"By the Petition of Right, 3 Car, 1st, it is en-"or Common Pleas, who shall determine whether "the cause of his commitment be just, and here-" upon to do as to justice shall appertain. To beceave a man of life or by violence to

"confiscate his estate without accessition or trial "LEGISLATIVE POWER THAT WEENEVER IT SEES PRO- U. S., vol. 6, page 402, year 1771.

"Until the Legislative will be expressed, this year 1771. "Court can only see its duty and must obey the "laws." This was in a case of Treason.

Representatives, that body refused to consider it | or to be independent."—Bancroft's U. S., vol. 7, p. | would be invincible."—American Elequence, Vol. 1. in secret session, and by a vote of 113 to 19 re- 177-227. "officers, but by any person acting under him. ) "I imagine this to be wholly without precedent. I "treason was marching to force us from our seats, I

"act either of despotism or pusillanimity."

HISTORICAL PARALLELS. whenever any form of government becomes destruc- another Whigs, and the rest mongrels. ment, laying its foundation on such principles, and the bell-wether, the leader of the aristocratical organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall flock .- John Adams, Letter to Jefferson, Nov. 12, seem most likely to effect their safety and happi- 1813. ness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established, should not be changed for ] posed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But, when a long train same object, evinces a design to reduce them under such government, and to provide new guards for their luture security." -- Declaration of Indepening to be proserved? I shall repeat here a sentiopinion there is nothing worth tighting for but | tical history. It amembled the priests, from the national honor: for, in the national honor is involved the national independence. I know that a State . may find itself in such unpropitions circumstances, that prudence may force a scise government to conceal the sense of indiguity. But the insult should be engraven on tablete of brase, with a pencil of steel. AND WHEN THAT TIME AND CHARCE, WHICH HAPPEN TO ALL, SHALL BRING FORWARD THE FATORABLE MO- 1

Feb. 24, 1803. Old South Church, in consequence of some new ag- i ent orators of the patriot party had in turn address- choice. Although superior force may, by the pergression upon the rights of the people. The differbut guarded and cautious on every point which our country, it can never eradicate from the breasts might look like an approach towards treasonable of freemen, those principles which are ingrafted in expressions, or direct exhortations to resistance. their very nature. Such men WILL DO THEIR Adams placed himself in the pulpit, and sat quietly DUTY, salthur Enowing Non REGARDING CORRElistening to all their harangues; at length he rose | Quancus; but submitting them, with humble confiand made a few remarks, which he closed with the | dence, to the omniscient and omnipotent Arbiter following pithy apologue: "A Grecian philosopher and Director of the fate of empires, and trusting ) who was lying asleep on the grass, was suddenly ) roused by the bite of some animal on the palm of his hand. He closed his hand quickly as he awoke, and found he had caught in it a small field mouse. As he was examining the little animal which had dared to attack him, it bit him unexpectedly a see a cond time: he dropped it, and it escaped. Now, } fellow-citizens, what think you was the reflection ; which this triffing circumstance gave birth to, in a the mind of the philosopher? It was this: That ) there is no animal, however weak and contemptible, which cannot defend its own liberty, if it will only FlGHT ton it."-Samuel Adams, Memoir in American Eloquence, Vol. 1. Guard with jealous attention the public liberty. Suspect every one who approaches that jewel. Unfortunately, nothing will preserve it but downright force. WHENEVER THE GIVE UP THAT FORCE, TOU ARE INKVITABLY BUINKD .- Patrick Henry, Speech in the Virginia Convention, June 4, 1788.

The honorable gentleman who presided, told us, that to prevent abuses in our government we will ; you cauld defend yourseless are gone; and you have ) no longer an aristocratical, no longer a democratical epirit. Did you ever read of any revolution in any nation brought about by the punishment of those ; in power, indicted by those who had no power at all? You read of a riot act in a country which is ) called one of the freest in the world, where a few ; neighbors cannot assemble without the risk of being shot by a bired soldiery, the engines of despotism. We may see such an act in America. A standing army we shall have also, to execute the execute) commands of tyranny, and how are you to punish them? Will you order them to be punished?-Who shall obey those orders? Will your macebearer be a match for a disciplined regiment? what situation are we to be?-Patrick Henry, Speech in Virginia Convention, June 4th, 1788.

Where are your checks in this government?-Your strongholds will be in the hands of your enemies. It is on the supposition that your American Governors shall be honest that all its good qualities are founded, but its defective and impersect construction puts it in their power to perpetrate t worst of mischiefe should they be bad men. And, the Western bemisphere, blame our distracted folly but will, undauntedly, press forward, until tyranny in resting our rights upon the contingency of our is trothen under foot.-Joseph Warren, Boston, rulers being good or bad? Show me that age and March 6th, 1775. The state of the subject of long moment to accomplish his design. And, sir, will the American spirit solely relievely now when this the American spirit solely relievely now when this the American spirit solely relievely now when this the state of the s happens? I would rather, infinitely, and I am sure | may turn them against us, as he did Boston against | fended countrymen."

ment so replete with such insupportable evils.

