tiele 2.

reasonable searches and seizures, shell not be vio- missioners were in power, by unarmed men, can as full from their official record. leted, and no Warrant shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and | their substitute. In either case a mob would asand the persons or things to be seized .- Constitu- 1 tion U. S., .1mendments, art. 4.

"To secure these rights, governments are insti- peril. Turen among men, activing men, activing men activing men present with unvielding dignity. Furnish no occase missioners were visited by large numbers of the lity and that of the Commissioners of Police, I the total aggregate of troops already on this the best scout in the service, and an old comrade ity and that of the governed."—Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776.

Political Economy, Chapter on Taxation.

"That in all cases, and at all times, the military "ought to be under strict subordination to, and a "control of the civil power." - Declaration of) Rights of the People of Maryland .- Art. 27. Can anybody show a different principle in the Constitution of the United States?

"That no man ought to be taken, or imprisoned, "or disseized of his freehold, liberties or privi-"leges, or outlawed, or exiled, or in any manner "destroyed, or deprised of life, liberty, or pro-"perty, but by the judgment of his peers, or by "the law of the land." - Declaration of Rights of the People of Maryland, Art. 21.

tion, unless accompanied by the name and address | than the present time. of the writer, not necessarily for publication, but) se an evidence of good faith.

the arrival of the mails, and consequently con- opinion of two distinguished Judges, in reference tains all the latest news by mail and telegraph. to the nature and constitutional character of up to the hour of publication, and fully twelve "Martial Law:" bours in advance of the morning papers.

city and throughout the South. Persons desiring oner times was exercised by the King of England down to the door of his dwelling. They took him Agencies for the sale or distribution of the Paper | "and his Lieutenants: when his word was the law, also in charge, until they had secured the person in any particular Town or neighborhood, will "and his will the power, by which it was exercised, of Col. Kane. When the military reached Federal with them in so doing; and apply to the Publisher. Office of Publication, No. 74 Baltimore street. If oThe political atmosphere of America would des their duty.

sent by mail, must be accompanied by the cash. Agents. Postmasters and others forming Clubs | "tionary conflict. Our fathers sealed the conquest | shall Kane was, if possible, increased, by the postof Ten will be furnished with one Copy gratis, by their blood, and their posterity will never ing upon the newspaper bulletins, about 9 A. M., or ten copies will be sent to one address, upon re- "permit it to tarnish our soil by its unballowed a notice that General N. P. Banks was about to Board of Police superseded, and an officer of the pounder guns were fired to-day. Guns have also

time ordered. MARTIAL LAW.

from the sleep of the night, by learning that at three o'clock A. M., the Marshal of Police, George P. Kane, had been arrested by a large force of soldiers and hurried off to Fort McHenry. The details of this raid will be found in another colnon It is amilaration to all a managers was also grounded on any legal process, but was the sheer law of force. Scarcely had surmise exhausted itself in conjecturing the possible charges against this officer, when the crowded thoroughfares of Beltimore and South streets were more deeply exceed are I shocked, by the placards posted about i 91 o'clock, anouncing that Martial Law was to declared, and that Colonel J. R. Kenly had been , designated as Provost Marshal. With the stern- i est indignation and surprise every one asked his acquaintances-What can this mean? What is the provocation to this demolition of all legal and constitutional liberty? No one could make any plausible response. Meanwhile the exciting news spread through the city, carrying astonishment to every hearer. The throng on the streets thickened, and an angry solicitude marked every countenance, waiting the publication of the expected proclams- ; tion. In the midst of this fever of excitement a fresh i placard was posted, signed by T. Gifford, the deputy marshal, as follows: BALTINORE, 27th June, 1861. To the different Stateous: The police force will continue in the discharge without necessity calls for it. Police Commissioners had been removed from power, and that the Provost Marshal would be ! their substitute, occupying their apartments and] agency of the city policemen.

