The Herald's correspondent says: This movement is considered by some military | forces at Manassas Junction, and to give our atmy | battle before Washington. The movement is con-

'sidered a shrewd one. A despatch from another correspondent says:--- , to the effect that from ten to twelve thousand trobel troops have left Harper's Ferry, and are marching in the direction of Leesburg, probably to oppose the progress of Colonel Stone's federal i forces. The latter will be reinforced by regiments ! from this city, already under orders to march.
