INFRINGED .- Constitution U. S., Amendments, article 2.

No Soldier shall in time of peace be quartered )

ble cause, supported by Unit of maintaining and the particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.—Constitution U. S., Amendments, art. 4.

The company of the Lieutenant in command of the cavalry ordered a charge, which resulted in killing thirty of the liebels and wounding forty. The charge of the l tion U. S., Amendments, art. 4.

"tuted among men, deriving their just powers "from the consent of the governed."-Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776. Political Economy, Chapter on Taxation.

"That in all cases, and at all times, the military "ought to be under strict subordination to, and "control of the civil power."-Declaration of Rights of the People of Maryland .- Art. 27. Can anybody show a different principle in the ) Constitution of the United States?

"perty, but by the judgment of his peers, or by l "the law of the land."-Declaration of Rights of the People of Maryland, Art. 21.

Notice to Correspondents.

necessary to remind correspondents, that in no as an evidence of good faith.

thins all the latest news by mail and telegraph, shouts had ceased, when resuming, he said he was shout the man from inability to THE South is published every afternoon, after up to the hour of publication, and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powup to the hour of publication, and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powup to the hour of publication, and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powup to the hour of publication, and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powafter the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were
up to the hour of publication, and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powafter the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were
up to the hour of publication, and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powafter the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were
up to the hour of publication, and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powafter the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were
up to the hour of publication, and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powafter the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were
up to the hour of publication, and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powafter the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were
up to the hour of publication, and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powafter the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were
up to the hour of publication, and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powafter the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were
up to the hour of publication and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powafter the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were
up to the hour of publication and fully twelve pleading not the cause of the rich and of the powafter the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were up to the hour of publication and the powafter the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were up to the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were
up to the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were
up to the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were
up to the battle, and 6 or 8 Confederates were up to the bat

apply to the Publisher.

ORDERS for the Paper will be received at the Office of Publication, No. 74 Baltimore street.

Agents. Postmasters and others forming Cluts thets and with hisses, were poor fellows who were pursuit of the Confederates encamped 8 miles from and you had better procure them now.

Yours, in haste, tightening the degrading fetters which bound to the Confederates encamped 8 miles from and you had better procure them now.

Yours, in haste, or ten copies will be sent to one address, upon re- them. [Renewed cheering, followed instantly by point unless the enemy retreated. cript of the subscription price for nine, for the a renewal of the violent disturbance. time ordered.

Swann's administration, when Plug-Uglyism to you." This insult was met by vehement person, during the skirmishing preceding the hat- troops, and adds: reigned supreme, and the lives and property of a whole city lar at the mercy of a heutal mob mided the police, followed by the gang of men from the Orleans Tene Helta gives the following account. whole city lay at the mercy of a brutal mob, aided right, towards the side from whence proceeded and abetted by a corrupt and partisan police, is the cheers. Another scene of commotion ensued, furnished by the occurrences of last night, report- | during which several men were severely heaten by ed in another column. A distinguished states the police, and hurried bleeding from the street. man, lately a candidate for the highest office in me to speak then disperse the crowd; I did not the gift of the people—distinguished not less by volunteer to address you, remember. [Cheers the courtesy of his manners than by the modera- and hisses-the former largely predominating.] tion of his views—has been stopping for a day or | Mr. Breckinridge—If I did not know that the night he was to receive the compliment of a serenade from those who appreciate the courage and fidelity with which he has buttled for the rights of the people, "the Constitution and the Laws," in this dark hour of political adversity. A) respectable and orderly assemblage gathered) in front of the hotel, in expectation that he would Administration had ever occurred. Liberty, he acknowledge the compliment in a speech, and said, existed before the Constitution was formed also in the hope of hearing other distinguished and whenever the issue is presented between that gentlemen who are stopping at the house. There on the one hand, and a mere form of Governmen. was no occasion for any disorder—no apprehension of any. Cowardly and brutal as the Gov- men were again beaten and borne off.] ernment party in this city is known to be, it Mr. Breckinridge—I feel personally responsible was not supposed that its members would select for the poor fellows so rudely treated. I grieve this occasion for offering a gross insult to a to think any one should be hurt on my account. gentleman of Mr. Breckinridge's character and position. Never was confidence in the decency, [cv."] An active fight, which now sprung up, doomed to greater disappointment. Never, we minutes, and occasioned a general stampede of the opposite side of the canal. not to say the generosity of political opponents occupied the attention of the crowd for several believe, has even this city witnessed a more dis- the timid. graceful exhibition of blackguardism than the "Union-men" of Bultimore favored the country a Senator speak words of truth? [The inquiry with last night. A choice representation of the was met by a renewal of opprobious epithets diparty, composed chiefly of office holders in various | rected against the speaker. | Voices--"Oh never departments of Federal employment, and inclu- mind them, Mr. Breckinridge, they're just from ding a large number of the bogus or "Dodge" police, came upon the ground for the express pur- cries "You had us on the 19th of April, now pose of insulting Mr. Breckinridge, and dispersing | we've got you." the meeting. The former they could not do, for ] the simple reason that an insult from such a quar- | those whom he called "the squad on my right" ter is impossible—the latter they effected by a resort to the most brutal and cowardly means. that this disturbance has been occasioned by a By raising obeers for "Winter Davis," and for handful of men carrying sticks and westing brass | "Lincoln," they succeeded in provoking badges (Voices-"They're the Bodge Police, G-d from the meeting counter-cheers for 'Jefferson d-m'em). Mr. Breckinridge, concluding his port of the share of his division in the battle of ) Davis" and "Mr. Breckinridge," whereupon remarks amid the incessant clamor of cheers for Bull Run, avers that the Ellsworth Zouaves broke those who uttered them were mercilessly here, as in the United States Senate, he would ment,) and never formed again throughout the beaten with clubs or unceremoniously drag enter his protest against the usurpations of the day! ged off to the Station House. Others were treated Administration, and he trusted in God that the remonstrating against these acts of brutality and bad men would receive a summary check. [Vo- side of the river, designing to pass out of our official outrage. Among these victims of Federal official 1 respectable, quiet and orderly citizens of Balti- tion parlors of the hotel, where he was immediate- bably caused him to be escorted through our lines eighteen of the Ohio vandal in that and the ad- in traitors' graves! more, whose names we only withhold from publi- ly surrounded by his friends, who seized him by by two companies of United States cavalry. cation at their own expressed desire, and whose the hands, and congratulated him upon his past statements are authority for what we say. Mr. Breckintidge withdrew from the unequal contest between gentlemanly forbestrance and the portors and lobbies of the house for "Vallandig-] ham, for whom the compliment of the serenade was also intended, and who was likewise expected to speak, declined to expose himself to similar insult. A full account of the disgraceful proceedings will be found in another i column, taken chiefly from the report in this i morning's American, the truthfulness and accuracy of which can only be accounted for by the supposition, that, in consequence of the lateness. of the hour, it escaped the supervision of the conductors of that paper. We are pleased that the i Federalists should have in an organ of their own ) party so faithful a daguerreotype of the features