years of tuition has ingrained in our people the tively refuse to give up their arms as required. sanctity of civil institutions; they have been taught that every word in their Bill of Rights ; had a real signification, and was meant to convey principles which should be cherished even with for recruits for Col. Baker's California regiment, the life-blood of the citiz n-that these principles from Pennsylvania. The Virginia and Kentucky had been handed down to them by their and regiments are raised in the same way. Somebody) cestors, as the necessary safeguards of pulse gets a commission and the pay of Colonel as comlie liberty and of domestic and social ing from such and such a State, and then raises a security - "That in all cases and at all regiment wherever he can find men. "times, the military ought to be under strict subor-"dination to and control of the civil power." conted to succeeding generations by the purest and the Northean in a military way had the according to the purest and the purest and the Northean in a military way had the according to the purest and the purest and the Northean in a military way had the according to the purest and the pure the pure transport Chesapeake and t bravest patriots Maryland has ever known. It is orasest pairties mary and masses of known. It is idle to refer this educated people to the European taken place since the departure of the Georgeanna. order to the Captains of the several Police State Tortugas, and the latter from the mouth of the Perkins' battery of flying artiflery have just in the captains of the several Police State Tortugas, and the latter from the mouth of the Perkins' battery of flying artiflery have just in the captains of the several Police State Tortugas, and the latter from the mouth of the Perkins' battery of flying artiflery have just in the captains of the several Police State Tortugas, and the latter from the mouth of the Perkins' battery of flying artiflery have just in the captains of the several Police State Tortugas, and the latter from the mouth of the Perkins' battery of flying artiflery have just in the captain for the captain history which eliminated this principle and placed The steamer Quaker City yesterday seized in tions: it in our Magna Charta as the freeman's defence. Hampton Roads the bark Solly Mogee, bound from) To see this consecrated maxim trodden in the dust | Rio de Janeiro to Baltimore with a cargo of 3,000 | and see this consecrated maxim trouden in the dust bags of coffee. The S. M. came up to the Roads under any circumstances would fairly justify the bags of coffee. The S. M. came up to the Roads of their duty as heretofore. No military force is steamers, but we find the following additional in ceive one. deepest dismay and anger. But under present without any knowledge of the blockade. The intended to take the place of the present force, the Post:—Capt. Hoffman, of the Parkersburg. circumstances, no mind can find any warrant for vessel, although built in Baltimore, belonged to without necessity calls for it. this bold obliteration of all constitutional restric- Richmond. A prize master was placed on board, 1 tions—our Magistracy is accessible and willing to and she was sent to New York.

issue warrants 'upon probable cause, supported "by oath or affirmation, and particularly descri-"bing the place to be searched, and the persons or l "things to be seized" according to the required the Quaker City, confirms previous information ments of the Bill of Rights. The Criminal Court i in its prosecuting Attorney, its Sheriff and Judge. 1 have ready hands and minds to fulfil in behalf of about the condition of affairs at Craney Island the government any legal recourse against guilty and Sewell's Point. or suspected parties. The city is entirely disarmed, the Police Commissioners and their subor- 1. dinates have been faithfully executing their trust so that this city may challenge comparison with Duryea's regiment. The council of officers called which is as follows: any in the world for its order and personal securi- in reference to the post of sutler, sustain Mr. ty. There is nothing of any description or kind Mondy, but their influence is likely to be overin the means or disposition of this population to] · excite apprehension or fear in any quarter, but ! their well-perceived Southern sympathics and

But there is a solution to this procedure. Fear | well be done though the Provost Marshal were |

onlers which we publish elsewhere, that the Law Martial has contented itself with erasing from the Code only so much of the law as relates to the appointment of Commissioners of Police and Marshale. These officers are superseded by General i Banks and the Provost Marshal engrosses their

WHAT IS MARTIAL LAW I

That our readers may understand what martial him. THE SOUTH is published every afternoon, after law is, we publish the following extracts from the

For SALE by all the principal newsmen in this "dreadful system, the law of arms, which in for one of his neighbors, alarmed by their noise, came whave no hesitation in saying that such a monster Hill the officer in command informed the police ("stroy it in embryo. It was against such a tyrau-) The usual discount in tavor of Newsmen and onical monster that we triumphed in our Revolu- The excitement produced by the arrest of Mar- and acting under their orders; and "institutions forbid it and the manly hearts of our Maryland Volunteers. At a quarter before eleven | the Police Force of the city; therefore, be it "countrymen are steeled against it. But if by o'clock, Colonel Kenly waited upon the Police is Our city was greatly astounded on waking "there is nothing unconstitutional in such a sys- | force. tetom " _ From the Chaining of Judge Rose of Tilly "Law Repository-Law and Equity." rol. 1.

"If it be said that the laws of war, being the "laws of the United States, authorize the procla-"mation of martial law, I answer that in peace or a ' lative power. In England, from whence the "American jurist derives his principles in this ! 'trespect, 'martial law cannot be used without "the authority of Parliament."-5 Comyns, 229. "The authority of the monarch himself is insuf-Unficient. In the case of Grant es. Sir C. Gould, "law can only be exercised in England, so far as Wit is authorized by the Military Act and the Articles "of War, all of which are established by Parlia-"ment, and the Court declared it totally inaccurate a "to state any other martial law, as having any "uplace whatever in the realm of England.— $P.\,159.$ "

"The proclamation of martial law, therefore. ("can have no other effect than that of placing i Cunder military authority, all the citizens subject to \ ("militia service." It is in that sense alone, that the " "vague expression of martial law ought to be un-] derstood among us. To give it any larger exof their duty as heretofore. No military force is tent would be trampling upon the Constitution intended to take the place of the present force. | "and the laws of our country."-P. 167. From It was immediately circulated that only the Opinion of Johnson vs. Duncan et al., Lyndres, 1

