A PRINON FOR PENALES. The impropriety, as well as inconvenience, of placing female prisoners in the common jail, or in the prison at the Capitol, was at once seen. It was determined, therefore, to secure some suitable building, appropriate for that purpose. Accordingly, the large house at the corner of ———— and Fourteenth streets was selected and rented for this purpose. The premifes consist of the mansion itself, sufficiently spacious to contain comfortably all the ladies arrested, and an extensive lawn and Sower garden, in which they will be allowed to walk. The whole is surrounded by a high brick wall, which will at once prevent their escape, and secure them from the impertinent observation of the curious. The three ladies already arrested are confined here, and it is understood that they will have the society of three more before to night. The female members of the family of Mayor Ber-

A BRIBE FOR THE SOLDIERS. President Lincoln makes no secret of the fact that when the rebellion is suppressed, he intends to make a new dispensation of the immense list of offices in the gift of the Government. He designs to ignore the adage, "Republics are ungrateful, and to improve on the motto, "To the victors belong the spoils." He has frequently said that he longs for the time when he can prove his love for the saviors of the Republic, by placing them offices of honor and of profit. [From the Philadelphia Press.] At an early hour yesterday morning Marshal Murray despatched a force of deputy marshals to J. T. ENGLAND, Agent, at Camden Station, or at the Taket the office of the American Express Company, Office. where he had understood a large edition of disloyal newspapers had been lodged, for transmission by express. The officers seized 6 packages of the Daily News, of yesterday morning's edition. They were directed to the following persons: very large package to A. Gunter, Louisville, Ky., a second, not quite so large, to J. H. Harnwell, of morning, June 1st, 1961, at 6 o'clock, for Hill's Landing direct, the same place; a smaller one to Daring & Dickens, and another to M. W. Barr, also of Louisville; a large package to Gray & Crawford, St. Louis, No., and a smaller one to C. C. Woolworth, of St. Joseph, Mo. There were evidently a large number of smaller packages made up in each of them; and the parties addressed were only to act as distributing agents. From Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, August 26 .- The Adams Express Company having discontinued the sending of letters to the South, those now received and arriving from the North will be returned to the senders. The Memphis Appeal says it is informed that Ger eral Lee had completely surrounded General Rosen cranz in Western Virginia, and would probably capture him.

The Richmond Despatch says that Kanawha Valler is worth a military expedition on account of its salt alone. The Mobile Register of the 23d, strongly urges that the South should not let the bonds of the new Confederacy sink below par in any part of the Southern Confederacy, and asks the Mobile mer chants to take them at par as a duty. THE BOOK FOR THE TIMES-

BLACK DIAMONDS. SECOND EDITION, BY E. A. POLLARD, of VA. Crimized by conservative presses, North and South, as "the | best found" ever postdished on the Society of the South Four Hundred Copies authorithed for by Southern Memberso READ THE OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. Remarkably free from sectional prejudice and scerbity, and, in truth, contains sketches that are amongst the most extholic, and tolerant, and genial we ever had occasion to peruse. How as preciainse, how loving, how ten ier and sympathetic the author to in delineations we will let a few extracts show .- New the many jewels in their way -- black by the subject, but bril- , Charity lightwome in it. It is a little mine full of promised dismonda - New York News

Rabid about a time and prejudiced foreigners should read this ; Thank - New York Haruld Defending "the institution" more than all argument from the secults of ignorance or prejudice -fe flow's Review Must have exected much grant to free later regions. It will be read with interest at the mouth also - Middle Register. The author is sometimes a philosopher, sometimes a piet, and in every character readable —New Yorker. An exceedingly interesting volume, quite in a new and unaf ferred style - hillimore for. BFThe remainder of the very large edition of this remarks. the book, which is particularly interesting as bearing directly upon present topics of excitement, will be sold in Baltimore and lon. 55 30, she was chased by a low, rakish, full the Houth, by direction of the author, at 31 orute a volume, (the
