[illegible] CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The following is the conclusion of yesterday's proceedings in the House of Representatives:

The President's message was received through his private secretary, and read; the reading received the deepest attention of the House and of the thronged galleries. It was several times interrupted with hearty applause, and at its conclusion the Speaker reminded the spectators that a persistence in such demonstrations would lead to the enforcement of the rules for the preservation of order in the House.

Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, moved that the document be referred to the committee of the whole on the state of the Union, to be printed, &c., and in order to avoid all unnecessary discussion upon the motion, he demanded the "previous question."

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, moved that 50,000 extra copies be printed.

Both resolutions were agreed to.

Mr. Richardson, of Illinois, offered a resolution that the name of Stirling Morton be substituted for that of Samuel B. Daly, as the delegate from Nebraska Territory. He said that Mr. Morton had been elected to the position he claimed in October last, and received his commission according to law from the Governor. Six months later, or in April last, the Governor pretended to have discovered an error in the returns, by which Mr. Daley was chosen, and he revoked the commission previously issued to Mr. Morton.

This act of Governor Black, he contended, was a gross usurpation of power—a usurpation of the constitutional privileges of this body. The Governor had no shadow of right to reopen again the canvass of an election he had already legally determined, and to concede such a right was to invest him with a most dangerous power.

Mr. Conway, of Kansas, contended that the Governor of Nebraska was justified in issuing the second commission to Mr. Daly, and that the commission so issued was prima facie evidence of the legality of the election.

Mr. McClernand, of Illinois, took substantially the same view of the case as his colleague, and held that it was a most dangerous usurpation of power which Governor Black had attempted. He said Mr. Conway's statement of facts was wild and exaggerated, and exhibited ignorance of the law as well as of the facts of the case.

A somewhat excited colloquy was springing up between the two, when they were both peremptorily called to order by the Speaker, who several times reminded them that their remarks must be addressed to him.

Mr. Dawes, of Massachusetts, thought the case a parallel one to that of Mr. Shiel, of Oregon, which the House had yesterday acted upon; and though he opposed that action, and agreed with the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. McClernand) in his argument, yet he felt bound to say the House must either recognize the legality of the second commission, or be guilty of inconsistency.

Mr. Conway finally called and insisted upon the "previous question," under the operation of which the resolution of Mr. Richardson was negatived—yeas 57, nays 75.

Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, asked and obtained leave to introduce a bill to repeal all laws relating to ports of entry in the seceded States, and to authorize the holding of the United States Courts for the district of Virginia in Wheeling.

Mr. Van Wyck, of New York, offered a bill providing for the appointment of a postmaster to each regiment of volunteers, who shall serve without pay, and whose duty it shall be to frank all letters not exceeding one ounce, or papers deposited in his care by volunteers, and providing also for the free transmission of all letters and papers addressed to the volunteers wherever stationed.

Mr. Morrill, of Maine, saw some objections in the bill, though he approved of its main features, and requested the member from New York to withdraw it in order that a more perfect one might be framed.

Mr. Van Wyck declined withdrawing it, and the Speaker was about stating the question, when Mr. Burnett, of Kentucky, said he had ever been a sturdy opponent of the franking system, and instead of extending he was for curtailing that privilege; he therefore objected to the introduction of the bill, which consequently must lay over until it is reached in due order.

The House adjourned shortly before five o'clock until to-morrow.

[TO-DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.]

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Mr. Hale moved that the Senate proceed to elect an Assistant Doorkeeper. Agreed to.

Mr Lane, of Kansas, gave notice that he should introduce a bill directing that on the 1st of August, 1861, all commandants of the Army and Navy of the United States to assemble from their several commands Court Martials, and defining the jurisdiction of said Courts.

On the ballot for Assistant Doorkeeper forty votes were cast, of which Isaac Bassett received 30, Charles Jones 8, scattering 2. Isaac Bassett was then declared elected.

Mr. Wilson presented the several bills of which he gave notice on Thursday.

Mr. Grimes moved that the bill to promote the efficiency of the Army be referred to a Special Committee of nine.

The Vice President announced the Standing Committees.

After the discussion of the bill specified above it was referred to a Special Committee of nine—Messrs. Wilson, Hale, Latham, Powell, Cowan, King, Kennedy and Howe.