Resistance to State Authority. The Act passed by the Legislature with regard | administering martial law, "until there is ocea- to the military of the State will, it appears, be re-" sion" for some other instrumentality, by the sisted by those who loudly cry out for "The Con- order: stitution and the Enforcement of the Laws." The It is to be hoped that no one will be found | Middletown and Frederick Home Guards of Fredfault with for indignation and surprise at this erick county, have resolved to resist the execution | high-handed outrage. In the first place, seventy of the law at all hazards and to the death, and posi-

> Col. Baker's California Regiment. The Philadelphia papers contain advertisements

From Fortres Monroe. The steamer Adelaide, Capt. Cannon, came up | should pursue, they instructed him to continue |

[Correspondence of the Associated Press.] FORTRESS MONROE, June 26. Lynch, the refugee from Norfolk, picked up by 1 of about 2,000 troops at Norfolk, 2,500 this side of the city and 1,500 at Portsmouth. all busily lengaged on fortifications. He knows nothing)

Fruit and vegetables are cheap at Norfolk, but flour is scarce, and all articles usually imported bring high prices. Two bowitzers arrived this morning for Col.

DEATH OF A CELEBRATED OPERA SINGER.—Intel-But these sympathics are associated with the intel- ligence was received in Philadelphia last evening, make formal and public declaration of the motives to take charge of the United States revenue cutligent perception that they have no mode of ming- of the death of Signor Amodio, the celebrated and accordingly they observe the same conduct from Venezuela to this country, of yellow fever, with my instructions, to interfere in any manner exchange of vessels. ling in the war which is to dismember this nation, Italian baritone. He died at sea, on a voyage that this whole country did when the Turk was at after forty-eight hours' sickness.

the best wishes for the side which they deem of stitution of Martial Law in Baltimere.

| have transpired during the last tweive bours, and] TO THE SECURITY OF A FREE STATE, THE RIGHT OF THE SECURITY O whose constitutional rights have heretofore been civil liberty has been swept away, and a military their means and forces with those in substition of the steamers Mount Fernon and Cruses more and Ohio railroad deput yesterday afternoon. No Soldier shall in time of peace be quartered so grossly trampled by the immurement of citic despotism established. The Marshal of Police against its authority, are not among the recogninor in time of war, but in a manner to be pre
pus. But it is unaccountable that it is not per
pus. But it is unaccountable that it is not perecribed by law .— Const. U. S., Amendments, art. 3. crived that Martial Law adds nothing to the pro-The right of the people to be secure in their tection—it cannot further disarm men now dis- after mature deliberation, suspended the Police exist in this department. persons, houses, papers and effects, against un-Arrest of Marshal Geo. P. Kame.

Our community was thrown into intense exciteparticularly describing the place to be scarcbed, sail a retreating soldiery; and the likelihood is, ment at an early hour this morning by the circu-) that the domestic legitimate authorities could and lation of a report that Marshal Kane had been transactions and the parties engaged therein. the total number of troops which have arrived R., has also received the appointment of Major in would use a controlling influence, whilst the other seized by the military, and conveyed to Fort Under such circumstances, the government can there at 48,845, exclusive of recruits, numbering the same regiment. authority would but irritate and increase the Mellenry. The confirmation of the report solded not regard him otherwise than at the head of an about 2,000, and several independent companies, to the excitement, and during the morning the armed force, hostile to its authority and acting in so that the aggregate is over 50,000, without Grafton say that Col. McCook, of the German Citizens of Baltimore, we solicit you to bear the Harshal's office and the rooms of the Police Com- concert with its avowed enemies. sion for military violence to sprinkle your hearth- friends of the Marshal, eagerly enquiring into have arrested and now do detain him in pursuance line amounts to between fifty-seven of Kit Carson, returned to camp, having been have arrested and now do detain him in pursuance It is idle to say that the power of taxation (or. stones with blood. Submit as patriots have land the particulars. Although this act has long been of my instructions, I have appointed for the time thousand. by parity of reasoning, any other power) rests on to do before, when unarmed and invested by miliconsent, provided there be a right claimed for the tary hordes. The Bastile was opened and its key realization has created much feeling and absorbed and the statement of the land volunteers, Process Marshal, in and for the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of Haltimore was an annual contract to the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of Haltimore was an annual contract to the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of Haltimore was an annual contract to the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of Haltimore was an annual contract to the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of Haltimore was an annual contract to the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of Haltimore was an annual contract to the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of Haltimore was an annual contract to the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of Haltimore was an annual contract to the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and absorbed of the city realization has created much feeling and contract The donor heard with fortitude the gratings of are clustered at every corner, discussing the matter. of Maryland," with the aid assistance of the subthe bolts at Olmutz, and was only made the deeper | The circumstances of the arrest are, that this mor- ordinate officers of the Police Department. to cherish the maxims of constitutional liberty in | ning about 21 o'clock, a company of soldiers comthe privations of his Austrian dungeon. Yet be posed of a portion of the Maryland Volunteers came forth, free of his bonds. So will your citi- from camp Carroll, and a portion of the Pennsyl- execute these laws impartially and in good faith Since writing the above, it would seem from the of the Marshal. Every approach to the dwelling from every good citizen to his government. being guarded by troops.

