts on the other side of the Potomac, for purposes and toward a point of which we do not feel at liberty at present to speak.