The other bills were referred to the Military Committee.

Mr. Polk presented the credentials of Waldo P. Johnson, Senator elect from the State of Missouri, who appeared and took his seat.

A message was received from the President and the Senate went into Executive session.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Mr. Wright announced the death of Mr. Scranton, of Pennsylvania, in a befitting eulogy, and offered resolutions expressing the profound regret of the House at his loss, and sympathy with the family of the deceased; also, that the members of the House wear the usual badge of mourning.

Mr. Colfax also paid an eloquent tribute to the deceased. Messrs. Shattux, Campbell, McPherson, Morehead, and McKnight followed in a similar strain of remark, after which the House adjourned.

City News.

Release of Mr. Hinks.—Last evening Mr. Chas. D. Hinks, one of the Board of Police Commissioners confined in Fort McHenry, was released, upon an order from Washington. The reason for this was the feeble condition of Mr. Hinks, who has long been in ill-health, and who has been so seriously affected by his incarceration in the Fort, that when released he was scarcely able to return to his family.

Charges of Stealing.—Officer Denver last night arrested a negro named John Smith, who was passing along the Long Dock carrying a bag containing about twenty pounds of pork, which was supposed to have been stolen. The pork was retained, and the negro discharged, after receiving thirty-nine lashes, by order of Justice Hiss. Michael Matthews was arrested, by officer Benton, having in his possession a set of harness supposed to have been stolen. He was committed for a further hearing by Justice Shipley.

Arrest.—On Thursday night a detachment of the Federal troops stationed at Cockeysville, arrested Mr. Henry Gilmor, at the residence of his father, a short distance from that place, on the charge of treason—it being alleged that he participated in the burning of the bridges on the Northern Central Railroad. Up to last night he was still a prisoner at Cockeysville.

Passage of Troops.—At five o'clock last evening the 24th New York Regiment, Col. La Dew, reached here by the Northern Central road, and passed through to Washington. They were followed this morning at 6 o'clock, by the Mozart Regiment of New York Volunteers, Col. Ed. T. Riley.

Accidental Shooting.—On Thursday last, whilst one of the Federal soldiers at the Relay House was cleaning his gun, it was accidentally discharged, the ball passing through his own arm and wounding a fellow soldier in the thigh.

A Supply of Pork.—At an early hour this morning about one hundred cars, loaded with hogs, reached here by way of the Northern Central Railroad, on the way to Washington, having been brought from Ohio.

Serious Accident.—Last evening a servant named Ann Hagan, in the employ of Mr. Isaac George, No. 214 E. Baltimore-st., was seriously injured by her dress taking fire while passing the kitchen range.

SECOND EDITION.

BY THE PHILADELPHIA TRAIN.

From Washington.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says:—

It is thought a forward movement will be made early next week; but, if our readers will only have patience, we will furnish them with all the movements and results as soon as they can be made public without injury to the country.

The election of Grow has caused considerable comment in political circles here. It is considered a severe rebuke to the officials who sought to control the actions of the members. It shows that a majority of the present Congress intend to take such a stand that no one will in future attempt to use undue influence to secure any end.

It is alleged that the advance proofs of the Report of the Secretary of War have been sent North to those papers which have been courteous enough to refrain from exposing the short comings of the Department.

The War in Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, July 5.—J. C. Pickett, from Cedar county, informs the Democrat that Governor Jackson was on Clear Creek, 8 miles south of Osceola, on the 28th, with 1,600 men, 6,000 muskets and 300 horses and mules. Gen. Rains was encamped at Howard Mills, a little further south, with about 4,000 men and 6 cannons. Gen. Price, with 250 men, was said to be on the North Fork of Spring River, in Barton county. Mr. Pickett met several companies en route to join Jackson. A gentleman from Springfield says the secession force is about 1,000; that Jackson's troops were encamped in Benton county. Colonel Siegel's U. S. troops cover all the ground from Springfield west to Neosho. About 400 secessionists, who were assembled at Oliver's prairie, fled on learning of Col. Siegel's approach.

