Workingmen. The New York Day Book of yesterday, says: About 2000 Germans held a meeting at Harmonic Garden, in Essex street, on Wednesday last, to take into consideration the suffering and destitution now weighing so heavily upon the working classes. A plan of organization was submitted for a general Workingmen's Union, in order to secure a better condition of the working classes, and to prevent such deplorable reverses as Gen. Pope will withdraw his forces from the saries of life at any time, and under all circumbe enforced. Active measures are being taken to This was received with cheers. He said, however, I pointed to carry out the objects of the Union, and arrangements are to be made for a grand procession of unemployed working men marching