The Marshal was summoned to appear. He came down, hastily and partially dressed, and opened the door when he was seized and hurried into a curriage standing in front of the house, without being informed upon what charge the arrest was made powers and duties. In short, these sections of the and without being permitted to communicate In consequence of the multitude of anonymous ed by the legislative powers of that functionary, then formed around the carriage, one of the offi- and withdrew the said request. He then an- State, officially visited the President to-day to delaw which relate to these officers have been repeal. with his wife or any of his family. The military communications received every day, it is found who should "at all times and in all places be in cers taking a sent therein, and thus he was renecessary to remind correspondents, that in no "strict subordination to and control of the civil moved to Fort McHenry as rapidly as possible. necessary to remain the figure will have its history no less the wife and family were of course greatly alarmed Mayor went to the Marshal's office, and instructed to the marshal's office, and instructed to the marshal's office, and instructed to the marshall's office, and instructed to the marshall to the marshal at his sudden arrest, fearing that violence would | the Deputy Marshal to offer no obstruction to the be offered, and it was some hours before they were action of Col. Kenly, and to take no steps until he aware of the disposition that had been made of should be advised of the views of the Board.

As a measure of precaution against an attempt to rescue the Marshal, the military as they marched [and compelled them to accompany them. As they | "If by martial law is to be understood that approached his dwelling, Mr. John B. Egerton.

Martial Law Proclaimed. "this military code is to be understood the rules | Commisioners and submitted to them the follow- i "and regulations for the government of our men in | ing paper, announcing that they were thereby cise of military power, not warranted by any pro- work so extensive, that all fears of that character

HEADQUARTERS, DEP'T. OF AXXAPOLIS,) To Col. Kenly,

Command g 1st Regiment Md. Volunteers: Sin:-By virtue of instructions received from the Department of War, at Washington, dated "in war, no law can be enacted but by the legis- | June 24, 1861, I do hereby appoint you Provoet Marshal in and for the City of Baltimore. You will enter upon your duties forthwith at the liead quarters of the Police for the city, and notifying His Honor the Mayor, of your appointment, by reading to him this order and the proclamation enclosed herewith. You will proceed at once with the assistance of subordinate officers of the police department, to cause to be executed the police law "Hon. Blackstone, 69, it was said that martial provided by the Legislature of Maryland "for the Government of the City of Baltimore."

I am very respectfully yours, &c. [Signed] N. P. BANKS, Major General, Commanding Department of Annapolis. The Commissioners declined to recognize the power of General Banks to supersede them in this functions shall be removed. manner, and stated that they should file a written ! protest against such a procedure, but also remarked that, while they denied the legality of his (Col. Kenly's) action, they should make no resistance to his taking possession of the Marshal's office. Summoning the Mayor as a member of the Board, a conference was held, while Col. Kenly, in the meantime, proceeded to the office of the Marshal, where he of the Police Commissioners and Mayor, a notisued and delivered to them copies of the following to the station house, and notified that their ser-SPECIAL ORDERS No. 1.

OFFICE PROVOST MARSHAL. Baltimore, June 27, 1861. 1 1 To the Officers and Men of the Police Force of Bal-By order of Major General Banks, commanding ! the Department of Anniquolis, I assume and take | nouncements as to the proceedings of Provost command of the Police Force of the city of Balti- Marshal Kenly. At intervals a rush would be the same person, who went again across the river

t more, to superintend, and, with the aid of the su- i bordinate officers of the Police Department, to exvided by the Legislature of Maryland "for the men and the non-submissionists would result in government of the city of Baltimore. COL. J. R. KENLY, By order, Commanding 1st Md. Regiment, Provokt Marshal of Baltimore. Police Commissioners to direct what course he News from the Blockading Squadron in the miles above this point, and marched directly south-Deputy Marshal Gifford having applied to the Bantinoge, 27th June, 1861. To the different Stations:

THOMAS GIFFORD. Deputy Marshal. Official Proceedings of the Police Commis-

The following is a copy of the record of the official proceedings of the Board of Police Com-Col. John R. Kenly, accompanied by his Ad- boats, and having run in for the land as far as berland. A vast force is following him from the *ALL TIO POPULAR MAGAZINES AND NEWSPA. missioners which took place this morning: jutant, appeared before the Board, and read to was deemed prudent, the boats were let go, and West. The messenger says that Col. Wallace estithem an order from Vajor General Banks, United pulled for the schooner which was about one hun- mates it at 20,000, but it probably does not exceed serving peace, protecting property and the rights Stars and Stripes flying from the peak, under the burg and Grafton: Five hundred cavalry borses We give below the details of the events which of persons, in obeying and upholding every muni- guns of the Augure. cipal regulation and statute, consistent with the laws of the United States and of Maryland.