The Democrat's Booneville correspondent, on the 2d, says that Gen. Lyons' command were under orders to march for the Southward on the following morning. Six companies of the Fifth Regiment Reserve Corps, under Lieut. White, reached Booneville on Monday, and would proceed to Kansas City with munitions of war to arm the Home Guard of Jackson county. Col. John D. Stevenson, a prominent member of the Missouri Legislature, commands the military operations along the Missouri, from Kansas City to its mouth. Lieut. Col. Schaeffer, with about 500 men, will remain at Booneville, after Gen. Lyons' departure.

From Martinsburg.

MARTINSBURG, July 4.—There was an alarm last night caused by the close contact with the secession pickets. During the alarm on the right wing, the left wing according to orders, placed their pickets out, and on their return the guard, without halting, shot at them, killing Peter Lowry, of Williamsburg, Company C, third regiment. He was buried in the Catholic cemetery in this place to-day. The army was all in motion in a very short time. The marching orders were at three o'clock this morning; no regiments moved except the 11th and 1st Wisconsin, which started as guard to a heavy train of wagons bound for Williamsport.

The search in the jail to-day, amounted to the finding of some few muskets; yesterday and to-day, a pair of large holster pistols, that was hid in the hay in the stable connected with the jail.

The Rhode Island regiment arrived at Hagerstown yesterday, and will be here to-morrow. The army will move forward to-morrow, or the day following; they will then have very nearly the full column to advance. The stand point will be at Cumber's hill.

Military Movements in Western Virginia.

PHILLIPPA, July 2, 8 o'clock, P. M.—This column of the army of the Department of the Ohio consists in part of the Sixth, Seventh and Ninth Indiana, the Fourteenth Ohio, with portions of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Ohio, and First Virginia, and the full Cleveland Light Artillery, with their new rifled cannon. The whole body is under the command of General Morris. The other column is under Gen. McClellan's direct command, with Brig. Generals Schleich and Rosecrans. The latter is now mainly concentrated at Buckhannon and Weston. Col. McCook's German Regiment has gone there with all other troops in Western Virginia, excepting those guarding the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and holding Grafton. The Confederates are exercising the utmost vigilance at their camps on Laurel Hill, thirteen miles from here. Some of their masked batteries have been discovered. They have rifle pits for a mile this side of their camp, and it is supposed similar preparations have been made on the other side. Gen. McClellan left Clarksburg yesterday morning to head his column. Every preparation has been made for a movement, which is expected every hour.

BUCKHANNON, VA., July 2.—Gen. Rosecrans occupied this place on Sunday morning, and will probably remain here for several days. The Confederates are separated, and are reported to be in large force at Beverly and Beallington. At the latter place fortifications and a casemated redoubt have been erected. Four cannons are planted commanding the Phillippa road. The position is said to be a very strong one. From the most reliable reports it is ascertained that from seven to ten thousand armed Secessionists are in the vicinity.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, July 2.—Preparations are being made to send such a force to the mouth of the Kanawha as will give the confederates a chance to show their metal. Gen. Cox, at Camp Dennison, will command. General McClellan is at Buckhannon. Gov. Dennison had despatches from him at that point to-day.

Army Orders.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Capt. Brand, Assistant General, is now acting as Chief of the Staff to Gen. Tyler's brigade.

The following is the substance of the army orders just issued:

The State of Illinois and the States and Territories West of the Mississippi, West and on this side of the Rocky Mountains, including New Mexico, will in future constitute a separate military command, to be known as the Western Department, under command of Major General Fremont, of the United States Army—headquarters at St. Louis.—It having been ascertained to the satisfaction of the War Department, that First Lieut. John Thomas Goode, of the 4th Artillery, entertains and has expressed treasonable designs against the Government of the United States, his name will be stricken from the rolls of the army.

Capt. John McNale, of the Tenth Infantry, having, while in command of Fort Laramie, given satisfactory evidence of his disloyalty to the Government, the President directs that his name be stricken from the rolls of the army. He also directs that the name of Assistant Surgeon Lafayette Gould, of the medical staff, be stricken from the roll for refusing to renew his oath of allegiance. The chaplains of the New York volunteer regiments mustered into service for two years will receive the pay and allowances that are granted to chaplains of the three year regiments.

Wilson's Zouaves at Fort Pickens—Ben. McCullough's Proclamation.

