City Items.

Annual Meeting of the Defenders of Bultimere .-The annual meeting of the Amociation of Defenders of Baltimore in 1814, was held last evening in the Old City Hall, Captain Andrew E. Warner, Sr., in the chair, and Colonel Nicholas Brewer. Secretary. Reports of the Treesurer and Executire Committee were submitted; and referred to the appropriate committee. On the 20th of August, 1660, the number of members attached to the Association was two hundred und forty-two. that date there have been twenty-two deaths, and the names of eight were dropped from the list under the operation of the by-laws, leaving two hundred and twelve as the present number. . Sixty-six are located out of the city—in the city, one bundred and forty-six.

The following named members have decreased during the year:-William Armor, Lambert W. Bond, Robert Conway, Dr. Alexander Clendinen, Captain George F. De la Roche, Jacob Mearise prime old. William Knorr, John J. Robinson, Charles Rust, Jacob Shaffner, George Smith, George R. Sumwalt, Edward Thompson, Hon. James Turner. Benjamin Meredith, Leelie Gallagber, John Carmi chael, John Warner, Leonard Kernan, John Knight, Samuel Stallings, and Nicholas Laboret. The President stated that, as usual, the Asenciation would have to decide whether the annual din-

per should take place and where at. Mr. James Lucas moved that the dinner should of yesterday says: take place in the city. to have anything occurring at the annual celebra- | engage in any new enterprise, or to expand operation of a jarring character. Particularly were ob- tions in any direction. petions expressed to having volunteer tousts or an | oration at the dinner, by which means it was thought that the members could pleasantly spend the day without having any of the recent quer-tions of Union or Secession to come up before them.

After some discussion it was decided to have the lien's Merchandhe regular dinner. Merers, A. F., Warner, General Miltenberger, Col. N. Brewer, Major Dryden and Samuel Childe were appointed a Committee on the Dinner. Meurs, John Ijams, James Lucas and Samuel Jennings were appointed to select a church wherein to have the annual sermon preached. The Association then adjourned to meet on the second of September. Recruiting for the Third Maryland Regiment, ---Notwithstanding the difficulties attending the frcruiting for the First Maryland Regiment-about one half of whom have since described-and the tardiness and lethargy of our young men in filling up the Second Regiment, which is still in slow process of formation—the powers that be have authorized the enrollment of a Third Regiment to be styled "Meryland," but for the purpose of expediting the business the officers are authorized, if necessary, that are companies be composed of recruits from Pennavivania and two companies from the District of Columbia, thus leaving but three companies to be componed of the loyalty and chivalry of Maryland. Truly, the shrill drum and ear-piercing fie have few charms for the "loyal" Marylanders. City Union Concention .- The City Union Convention convened last night in Temperance Temple. M. N. Falla. On call of the roll thirty-two members, representing fourteen wards, were found to be present. A resolution endorsing the nominations for Governor and Comptroller was unanimously adopted. Also a resolution appointing the 2d day of September for the election of delegates to meet in Convention on the night of the 6th of September for the purpowe of nominating candidates for the House of Delegates, and the 31st of September as the time | sarth & Son. for nominating candidates for Judge, Clerks Court, Sheriff, District Attorney, and for other offices. The Convention then adjourned. Additional Fire Alarm Box .- On Friday last, a new bux was put up at the corner of Pennsylvania arenue and Fremont street, under the supervision of Mr. John H. Witman, Superintendent of the Police and Fire Alarm Telegraph. The apparatus was ordered by Mr. Witman previous to his being deposed by Col. Kenly, late Provost Marshal Baltimore, bence his action in the premises. fore the removal of Mr. W. the entire line had been put in good condition; in fact, better than it had | seeking freight been since its operation in this city.