Decline of the War Spirit in the North-

now languish and groan.

which they present to the world. For the rest,-

there is a day of retribution for all these things-and the longer it is deferred, the harder it will go with those who aid, abet or countenance the oppression under which the citizens of Baltimore

York, states that the war fever in these sections upon $5 apiece to the Magistrate. found depression, and no uprising like that which followed the fall of Fort Sumter took also.

In a ometal report of the outgood or the outgood or the fall of Fort Sumter took also.

In a ometal report of the outgood or the outgood or the outgood or the president's wife I should have dressed exactly the President's wife I should have dressed exactly only two stations did he see any manifestations of the President's wife I should have dressed exactly only two stations did he see any manifestations of the President's wife I should be seen any followed the fall of Fort Sumter took place. In troops in the hospitals at Washington.

Pittsburg the peace sentiment was predominant, and our informant beard expressions used in Western New York, which, if uttered here, would have | modification of the previous accounts from h stamped their authors as secessionists. In the lat- souri. It appears now that the United Status ter section business was entirely stagment, and valry charged a regiment, and not a brigade, and lands which two years ago were worth from $100 | that they did it in desperation to escape capture. TO THE DECUMENT OF A FRAME SHALL NOT BE to $150 an acre now sold for one-third the sum.—

The regiment will soon dwindle down to a comrest Proper to Keep and Bear Arms shall not be United black for the sum.—

The regiment will soon dwindle down to a comrest positions to serve when there was a ready Southern market now victorious, Gen. Lyon has concluded to retreat. brings 6a8 cents, and in this way the agricultu- We shall have to await the Confederate accounts ) ral interest had suffered severely. Our informant | in order to obtain the truth. a mass of descriptive matter which has no special asting of over 400 nouses, was destroyed by new on this side of the Atlantic, we now we have the following scribed by law.—Const. U. S., Amendments, art. 3.

The Bloquirer publishes a long list of wounded interest for readers on this side of the Atlantic, we now we descriptive matter which has no special sisting of over 400 nouses, was destroyed by new on Wednesday night—only 5 houses being left.

Sering state of the Atlantic, we now worth:

Sering state of the Atlantic, we now worth in the retiring federalists were the name of descriptive matter which has no special sisting of over 400 nouses, was destroyed by new houses being left.

Sering state of the Atlantic, we now worth in the retiring federalists were the name of descriptive matter which has no special sisting of over 400 nouses, was destroyed by new houses heing left.

The Bloquirer publishes a long list of wounded interest for readers on this side of the Atlantic, we now worth in the retiring federalists were the name of descriptive matter which has no special sisting of over 400 nouses, was destroyed by new houses heing left.