What will then become of you and your rights? - jection to the former, Chief Justice Drayton, Charge | that a few words, and those few were ingeniously stroyed his command, and took many prisoners and WILL NOT ABSOLUTE DESPOTISH ENSUR!-Patrick Hen- to the Grand Jury, Charleston, April 23, 1776. ry, in the Virginia Convention, June, 1788.

"would be at gross and notorious an'act of des- left without hope but in a miracle, said desponding pining of sorrow; deprived of wholesome food; com- retiring from the Club Room at an early hour. "potism as must at once convey the alarm of patriots, 'I confess,' said Samuel Adams, 'we have, | aned to their houses after ten o'clock in the even-"tyranny throughout the whole kingdom, but as Wolfe expressed it, a choice of difficulties. Too ing; liable to be robbed without redress; ever ex-"confinement of the person by secretly hurrying many flatter themselves that their pusillanimity posed to the malice of the soldiers, and children for "confinement of the person my secretly analysing is true prudence; but in persons like these, I tears as proofs of disloyalty.—Beneroff's U. M., sengers. torgotten is a less public, a less striking and connet conceive of prudence without fortitude. He col. 8, p. 42, year 1775. Torgotten is a ices public, a ices suriame made persevered; but John Adams retired from the sertherefore a more dangerous engine of arbitrary rice of the people, and devoting himself to his pro-"government. And yet sometimes, when the State fresion, for a time ceased even to employ his pen in their new member, Jefferson: These Colonies now "is in real danger, even this may be a necessary | their defence. Otis who had returned to the Legis- feel the complicated calamities of fire, sword and "measure. But the happiness or our own Con- lature, disordered in mind, and jealous of his de- famine. We are reduced to the alternative of "STITUTION IS THAT IT IS NOT LEFT TO THE EXECU- clining influence, did but impede the public cause. choosing an unconditional submission to irritated despatch from New Orleans: "TITE POWER TO DETERMINE WERE THE DANGER OF In Hancock, also, vanity so mingled with patriot- ministers, or resistance by force. The latter is our "THE STATE IS HOUREAT AS TO RENDER THIS MEASURE ism, that the Government hoped to separate him choice. We have counted the cost of this contest "EXPEDIENT; FOR IT IS THE PARLAMENT ONLY, OR from its uncompromising opponents."-Beacroft's and find nothing so dreadful as voluntary elevery."

So our own Chief Justice Marshall, in the case my little sphere, to do all I can for the service of premary of one part of the empire over another."— The mail to Tuscan was cleaned out by the of Bollman, 4 Crench, 100, says: "If at any time my country, that neither the republic nor the Bancroft's U.S., ed. 8, pp. 25-26, Battle of Bun- Appaches, and all hands killed. or non-man, a common, and, require the suspension churches of New England may sustain any injury. ker Hill. of the power rested by this act (the power to And every where men began to enter into a solemn) "grant write of Aubeus corpus) in the Courts of agreement not to use a single article of British

So Judge Story in his Commentaries on the Com- and effectually to enforce "obedience to the laws and Resistance." statution, sec. 1336, says: "It would seem as the the authority of the supreme legislature." Ilis heart "power is granted to Congress to suspend the was hardened. Having just heard of the seisure of "power is granted to Congress to suspend the ammunition at the fort in New Hampshire, he intended that his language should "open the eyes of the cause of their country." An tended that his language should "open the eyes of the cause of their country." An tended that his language should "open the eyes of the cause of their country." An tended that his language should "open the eyes of the cause of their country." An tended that his language should "open the eyes of the cause of their country." An tended that his language should "open the eyes of the cause of their country." An tended that his language should "open the eyes of the cause of their country." An tended that his language should "open the eyes of the cause of their country." An tended that his language should "open the eyes of the cause of their country." An tended that his language should "open the eyes of the cause of their country." An the deluded Americans." "had arisen must exclusively belong to that body." to his faltering minister, "it must set every dell- ing Anecdetes of the Revolution. "A British officer So in 1807, when great alarm existed as to cate man at liberty to arow the propriety of the of rank once said to Mrs. Pinckney—'It is impossi-Burt's conspiracy, a bill was brought before the most coercive measures. "The New England good ble not to admire the intrepid firmness of the ladies senses by threatening to shout them. Burr a conspirancy, a visit of suspend the writ of senate in a state of rebellion. Blows must of your country. Had your men but half their decide whether they are to be subject to this country resolution, we might give up the content. America is the independent "—Renerall's II. R. oal. 7, m.

jected the toll on its nest reading. On that occasion Mr. Dana of Connecticut used the following sion Mr. Dana of Connecticut used the following language: "This bill authorizes the arrest of per-language in the following language: "This bill authorizes the arrest of per-language in the following language: "This bill authorizes the arrest of per-language in the following language: "This bill authorizes the arrest of per-language in the following language: "This bill authorizes the arrest of per-language in the former one: they had no step towards inspiring terror was, to declare Mastanguage: "Into the authorized the arrest of jets step towards inspiring terror was, to declare Mas"sons not merely by the President or other high sachusetts in a state of resident and to pledge the parliament and the whole force of Great Britain to "ries prompted no demand for political changes; its reduction; the next, by prohibiting the Ameri- " no struggling aspirations of their own had invited can fisheries, to sterve New England; the next, to [41] unmore's interposition; no memorial of their "would not agree thus to destroy the fundamental call out the savages on the rear of the Colonies; "grievances had preceded his offices."-Bancroft's "principles of the Constitution, or commit such an the next, to excite a servile insurrection.—Bancroft's 11. S., vol. 8, p. 225—year 1775.