Heroic tender of Services to Guard the Railroad. -We learn from a reliable source, that the Union ! Home Guard of the 7th District of Baltimore county have gallantly tendered their services to Linculn's government to defend the bridges on the Northern Central Ruilroad. Mr. Henry Clay Mc-Allister, a watchman of one of the bridges, at the time they were destroyed, is Captain of this fearless band of patriotic citizens, who are ready to sacrifice their lives in desence of the Northern Central

Arrival of Parties Captured by the Jeff. Davis .-Among the passengers from Old Point this morning were Capt. Whiting and lady of the ship Alvarade, of Boston, captured on the 21st ult. by that ubiquitous privateer, Jeff. Derie. The vessel was beached near Fernandina, Fla., and subsequently burnt by the U. S. ship Vincennes. The prisoners were kindly treated by the Confederates, sent to Norfolk and afterwards to Fortress Monroe under a flag of Steamer Porchentas Purchased by Government .---This steamer, formerly on the line between this city and Richmond, it is said, has been purchased by the Federal government, for transportation purponers on the Chesapeake bay and its tributaries. It in this desirable office. is also said that negotiation is pending for the purchase of the steamer Columbia, which for many years has plied between this city and Washington. Another Federal Sourch .- On Friday last the residence of Mrs. Ann Emory, in Baltimore county, 20 miles from Baltimore, on the Little Gunpowder falls, was searched by Lieut. Col. Murry, of the Federal troops, and a squad of men detailed for the purpose, it being suspected that arms were concealed in the house. Nothing was found to excite sus-

Resumption of Travel .- B. N. Posey, Esq., general ticket agent, stationed in this city, last evening received a telegraphic despatch stating that all the bridges and culverts recently destroyed by the late freshet, along the railroads between Pittsburg and Chicago, and Crestline and Cincinnati, have been repaired, and the trains on the above roads are running as usual.

Aconult with Attempt to Kill .- Yesterday evening Wm. F. King was arrested on the charge of drawing a pistol with intent to shoot Edward Wyman. He was held for a further examination by Justice Wheat.

Charged with Rioting .- Yesterday aftermoon Deputy U. S. Marshal Williams arrested Mr. John Boeley on the charge of rioting on the 19th day of prillast. He was held for an examination before U. S. Commissioner Hanan.

LEONARD PASSANO, IMPORTER APP DEALER IF GERNAN ENGLISH AND DONESTIC FANCY GOODS

NOTIONS,

32 Centre Market Space,

Baltimork, Marteapp.

P. W. ROPETALD. DODEWALD & SINDALL. COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

IRPORTERS AND DEALERS IN

INDIGO, NODA ARH, CAUSTIC SODA, SPICES, SOAF STARCH, SAL SODA, BICARB. SODA. AND GROCKES' PRICE GREEKALLT,

De GERCHANGE PLACE, BAUTHORS. TO W. BENNETT & CO.,

AUCTIONRERS & COMMISSION MERCHANTS MAND IN MOUTH CHARLES STREET

1) MALCON & CO., GRAIN, PLOUB AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS, IMPORTERS OF AND DRALERS IN GUANO. WARRHUUSES, WOOD STREET, BOWLY'S WHARF.

OFFICERS COME MARKARON, BALTIMOGE,

COO Balt & Ohlo Rallfood boods, "22..... 82

Virginia Ca. ... Miscales N. Carelina Ca. 64 Keales do | Cleveland & Tol.-Canton Co..... 916 do Mich. South. RR. — do Erie Railroad... 2516 do Mich. So. Guar. — do N. Y. Central.. 7216 do Teancesce bonds. 4216 do de | Treasury 6 pr ct 2 ye. 97%

Market steady. BALTIMURE MARKETS. Baltimone, August 20.

Nothing doing in Flour or Coffee. GRAIN.-Wheat was again very dull to-day, but with a fair demand from the millers, and limited receipts, prices remain steady. A part of the offerings changed hands at 106@112 cts. for fair to good reds; 113@115 etc. for prime do.; 106@115 etc. for common and medium whites; 130@125 cts. for fair do.; 130@135 eta. for good do., and 137@140 tets. for prime perceis of do. Corn was exceedingly dull, but prices remain unchanged. Uats were in | active request, and prices ruled steady. The greater part of the offerings changed hands at 75@78 ets. for fair to prime new Maryland, and 31 cts. for

RICE-Has advanced % ct. W D. and closes at | SUGAR. - Refined Sugars have advanced consid WHISKEY .- The market for Whiskey is dull

MARKET .- The New York Journal of Commerce The market contrary to the general expectation. The motion led to a conversational discussion, in | continues depressed with the manifestation of a very which the members expressed a strong desire, not great disinclination on the part of business men to

CONDITION OF THE NEW YORK MONEY

FOREIGN IMPORTS AND EXPORTS AT NEW 1,042,323

190,000,003 BE, STE, NOT FEL 979, 454 Store January L. EIPORTS OF SPECIE. $ 760 3,154,300 32,611,796 The following is the weekly statement of the N.

