An Interesting Roce. - Yesterday afternoon one of the best trotting races of the season came off at the Herring Run Course. The day was fine, but owing to recent rains the track was heavy and the time made must not be accepted as indicating the full capacity of the horses. Under more favorable cir- the 234 instant, Mrs. MATILDA WINGATE, aged 34 cumstances they would have shown much better time. The crowd in attendance was large and | respectable, and nothing in the slightest degree disagreeable occurred throughout the evening .-About 4% o'clock the borses were brought out upon the track and were both in splendid condition. The purse of $200 was contended for by Mr. Wm. Guy, who entered his horse Prince Jimmy, and Mr. Wm. McDonald, who entered his gelding Il. Clay. The terms were mile beats, best 3 in 5. Mr. Mc. Donald won the pole, and his beautiful sorrel lead i off, driven by J. Peiffer, the bay driven by Daniel Steerer following close upon him. After passing ! the quarter pole, the sorrel broke, and the bar took the lead, maintaining it throughout, and winning the first heat in 2.50%, by about two lengths. Mr. l'eisser being sick, Mr. McDonald took the reins in the next heat, and the contest was very animated. The sorrel lead, but was mon overtaken by the bay. who, after a sharp struggle, passed his opponent and maintained his advantage to the end. The driving on both sides was highly commended and elicited much applause. The heat was botly contested, but the bay came in winner by about a length, McDonald having made a vigorous push on the quarter stretch. The time of this heat was 2.49. In before six o'clock, a child five years of age. I named John Essler, attracted by the movements of a company of the Sixteenth Massachusetts Regiment, passing on Greenmount avenue near Madison street, ran from the sidewalk and was knocked actions. down by a horse of one of the officers of the regiment. The animal trod on the top of his head as . he lay prestrate on the ground. Mr. Wm. H. II. Turner was sitting at his front door at the time. and fortunately rescued the child from further injury. The officer acted with great presence of mind, jumping immediately off his horse, and, with Mr. T., carried the boy to the daug store of Dr. Roberts, where the wound was dressed. A portion of the scalp was injured by the horse, causing the blood to flow profusely. The lad was then taken to the dwelling of his parents, corner of Hillen and Chesnut streets, where he is improving.

Burning of the Baltimore County Court House-The Work of an Incendiary .- At an early hour this mouning the citizens of Towenstown were thrown into an intense state of excitement by the announcement that the Court House was on fire! The Clerk's Department had been fired during last night, and les almost everything that was in it has been destroyed. The land records are all destroyed, or the pieces that are saved are so much disfigured as to he of very little value. The judicial records and papers of every description, left there for record. are also burned. By the greatest exertions the fire was confined to the two rooms comprising the Clerk's Department, although all the papers and furniture in the Sheriff's, Register's and other offices were removed, as it was thought by all that everything in the building would be destroyed. The fire is said to have been the work of an incen-

Collision - Loss of Schooner Rosanna, with Coal.On Friday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock, the schooner Rosense, loaded with about 150 tons of authracite coal for the Government at Washington. was sunk in the Susquehanna river, near the Fish Pond shore, five miles below Havre de Grace in consequence of coming in collision with the steamer Lancaster of the Baltimore and Susquehanna Steam Company. The schooner was aground at the above | point, and the steamer in passing down the river ran into and struck her with such force as to knock off a portion of the stern. The crew of the schooner endeavored to keep her affoat by throwing off the deck load of 34 tons of coal, but could not sucered, as she sank in a short time. Freedom of the Press.

The Philadelphia Inquirer of this morning says It is reported that the bundles of newspapers sent out yesterday morning from New York upon the New Jersey Central Railroad, were considerably increased in number by the addition of copies of the Daily News, intended for circulation in the South and west, and which formerly were sent via Philadelphia. Marshal Millward has placed an estoppel upon the circulation of the News in this city, and it now behooves the proper authorities in New York either to cease its issue entirely, or to limit its circulation to outside that > that be was their Colonel They were received with great enthusiasm. As some of Sickles' friends had made arrangements for the transportation of the regiment also, and 4 (0) and 7 (0) P. M a letter was then read which settled the case in favor of Col. Fairman.

At about 11 o'clock the men were form- the Fennsylvania Railroad for all parts of the West, and direct ed into line, Major Moriarty taking command, and marched to embark for Elizabethport. While the regiment was on the dock, Col. Fairman, wearing no sword, made his appearance. Making his way to a pile of coal bags, Col. Fairman mounted J. H. & Co. are the sole proprietors of various brands of choice | them, and, as his soldiers pressed eagerly around | him, told them of the trouble he had had in preventing that regiment of which they were the members from losing its name and organization as the "Second Fire Zouaves;" and that Sickles, who was no more of a Brigadier-General that any of them, had done his best to rob the regiment of its name and identity, and have it attached to the Excelsior Brigade and depose him as Colonel.

SIMON CAMERON, Sec'v of War. There can be no doubt that whatever the officers think of Col. Fairman, he has the heart and sympathies of his command. When the noise of the cheering had somewhat subsided, Col. Fairman asked, "Are you men of honor?" "Yes! shouted hundred of threats at once. "Are you firemen?" The response in the affirmative was equally energetic. "Are you soldiers?" Again an answer in the affirmative was yelled forth-Well, then, if you are men of honor, and soldiers, go back again to the Armory, and wait there till I come to you. You are upon this dock here without leave; I never ordered you here; go back and with me at your head, and accompanied by an excellent band, you shall march down here again. After which the men proceeded to the Park Barracks and partook of their rations. The Fire Zonaves. The Fire Zouaves seem to be completely disorganized. Major Loeser has found it utterly impossible to retain them at their quarters in the Battery. Tents sufficient to accommodate the four hundred and fifty members of the Regiment have been erected on the grounds, but of the whole number, only sixteen men remained in them last night. Armed guards were placed at the gate, but the men evinced such a determination to leave and visit their homes and friends, that it was found almost useless to exact passes from them. Major Loeser has had a consultation with Gov. Morgan, and it has been determined to remove the Fire Zouaves to Bedloe's Island, if permission can be obtained. An application was accordingly made this morning to Col. Smith, commanding at Governor's Island, to have Bedloe's Island appropriated to their use, his reply has not yet been re- | Congress. ap 23 if ceived. THE BOOK FOR THE TIMES-

BLACK DIAMONDS. SECOND EDITION, BY E. A. POLLARD, of VA. Criticized by conservative presses, North and South, as "the ! had band" ever published on the Society of the South. Four Hundred Copies subscribed for by bouthern Memberso READ THE OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. Remarkably free from sectional prejudice and scerbity, and, in truth, contains aboutes that are amongst the most catholic, and uderant, and genial we ever had occusion to perum. How appreciative, how loving, how tender and sympathetic the author is in delineations we will let a few extracts show .- New the many jewels in their way-black by the subject, but bril-(mutly lightenesse in it. It is a little mine full of promised dismonda - New York News Rabbi abolitionists and prejudiced foreigners abould read this Defending "the institution" more than all argument from the INSURANCE COMPANY, OF THE VALLEY book - New York Herald assaults of ignorance or prepulses -De Hour's Kenter

Must have effected much good to free labor regions. It will he read with interest at the South also - Models Register The author is sometimes a philosopher, sometimes a just, and in every character resitable - New Yorker. An exceedingly interesting volume, quite to a new and unaflested utale - Bullimore Sun. The remainder of the very large edition of this remarks. ble bank, which is particularly interesting as beering directly myon present to the of excrement, will be sold in Baltimore and the South, by direction of the author, at 38 centers volume, (the) publisher a price in New York being 75 (ents.)