U. S., col. 7, p. 322. In the Congress of 1774, there was not one member, except Patrick Henry, who appeared to me "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all sensible of the precipice, or rather the pinnacle on men are created equal; that they are endowed by which we stund, and had candor and courage their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that enough to acknowledge it. America is in total ignorance, or under infinite deception concerning that among these, are life, liberty, and the pursuit of norance, or under infinite deception concerning that happiness. That, to secure these rights, govern- assembly. To draw the characters of them all ments are instituted among men, deriving their just would require a volume, and would now be conpowers from the consent of the governed; that, sidered as a caricatured print. One third Torice, tive of these ends, it is the right of the people to There was a little aristocracy among us of talents alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new govern- and letters. Mr. Dickinson was primus infer pures

As to the history of the Revolution, my ideas may light and transient causes; and, accordingly, all be peculiar, perhaps singular. What do we mean experience bath shown, that mankind are more dis by the Revolution? The war? That was no part of the Revolution. It was only an effect and consequence of it. The Revolution was in the minds I of the people, and this was effected from 1760 to 1775, in the course of Afleen years, before a drop of blook abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the was drawn at Lexington. The records of thirteen absolute despotism, it is their duty, to throw off Legislatures, the pamphlets, newspapers, in all the colunies, should be consulted during that period, to accertain the steps by which the public opinion was enlightened and informed concerning the authority of Parliament over the colonies. The Con-Lope not in many, the Council of Nice in Ecclesiascompared notes, engaged in discussions and debater, and formed results by one vote and by two roles which went out to the world as unanimous.-

I John Adams, Letter to Jefferson, August 14, 1815. Truth, being known, will prevail over artifice | and misrepresentation. In such case no man, who is worthy of life, liberty or property, will or can reple of honor, that peace can be preserved.—Gourmean, paltry considerations of private interest and otism was confirmed by the austerity of religious soon as General Lyon came within sight of the present emolument, when placed in competion with sold.

At an adjourned session in Bacamban the "A town meeting of Boston had been called at the alternative but absolute, unconditional submission, and the most abject slavery, or a defence becoming men born to freedom, he will not heritate about the stretched out for our defence, will deliver them in a rightenus cause .- John Rutledge, in the South (Carolina Assembly, April 11th, 1776.

It was a maxim of the Roman people, which emi- respondence. to despair of the commonwealth. The MAXIE MAY gret that the zeal of Dulany had grown cool. As through the ranks and depicted itself in every Short-sighted mortals see not the numerous links of Samuel Chase, like Dulany a lawyer; less circum— the command, and from that time forward until email and great events which form the chain on spect and less careful of appearances; but strong, four o'clock in the afternoon the combat lasted small and great events which form the chain on downright, brave and persevering; capable of error almost unintermittently, and was conducted with which the fate of kings and nations is suspended.— downright, brave and persevering; capable of falter. almost unintermittently, and was conducted with Ease and prosperity, though pleasing for a day, from rashness or self-will, but not capable of falterhave often sunk a people into eleminacy and sloth. ing in the cause which he approved. Vehement a fierceness on both sides rarely equalled in the Hardships and dangers, though we for ever strive even to a fault, he did not always speak softly or annals of war. to shun them, have frequently called forth such shun coarse invective; but his undaunted spirit, his virtues as have commanded the applause and rever- flerce independence of mind, his unbending energy, that during the greater part of the battle they calls you to be circumspect, vigilant, active and ty, of plausible hypocrisy that glossed servility guns and other indifferent weapons of the latter calls you to be circumspect, vigitant, active and over, his eloquence, which sprung from his heart could be used with the same deadly effect as the importers, all are new and desirable styles, and will be brave. Perhaps, (all gracious heaven avert it,) perhaps the power of Britain, a nation great in and expressed the vigor of his nature, his uncomwar, by some malignant influence, may be em- promising energy, justly won for him the confiployed to enslave you; but let not even this dis- dence of Maryland."-Bancroft's U. S., ed. 8, courage you. Her arms, 'tis true, have filled the P. 75-7. world with terror; ber troops have reaped the ers, and punish the servants for abusing the trust | laurels of the field; her fleets have rode triumphant | reposed in them. Un, sir, we should have the only sufficient indeed, if to punish tyrants it were only sufficient to be sufficient for the field of fight? General, Washington wrote a letter, from which having either heard the cannonading or received a trymen, depart inglorious from the field of fight? cient to assemble the people. Your arms wherewith You, too, can show the trophies of your forefathers' victories and your own; can name the tortresses Augustine Washington. The letter is dated tacked the enemy on the right flank, and did terthe honorable sears of wounds received, whilst