York Banks, as compared with that of the previous $108.717.434 Dec. $1,346.808 6,541,300 Dec. 100,007 $8,046,208 Inc. PORT OF BALTIMORE, August 30, 1861.

ARRITRD TODAY. Stanmer Elizabeth, Colmany, from New York-mides, to J. Recumer Richard Williag, Claypair, from Philadelphin -- miles CLEARED TODAY. Steamer Louisians, Cannon, Old Point, M. N. Falls.

Bleamer Elizabeth, Colmery, New York, J. A. Shriver. Steamer Richard Willing, Claypole, Philadelphia, J. A Shriver, Steamehip H. R. Speciding, Hower, Besten, A. L. Haggins, CLEARED YESTERDAY. Bark Young Greek, Taylor, Bordenes, Fourd & Engura. Schr. Federal Hill, Joyce, Washington, D. C., Wm. Apple Schr. Mary Adeline, Geoghegan, Washington, D. C., master Hebr. Robert James, Cantwell, do. Rebr. Tennessen, Harrington, Church Creek. Schr. Ortus, Tall, Calvert Co. Achr. Jestima, Seward, Uzford. Schr. Hawatha, Dowell, Patuzent River.

Schr. Wm. Gracos, Colbert, Wye River, Schr. S. & R. Harrington, Sanders, Tobacco Stick, MEMORANDA. Ship Jan Cheston, Bryon, from Liverpool, was at Calcutta les. 25 M., probably bark Adelaide, Excherger, hence for Brie A B. Pasterwin, Knight, was at St. Thomas 15th Inches Brig A. J. W. Applegarth, Groves, Im Philadelphia, arrived Schr. Aller Mane, Gundwin, for Baltimore in 6 days, was Nehr. M. R. Chribbe, Rider, Im Alexandria for Boston, salled

INSURANCE AGENCIES.

Schr. John Butler, (Mr.) Hall, Buston, 17th Inct.

CLEARIT FOR BALTIMORE.

from Newport 18th inst.

INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

..... $1,364,643.46 ASSETS NOTEMBER 30th, 1989. B. C. MORRIS, President. THOS. LORD, View President. RANUEL IL MOURE, Sourchaff. The andersigned respectfully solicits application for incurrance

HEXRY M. WARFIELD, Agent H. M. WARFIELD & CU., 16 Spear's wharf. GILMOR MEREDITH,

FIRE AND MARINE

No. 49 Exchange Place,

BALTIMORK.

MARINE-

The Neptune Insurance Company,

FIRE-

The Gebhard Fire Insurance Company, New York. The Enterprise Insurance Company, Philadelphia.

LICENSED AGENCY.

BOLE AGENT OF THE INSURANCE COMPANY OF THE VALLEY OF VIRGINIA.

CAPITAL SURPLUS......$335,000. VIRGINIA LIEE INSURANCE COMPANY,

RICHMOND, VA.

INSURES CHEAPEST and pays the promptest I of any sale Company in the country. Takes Risks upon a man's Life for the brackt of his wife and children, exempt from the cinima of his creditors. Also grante Risks upon lives of SLAYES. HAMURL J. HARRISON, President. WE MENRY HAXALL, The Proof. Medical Resentace, Dr. Juo. C. MACKEMBIR. J. LYLE CLARER, Agoot, 20 Second street, Baltimore. Refer to J. Hanson Thomas, John S. Ottings, Samuel & Wyman, John P. Pleasante & Ross, Mopkins, Hall & Atkinson, and Ward Brothers.

TIEN DULLARS REWARD .- Strayed from the subscriber on the evening of August 13, a small ITALIAN CHRYHOUND, purely white except a round at ot of dark tan, the size of a dollar, on the rump, and the head and care hand the size of a dollar, on the rump, and the head and care hand the size of a dollar, on the rump, and the head and care hand the size with light tan. The Dog to valuable only as a semely marked with light tan. The Dog to valuable only as a semely marked with the paid for his delivery at my pet, and the above reward will be paid for his delivery at my pet, and the above reward will be paid for his delivery at my pet, and the above reward will be paid for his delivery at my pet, and the above reward will be paid for his delivery at my pet, and the above reward will be paid for his delivery at my R. P. COT.

