SECOND EDITION, BY E. A. POLLARD, of VA. Criticized by conservative presses, North and South, as "the here head " ever published on the South; of the South Four Hundred Corner subscribed for by Southern Memberso READ THE OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. Remarkably free from sectional prejudice and acerbity, and, in truth, contains sheathes that are amongst the most catholic, and olerant, and gemai we ever had occasion to peruse. * * * * How appreciance, how losing, how tender and sympathetic the author is in delineations we will let a lew extracts show - New So many lewels in their way -black by the subject, but bril hantly lightwome in it. It is a little mine full of promised dismonds - New York News Rabid abolitionists and prejudiced foreigners should read this bank - New York Herubl. Defending "the Institution" more than all argument from the ansaults of ignorance or prejudice - De line's Review Must have edected much good in free later regions.