> Warren, Boston, March 6th, 1775. not real or fortitude. You will maintain your rights, Boston and on Bunker's Hill; and formidable the overwhelming odds against which they had or perish in the generous struggle. However difficult they are. The town has shared a much better fate to fight, that the encounter amounted to nothing the combat, you never will decline it when freedom is than was expected, the damage done to the houses more than a mutual cutting up, and by 4 o'clock the prize. An independence of Great Britain is not being nothing equal to report. But the inhabi- all parties seemed to be anxious to withdraw from our aim. No, our wish is, that Britain and the col- tants have suffered a good deal in being plundered | the field in strength together. But whilst the infatuated plan took upon themselves the style and title of goving one part of the empire slaves to the other of making one part of the empire slaves to the other of making one part of the empire slaves to the other of making one part of the empire slaves to the other of making one part of the empire slaves to the other of making one part of the empire slaves to the other of making one part of the empire slaves to the other of making one part of the empire slaves to the other of the empire slaves to the empire slaves t onies may, like the oak and ivy, grow and increase by the soldiery at their departure. All those who The U.S. troops retired to Springfield. Our recommended by the honorable the Continental test, have shipped themselves off in the same of killed nor the number of killed and wounded) Congress be steadfastly pursued; whereby the un- hurry, but under still greater disadvantages than in other regiments, but their number may be pretnatural contest between a parent honored and a the King's troops, being obliged to man their own | ty accurately inferred when it is taken into conchild beloved, may probably be brought to such an vessels, as seamen enough could not be had for sideration that the 1st Kansas Regiment was in issue, as that the peace and happiness of both may the King's transports, and submit to every hard- the thickest of the fight. At 4 o'clock on Sunday be established upon a lasting basis. But if these ship that can be conceived. One or two have morning, Gen. Siegel having concluded that it con- pacific measures are ineffectual, and it appears that done, what a great number ought to have done would not be prudent to resume the battle, the whole the only way to eafety is through fields of blood, I long ago, committed suicide. By all accounts, column of troops, followed by large numbers of

be will come at the beed of his army to carry has been famous during the present reign, per the throne? Will not the immense difference between | no miety but by the Divine favor, their own virtue, | keeping a powerful naval police in those waters.

"The glorious spirit of liberty is vanquished and hundred and fifty-three still remained in the town, were too late to see him, his imperial llighness

"They closed their statement in the words of \

THE HABEAS CORPUS ACT FOR A SHORT AND LIMIT hesion of the timid good, and for himself, trud the portionably great; and the gloom in the quarters believed and wounded. Two Lieutenants were "TED TIME, TO IMPRISON SUSPECTED PERSONS WITH- thorny path of resistance to the grandeurs of the of the British was deepened by the reflection that "OUT GIVING ANY REARON FOR 80 DOING." - Com- world-here, there are many who see the right, they had fought not against an enemy, but against Federals are represented to have fied, and were mentaries on the Laws of England, Vol. 1. pp. 135 and yet the wrong pursue. But it is my fixed reso their fellow-subjects and kindred; not for the prelution, notwithstanding many discouragements, in motion of civil or religious freedom, but for the ser -500 in number.

"Here too, as every where class, preparations for manufacture; not even to wear black clothes for resistance had been deferred; no more than four "the United States, it is for the Legislature to say mourning. To encourage the growth and manufacture barrels of powder could be found in the city. While "so. That question depends on political conside ture of wool, nearly all Boston signed a covenant Washington was borne toward Cambridge on the "erations on which the Legislature is to decide. to eat no lamb."-Baneroft's U. S., vol. 5, p. 206, affectionate confidence of the people, Congress which had as yet supported its commander-in-chief with nothing beyond a commission," &c., &c.-The King, in his reply, pledged himself speedily Bancroft U.S., vol. 8, p. 24, "Not Prepared for correspondent of the New York Tribune states the

The wife of Colonel Pinckney is distinguished as one of those berole and self-sacrificing women of the

"and grief; 'I hope, said be, 'this and the threat- future conduct, show themselves worthy to bear "ened devastation of other places will unite the arms. They will be sent to the Navy Yard to "whole country in one indissoluble bond against a night. Brigadier General Sherman will see to mation which seems lost to every sense of virtue the evention of this neder. By neder of " and those feelings which distinguish a civilized " people from the most barbarous savages." --Bancroft U. S., 8 vol., 232-Burning of Norfolk.

"Yet the majority of Congress, scrupulous not to outrum the convictions and sympathics of their ing in the speedy restoration of peace, not only | Governor's Island. · made no adequate preparations for resistance, but " would not even consent to relieve the states from "ments in the several colonies. The hesitancy of "so many members, especially of lickinson, in-'censed John Adams, who maintained that the "hity or sixty men composing Congress should at, "once form a constitution for a great empire, pro-"vide for its defence, and, in that safe attitude, await the decision of the King. His letters to "New England, arowing these opinions, were inbis inflaence, and beaping obloquy on his name. | Bancroft U. S., 8 vol., 55-year 1775.