The Bloquirer publishes a long list of wounded interest for readers on this side of the Atlantic, we now worth:

Sering state of the Atlantic interest for readers on this side of the Atlantic, we now worth in the retiring federalists were the name of descriptive matter which has no special state of the Atlantic, we now worth in the retiring federalists were the name of descriptive matter which has no of descriptive matter which has The right of the people to be secure in their East Tennessee the Union men who had violently Gen. Lyon's army to Sunday have been received. Federal prisoners. persons, houses, papers and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be riolated, and no Warrant shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and part of the Government to arm one portion of the Seeing a regiment of infantry coming along the

"To secure these rights, governments are instiaided by the Pederal Police-Disgraceful

Conduct of the Police. Attracted by the announcement that the Hon. It is idle to say that the power of taxation (or, John C. Breckinridge and the Hon. C. L. Vallan-) by parity of reasoning, any other power) rests on digham, who reached this city on Wednesday consent, provided there he a right claimed for the evening, would be serenaded and would probably government to compel that consent by force. -- Nay, address their friends, a crowd of about 2,000 per-I sons assembled last night in front of the Eutaw ping. Long before the hour announced for the proaching a piece of timber to flank the enemy each. They much resemble the large size wagons observed to me in the morning: "The Northern hundred cavalry and eight pieces of artillery, serenule, it became evident that the evening Captain Dubois' battery opened fire on the Rebels, used by the Adams' Express Company, but are bordes came to invade our soil; but the porture Parrot guns, four howitzers and one rifled ( would not pass without trouble of some sort, wome two hundred noted bullies and blackguards, belonging to the Custom-House, the Post-Office, and the Federal Police, being present on the night at Curran, and on Sunday morning General The Enquirer says: "That no man ought to be taken, or imprisoned, ground with the undisguised object of creating a that as must of the Reliefs are mounted they "Institution of the Reliefs are mounted, they has handed us the following recherche epistle from that, as must of the Reliefs are mounted, they has handed us the following recherche epistle from might, in a rapid movement, flank him, and take "Inat no man ought to the latter form of the letter is evidently for disseized of his freehold, liberties or privileges, or outlawed, or exiled, or in any manner flees, or outlawed, or exiled, or in any manner flees, or other feet of the first port of the feet of the feet of the first port of the feet of the feet of the first port of the feet of the feet of the feet of the feet of the first port of the feet of ruffians with yells for the "Union," for "General The latter force is well-armed and effective troope. bandcuffs, it will be seen, are to be used for "pri- which so saturated the earth that the increased ton or Newport News, if practicable, and at least began to speak, and after thanking those around In consequence of the multitude of anonymous | him for the compliment which their presence con-

Mr. Breckinridge-You poor fellows may hise) Mr. Breckinridge-If you don't intend to allow Several men were taken away by the police.) Amid frequent interruptions, the speaker proceeded to say that since the time when constitutions had been designed as limits to despotic pow- in gold. er, nothing so outrageous as those enacted by the

for "Jeff. Davis" and the "Southern Confedera-

Mr. Breckinridge-It is evident the disturbers ) are but few in numbers. Are they afraid to hear

Mr. Breckintidge (after several vain appeals to to his room, after some minutes of hand-shaking. Call were then made by those who thronged the [ ham," but that gentleman, though present, de- ] clined to speak, and shortly after retired to his !

withdrawn to the northern balcony of the Hotel, . and in that position screnaded Mesers. Breckin-I ridge and Vallandigham. The crowd in the street. and "The Union" -- while the Southern men who ! who had taken refuge in the Hotel, responded)

War Morements. The Associated Press furnish us with another strength, was dispersed by a few shells from Tot- company C-body and thigh, severe.

ten's battery, wounding some thirty of them.

camp of the Union men at Athens, Missouri, on come upon a noble mission, and right nobly did hald to the short and stocking land. General Butler at our repaired to this end of silence was partially restored, Mr. Breckineidge bering 1,000 to 1,200, made an attack upon the folks." Truly did the Grand Army of the Union Monday morning last, at 5 o'clock. There was a they succeed !!! We publish the letter rechilim. considerable amount of arms and ammunition for | The italics are those of the writer : communications received every day, it is found reyed, referred to the position of Maryland, whose the United States troops stored there, under guard raged in their dearest Constitutional rights, and States volunteers, numbering about 350 men, case can any notice be taken of any communica- to all respectful inquiries as to the charges against under command of Capt. Moore. The fight lasted tion, unless accompanied by the name and address | those who had been rudely torn from their homes one hour, when the rebels retreated. Meantime | have the announcement to Brady, that he will not of the writer, not necessarily for publication, but and families, nothing but contemptuous responses (Capt. Moore, having been reinforced by about 150 be commissioned. My course would be to take had been returned. Do you, he asked, call this men from Centralia, lows, on the opposite side of measures to have his full company present, paraliberty? (Cries of "No," "no." intermingled the river, gave chase after the rebels for about a ded without arms, and have the letter read to him with hisses and shouts of 'Oh, dry up, you trai- mile and a half, killing one, taking eighteen pri- and the company by the Adjutant. Have, precisoners and capturing thirty-one horses and two ously, sufficient and reliable guard, with loaded