JOHN S. WILLIAMS & BRO., .. COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

SI COMMERCE ST., BALTIMORE.

WILLIAM: HARRIS! IT

MANUFACTURER, No. 116 Pratt Street.

Ballimore Street.

BALTIMORE.

WINES, LIQUORS, &c.

MARTIN. BELT & CO.

WHISKIES,

108 North Howard Street. BALTIMORE.

Bifor to Johannia Modbers & 17.

JAMES INPORTERS OF

WHISKIES, &c.

Nos. 39 and 41 S. Gay Street,

INFORTERS OF Brandies, Rum, Gin;

Port, Madeira, Sherry, Lisbon Clarct and White Wines, Cordials, &c.

ALLE SAEEL DESCRIPTION OF Committe and a contract of the contract of the FOREIGN LIQUORS, SALAD OILS Scotch Ale, London Stout, Cigara, Corner South and Exchange Place, BALTINURE.

FURNITURE, &c.

JOHN T. WATKINS, MANUFACTURER AND DEADER IN

No. 47 SOUTH STREET.

BALTINORE,

every article relating to house keeping, for sale lew for cash.

MARBLE WORKS. SISSON, HUGH

Cor. North and Monument Sts.,

BALTIMORK, Monuments, Grave Stones, Mantles, Table Tops, Tiles for Floors,

Garden Statuary, &c.

CORTLAN & Co.

IMPORTERS OF

BRONZES, ALBATA WARES,

DINNER, TEA AND DESERT SERVICES. Family and Fancy Hardware,

HOUSE FURNISHING ARTICLES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. BALTIMORE STREET.

> MARBLE BUILDING. FLAGS.

SISCO BROTHERS, 95 BALTIMORE STREET, OPPOSITE HOLLIDAY STREET.

ACTUTE FOR THE SALE OF

SALE BY

MANUFACTURED

SEGARS,

No. 70 EXCILANGE PLACE, BALTIMORE.

BY THE PEILADELPHIA TRAIN.

' New' York, August 19 .- The steamer Bremen, arrived here, she brings the London Times, conat Bull Run."He mys:

youd the mere fallure, which politically. greater consequence than it was in a military sense, but for the diagraceful conduct of the troops. The retrest on their lines at Centreville seems to have ended in a cowardly rout, a miserable, causeless. panic. Such scandalous behavior on the part of Rage. voidlers I should have considered impossible, as with some experience of camps and armies, I have Dever, even among camp followers, seen the like of

If, in the present state of the troops, the Confederates were to make a march on the Potomec, (above Washington, the Capital might fall into their bands. Delay may place that event out of sonal hatred, and the superior fighting powers of ber antagonists. After a preliminary description and meagre account of the battle, Mr. Russell says that suddenly there arose a tumult in front of me at a small bridge across the road, and then I perceived the from Centreville for miles presented such a sight drivers of a set of wagons with the bornes turned as can only be witnessed in the track of the run- dier-General on Saturday, and assumed command toward me, who were endeavoring to force their | aways of an utterly demoralized army. way against the stream of vehicles setting in the Hogged, lashed, spurred and beat their bornes, or t other direction. By the side of the new set of | leaped down and abandoned their teams and ran wagons there were a number of commissariat men by the side of the road. Mounted men, servants and soldiers, whom, at first sight, I took to be the and men in uniform, vehicles of all sorts and com- strength and position of our forces, &c., as it is said baggage guard. They looked excited and alarm- missariat wagons thronged the narrow ways. ed, and were running by the side of their horses. In front the dust quite obscured the view. At the own way-I have told mine as I know it. bridge the currents met in wild disorder. "Turn back, "retreat," shouted the men from the front this morning, and the country must be unfit for with a large number of wounded of the different -"we're whipped," "we're whipped." curred and tugged at the horses' beads, and struggled with frensy to get past. Running me on foot was a man with the shoulder strate