HEADQUARTERS DEE'T OF ARRAPOLIS, \

ment, and while enjoying its protection and priv- left Pensacola, but grounded going out of the

The mass of citizens of Baltimore and of Maryland, loyal to the constitution and the Union, are neither parties to not responsible for them. the Chief of Police is not only believed to be cognizant of these facts, but, in contravention of his duty, and in violation of law, he is, by direction about Washington or Alexandria. or indirection, both witness and protector to the

be will be respected accordingly. Whenever a loyal citizen shall be otherwise named for the performance of this duty, who will zens. It is idle to suppose that but for a brief vania Regiment stationed on Federal Hill, were to the government of the United States, the militime can the principles and practises of hated marched as quietly as possible from the Federal tary force of this department will render to him tyrannies be transplanted to an Anglo-Saxon soil. Hill camp to No. 136 St. Paul street, the residence that instant and willing obedience which is due

> Maj. Gen. Com'g Department of Annapolis. Board shall summon all the Captains of Police to with the inaugural address, and on this, as on all meet him at the office of the Marshal. The Presi- other subjects, the administration is 'one, undiident, in the name of the Board, informed Col. vided and indivisible." Kenly that the Board did flot recognize the legal- The degree of LL. D. having been conferred State. In a letter dated the 15th, he thus deto the possession of the office of the Marshal. By request of the Board, the President and the

The whole subject having been maturely consi- Jefferson Davis to the administration. dered, the following Preamble and Resolutions

were unanimously adopted, viz: through the city seized all the police they met. the whole and exclusive control of the Police government that he has read in the newspapers an Force of the city to the Board of Police, organized account of a compact which he is said to have and appointed by the General Assembly; and not | made with General Buckner in regard to the status

Whereas, there is no power given to the Board Gen. McClellan thus denounces. to transfer the control over any portion of the Poin pursuance of the express provisions of the law.

Whereas, by the orders of Major General Banks | weeks are approaching completion. All the guns one a fast day. In the first place we had no regan officer of the U.S. Army, commanding in this have been mounted and the fort regularly garri- ular meal, and every movement was made at the city, the Marshal of Police has been arrested—the soned, including a force of regulars. Thirty 10ocipt of the subscription price for size, for the 'feet, or harrow up the feelings of our gallant declare Martial Law, and that he had appointed Army has been appointed Provost Marshal, and been placed outside the fort, commanding the were distinctly observable on the Maryland "sons, by its ghastly appearance. All our civil as Provost Marshal Colonel John R. Kenly, of the directed to assume the command and control of roads. Col. Heintzelman has never entertained Heights, and Captain Desha and Lieut. Rogers Resolved, That this Board do solemnly protest | locality, though every precaution has been taken rgainst the orders and proceedings above referred to guard against such an event. Troops are now to of Major General Banks, as an arbitrary exer- so admirably posted for a desense, and the field ecution of such measures as Major Gen- troops. eral Banks may deem proper to take on There is good authority for stating that letters vation of the peace of the city, and of hight between the Black Horse Guards and public order, they cannot, consistently with their | Alexandria riflemen and a federal force, the charviews of official duty and of the obligations of acter and number of which is not stated. their oaths of office, recognize the right of any of | The letters say that it resulted in the killing of to receive orders or directions from any other au- | the federal troops. These letters are represented

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Board, the Riflemen to their parents in this city, but outside forcible suspension of their functions, suspends at of these reports, there is not, after the most dilithe same time the active operation of the Police | gent inquiry, a particle of evidence to credit them. Law, and puts the officers and men off duty for Military men are entirely ignorant of any such the present, leaving them subject, however, to the occurrence, but they are generally credited by serules and regulations of the service as to their cession citizens here. personal conduct and deportment, and to the or-) ders which this Board may see fit herenfter to issue, when the present illegal suspension of their announced to Deputy Marshal Gifford that he had was issued by them to the Police Captains of the come to take charge of the force then under his several stations, announcing that they had decharge, and taking possession of the office, sum- termined upon the disbanding of the force, and plan of Lieutenant Babcock, of the United States ticulars have been telegraphed to his triends in moned the several Captains of Police to report directing them to carry out the provisions of that engineers. themselves forthwith at headquarters. He then is | resolve. The men were accordingly summoned |

CHARLES HOWARD, President. WM. H. GATCHELL, CHAR, D. HINER, JOHN W. DAVIS, Ex-officio member of the Board.

> The Excitement on Baltimore Street. Throughout the day there has been a large con- i course of citizens lingering about the corner of Baltimore and South streets, eagerly awaiting auvented any collision up to the time of their being from Winchester on Tuesday night.

disbanded.