A Quartermaster Killed. There has been mention made of the killing of The Richmond Enquirer indignantly denies the A reminiscence of the worst scenes of Mr. voice-"Oh, go to South Carolina, and bed d a Federal officer, who had $750 in gold on his Northern accounts of inhumanity to the Northern and man bit the dust. He just lived long enough ; to tell his name. On his person was found $750 From Washington. WASHINGTON, August 8th.—It appears from the } data of the Committee of Ways and Means that the total amount of appropriations passed at the recent session is $275,000,000. Of this amount $197,000,000 is for the Army, $35,000,000 for the Navy, and the remainder for various other pur-

It is understood that Colonel Sickles will be appointed a Brigadier General by the President. There was considerable alarm among our troops was nothing more serious than the shooting of one up all their hospital buildings, stables, &c. They have thus violated the religious feelings and senti- French embassy. of our pickets in the foot by a concealed Rebel on removed their horses in vessels on Sunday.

Capt. Withington, of the First Michigan Regiment. models, the construction of one has been ordered from the pulpit and gallery was also defaced.— eight persons perished. battle, but was taken prisoner while attempting at a cost of $5,000. The Wright Infantry from pla signatures and flourishes with dates but in to assist Col. Wilcox off the field. Col. Wilcox's Dalton, (Geo.) numbering 89 men, arrived at ple signatures and flourishes with dates; but in arm is hadly shattered. Capt. Ricketts is also Richmond on Tuesday last. Regiment is in attendance, and Mrs. Ricketts is the Hon. B. L. Hodge, who was a Lieutenant in the walls and the woodwork of the gallery. The to the Eastern Shore of Virginia: with her husband. Capt. Withington writes that the Shreveport Grays, now stationed in York- very neighborhood of the altar was not respected; We learn from an unquestioned source that they are treated with great kindness. They are town, Va., has resigned his position and returned for in close proximity to it I read the words three Federal steamers, from Fortress Monroe, all on their parole of honor not to escape or take home to raise a regiment of cavalry for the Con- Death to Traitors—thus saith the Lord!" to- reached the Pocomoke river on Wednesday event up arms against the South.

as the wounded were to be removed thither as i soon as circumstances would permit.

The Star says:

It is said that General Heintzelman, in his re-

'Prince Napoleon started this morning at six ) day was near at hand when the evil cureer of these o'clock, accompanied by his suite, for the other The speaker then retired into one of the recep- Junction. We hear that General McDowell pro- destroyed by the invaders, has killed no less than late and many of your rebellious brothers sleeping gathered upon the spur of the moment for the de-

SANDY HOOK, August 8 .- Yesterday the wife i and daughter of John Souder, one of the Confederate prisoners here, were escorted to headquarl ters for an interview with General Banks. Ther Trepresent that the prisoner is a quiet, domestic. man, but was forced from his bed by Confederate I scouts, recently captured at the Point of Rocks. The band, who in the meantime attempted to General Banks told them that if the evidence cor- lican paper of New York, writes as follows, and perform, were interrupted by the crowd, who roborated their statement he would be released, would permit no airs to be played except those of but they had scarcely departed before other partheir own choosing. Consequently, the music was ties made a contrary statement. To-day others ; behalf, but Gen. Banks awaits further evidence.

Two spans of the bridge at Harper's Ferry are

The official report of the Surgeou General shows loved ones left behind. An army composed of saw Mrs. Lincoln, and I don't think if I had been Convention are getting up companies, and that at Cod Crashers.

I not have been a spinster at this day. wouldn't have talked quite so freely in a promis-We are indebted to friends for Richmond papers