"Pray, what is the matter, sir?" that's a fact," be blustered out in puffs, and con- speedily followed by blows more deadly even than tinued his career. I observed that he carried no the repulse from Manageas.

an officer.

caught up the cry, "Turn back!" "Turn your | matters. The truth seems to be that the men burses it was the shout of the whole line, and were overworked-kept out for twelve or fourbacking, plunging, rearing and kicking, the teen hours in the sun, exposed to long range fire, horses which had been proceeding down the road | badly officered, and of deficient regimental or-

Those behind them went madly on, the drivers | of action, in face of an energetic enemy which being quite indifferent whether glory or disgrace | had repulsed it. The retirement of the baggage, led the way, provided they could find it. In the midst of this extraordinary spectacle, an | the hands of ignorant drivers, was misunderofficer, escorted by some dragoous, rode through | stood and created an alarm, and that alarm be the ruck with a light cart, in charge of another came a panie which became frantic on the ap-

who ran up against me. "What is this all about?" "Why, we're pretty badly whipped. We're trieve this disaster, although it may divert bet all in retreat. There's General Tyler there badly | from the scheme which has been suggested to wounded," and on he ran.

treat !" an army, no reason for all this precipitation. - struggle, the result of which will leave the Union True, there were many men in uniform flying to- very little to fight for. I pity the public across wards the rear, but it did not appear as if they | the water, but they must be the victims of balluwere beyond the proportions of a large baggage | cinations and myths which it is out of my power

I got my horse up into the field out of the road, and went on rapidly towards the front .-Soon I met soldiers who were coming through fusion and speed of the baggage carts became greater, and that many of them were crowded with men who were followed by others who clung to them. The ambulances were crowded with but the mounted men increased, and the column of fugitives became denser. A few buggles and light wagons filled with men, whose faces would have made up a great Leporello in the ghost scene, tried to pierce the rear of the mass of the carts which were now solidified and moving on like a glacier. I crossed a small ditch by the roadside, fences, and looking before me saw there was still a crowd of men in uniforms coming along.

The road was strewn with articles of clothing, bayonets and sheathes, swords and pistols, even biscuits, water bottles, and pieces of meat. Passing a white house by the road side I saw, for the first time, a body of infantry, with sloped arms, marching regularly and rapidly towards me. Their faces were not blacked by powder, and was evident that they had not been engaged. reply to a question a non-commissioned officer told me in broken English, "we fall back to out a scene I had been witnessing. from the hill, when I came out on an open piece | England to interfere with the blockade, so far as of ground, beyond and circling which was posted to enable a certain amount of cotton and tobacco two field pieces. They were unlimbered and to leave the rebel ports. guarding the road. The panting and jaded horses ! in the rear looked as though they had been hard panies resolved to-day to charge one per cent. worked, and the gunners and drivers looked extra on the war risk. Between the Insurance worn and dejected. Dropping shots sounded close offices in Wall-st. and Jeff Davis' privateers on Used by Woolen, Cotton, Sonp and Paper Manufacturers, Tan-left no longer maintained their fire. I was just about to ask one of the men for a light, when a sputtering fire on my right attract- the Treasury $3,500,000 on account of the Goved my attention, and out of the forest or along ernment loan. Some of the demand Treasury the road rushed a number of men. The gunners notes will go to Washington to-morrow, and a spenden seized the trail of the nearest piece, to wheel it around upon them. Others made for the tumbrills and horses, as if to fly, when a shout was raised, "don't fire-they are our own men," and in a few minutes, on came, pell mell, a whole regiment in disorder. I rode across one and stop ped him; "we're pursued by cavalry," be gasped; "they've cut us all to pieces." As he spoke a shell burst over the column; another dropped on the road, and out streamed another column of men, keeping, together with their arms and clothing, up to the stragglers of the first regiment. I turned, and to my surprise, saw the artillerymen bad gone off, leaving one gun standing by itself.

| They had retreated with their horses. really commenced, though I saw but few wound- their homes and allow the Southern sway to proed men, and the regiments which were falling mack had not suffered much loss. No one seemed to know anything for certain. Even the cavalry charge was a rumor.