Pennsylvania, escaped intestine dissensions and in Regiment. After speaking of their first advance owner of the turpentine will clear $17,000 profit. sured ananimity, by passing over the proprietary government, and intrusting the conduct of resistance to a series of conventions. The predent; the slow, the hesitating were allowed an influence; but resumed our march, and after having proceeded from the first, all parties acquiesced in the principle | three miles further, came upon the enemy. They of deriving all power from the people; and the pro-vince, however its movement was sometimes retarded, proceeded courageously in an unbroken adapted for their species of warfare, covered at in- 5.000 LOTS line. In November, 1774, it adhered to the associa- tervals with brushwood and cornfields and consent from sixteen counties, resolved unanimously to now fairly commenced, and, in a short time, b liament, or the enforcement of the penal acts against fore eight o'clock, General Lyon was wounded by unanimity a well regulated militia, to be composed a shot in the foot and his borse killed, and he reof all the freemen of the colony, between fifteen and | tired to the rear for surgical treatment. A sixty. They resolved also, that all former difficult | Asppened that our troops were hard pressed by the One Thousand Pieces Dress Goods ties about religion or politics from henceforth Consederates just at that time. Things began to should cease, and he forever buried in obliviou; and assume a threatening aspect. Lyou, seeing the the benign aurora of the coming republic lighted danger at once dismissed all thoughts of his the Catholic to the recovery of his rightful political wound, mounted his horse, rode in front of his equality in the land which a Catholic proprietary men, and waving his hat and handkerchief, called bad set apart for religious freedom. Charles Carment, had not had so much as a vote at the polls, he was still surveying them, a ball struck him in $4 BLACE BARROKS, was placed unanimously on the committee of cor- the back and killed him instantly.

den. Washington's Advice. Upon the exacuation of Boston by the British, \

lington, p. 339 :

From New York. The New York correspondent of the Philadel-

The news that the notorious privateer Jes Devis has turned up at Porto Rico, in company other marauders of the same character, occations great uncasiness among the merchants in | desperate encounter ensued, with great loss on both him to make one bold push for the American God, that in my opinion the Americans can have for fault anding with the Government, for not "make answer according to law. By 16 Car. 1st, being master of every thing, and being ignomini- and their being so prudent as not to take it an A great deal of non-termical goods is afford tou-"ch. 10, if any person be restrained of his liberty only tried and punished, powerfully excite him to tax rower or tax Burnes, actuals cerning the entertainment given to Prince Napo-"ch. 10, if any person be restrained of his merry onely tried and punished, powerfully excise him to the command of the King's Mainstr in person, of his army, beat down every opposition?"

"ch. 10, if any person be restrained of his merry on the command of the King's Mainstr in person, of his army, beat down every opposition?"

"ch. 10, if any person be restrained of his merry person be restrained of his merry on the Union Club last evening, some people leon by the Union Club last evening some people leon by the Union Club last evening some people leon by the Union Club last evening some people leon by the Union Club last evening some people leon by the Union Club last evening some people leon by the Union Club last evening some people leon by the Union Club last evening some people leon by the Union Club last evening some people leon by the Union Club last evening some people leon by the Union Club last evening some people leon by the Union Club last ev or by warrant of the privy council, he shall upon demand of the army will salute him monarch; your militia description of the privy council, have a writ of habes corpus to himself with great freedoom on the war, and made the army will salute him monarch; your militia fond given to reflection apen the rice and full of the privy council, have a writ of habes corpus to will salute him monarch; your militia fond given to reflection apen the rice and full of the privy council, have a writ of habes corpus to will salute him monarch; your militia fond given to reflection apen the rice and full of the privy council, have a writ of habes corpus to a complimentary toast, expressed in response to a compl nis commen, nave mounts of the long is great. General Lyon is among the dead. |

bring his body before the Court of King's Bench | will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will assist in making him king, and light against |

will as

General Wool and staff came up to the Club "Of the inhabitants of Buston, six thousand seven | House to pay their respects to the Prince, but Some anxiety is felt for the milety of the Cunard steamer Elne, which sailed from Liverpool two days before the Persis. She has about 100 pas-

Another Federal Defeat.

The Yankees seem to meet with nothing but dienster everywhere. We have the following miles from Bpringfield.

