Another Ostruge .- Yesterdar afternoon, upon the passage of the 5th regiment of Wiscomin troops through Charles street, several young men, among whom was one named Ford, collected at the door of Dr. Edward Jamet's office, No. 82 N. Charles street, near Mulberry, to witness their passage.-While so engaged a man named Charles Myers came up, considerably under the influence of liquor, and bantered for a fight with any one of the party who desired it. The young men paid no attention to Myers, who came up still closer, and pushed against Ford, who shoved him off, and Myers loveing his balance fell to the pavement. He immediately arme with an nath, and pulling forth a long single harrel pistol approached the dowr, threatening to Virginia 6's ..... 50 sales [ N. Carolina 6'a. 61 sales shoot, just as Dr. Jamet, who was at work in his office, stepped out and confronted him. The doctor grasped the derperado's hand just as the weapon was discharged. Two halls struck in the door and jamb. Mr. Jamet escaped unburt. The police arrested Myers and conveyed him to the middle per-lice station where he was held for an examination. The Union Convention .- The recently elected delegates to the City Union Convention met last evening, and, after an angry sersion of some three bours, adjourned without any definite action in reference to the selection of delegates to the State Gubernatorial Convention. The wire pullers of the old worn-out political parties appear to have the accepdance in the Convention, and evince ever disposition to go it blind for Lincoln. By a rese lution adopted, it was decided that no man had right to a seat in the State Convention who not ignore all State sovereignty and fealty, and who did not consider his obligations to the Const tution of the United States paramount to all other obligations whatmever." The Convention, at o'clock, adjourned until this evening.

The New Hampshire first Regiment of Infantry, left Sandy Hook for Baltimore in a special train this morning, and are expected to arrive this evening. They have been attached to Gen. Bank's command. More Protectors .- Verily, Baltimore is a lucky city. A new batch of protectors resterday squatted among us; the Fifth Regiment Wisconsin Volunteers having pitched their tents on the McKim property, near the city jail. They are over one thou sand strong, and on reaching the camporders were issued by their officers that no man should leave the grounds without being fully prepared to defend himzelf. Arrested on the Charge of Stealing .- Solomon Wendall was vesterday arrested by Federal policeman Johnson upon the charge of stealing a fine cloth coat and hat, claimed as the property of Mr. J. Doceman, residing at No. 66 Pearl street. He was taken before Justice Shipley, who committed him to jail in default of security to answer the manuache, arrived at Marseilles, 15th ult.

The Philadelphia Ledger says: The new Tressurv note loans make little headway. There are further subscriptions in moderate sums from parties outside of Wall street, but the large capitalists stand alone awaiting the action of Congress on the tax bill. There is one other object tion to the subscription to the Treasury note loan at this time. It is not certain as yet to what ex tent the small Treasury notes as currency may b irened, if issued at all, and until that matter is ret tled the loans will be dealt in with some caution .-The present proposition is to limit the amount, and to make the bills redeemable in coin on demand .-This kind of money is well enough for an emergen er, but a dangerous thing to establish as a policy of Honorally Discharged .- Clinton James, where Government. The British brig Herald, a prize to the Federal Virginia Life Insurance Company, Richmond, Va. frigate St. Laurence, arrived at Philadelphia yesterday. She was captured coming out of Beaufort, N. C., laden with tobacco and naval stores, and bound to Liverpool.

From Washington.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer has the following: The heavy rains last night have so swollen the l'otomac that it cannot be forded at any point between here and Harper's Ferry for several days. The House will not adjourn before the beginning | Wruss, John P. Pironnia & Hon, Hopkins, Hall & Alkinson of next week. The work of the House is about and Ward Brothers. completed, but the Senate is holding back.

It is said that new Brigadier Generals will be selected by the President only as their services may be actually needed. It is rumored that Gen. Wool will be immediately called into active pervice, and that he will first assume the command at Fortress Monroe, in place of Gen. Butler. General Butler, it is said, will be ordered to cooperate with General McClellan. It is also reported that Gen. McCall, of Pensylvania, is to go to Harner's Ferry. An understanding in reference to the policy to be pursued by the press, not only with the telegraph reporters and letter writers, but the whole paper, from editorials down to the clipper, has been made, and such journals as choose to bely sustain the Government will cheerfully acquience, and in return will be furnished with all information of which the Government are in possession, that can be made public without injury to the Government.

From Harper's Ferry. The Harper's Ferry correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger has received advices by a fugitive from Leesburg, who says:

In Leesburg there are six hundred troops stationed, and around the town from ten to twelve thousand, with reinforcements arriving every day. We have no news from the pickets this morning. All is quiet.

From New York. The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says: The private mercantile letters from London and Liverpool by the Africa, to-day, are pretty much of the same tenor as those received by the previous | 66 arrival. The anxiety in regard to the supply o cotton is increasing in proportion as the prospects for raising the blockade of the Southern ports diminish. It is said that there is, or soon will be, a strong pressure on the Government to unite with the Prench Emperor in a formal offer of arbitration, not with the expectation that the Federal Government will accept, but that, Jeff. Davis accepting, a pretext will be thereby afforded for some sort of European intervention which will not only solve the cotton question, but give the North other work to do besides making war on the

The Chamber of Commerce, at its regular monthly meeting this afternoon, discussed a memorial to the Postmaster General, praying that the carriage of the European mails be given to those steamship lines which make the quickest passages. The object in view is to take away the mails from the Bremen and Liverpool steamers and turn them over to our own lines.

No definite action was had on the subject; but it will come up as the order of the day at the next Resolutions were adopted in favor of a revenue tariff, and not a protective one; also, that the success of the Government loans to carry on the war must depend upon the enactment, by the present Congress, of revenue and internal tax bills, adapted to the existing emergency; or else, as an alternative, if the Government should succeed in procuring money without wise provision for the reimbursement of principal and interest, it will only be upon terms discreditable to the national name and prejudicial to the national interest. Madame Bonaparte (Patterson) is expected by the Fullon. United States Marshal Murray arrested a man named A. C. The Latest News. The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says:

It is suspected here that the army of the Potomac will not be kept idle so long a time as has generally been predicted. Its reorganization proceeds with great rapidity. Captain Howan, of the Paumer, has received the following letter: ALEXANDRIA, July 29. Sin-I learned last evening that a person arrived here from Aquia creek, who states that the confederates have taken all the upper works of the steamer Page, and have put six guns on board of her, and that all the flatboats on the Rapahannock have been brought over to the Potomac, the party saying that they had a great many in the creek. I suppose their object is to intercept some of the propellers on their way up the river with stores, &c. Upon the receipt of this the Department, ordered the Paunce to Aquia Creek, agreeing with Commander Craven, who inclosed the letter that "the collection of so many flat boats must be for some other object than that of intercepting passing steamers.