The government transport Chesapeake and the burg. Mississippi, by way of Key West. The Parkers- marched from that neighborhood in the same diburg, having broken her shaft, came in tow of the rection. From the quiet and secrecy observed in Chesapeake. The telegraph has put us in posses- these night marches, it is evident that Gen. Pat- currents and counter currents. sion of the main points of the news brought by the | terson either expects to strike a heavy blow or re-plenty of provisions. Mobile June 6th, to blockade that port, and on wrecking an English ship which had been ashore offensive at once. He is auxious to revisit Romsince last spring. At noon of the 5th instant the | nev.

the city, and directing him to take control of all | | | The officers of the Nagara's boats saw the crew | Confederate force from the Potomac, if vigorously the subordinate officers and men of the police force. of the achooner attempting to raise the anchor, seconded by Patterson's column, and the 14,000 He also read to the Board and left with them a but a marine being ordered to discharge his mus- now lying about here. copy of a proclamation issued by General Banks, ket across her bows, stopped them from making It is evident that General Johnston designed to Therefore, any further effort to get away. The reasel was draw General Patterson into the neck, but he has Wheat Fana, taken quite by surprise, and it is probable that failed thus far to accomplish it. Should General Corn and Cob Mills. her officers had hardly thought it worth while to Patterson cross at all it will be lower down His Clost Crushers, By virtue of authority vested in me, and in obe- keep a look-out in the heat of the day. The movement southward is to draw General Johnston movements of importance to report. Adjutant dience to orders, as Commanding General of the schooper's name is the Aid, of Nobile, formerly away from General McClellan's advancing col-General Haines goes to Washington this evening. Military Department of Annapolis, I have arrested for Long Island. The captain and crew were also umn, until the forces of the latter shall have are ed, and do now detain in custody, Mr. George P. lowed to depart, the former pleading to save his rived in such numbers as to enable him to assume Kane, Chief of Police of the city of Baltimore. - vessel, but the lieutenant commanding the expe- the offensive effectively. I deem it proper at this the moment of arrest to dition told him that he would give him an order

But unlawful combinations of men, organized channel, and were to be allowed to do so until Major General McClellan. The fleet was evidently War Movements.

The intelligence from the West this morning is interesting, and is indicative of sharp work in that quarter shortly. Nothing of moment has occurred a

For this reason superseding his official author- bia troops, the latter about 4,000 strong. Thus Sergeant Dunham, of the 9th Indiana regiment,

We annex the Associated Press desputches of things about Washington and Alexandria.

Washington, June 26.-It has been amertained at the State Department that Bayard Clark's regi- have also five 6-pounders, two of which are in a ment of cavalry from New York is unconditionally accepted. All speculations about a disposition on the part of the President, or the Cabinet, or Gen. Scott, or anylandy else, to favor a compromise or delay, have no foundation in truth. That the President's message at the opening of the extra session of Congress will recommend any compromise baving for its object the reconciliation of those now in arms against the Federal Governwill doubtless be found that the course already Col. Kenly made a verbal request that the initiated will be firmly maintained in consonance ity of the proceedings of Gen. Banks in the pre- on the President by Columbia College, New York. mises, and asked him to put in writing the re- | Dr. Lieber has come hither to present the diploma. quest just made by him. He declined to do so, Lord Lyons, accompanied by the Secretary of nounced his intention of proceeding immediately liver to him the royal letter announcing the death of Queen Victoria's mother, the Duchess of Kent The following dispatch has been received by the agent of the Associated Press: To the Associated Press :- The man is yet to be seen in Washington who has seen or heard of h the compromise alleged to have been proposed by F. W. SEWARD.

WASHINGTON, June 26th .- To the Associated) Whereas the laws of the State of Maryland give | Press :- Gen. McClellan has telegraphed to the only are the said Board bound to exercise the of Kentucky. He denies, contradicts and repupowers in, and to discharge the duties imposed diates the whole statement to the great satisfacupon them, but all other persons are positively tion of the commanding general and the administ this little town. The business houses were closed prohibited, under heavy penalties, from interfering tration, whose only knowledge of the pretended __tamilies were attempting to move their effects, compact was from the newspaper statements which F. W. S. ORDERS for the Paper will be received at the "could not exist in a land of liberty and freedom. they had seized, that they could now return to lice Force to any persons whomsoever, took place this afternoon at Fort Ellsworth, on movement. Lands of provision, that it was found to the provision of the provision o other than the officers of Police appointed by them, Shuter's Hill, and gave the utmost satisfaction. impossible to transport, were dumised in the river At this point the formidable field works which There was a general rush by the boys for sugar have been in course of construction for several and bread. It was indeed in more senses than Resolved. That whilst the Board, yielding to Tyler this evening represents all the Confederate the force of the contraction with the modition of the troops as mosting discipleneed from Eall's Chirch, for the preser- have been received by citizens here, announcing a the officers and men of the Police force, as such, 13, wounding of 20, and the capture of three of

as having come from members of the Alexandria

From the West.