Capt. Robt. R. Garland, United States Inflan- | far the commercompent or

MERALD. The special correspondent of the London Morne their fatire Blate in Herald (Lieft Derby's organ) has written a Lieutenant Westwood McCreery, of this city, long account of a visit to the camp of General who resigned his post in the United States Army, | Beauregard and the battle-field of Manages, three reached here from Fort Pickens a few days ago, | days after the battle, a portion of which appears and has already taken service in the Confederate in the Richmond Disputch of Wednesday. From us intelligence that the village of liampton, cona mass of descriptive matter which has no special sisting of over 400 houses, was destroyed by fire Captain E. Butterworth, 1st Michigan, company C—thigh, very severe. Henry Baldwin, 14th N. General Beauregard, an early breakfast with the had occupied the position and the Federals at New was not intended by Gen. Lyon, but probably company C—thigh broke, severe. P. McManus, prevented the Rebels from attacking his main body, when they would unquestionably have body. Parks. 79th New York, company C—thigh broke, severe. P. McManus, via which greeted my nostrils. The country which a short time before had been so luxuriantly Scouts and fugitives brought word yesterday more body. body, when they would unquestionably have beauty and beautiful, now appeared desolated. Rich corn beautiful, no driven through them. The ruts made by wagon- ists named E. A. Mahew, a native of Maine, but a The wagons captured from our enemy on Sun- wheels were perceptible everywhere, and every- resident of Georgia until impressed into the sercautiously, and on approaching Curran the Rebels, day, July 21st-over 500 in number-are said by thing showed that a terrible conflict had lately vice, who furnished your correspondent an acnumbering some three thousand, were seen posted a correspondent to be all new, and of the most taken place. Dead hodies of the enemy, too, cout of the expedition. Mr. Mahew has been staon the hillside, southwest of that place. General substantial and costly description. They were lay about in all directions, the intense heat of the tioned at Yorktown since the lat of June. On Lyon immediately formed his army for battle, and | built at Baltimore, Philadelphin, New York and | sun rendering them intolerable to approach. | Friday last General Magruder left Yorktown with gave orders to advance. As our column was ap- Boston, and are supposed to have cost about $500 I forcibly thought of what General Beauregard a force of seven thousand men, including two who quickly retreated in haste. It was not known covered. On each wagon was marked 'To Rich- tion I shall give each man will be six feet by two!' cannon. Part of these troops were from Williamswhether any of the enemy were killed in this last mond," and in each one was a large quantity of Some of the enemy's batteries I also observed in burg. rugagement. The unit not tree mann, but the provinces of the Handensta Explained. lying lifeless in the very places they had fallen. Bethel, which had been completely deserted. On several prisoners. Our army encamped for the The Mystery of the Handensta Explained. Lying lifeless in the very places they had fallen. Bethel, which had been completely deserted. Quixer, Ill., Aug. 8.—A band of rebels, numsoners taken in battle, if not for your (their) own

HEADQUARTERS ADJ'T GEN'S OFFICE, Col. Dunnell-My Dear Sir: Herewith you

erful, but of the poor and weak. [A voice-"You found dead on the field. In the afternoon the they must be got rid of in a different manner. ed to us by Col. Withers, who took such an oner- more away. thours in advance of the morning papers.

For Sale by all the principal newsmen in this

Nr. Breckinridge inquired of those on his right followed by general hisses.] In the attention the they must be got rid of in a different manner.

It is and you know it; '' followed by general hisses.] It is and you know it; '' followed by general hisses.] It is and you know it; '' followed by general hisses.] It is and you will not receive your ball carterists of the 21st.

Nr. Breckinridge inquired of those on his right followed by general hisses.] For Sale by all the principal newsmen in this city and throughout the South. Persons desiring why they were present if they did not desire to the principal newsmen in this city and throughout the South. Persons desiring why they were present if they did not desire to the principal newsmen in this city and throughout the South. Persons desiring why they were present if they did not desire to the principal newsmen in this city and throughout the South. Persons desiring why they were present if they did not desire to the principal newsmen in this city and throughout the South. Persons desiring why they were present if they did not desire to the principal newsmen in this city and throughout the South. Persons desiring the principal newsmen in this city and throughout the South. Persons desiring the principal newsmen in this city and throughout the sound all air throughout throughout the sound all air throughout the sound all air throughout the sound all air throughout through Agencies for the sale or distribution of the Paper hear him? [Great cheering followed by some ed and missing. The Confederates were led by Brady, until Saturday, and then it is not to be the Nectar of the Gods. I then sat down on the in any particular Town or neighborhood, will bia among the count which awared from more of the following the country which awared from more than the following the country which awared from more than the following the country which awared from more than the following the country which awared from more than the following the country which awared from more than the following the country which awared from more than the following the country which awared from more than the following the country which awared from more than a trivial and a done in a corner. Don't adopt any course that grass with several officers, smoked my pipe, and the following the country which awared from more than a trivial and a done in a corner. Don't adopt any course that grass with several officers, smoked my pipe, and the following the country which awared from more than a trivial and a done in a corner. Don't adopt any course that grass with several officers, smoked my pipe, and the following the country which awared from more than a trivial and a done in a corner. Don't adopt any course that grass with several officers, smoked my pipe, and the following the country which awared from more than a trivial and a done in a corner. ble among the crowd, which swayed from pave— Greene. The Union men had only 3 killed and 8 implies fear, or requires temporizing. A portion listened to sundry interesting reminiscences of the Mayo, a niere of Lieutenant General Scott, on her implies fear, or requires temporizing. ment to pavement, as under strong excitement, wounded in the skirmish. Athens is a small of Brady's company had better be put into other recent fight. Subsequently Col. Withers accom- way from Richmond to New York, abded the and the espantoons of the policemen were plied town in the extreme northeast section of Missouri, companies, and the halance, with Atwood's con-

STATE OF MAINE.

AUGUSTA, June 20; 1860.

Latest from Yirginia.

make the following extracts. The linguiser says:

try, and Capt. Addison Garland, United Biates

Marines, both of Amberst county, Virginia, have

JOHN L. HODSEN, Adjutant General.