Several officers said they had carried the enemy's guns and broken their lines; but then they drifted into the nonsense which one reads and bears everywhere about masken batteries. One or two talked more sensibly about the strong position of the enemy, the fatigue of their men, the want of a reserve, their severe losses and the bad conduct of certain regiments. Not one spoke as if he thought of retiring beyond Centreville. The clouds of dust rising above the woods masked the retreat of the whole army, and the

"The Sixty-ninth are cut to pieces," lousves are destroyed," and I saw presently a remor ran through the men by whom I was riding, as the sharp reports of some field pieces rat-of subdued roar, like the voice of distant breakers rose in front of us, and the soldiers, who were, think, Germans, broke tato a double quick, look- says the Lafayette Armory of North Carolina wants ing now and then over their shoulders.

taining Mr. Russell's letter describing the repulse | keeping in the fields alongside of the roads as much I could, to avoid the fugitives, till I came once more on the rear of the baggage and store the Whole Confederacy. might have had no serious effects whatever, be- carts and the pressure of the crowd, who, conscious of the aid the vehicles would afford them wheat and corn enough this year for two years. against a cavalry charge, and fearful, neverther enough wool to clothe half the Confederacy, and less, of their proximity, clamored and shouted like will make half a million bales of cotton. madmen as they ran.

The road was now literally covered with bag-It seemed to me as if the men inside were throwing the things out purposely. On approaching Centreville, a body of German Infantry, of the reserve, came marching down. and stemmed the current in some degree. They were followed by a brigade of guas and another battalion of fresh troops.

I turned up the hill half a mile. Beyond, a battery of field guns was in position. The men the range of probability. The North will no looked well. As yet, there was nothing to indidoubt recover from the shock. Hitherto she has cate more than a retreat and some ill behavior only mid, Go and fight for the Union. The South | among the wagoners and the riff-raff of the difhas exclaimed, "Let us fight for our rights. The ferent regiments. I turned my horse's head and North must put the best men into the battle, or rode away through the village, and after I got she will inevitably fail before the energy, the per- upon the road, the same confusion seemed to pre- near Springfield, which is represented as a great vail. Suddenly the guns on the hill opened, and | victory for Secession. at the same time the thunder of artillery was beard from the woods on the right. The stampede then became general. curred on the bill I cannot say; but all the road son, and Captain Stephen A. Coleman, both of St. Let the American journals tell the story in their

They operations. Otherwise, if Mr. Davis desired to regiments in the late battle. press his advantage, he might now he very close to Arlington Heights. He has already proved | field under a flag of truce, to bring away the body that he has a fair right to be considered the head of General Lyon. of a belligerent power. But though the North may reel under the shock, I cannot think it will "It means-we're pretty badly whipped-and make her desist from the struggle, unless it be

There is much talk now of masked batteries. The tempsters of the advancing wagons now of course, of out-flanking and cavalry and such teversed their front and went off towards Centre- ganization. Then came a most difficult operation-to withdraw this army, so constituted, out which was without adequate guards, and was in their guns on the runsways. But the North will be all the more eager to reber-of punishing England-a little while long-Then came yet another, who said, "We're er. The exultation of the South can only be unbesten on all points. The whole army is in re- | derstood by those who may see it; and if the Federal Government perseveres in its designs to here. . Still there was no flight of troops, no retreat of | make a Union by force, it may prepare for a to dispel or rectify just now.