ander Shaffer's ferry. They destroyed his ferry which did not belong to the Government was desboat and skiff, and recrossed into Virginia. - troved. | Shaffer's Ferry is about half way between Falling | Waters and Dam No. 4. When the report reach- Suieide of the Treasurer of the New York ed this place two companies of cavalry were promptly sent there, but the enemy had made good their safe retreat. Two more companies moon, at the report that Mr. George W. Wilson, were sent up the river in the direction of Clear- the Treasurer of the New York Central Railroad, spring, also in search of the supposed enemy, but returned without finding him.

Cadwallader desired, a week ago, to occupy Har- | ra. One of his friends, who saw him yesterday, per's Ferry with an advance brigade, and that | give that he exhibited positive symptoms of men-Gen. Patterson flatly refused permission. Great tal derangement, brought on, it is supposed, by surprise is manifested at this refusal.

A messenger was sent by your correspondent yesterday to Falling Waters, who reports that Col. Jackson's force has been increased by the concentration of troops within the week to be-' tween 4,000 and 5,000. Startling intelligence reached here to-night by

made by the excited crowd, first in one direction to-day, that Gen. Johnston in person, with his and then another, as the discussions of the "Union" | rear guard, numbering 10,000 men in found numbers, with twenty pieces of heavy artiflery, bemen and the non-submissionists would result in sides the light batteries mentioned vesterday, are of as a pure high minded man, and the news of loud dispute, but the promptness and efficiency of encamped to-night at Conchman's farm, four miles—his sudden death has been received with the most the police proved equal to the emergency, and pre- this side of Martinsburg. They began their march

The 6th, 21st and 22d Pennsylvania regiments broke up camp on the Greencastle turnpike, two ward, at 6 o'clock this evening, towards Sharper | YEW BOOKS-NEW BOOKS-NEW BOOKS.

A gentleman just from Hagerstown states that

It is certain that General Johnston will not atreports the troops at Fort Pickens all well, with | tempt to cross at Williamsport in the face of the heavy battery erected there. It is equally certain The U. S. steam frigate Niogara arrived off that General Patterson will not cross there again. The reinforcements ordered to Colonel Wallace 8 the same day took a schooner as a prize. The assistance by Gov. Curtin have reached Cumberschooner had been anchored close under the land, land, and Colonel Wallace speaks of assuming the steamer Mount Vernon took three of the frigate s | General McClellan is hourly expected at Cum-15,000. This, it is expected, will drive the whole | waste by which I have been governed in this proceeding. ter now at Mobile, and that if he (the captain) days ago conveying the ()hio 17th and 19th regiwith the legitimate government of the people of The boat's crew then raised the anchor of the with five other Ohio and Indiana regiments, mak- 1861. myle lawis John P. CLARK, Elecutor.

| war with the Greek; a practical neutrality, with | Suspension of the Civil Power and sub- | Baltimore or Maryland. I desire to support the | captured vessel, and towed her out some distance, | ing in all about six thousand men, were shipped number of the Greek; a practical neutrality, with | Suspension of the Civil Power and sub- | mable authorities in all appearances to duties. In all appearances to duties in an all appearances to duties. were also shipped in the same direction over the The frigate Powheten was blockeding the South | same route the latter part of last week, exclusive of west Pass. A great many ships leave by this the dragouns and artillery which accompanied

At last advices from the nucleus of General Wise's brigade, it was at Gauley Bridge, Kanawha county, and consisted of about 4,000 men. Inc. H. Richardson, Esq., a volunteer officer of great experience, has been commissioned as Colonel of the 1st regiment of Infantry in the brigade .-The Washington Star of last evening puts down | Hugh W. Fry, Jr., who has served with Colonel

Cincinnati, June 26,-Special dispatches from

He reports their number at 6,000, including 500 cavalry, and two regiments of infantry are from South Carolina. The troops have plenty of guns, but they are of a miscellaneous character. They masked battery. Gov. Wise was expected there with three regiments, when an attack would be made upon Phillippi. General Pierpout to-day appointed Col. Kelly,

Brigadier General of the Western Virginia forces.

From Harper's Ferry.

We find in the Louisville Courser some letters ment, no one at all acquainted with the views of from a correspondent serving in the Confederate the Administration believes. On the contrary, it | ranks near Harper's | Ferry, which, though not of a late date, furnish some interesting information He states that the Georgia Regiments there see commanded by Colonels Gartrell and Barton, both formerly members of Congress from that I scribes the evacuation of the Ferry:

On Thursday (the 13th instant, just as the troops were in a fair way for the cojoyment of the boliday from military duty, cossequent upon the last day, an order was circulated among the different regiments for immediate preparations for march. This was the nist intimation we had of Gen. Johnston's prepose to evacuate Harper's Ferry. Instantly Me whole place was in a stir.