But even if it were true that we have been un- and amiable that I am not astonished be should Orleans True Delta gives the following account: kind to the prisoners, with what grace does the have been a great favorite with his command. One of the Federal quartermasters, named reproof come from those who, in their precipitate "llow much better," [ observed, "that the unfor-) Out of the reaction quartermancer, mained flight from Manassas, scampered like buffalos tunate contest which now wages between both) ing expedition, was overhauled by one of our captains, whom he took to be of the true black re- lation to or doing one kind act for their own tual concessions—by anything, in fact, short o publican stripe. On discovering his mistake he wounded and dying, and who suffered the Con- bloodshed?" "Indeed, yes, sir," he rejoined in promptly fired at our captain, his pistol, luckily, federates, whom they so hate, to bury even their a weak, tremulous voice. "Seeing that the same only snapping the cap and doing no damage. dead. We hope to bear no more of our unkind- results must ultimately ensue, then how much ness; it is too ridiculous an idea even for a Yan- more politic to have realized them without war nate foe we will ever be generous. Capt. (). J. Wise, of the Richmond Blues, arrived in this city yesterday, on business connected that no quarter need be expected should the for-Blues, with the Wise Legion, are at the White tunes of war place them at their mercy. Sulphur Springs, in Greenbrier. Gen. Floyd's I brigade are at the Sweet Springs.

The same paper has the following: Hon. D. C. DeJarnette has been appointed Aid to Gen. Huger, and will leave for Norfolk in a fe It is believed here that the Federalists evacuated ) Newport News yesterday afternoon (the 5th) about night, which subsided on ascertaining that there locality, and it is thought that the Federals burnt believe that an army of invading barbarians would months, in consequence of a complaint from the A large fire was discovered in and about that

The Richmond Despatch says that Mr. Dickinon the 23d and the other on the 29th July, from has been in Richmond, and after exhibiting his such portions of the ceiling as could be reached great devastation. Seven hundred and eighty-triumph in Virginia, in conversation with my son this morning, said: "This battle is decisive of the question between the North and the South -that the seceded States cannot possibly be subjugated, and that the present dynasty in Washington is hopelessly and forever ruined.

Louisville, July 27th: Ex-Governor Morehead, speaking of the late )

The Dispatch says :rifle from every thicket, and learn too late for : their personal safety that that the backwoodsmen can never be subjugated.

----The President, as Seen Through Republican propose et Dieu dispose!"

A lady Washington correspondent of a Repubcorroborates general reports. As it comes from a friendly source, we presume the hints are intended .

man as the world ever saw. But Abraham Lin- of the working men in this city, on Friday eve- the steamers, the battery being discovered by then There is a rumor in some of the camps that coln, in one respect, is not yet a President. His ning. The position taken by the managers in or- before getting within point blank range. The "ter Davis," "Abe Lincoln," "General Scott," Gen. Johnston is approaching the river opposite of home with show him to be still the final of Books." at home with, show him to be still Mr. Lincoln and State, and even the General Government, are without damage to the battery or anything else or only. He has not yet appreciated, wevilly, the in duty bound to take care of and protect its indi- the Virginia shore except some pine trees in the While standing, a few days since, looking at do not believe that I ever before wrote such grave guarantee to the poor their sustenance, as the rich from the rifled cannon. We did not learn whether Gern Confederacy." During the whole evening the debarking of that splendid company, the last criticism. But it is just. The other evening I have guaranteed to them the right to hold their or not the steamers received any damage during the Dodge police were exceedingly active, using the militure cannon a stalmant soldier manual to the presentation of a flag to the property. In fact they claim that the power of late the engagement, as they kept at a very respectful to the property. In fact they claim that the power of late the engagement, as they kept at a very respectful to the property. In fact they claim that the power of late they claim that they claim that the power of late they claim that the power of late they claim that they claim that they claim that the power of late they claim that their clubs unmercifully upon the heads of those and looking at two little children news me said. his morning continue a suit of second that they claim that the power of is
to the military camp, a stalwart soldier passed by,