NEW URLEARS, August 16.—The extra Houston ) (Texas) Telegraph, of the 10th, reports that a fight took place on the 25th of July, between Col. | "Ilere, said Maybew, as be lamented the cold ad-

The Latest News. Continued Disaffection in the Grand

Army. We learn that the disaffection in the army before Washington continues to increase. The statements we have beard:

140 members of the 79th, whose absence was i unaccounted for, did not answer to their names New York 16th refused to do duty yesterday, but Davies promptly brought them to their ation to the mutineers of the 2d Maine regiment HEADQUARTERS NORTHEASTERN DEPARTMENT, \ ARLINGTON, August 15, 1861.

worthy to serve with it, and will be sent to the "When Washington learned the fate of the rich | Dry Tortugas in the Gulf of Mexico, there to per-'emporium of his own 'country,' for so he called | form such fatigue service as the officers commandthe execution of this order. By order of

Brigadier General Mullowett. JAMES B. FRY, Assistant Adjutant General. The Hereld says that secondionists abound in ville Journal says: New York, and that an attempt has been made constituents, and pleasing themselves by confiding | to blow up the main magazine at Fort Columbus, |

The apprehensions of an attack by the Confed- crossing there. "anarchy by sanctioning the institution of Govern- erates upon Washington increase, and gave rise to a protracted cabinet council yesterday.

The Battle Before Springfield. the St. Louis Republican Extra of last Wednesday. | Roque, by a full rigged brig, but escaped by out-From it we learn that in the retreat General "tercepted; and so little were the central colonies | Siegel emptied his wagons of provisions, &c., in "prepared for the bold advice, they were published order to carry off the wounded. It seems that by the royalists as the surest way of destroying Siegel commanded the rear guard. The Republi morning, brought 4 hdds, and 92 bris. of spirits can gives the following particulars of the fight ob- turpentine, and 31 bales of North Carolina cotton, Lained from Captain Fairchild of the First Kansas on Friday afternoon, he says: At about six o'clock on Saturday morning, we out to the boys to rally and follow him. While

The effect of Lyon's death upon our troops was "It was throughout the continent a subject of re- terrible. A feeling of consternation spread 34 BLACK BARBURS, he kept silent, the foremost man in Maryland was countenance. Major Sturgis promptly assumed 34 BLACE CERPE MARKIT.

An unfortunate circumstance for our troops was ) enemy's own choosing, and it is stated as a fact opened on our retail floors MONDAY MORNING. that our troops went into battle not knowing how far the line of the enemy extended, or where his forces were located. At about two o'clock, P. M., General Siegel, "Cambridge, 31 March, 1776," and is contained rible execution among them. The rest of our fighting for your king and country .- Joseph in the third volume of Spark's Writings of Wash- troops, seeing that Siegel brought them succor, | rallied with renewed vigor, and made one more ington, p. 339:

"The enemy left all their works standing in determined onset on the enemy. But such were HENRY know you will not turn your faces from your foce, there never existed a more miserable set of beings, citizens with all that they could gather up in the than these wretched creatures now are. Taught shape of morable goods commenced a retreat from to believe, that the power of Great Britain was Springfield in the direction of Rolla. They Upon the whole it has been the policy of the superior to all opposition, and, if not, that for- brought all their baggage and commissary ple were placed on the sole chance of their rulers British authority to oblige us to supply our wants eigh aid was at hand, they were even higher and stores with them, and also all but three being good men without a consequent loss of lib. at their market, which is the dearest in the known more insulting in their opposition than the regue or four cannon which they were obliged, erty. I say that the loss of that dearest privilege world, and to cromp and confine our trade so as to lars. When the order issued, therefore, for em- for some reason, to leave on the ground. Our has ever followed, with absolute certainty, any be subservient to their commerce, our real interest barking the troops in Boston, no electric abook, informant came out with them until within ten or nas ever tottowed, with absolute certainty, any of supervisor to the question.—Chief Justice Drayno sudden explosion of thunder, in a word, not in the stage. He left them about noon on Sunday. It your American chief be a being ever out of the question.—Chief Justice Drayman of ambition and abilities, how easy will it be ton, Charge to the Grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, the last trump could have struck them with greatthe stage. He left them about noon on Sunday. It is a supervisor to the first trump could have struck them with greatthe stage. er consternation. They were at their wits end, He says the news of the exacuation of Springfield at 16 11

Southern Account of the Battle of Springfield Manrais, Taux., August 16.—Despatches from Little Rock, Arkanssa, dated to-day, contain the following intelligence:
Advices from Fort Smith to the 14th fully confirm the victory of McCullough.

The fignt occurred on Saturday, eight miles south The enemy took the Confederate pickets prisoners and surprised the main body. A bloody and Five regiments of the Missourians (Confederates) were panie stricken, thrown into disorder, and fled. Gen Price made two ineffectual attempts to rally them. The Louisiana regiment gallantly stood and General Price led the 3d and 5th Arkaness with

The Confederate loss is from 200 to 300 killed, and | MANUFACTURED AND LEAF Biegel's forces were pursued to Springfield. It was thought that McCullough would then attack

A Captain caught General Siegel, but he was rescued. He shot at, and, it is believed, wounded Col. Sweeny, of the Federal Army, was among

The Federal loss is from 2,300 to 3,000. FATETTEVILLE, Ark., August 13 .- McCullough sent his forces after Biegel's command, about 20 Gen. Hardee met and captured the whole Federal forces, and is now bringing them back.