Hundreds of backage wagons were laden, burly, big-bellied brand treads were stuffed with provision storce, ammunition was carefully deposited in safe trains, and from every side there arose the swelling strains of music as the troops took up the

A large number of men left by railway for Winchester, and others, for lack of transportation, marched atoot. During the day there was an indescribable scene of excitement. Broadway, in lits palmiest day, never witnessed such a jam as and every street and avenue was crowded with loaded wagons. Officers were dashing hither and ALEXANDRIA, June 26.—A test of rifled cannon thither, and soldiers were on the qui vive for most accelerated rate of speed. During the afternoon the pickets of the enemy ed the tories to disappear rather suddenly.

Just after dark, Capt. Desha's company was ordered to accompany Maj. Whiting, the Chief En-I gineer, across the Potomac, and make preparations vision of the Constitution or Laws of the United are generally dismissed. A reconnoitering party for blowing up the bridge. This was an under-"try's right and honor, then I am bound to say should at once assume entire control of the Police States, or of the State of Maryland, but in dero-discovered several thousand troops gathering near taking of no inconsiderable lazard. The enemy it was thought not unlikely that they might att tempt to force a passage of the bridge. I have crease the present excitement, or obstruct the ex- and that it will soon be occupied by Federal slept in many places and under many disadvantages, but never before above a foaming, turoulent river, and just above a terrible mine that in an instant could flash the structure into myriad fragments. The night, however, passed quietly, and in the early gray of the morning we were visited by Maj. Whiting. The immense bridge, over threequarters of a mile in length, was thoroughly saturated, the torch lit, and just as we reached the Virginia shore the magnificent structure was hurled into mid air, falling a shapeless mass of ruins into the rapid stream. The burning debris. with the clouds of lurid flame, presented a picture worthy an artist's study. In an hour or two the massive and extensive armory buildings were ignited, and the conflagration that ensued was of the most terrific and impressive character. - In order to prevent the flames extending to private WILLIAMSPORT, June 25 .- Forty Confederate property, the troops were detailed to act as firecavalry crossed the Potomac this morning men, under Capt. Fauntleroy, of the Confederate immediately after the withdrawal of the Federal Navy, and right manfully did they discharge their night pickets along the line of the river, at Alex- arduous duty. Not a penny's worth of that

> Central Railroad Company.

There was much excitement in Wall street, this had committed suicide by throwing himself from the third story window of his house in Albany .--A battery has been erected here according to a The report has since been confirmed, and the parthis city. Mr. Wilson was married about a week It has transpired in official circles here that Gen. | ago, and had just returned from a trip to Niagathe embarrassed state of his own private affairs. On account of the speculative operations of prominent citizens of Allany, which produced the suspensions of four banks in that city, the inferences as to the causes of the suicide of Mr. Wilson are untavorable to his financial integrity. Whether these inferences are correct or not time , will develop. It is believed at the transfer office. in this city that, so far as Mr. Wilson's connection builth the New York Central Railroad is concerned. plinancially, everything is correct. He is spoken profound regret. The shares of the company in Wall street have fallen collected by since the annonneement of Mr. Wilson's death. - N. Y. Post.

WILLAND WARNER OF THE WEATER OF RAVELOR. Ry the author of Aiton Be 5

SAFTER DEBERGS, WITH A PAINTER. A will make the species factor of the Boltz T. Not ex-LIFE AND CAREER OF MAJOR ANDRE. By Winthrop Sargeant MACAULAY & HISTORY OF ENGLAND. · 水水下上放出品 | 中口(T10)円本。

the complete thomes Large edition, the paper and large type, 5 vols. HOPES AND FEARS. By Men Young THE ALCHEYMIST.

By Curtis, author of Potapher Paiers

Ban Iron Building, Baltimore. No. 62 EXCHANGE PLACE, BALTIMORE, MD. Hunufacturers of Corn Stalk Cutters, Lin - Spreaders,

N heel Barrows, Canal Barrows. Alms, devices in Spades, Shorels, Rakes, Hay and Manure Forks, Horticultural Tools of every description, Pield and Gar-

I seriber has obtained from the Orthon's Court of Reits more city, letters testamentary on the estate of JOHN CLARK, late of mult city, deceased. All persons having claims against The fleet of steamers which left Beilaire a few the mil Estate are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the Touchers thereof, properly anthenticated, on or before the It is not my purpose, neither is it in consonance would bring her out they would then make an ments, as we all supposed to Kanawha, stopped erwise by law be excluded from all benefit of mid Votate. All PIPTERATH DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT. They may out thority than from this Board.

GEO. WM. BROWN, Mayor and Disbanding of the Police Force. At two o'clock, after the close of the conference |

vices as police officers were suspended for the pres-)