From Washington

The Government is greatly troubled about the saw firelocks, cooking tins, knapeacks, and great | Confederate batteries upon the Potomac. The paper advocating peace and compromise, is now coats on the ground, and observed that the con- correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says: ber of Congress elect from this district, has been The developments of the last few days have burned in effigy, and made to show his colors. shown that I was correct | It is evident now that | There is much excitement, and the riot is still in these batteries, though erected many weeks ago, progress. have been manned, and have had theirarmaments soldiers, but it did not look as if there were many | greatly strengthened within the last few days; | and all the indications go to show that these bat- | about which some apprehensions were expressed, Negro servants, on lead horses, dashed franti- teries are inetnded to play an important part in has arrived at the Navy Yard from Fortress Moncally past. Men in uniform, whom it were a dis- the attack upon Washington, if the latter is made | roe, all safe. grace to the profession of arms to call soldiers, at all. It will be under cover of these batteries swarmed by on mules, chargers, and even draught that Magruder will cross the Potomer with his horses, which had been cut out of carts or wagons | fifty thousand troops. while those at Matthias and who went on with the harness clinging to Point will render the future navigation of the Po- | steamer Senera had sailed from San Francisco with their heels, as frightened as their riders. Men lit- tomac below that point impossible. Still, noth- $750.000 in tressure for New York. General news erally screamed with rage and fright when their | ing is done to dislodge or destroy these batteries. | unimportant. way was blocked up. On I rode, asking all "what | The President received, to-day, five different is this all about?" and now and then but rarely petitions, signed by the Bull Run prisoners at receiving the answer, "we're whipped," or "we're | Richmond, praying that some measures might be repulsed." Faces black, dusty tongues out in the taken for their release or exchange. One of them beat, and eyes staring! It was a most wonderful was signed exclusively by the married men and I heads of families, amounting to 413. It begged But where was the fiend? I looked in vain. that they might be exchanged, in order that they There was, indeed, some cannonading in the front | might return home to provide for their families, of me and in their rear, but still the firing was whom they allege were suffering. Another was comparatively distant, and the runaways were far from the three months' volunteers, whose time out of range.

As I advanced the number of carts diminished, then passed them to Mr. Blair, who filed them

From New York. The New York correspondent of the Philadel- 66 EXCELSIOR, "? phia Ledger says: The ungenerous criticisms of the English jourand got out on the road to escape some snake nals upon our misfortune at Bull Run, together with the alarming report that Jeff. Davis was about to make another "forward movement," bave exercised a very depressing effect upon the firelocks, waist belts, cartouch boxes, caps, great | public mind to-day, the practical effect of which coats, mess tins, musical instruments, cartridges, is visible, in part, in a wholesale decline in the stock market. The details of the English advices should reach us by the Elinburgh or the Bremen, which left on the 7th, and may be looked for every moment. The report; to which some of the London per pers appear to give eager currency, that Louis Napoleon has about made up his mind to recognize the C.S.A., gives some uneasiness, in connection with the mysterious movements of the lines—the attack did not quite succeed." This Prince Napoleon in this country, and the known was assuring to one who had come through such fact that the Emperor, all the while that he has been assuring us of his distinguished considera-I had ridden, I suppose, about 3 or 31 miles tion, has been endeavoring, secretly, to induce

A few of the leading Marine Insurance Comin front, through the woods, but the guns on the the ocean, the ship owners bid fair to be pretty well ground out. The City Banks, this afternoon, have paid into] still larger amount in the course of the week. The $35,000,000 in Treasury notes taken by the New York banks, bear date August 19th.

From Missouri. The correspondent of the St. Louis Republican furnishes the following:

tory has been won, and the Northern oppressors of Missouri have been driven back; that every one belonging to the Home Guard organization will be regarded and treated as an enemy to the Southern Confederacy, but that his protection would extend to such who quietly returned to Government of Missouri will be considered as an enemy to the State, and dealt with accordingly. Captain McDonald reports that Generals Price | able terms, aret and expeditions. and Clark were slightly, and Brigadier General . Slack seriously wounded in the late engagement.

Also, Colonel Bay, formerly Captain in Jackson's 1 body guard. Arrival of the Steamer Canada. St. Johns, August 20 .- The Steamer Canada passed off Cape Race yesterday afternoon with Liverpool advices, to the 10th inst. The steamer Saxonia arrived out on the 5th. European political affairs are unimportant. The aspect of American affairs claim undivided crowds of fugitives continued to steel away along the road. The sun was declining, and some attention.

ment was merching, but there were rumors of all struggle, except by those who wanted to get

[According to Russell's own account, be saw little of the battle, and kept well up with the retreating forces in their stampede from the battle

From the South. LOUISVILLE, Aug. 19 .- The Charleston Courier

The Shreveport Genette says letters from Texas state that Ben McCullech can have 10,000 mounted The indianola Courier says salt enough can be The Houston Telegraph says Texas has made The Attackapas Register says the sugar crop is better than ever before . The Charleston Courier says the Confederate Congress, in secret session, appropriated a million dollars for supplying clothing, subsistence, arms, and ammunition to the Missouri troops, subject to the discretion of President Davia.