The Latest from Missouri. . Rolls, August 15 .- Mr. Graham, a Union clerk, Baylor's command and the Federal troops at Fort employed in a seccesion store at Springfield, reached here this morning. He reports that four regiments of Confederate cavalry, under General Raines, entered Springfield on Monday at noon, and hoisted a secretion flag over the court-house, amidst the noisy demonstrations of the troops and resident sympathizers.

Our wounded soldiers in the hospital had not been molested, and it was announced that only the Home Guards would be the subject of resentment. The Confederates purchased everything in the stores, paying any price demanded in Confederate Wagons containing the families of Union men continue to arrive here. More than one half of the population of Springfield have left, and the farmers a along the route to this place are leaving for their Design to Run the Blockade at Charleston. Boston, August 17 .- The ship Alliance, formerly of Charleston, under the British flag, sailed from St. John, N. B., on Monday for Havans, but her real destination is known to be Charleston. The at roll-call this morning. Some members of the Captain boasted that he would run the blockade

His cargo consisted of pig iron, pig lead, quick silver, rifles, spool-cotton, pins, needles, thread, percussion caps, mackerel, etc., etc. The owner of The following is Gen. McDowell's order in re- | the ship and eargo, Mr. Lafitte, of Charleston, came from St. John to Portland on the steamer Eastern Queen yesterday.

New Orleans Markets. regiment, refused to do any further duty what- reints at this port in comparison with last year, ever, falsely alleging that they were not legally | 364,000 bales; decrease at all Southern ports, 925, in the service of the United States, they are, with 1000 bales; stock in port, 9,900 bales; stock in port the approval of the General-in-Chief, hereby trans- last year, 41,000 bales. Flour sells at $8.50. Lard The Pennsylvania Army Frauds.

Harrisones, August 16 .- The testimony and re-"Virginia, his breast heaved with waves of anger | ing may assign them, until they shall, by their | port of the Commissioners appointed by Governor | the hands of the State printer and will soon be From Louisville.

LOCISVILLE, Aug. 16-1'amengers from Tennessee report that Representative Nelson has been released, and that Brownlow is still unmolested. The Louis-Men professing to be Unionists, ship goods marked for Union men now at Cairo and other places, which are put off at Smithfield and Paducah, and then shipped up the Tennessee river for the railroad The Richmond Enquirer says the pledges of rice, cotton, money, grain, etc., cannot fall short of from twenty to thirty millions dollars. Chased by a Privateer.

NEW YORK, August 16 .- The bark St. James, ar-We are indebted to the kindness of a friend for rived from Rio, was chased July 12th, off Cape St. sailing her. She was supposed to be a privateer.

Run the Blockade. Boston, Aug. 16 .- The British steamer Eastern State from Yarmouth, N. S., which arrived this which is presumed to have escaped the blockade, and was taken to Yarmouth, N. S. It is said the printed (entirely new) in immutiful styles.

DRY GOODS

GOODS RVER OPENED IN BALTIMORE.

LESS THAN HALF PRICE

At much less than usual priors.

Manyat half ovet of importation. DRESS SILKS, All boiled BLACK SILKS, LAWNS and ORGANDIES, SHAWLS, Hemstitched and Embroidered Laws HANDERCHIEFS, French CHINTZES. All these lots were virtues as have commanded the applicate and revers his scorn of semblance without substance, of servili- came so near the Confederates that the old shot bought last week at accion in New York at large meritees to pence of an admiring world. Our country loudly his scorn of semblance without substance, of servili- came so near the Confederates that the old shot bought last week at accion in New York at large meritees to pence of an admiring world. Our country loudly his scorn of semblance without substance, of servili-

HAMILTON EASTER & CO.

199, 201 and 203 Baltimore street.

FOR SALE BY

SUN IRON BUILDING. COLDIER'S GUIDE TO HEALTH ...... 3.75

HARDEE'N RIVLE AND LIGHT INVANTET TACTICE, 2 vols., illustrated.......... MILITARY TEXT BOOK, by L. D. Williams, illustrated. 75 RIFLE AND LIGHT INFANTRY TACTICS, including the Articles of War and Dictionary of Military Terms 1.25 HANDY BOOK FOR THE UNITED STATES SOLDIER coming into service, illustrated... RIPLE AND LIGHT INFANTRY TACTICS, Illestrated by Cal. Harder, an abstract for the Recruit...... THE MOLDIER'S GUIDE, a Manual and Drill for the RULEWORTH & ZOUALE DRILL........ VOLUNTEER'S MANUAL, by 15d Better, illustrated containing instructions for the Recession ...... GROSS MILITARY SURGERT

APPLETON'S MAP OF THE SEAT OF WAR....... HENRY TAYLOR, Nun from Building.

I subscriber on the evening of August IX a small ITALIAN URRYHOUND, purely white except a round spot of dark tan, the size of a dollar, on the rump, and the head and earn hand momely marked with light tan. The Ing. is valuable only as pet, and the above reward will be suit for his delivery at my residence, No. 79 North Charles street

MANUFACTURED

SEGARS,

No. 70 EXCHANGE PLACE. BALTIMORE.