to the military camp, a stalwart soldier passed by,

to the military camp, a stalwart soldier passed by,

to the military camp, a stalwart soldier passed by,

to the military camp, a stalwart soldier passed by,

to the military camp, a stalwart soldier passed by,

to the military camp, a stalwart soldier passed by,

to the military camp, a stalwart soldier passed by,

to the military camp, a stalwart soldier passed by the florer ment as the distance from the shore. who rentured to cheer Mr. Breckinridge, and to their father: "Let me kiss these children if viously needed repairs. Two of his carriage com- say, as the laborer cannot now, by any possibility of the FIRM OF FEATHERSTON, NAVY & CO. dragging off to the station-house, without more you please. I left two just like them at home. panions were gentlemen; the other had neither ty, help himself, it is the duty of the authorities ado, any person overbeard expressing the least Let me kiss these for them;" and a tear stole the appearance, the speech, nor the manners of to provide for him and the thousands of starving disentisfaction with the course of proceedings. down his bronzed cheek. The little ones sub- one. Yet be was the President's familiar, and poor in this city. A number of respectable gentlemen were in this ers felt that a soft part in their hearts had been Democratic enough for a woman, as you have A gentleman of this city engaged in mercantile manner arrested, and subjected to the annoyance touched by the tender little scene. There was a often told me, but I should greatly prefer to see pursuits who has recently travelled throughout of several hours detention in the cells of the sta-Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and Western New tion-house, from which they were only released to the sight of these little ones of the course I did Rut in the sentiment of the results in the sen stirred up the tenderest emotions of his patriotic leves but Mr. Lincoln? ()f course I did. But in the sentiment of the people in the towns and Thrankers. soul. I do not know who he was, but there and have a little patience. Didn't I tell you I should counties through which the Railroad passes. He wheat Fance. soul. I do not know who he was, but there and have a nittle patience. Undn't I tell you I should counties through which the late Greenville have a nittle patience. Undn't I tell you I should counties through which the late Greenville have a nittle patience. Undn't I tell you I should counties through which the late Greenville have a nittle patience. Undn't I tell you I should counties through which the late Greenville have a nittle patience. Undn't I tell you I should counties through which the late Greenville have a nittle patience. Indn't I tell you I should be states that several delegates to the late Greenville have ramble in my talks just as much as I liked? I states that several delegates to the late Greenville have ramble in my talks just as much as I liked? I states that several delegates to the late Greenville have ramble in my talks just as much as I liked? I states that several delegates to the late Greenville have ramble in my talks just as much as I liked? I states that several delegates to the late Greenville have ramble in my talks just as much as I liked? I states that several delegates to the late Greenville have ramble in my talks just as much as I liked? I states that several delegates to the late Greenville have ramble in my talks just as much as I liked? I states that several delegates to the late Greenville have ramble in my talks just as much as I liked? I states that several delegates to the late Greenville have ramble in my talks just as much as I liked? I states that several delegates to the late Greenville have ramble in my talks just as much as I liked? I states that several delegates to the late Greenville have ramble in my talks just as much as I liked? I states that several delegates to the late of the late of

of the 7th inst., (Wednesday last,) from which we caous crowd about my husband's affairs. A Visit to the Battle-Field.

York—company F - breast, not severe. John General and his staff, and a start on horseback Port News were thought to be in a critical situa-Blakeny, 11th Massachusetts, company F. leg with Col. Chisholm to visit the field of slaughter, tion. The United Ship Sevenses had gone up broke, severe. Captain J. M. Casey, 1st Michi- thus proceeds:

> had been upturned as if a ploughshare had been arrival of an intelligent deserter from the secessionposition, with all the horses attached to them | On Monday night the force encamped at Great the turnpike road to Centreville, bore traces of and at noon resterday took up a position on Back the sanguinary encounter. The ground was li- River, some three miles from the town, where Maeren more indispensable articles, needless to par- o'clock. Colonel Weber erected a barricade near ticularize,) was too much for my risibility to re- the Hampton end of the bridge, and placed a sist. Imagination vividily conjured up the "Grand strong guard at various points this side of the Army" divesting themselves of these slight and creek. A few minutes just midnight General Maeven necessary encumbrances, in order to facili-even necessary encumbrances, in order to facili-gruder, with about five hundred Confederates. tate their flight; which, no doubt, was accelerated some of them belonging in Hampton, entered the by the impression that Gen. Beauregard, by some town and immediately fired the buildings with Faustic skill, had "masked batteries in the air!"- 1 an idea which is the General's not mine; consequently I neither covet nor claim the credit. A WOCKDED FEDERAL COLONEL. flaving reached the encampment of the 17th Vir- to a terrible conflagration. There were perhaps with vigor upon the heads of those who scarcely on the Des Moines river, 25 or 30 miles west of tingent and other requisite acquisitions, will make to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says there have been about 6,000 to a wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says the wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says the wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says the wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says the wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says the wounded Federal officer, Col. Wood, of a Mr. Mahew says the wounded Federal offi Mr. Breckinridge, speaking amid the din, said having been further reinforced by 500 or 600 You will require several dozen handcuffs, for and kindness had been exhibited. That very days ago a hattalion came down to the outskirts Agents. Postmasters and others forming Clubs these were not believed the sand with hisses, were not fellows who were consulted file Confidents accommend a miles from ing disabled. I am informed that a couple of his of the regiments are receiving new uniforms for men remained with him, attended to his wounds, the winter campaign. and brought him water-the only refreshment ther could procure. I had some desultory conversation with the wounded Colonel, who appeared so gentlemanly unsuccess, as the cap of our captain's pistol also kee to indulge. There is no shadow of founds- than with it!" Colonel- Wood seemed overpowtion for such a charge. To the fallen or unfortu- ered by the kindness and hospitality shown to him by an enemy from whose hands he was led to ) The following item shows that both the Wises, expect no favor, and from whose beart no compashave made a successful retreat upon their reserves: | sion. It seems, I fear, a prevalent idea with the eremy that Southern soldiers are destitute of the common feelings and amenities of humanity, and