From Missouri. JEFFERSON CITY, Ma., Aug. 19 .- While Colonel Stifels of the Fifth Missouri Reserve Corps, and Col. Worthington's Pifth lows, were coming down the river on the Covernment steamer, they were frequently fired upon with cannon and small arms by the Secessionists from the banks, killing one and wounding seven or eight of the troops. There is great excitement among the people along the river, in consequence of the accounts of the battle

Rolls, Mo., August 18th .- Captain Emmett Mc-Donald was in town to-day. He reports that Capt. Charles C. Rodgers, aid-de-camp to Governor Jack-Louis, were killed in the battle of the 10th. General Siegel received his commission as Briga-Drivers | of the Federal forces yesterday.

> McDonald was secorted beyond the lines yesterday and sent on his way to Springfield. He no doubt gained much valuable information of the of truce. Our wounded at Springfield are reported I to be doing well. Sr. Louis, Aug. 20 .- Gen. Siegel, Major Conant,

It has rained incresently and heavily since early and several other officers have arrived from Kolla Capt. Maurice was detailed to proceed to Spring-

The Barque Joseph Maxwell Captured by

NEW YORK, Aug. 15,-The barque Joseph Marwell, from Philadelphia for Laguayra, was captured by the Sumter on the 27th of July, off Porto Cabello. Licut. Hunks and five men were put aboard as a prize crew, and the Captain of the barque and a part of the crew taken aboard of the Sumter. The Marwell was taken into Cienfuegos, but ordered out within twenty-four hours. In the meantime arrangements were made to run her ashore afteen miles east of Cienfuegos, which was done, and ber cargo taken to Cienfuegos and sold, and partly paid for. The privateersmen were sent to Havana by the Covernor of Cienfuegos as ship-

The Sattle in Missouri. St. Louis, August 18.—The first Missouri Regiment, Colonel Andrews commanding, went into the officer on foot, with his sword under his arm, pearance of the enemy, and on the opening of action at Springfield seven hundred and fifty strong, of which number seventy-seven were killed, two | bandred and eighteen wounded (of which ninetythree are severely so,) and seventeen missing.-About one-third of the wounded of this regiment were left in the hospital at Springfield, and are now prisoners.

> Rolls. It is understood that they will be paid off A Newspaper Office Mobbed. PHILADELPHIA, August 20 .- The J. ferconica office at West Chester was quietly mobbed last night and cleaned out. There was no noice or disturbance, and most of the residents were ignorant of

The first lows regiment arrived last night from the affair until the work of destruction was effected. Another Newspaper Mobbed. . Easton, Aug. 19.-The office of the Sentiael, a

The Bleamer Baltimore. Washington, August 20 .- The steamer Baltimere

Gold en Route from California. FORT KEARNEY, August 20 .- The California Pony Express of the 10th instant has arrived. The

FERTILIZERS AND SEEDS.

J. J. & F. TURNER, No. 42 Pratt Street, Baltimore,

GUANO.

(No. 1 PERUTIAN GUANO SULUBLE PHUSPHATES.)

PRALESS IF

GRAIN AND FIELD SEEDS

DYE WOOD, CHEMICALS, &c.

R. J. BAKER,

DYE WOODS.

CHEMICALS, &c. mers, Lenther and Morocco Dressers, Machinests and Dyers.

36 S. Charles Street.

SAMUEL S. MILLS. BOOK AND

General Sterling Price has issued a proclamation at Springfield to the effect that a great vic-

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 122 BALTIMORE STREET. (1 door from North Street, Up Stairs,)

BALTIMORE. MJ-Every description of JOB PRINTING exercted on reason

RESETT, ALBERT. BEFAT AD. BRIDE P. ALBERTI & CO., INPORTERS OF GERMAN, FRENCH & ENGLISH

LAMBERT GITTINGS & CO., COMMISSION MERCHANT.

PANCT GOODS.

| Hom. 6 and 8 ROUTH LIBERTY ST., seer BALTIMORE ST

thirty miles yet remained to be accomplished ere . Dr. Russell, in another letter to the Times on I could hope to gain the shelter of Washing- the battle of Bull Run, asserts that there were no No. 36 BUCHARANS WHARF. mrfl.colm*

大路 lm