Draid Hill Park .- It having been announced . that the main avenue of the Bruid Hill Park was i completed, a large number of our citizens availed | themselves of the invitation of the commissioners to assist in the opening yesterday afternoon. About four o'clock the people began to gather, and at the hour appointed, a procession, embracing several hundred relicles of all descriptions, besides a number of persons on horseback, was formed at the main entrance, and, with the Park Commissioners at the head, proceeded to make the detour of the grounds. The avenue is broad and finely graded, about 41/2 miles in length, and passes through the must beautiful and diversified scenery, making it one of the most delightful drives that could be deeired. Every one was loud in praise of the faithful manner in which Mr. Daniels, under whose superintendence the avenue was laid out, has performed his duties, and all were delighted with the magnificence and beauty of the scenes that abound on every hand.