Gen. Longstreet directed my attention to the to the Council of the Empire. The same decree little Episcopal Church on the hill, within a few orders new elections for the Diet. yards of the camp, which he recommended me to botrified upon beholding the sacrilegious manner | All the members, except three, quitted the Chamin which a building devoted to the worship of the | bers, reserving to themselves the right of express-Omnipotent had been desecrated and polluted by ing their views on a future occasion. the enemy, who had evidently been quartered there on the night previous to the battle. There can be no palliation for such a crime. I do not ments of the human race. I found every portion of the walls covered over h with writing, even to those of the vestry, while We learn from the Baton Rouge Advocate that the most disgustingly obscene figures drawn on account of the thieving visit of the Federal vessels leverywhere. than the rest, I copied in my note book. It was the pretext of searching for arms. Mr. Croswell' written in the centre of the wall at the right-hand store and dwelling were thoroughly searched and side of the reading desk:

certainly fall upon your own heads. You will, sides taking three hundred dollars in each which like Haman, be hanged upon your own gallows: | was locked up in Mr. C.'s private secretary. They you will find that the way of transgressors is hard | were proceeding to commit other depresiations in A gentleman by the name of Taylor, residing in and that the war which you have brought on by the neighborhood when they were met and fired Gilmer county, Va., whose property had been your own acts will leave your native homes deso- into by a small party of Virginians who had

and a Lover of the old

Trouble Among the Germans of New York. The New York Day Book of resterday says: It is useless to disguise the fact, that trouble is a brewing among the poor classes, and especially returned again the following day (Friday,) but among our large German population. The orga- this time met with a warm reception from a party nization of ward clubs has been begun, and a Pro- of Virginians who had in the meantime erected a "Pil tell you just what I think. The President | visional Committee hold regular meetings and are | battery at a point commanding the entrance to is Abraham Lincoln, as honest and upright a making preparations for a grand demonstration the criek. The engagement was commenced by position he has been called to occupy. There, I vidual members—the poor as well as the rich; to neighborhood, which were topped by the ball

Kast Tennessee Getting all Right. We had much pleasure in learning from a gen-

And I | some distance down the road, out of sight of their fathers, and greet the trains with loud huzzas for Jeff. Davis. At most of the towns volunteer companies were being raised—and the whole State seemed to be aroused, as if by electricity, on learning of Beauregard's remark-during the fight on the 21st-viz: "If I only had a Brigade of these Tennesseeans, instead of one regiment, I would enter Alexandria with those running cowards." --Lynchburg Republican.

From Fortress Monroe. The steamer Adelande, from Old Point, brings torches. The greater part of the fire hundred Asses, being built of wood and very dry, there having been no rain lately, were soon in flameand the strong south wind quickly fanned them

ADDITIONAL POREIGN NEWS. Halifax; August 8 .- The Europe brings the following additional news:

Sir Robert Peel, the new Secretary for Ireland, was sworn in as privy councillor. The Times says Mr. Layard succeeds Lord Wodehouse as Secretary of Foreign Affairs. Parliament was expected to be prorogued on the

Dr. Farrar, Vice-President, and for several years President of Switzerland, died on the 25th. The National Council had agreed to the resolution of the Council of States in favor of the construction of military roads over the Alise.

Mweden The King of Sweden has gone to Gottenberg. It is rumored be will afterwards visit London and

An imperial decree dissolves the Diet of Austria on account of its refusal to send a representation

A stormy discussion on the nationalities occur-I did so after a little, and was perfectly | red in the lower House of Raichsrath on the 26th.

The Sultan continues to effect reforms. The Levant Herald has been suspended for two Affairs were tranquil in Pekin and Japan. An earthquake on the island of Simo caused federate service. The enterprise, of course, has gether with a cartoon representing President ing last and landed troops, supposed to number These parties are now probably in Richmond, the countenance and authority of the War Depart- Davis suspended by the neck, illustrated by the about three hundred, at Pitts' Landing. After The following is an extract from a letter, dated "Death to Secessionists," however, seems to have the landing, they proceeded to the store of Mr. been the favorite motto, for I observed it inscribed George Croswell near by, which they foreibly entered, (Mr. Croswell and family having left their The following sentence, being more pretentions home upon the approach of the steamers) under o'Citizens of Virginia, your cowardly acts will meat, and such other articles as they chose, beboats, doubtless supposing that the small attack- \ ing party were but the advance guard of a large k A Daniel come to judgment," truly. What a force, sent to decoy them into a masked battery \ contrast all this blatant eloquence presents to the trap. They were seen bearing off one of their ignominious "stampede" of the 21st. "L'Homme comrades who fell either killed or wounded at the I fire of the Virginians.

On Thursday evening three steamers, supposed & to be the same which visited the Pocomoke the k evening previous, visited Cherrystone Creek and k | burned two schooners-private property. They k

GEORGIE W. NAVY KOWARD HYATT, THOS H TRENT

July 1, 1861—17 12 31 WHITMAN & CO., No 42 EXCHANGE PLACE, BALTINGRE, Mr. Manufacturers of I Wheat Drilla. 1 Straw Cattern, Corn Stalk Cutters. Wheel Barrows, Corn She liers