Outrageous Attack on Citizens by Soldiers .- Yes | SALES AT THE BALTIMORE STOCK BOARD. terday evening the 5th New York regiment, composed principally of tiermans, who arrived from General Banks' command, were disappointed in getting transportation facilities on the Philadelphia and Wilmington Railroad, and about six o'clock in the evening they were ordered to take up the line of march from President street depot to the Bolton depot, and accordingly they proceeded rie Central avenue and Monument street to Bolton. The side walks along the route were thronged with people, and as the regiment was passing Ensor street, some allusion was made to Bull Run by one of the by standers on the sidewalk, when some twenty of more soldiers immediately rushed on the crowd. Mr. Wm. Elliott was the first assailed. A soldier attempted to bayonet him, but he knocked the weajum away. He was then knocked down with the butt of a musket, and badly besten.