ST. LOUIS, July 5.—The Pensacola correspondent of the Mobile Advertiser says that the steamer Vanderbilt arrived at Fort Pickens on the 24th ultimo, and landed Wilson's Zouaves. The steamers Illinois and Swan had also arrived. The Memphis Appeal, of the 2d inst., has published a proclamation from Ben McCullough, calling on all the citizens of Arkansas having State or private arms, to rendezvous at Fayetteville, where they will be formed in regiments and battalions, and subsistence furnished. He says that the troops of Missouri are falling back on you, and if you are not sustained you will be invaded and your homes desolated.

Western News Items.

CINCINNATI, July 6.—Twenty-three Confederates from Kanawha Valley are held prisoners at Camp Chase, as hostages for Union men carried off by the Confederates.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 3d.—Ten thousand men have been called out to resist the invasion of the Federal troops through Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, July 5.—Gen. Lyon with 2,000 men left Brownsville on the 2d for the Southwest.

From Gen. McClellan's Column.

BUCKHANNON, VA., July 5.—The telegraph was completed to this place this evening. Gen. McClellan and a division of his command is here.—A forward movement will probably be made in a few days. The enemy is reported in considerable force a few miles west of Beverly, but the largest body is said to be at Laurel Hill.

From Tennessee.

LOUISVILLE, July 3.—The Tennessee Disunion forces have taken possession of the portion of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad in Tennessee, under orders of Gov. Harris, and have stopped all communication by rail between the two cities. Great excitement exists here on the subject.

FIVE O'CLOCK, P. M.

The Latest News.

We are indebted to Mr. Henry Taylor, Sun Building, for New York papers of this morning. The Tribune's Washington correspondent says:

The Grand Army will advance in three divisions, the right led by Gen. Tyler, of Connecticut, the center by Col. Hunter, who has been in general command at Fort Corcoran, the left by Colonel Heinzelman, who has been in general command at Alexandria, the whole by Gen. McDowell. There will be a fourth corps of reserve.

Each will be not far from 10,000 men. Among the commanders of brigades, beside Col. Wilcox, of Michigan, and, possibly, Col. Blenker, of the German Rifles, will be, probably, Col. Burnside, of the Rhode Island 1st, three Colonels of the new regiments of the regular army, Col. Franklin, of the 12th, Col. Porter, of the 16th, and Col. Sherman of the 15th. The last named will have in his brigade the 69th and two other New York regiments.

Where the three columns will combine, cannot be stated. But we may venture to say that it will be at a point beyond Fairfax Court House. When the movement will be made, it is not safe to prophesy. But everything indicates that the hour of marching is not very far distant.

The Tribune, says editorially of the President's message which it highly compliments:

We have on hand the simple business of crushing out the great rebellion, and we trust every care will be taken that it be not complicated with any other. No compromise with Treason; but the most energetic efforts for its suppression!—such is the National duty and the National will. We rejoice to find the President so emphatically faithful to the one and so responsive to the other.

The Washington correspondent of the same sheet says:

It is believed at General Scott's headquarters that the old chieftain will take the field, when the army advances, in his carriage.

The Secretary of the Navy suggested to the War Department to-day the propriety of sending a force down the river to take and hold Mathias Point, was told to wait two or three days. This was understood to mean that within that space of time, the enemy would have other work to do, which would take off his attention from the Potomac, and compel him to draw in advanced corps.

One of the newly-elected Union members from Maryland says that if the Heads of the Departments here do not immediately proceed to exterminate the numerous clerks of Secession proclivities yet in office from that State, he will resign his seat. He will to-day make a demand for the removal of two hailing from his own district, who, when they visit Maryland, make no attempt to conceal their treasonable tendencies.

Col. Stone's column was on the point of occupying Harper's Ferry when a special messenger left at two o'clock yesterday. It would doubtless be taken possession of last night.

The Herald's correspondent says:

Five thousand men are to be moved to the Virginia side of the river to-night.

The corps d'armee under General McDowell is to consist of forty thousand men, divided into four divisions of ten thousand men each—the first under General Tyler, the second under Colonel Heintzelman, and the third under Colonel Hunter. The fourth is to form a reserve. Each division will be composed of two brigades of four regiments, and cavalry and artillery sufficient to constitute the complement of ten thousand men.