WARWICK, FRICK & BALL, AGENTS FOR THE SALE OF

TOBACCO,

No. 60 SOUTH STREET, BALTINORE.

DAPL J. WARVEL PRASE PRICE.

CLAIBORNE & FERGUSON.

AGENTS FOR THE SALE OF

VIRGINIA MANUFACTURED

TOBACCO, No. WRUUTH CALVERT STREET

AATTEGE S. SA.

CORTLAN & Co.

BRONZES, ALBATA WARES.

IMPORTERS OF

DINNER, TEA AND DESSERT SERVICES. Family and Fancy Hardware,

HOUSE FURNISHING ARTICLES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

216 & 218 BALTIMORE STREET, MARBLE BUILDING.

> UMBAUGH'S EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN

GENERAL NEWS AUCHO. 4 AND S JARVIN BUILDINGS.

CORPER PORTE APP GALTITORS TTS., Balumore, Maryland. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL AGENT

FOR ALL THE LEADING DAILT AND WERELT PAPERS AND MAGAZINES. 87-Kuhacriptions and orders received for one or one thousand opples of "THE MOUTH," and sent to any part of the city and ( amonthly by reliable on triese and a senie.

T. W. BODEWALD. DODEWALD & SINDALL, COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

IMPORTERS AND DOLLERS IN Exdigo, Roda arii, Cauntic Moda, Rpicks, Soapj STARCH, RAL SODA, BI CARR. SODA,

APP GROCERS' DRTGS GENERALLY, 4.023-3m OF RECHANGE PLACE, PARTICOLS. 做在罗点下 40. 82(岁五

F. ALBERTI & CO., IMPORTERS OF GERMAN, PRENCH & ENGLISH PARCY GOODS.

Nec Sand # SOUTH LIBERTY ST., near BALTIMORE ST CARD. A.C. MATTHEWS.

GENERAL AUCTION COMMISSION MERCHANT. No. 30 SOUTH CHARLES BY., Will give his PERSONAL attention as AUCTIONEER, to sales o every description, and respectfully solicits from his friends and the public generally, a share of their patronage W. BENNETT & CO.. AUCTIONERES & COMMISSION MERCHANTS

28 AND 30 SOUTH CHARLES STREET MALCOM & CO., QUALF, PLOUR AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS, IMPORTERS OF AND DEALERS IN GUANO.

WARKHOUSES, WOOD STREET, BOWLY'S WHARF, OPPOSITE CORE KECHAPGE, BALTIMORE. NIEW BOOKS-NEW BOOKS-NEW BOOKS. Now ready and for sale by HENRY TAYLOR.

Son from Building. SILAS WARNER, OF THE WEAVER OF EAVELOR. AFTER ICEBERGS, WITH A PAINTER. A summer voyage to Labrador. By L. L. Noble ... .. $1.20 CURRENTS AND COUNTER CURRENTS, By Oliver Wendell Holmes LIFE AND CARRER OF MAJOR ANDRE. By Winthrop Nargeant...... 1 50 MACAULAY'S HISTORY OF ENGLAND.

BETERAL EDITIONS, Cheap edition-5 role, complete in one. do. do S vote , 12mo . . factge edition, fine paper and large 131e, 5 role. . . . . 5 (U HOPEN AND FEARS. By Mrs Toung .. THE ALCHETMIST. By Balzac, author of Petty Annoyances. By Curtis, author of Potaphar Papers.

HENRY TATION. Run Iron Building, Baltimore. THE BOOK FOR THE TIMES-BLACK DIAMONDS RECOND EDITION, BY R. A. POLLARD, of VA. Crickward by conservative present, North and South, as "the best book" ever published on the Horiety of the Houth

STALL THE POPULAR MAGAZINES AND NEWSPA

PERS ON HAND

Four Handred Copies subscribed for by Southern Memberso TREAD THE OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. Remarkably free from sectional prejudice and scerbity, and, to truth, contains aketches that are amounted the most catholic, and tolerant, and genial we ever had occasion to person. How appreciative, how loving, how tender and sympathetic the author to in delineatums we will let a few extrusts show .- New the many jewels in their way ... black by the autgeot, but brillumbly habitanesse in it. It is a figure mine full of promised due menida - New York News. Rapid about thousand and prepading detection in about derent this breck - New York Berndi

Delending "the institution" more than all argument from the samults of ignorance or prejudice .- He Bos's Kerned Mars have effected much good in free latest regions. It will te cend with interest at the North aim - Middle Righter The author is experiment philosopher, ameetimes a fact, and in every character tendable. - New Torker. An exceedingly interesting volume, quite in a new and nhal tersed at to .- Bullianers Am. BF The remainder of the very large edition of this remarks Me but, which is surfferfully interesting as bearing directly seem present topics of exceement, will be add in Raltimore and the Houth, by direction of the author, at 34 cents a volume, (the

No. 13 hors street, Becomest

RENEY TATLOS. BILL POSTERS AND DISTRIBUTORS.

publisher's prior in New York bring 75 cents.)