كالمصافرة والمارينية والمستوال Drouned,-Mr. John Roberts, employed at the ship-yard of Messrs. Boot & Brothers, at Canton, accidentally fell from a log on Saturday evening. and was drowned before aid could reach him. Coroner Sparklin held an inquest on the body, and a Virginia Ca....54 sales | N. Carolina Ca..70 sales verdict was rendered of accidental drowning. Deceased resided at No. 466 Canton avenue, was aged 35 years and leaves a wife and five children. Un Saturday night Fritz Klow, a watchman at a wood yard at the head of the back basin, while in a state of intoxication, fell overboard and was drowned. Coroper Sparklin held an inquest, and the jury rendered a verdiet in accordance with the facts. Deceased was 42 years of age, and leaves a wife and

Secerely Injured .- yesterday, shortly before 1 o'clock, Mrs. John J. Griggs, residing at No. 28 Caroline street, near Favette, was engaged in kindling a fire, and in order to make it burn freely poured some etherest oil from a bottle into the flamer. The fluid in the bottle became ignited, inducing her to throw it aside. A portion of the contents fell on and set fire to her dress about the body, and the flames ascending burnt her neck, face and arm badly. To prevent inhaling the steam she placed ber right hand over her month, while with the other the essaved to extinguish the flames, in which the was assisted by her father, Mr. William Williams. Dr. Inlues was called in and rendered his services. It was fortunate that she had the presence of mind | to prevent inhaling the steam, as thereby her life was sared. Franded Church .- Hev. Robert J. Breckinridge, who was for several years pastor of the 2d Presbyte. | northy of notice. rian Church in this city, and who is now here on a visit, preached yesterday morning to his old con- IMPORTS OF FOREIGN DRY GOODS AT NEW gregation. The church on East Baltimore street was crowded to excess in every part, scats being brought in from the adjoining Sabbath School. Mr. Breckingidge, who appeared to be in fine health, was warmly welcomed by his friends. Among those present were the Hon. John C. Breck inridge, a nephew of the tenerable preacher, and large number of his personal friends.

An Amazmian War. - Considerable excitement was occasioned on McElderry's what for Saturday. in consequence of a regular fight between a couple of Amazonian warriors, named Margaret Driscoll and Catharine Maher, in which the latter was considerably worsted. A number of females were present who sided with the combatants. Federal officer Trew appeared on the ground, and by arresting | M. N. Falls. Margaret put a stop to the disgraceful proceedings. She was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury. Recruiting at the Alma-House. - We learn that the Federal Recruiting officers for the 3rd Regiment of Maryland Volunteers are so hard pressed for men to fill their ranks, that they have been obliged to right the Alms-House not less than five times to obtain recruits. They obtained in all from this source nine men, three of whom have been since returned, one because he was under size, another because he was subject to fits, and the third, by reason of his manifest insanity. Accested .- Wm. Kernan was arrested yesterday by Federal policeman N. O. Thompson, charged Liverpool, Zih alt. with beating Robert Carroll in July last. He was admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appear- | prol, 5th ult ance at court. Samuel Haslem, charged with assaulting Col. March, of the Fourth Pennsylvania Regiment, was arrested by Federal policeman Dearer, but released on a peace security. The al leged amanlt occurred at Arbeiter Half, in Freder-Personal.-The Hon. John C. Breckinridge left this city yesterday afternoon for his home, accompanied by Hon. C. L. Vallandigham and several other gentlemen. The Prince Napoleon passed through this city on Saturday, en route from Washington to New York. He did not visit Richmond as was announced. Sudden Death of a Stranger. - A stranger named Marrick Beauford Feilde, who reached this city verterday in the late Washington train, was taken FANCY GOODS auddenly ill at the Camden depot, and being removed to the western police station, died in a short time. His body remained at the station.

Nad Accident. - Miss Lydia Robinson, daughter of Mr. James Robinson, residing on Light street. mear Montgomery, was badly burned on Friday night by the ignition of a fluid lamp. Her clothing caught fire, and it was with difficulty that she was saved from fatal injuries.

Military Matters. - The Twelfth Pennsylvania Regiment, Colonel Taggart, 1,040 strong, passed through the city vesterday; also, the Fifth Pennavlvania Regiment. There were no homeward hound regiments vesterday. Several trains conveyed large quantities of war munitions to Wash-Not Confirmed .- It was stated some days since that all the Baltimore appointments had been coufirmed by the Senate. Such appears to have been incorrect, as James Jeffrey, Appraiser in the Custom llouse, was rejected. The powers that be have appointed William J. Nicholls to fill the vacancy. Robbery .- Last night a man named John Murray was robbed of a watch valued at $45, and $30 in money, while sleeping in a tavern on Light street near Pratt. A female servant was arrested, but on examination was honorably discharged. Mc Mullin's Rangers. - This company, from Gen. Banks' column, which arrived at the Camden station yesterday morning, loitered about during the day, and left in the train at 61/2 o'clock for their homes in Philadelphia. Death of a Merchant, -Mr. Charles R. Peatce, an old and highly respected merchant, formerly of the firm of Birckhead & Pearce, of this city, died yes-

Criticized by conservative presses, North and South, as "As heat head" ever published on the mornety of the South Four Hundred Copies subscribed for by Southern Memberso READ THE OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. Remarkably free from sectional prejudice and sections, and, in truth, it bistus sketches that are amongst the most catholic, and tolerant, and gental we ever had occasion to peruse. How appreciative, how loving, how tender and sympathetic the author is in delineations we will let a few extracts show .- New No many jewels in their way-black by the subject, but brilfuntly light-ofne in it. It is a little mine full of promised dismounts - New York News. Rabil abiditionists and prejudiced foreigners should read this UMBRELLAS AND PARASOLS, benck - New York Herrial Detending "the institution" more than all argument from the assaults of ignorance or prejudice - Ite Bine's livene Must have extented much good in free later regions. It will the read with interest at the South also - Modele Regarder. The author is mometimes as himsopher, sometimes a pack and in every character residable . New Surfer. An exceedingly interesting tolume, quite in a new and unafterritoria de la faultamente Sun The remainder of the very large edition of this remarks. to book, which is particularly interesting as bearing directly.
