Advertisements abould be sent in early

Baltimore, Tuesday Evening, September 3, 1861.

FOR SALE BY

HENRY TAYLOR,

SUN IRON BUILDING.

by (b). Harden, an abstract for the Recruit...

HENRY TAYLOR,

UMBAUGH'S

Management and orders received for one or one thousand copies of "THE BUUTH," and sent to any part of the city and will also be included in the blockade.— Pamlico Sound (an inland sea, eighty miles L' W. BENNETT & CO., long and from ten to twenty-five miles I.

COMMISSION MERCHANT,

25 APP 39 SOUTH CHARLES STREET

A.C. MATTHEWS. GENERAL AUCTION COMMISSION MERCHANT,

MERRY AD. BRIDE

ed fire for a while to get a new position, Among the papers which were found in Stripes from her mizzen peak. He then di-Nun from Builling.

> By the author of Adam Bede...... A summer royage to Labrador. By L. L. Noble......$1 50

Cheap edition - 5 vols., complete in one ... Large edition, and paper and large type, 5 vols...... 5 00 RENCY WANTED. do. do. 5 role., 12mo...... 2 U. HOPES AND FRARS, THE ALCHETMIST.

TRUMPH,

PERS ON HAND. HENRY TAYLOR. San Iron Building, Baltimore.

No. 62 KXCHANGE PLACE, BALTIMORE, NO. Manufacturers of Strum Cotters. | Wheat Drilla, Corn Stalk Cutters, Lime spremiers, Corn Shellers

The Monticello had proceeded ahead of and therefore will be found useful. They the land force to protect them, and had might, on an emergency, be used in a deoctagon shape, to the rear and right of the complete without delay 18 barbette car- beach, the sand hills and bushes to repel nity to evade the law than he was compelled Name and the complete without delay 18 barbette car- beach, the sand hills and bushes to repel nity to evade the law than he was compelled Name of the complete without delay 18 barbette car- beach, the sand hills and bushes to repel nity to evade the law than he was compelled Name of the complete without delay 18 barbette car- beach, the sand hills and bushes to repel nity to evade the law than he was compelled Name of the complete without delay 18 barbette car- beach, the sand hills and bushes to repel nity to evade the law than he was compelled Name of the complete without delay 18 barbette car-JOHN J. GRAVES, Collector

> I my stable, on the plobt of the 15th instant, a bolesal BAT PANICY HORNE, suit mateen bands bigh, about eight yearwold, with both bind feet while, handsome shipe, large neck and atrongly built. The atore reward will be juid for his delivery to me, at my residence, Kirby's lane, near the corner of West Franklin and Fulton streets, or at 6% West Badimore FRANKLIN WILSON.

comprising the following relebrated brands -- YAMILE-"Weich" "Kureka," "Pine Hill," "Mourovia," EXTRA-"C. L. Wood," "Monorte," "Inglestite," "New L'UTAW SAVINGS' BANK, BALTIMORE, June 1 221, 1861 - At an election held on Tuesday, 18th instant, for I would five Directors to reasses the affairs of the Bauk for the enaming twelve months, the following gentlemen were elected. INATHAN PUSET. ROBERT A. DOBBIN. CHARLES M. KEYPER. WILLIAM HOOPER. JESSE HUNT, ASA NEEDHAM. JAMES HARVET. WILLIAM B. PENNIMAN. WILLIAM A. HACK, MASON CAMPBELL WILLIAM DEVRIES, CHARLEN D MAINGLUFF. HENRY RIEMAN. I KLISHA II. PERKINS.

JOSEPH TAYLOR. ALFRED JENKINS. J ROBERT ISRAEL. At a subsequent meeting of the Board, JESSE HUNT, Esq.

The South.

and neighboring copse of scrub oaks. All ring this time most of the casualties occur- Col. Warren Winslow, Military Sceretary: wide, connecting with the Albemarle Sound the boats being swamped and bilged in the red. Meanwhile, the Minnessta and Walsash- four hundred men the night before. Com- tion on Wednesday last between a United any service to the rebels of North Carolithe latter with the Cumberland in tow- modore Barron reached the fort the after- States steamer and this fort, from my prin- na, now that its principal inlet is closed. A steamed up to the front of one of the rebel noon of the first bombardment, and on the cipal assistant, Mr. Allen, who took an ac- Albemarle and Currituck Sounds will also batteries and took their position at long second foreneou a steamer approached with tive part in it, which was briefly as follows: be effectually closed, and the light draught sand, covered with turf and mounting five was a separate corps of Coast Guard, wards the breakers. When within one Ocracoke Inlet, which is about twelve memory their nationage.

At eleven o'clock the immense flagstaff particulars of a previous attack upon the tery. After the ninth shot from one of our navy and the volunteers acting in concert, ted with flying shells was shot away and the rebel flag came fort, which was successfully repulsed: down, but the fire was still continued by them. At twelve o'clock the Susquehan- Brig. Gen. Walter Gwynn: na steamed in, and dropping her boats | DEAR SIR: - A fore and aft schooner ar- | ered her flag, hoisted her jib sail and stood | astern, opened an effective fire. The can- rived to-day from Norfolk, with 18 naval off. Two persons from different points say nonading on our part was incessant, and gun carriages and fixtures, 430 thirty-two that they saw the shot strike her. But New York Tribune of yesterday says: the air was alive with the hum and explo- pound shot, and some handspikes. I took why she hauled down her flag I do not unsion of flying shell; but the enemy did not some of the carriages, all the shot, as they derstand. If I get the columbiad we can on the 16th of August, giving notice of the rate of above 2 half dozen a minute. The cations. The gun is carried so low that it caps for the troops. I write in haste. enemy ceased firing a little before two, and is impossible to raise a parapet to protect Yours, respectfully, after a few more shells had been thrown the men, and to construct embrasures would in the Commodore signalled to cease firing. destroy the field of fire, as it is necessary The troops had meantime advanced to not only to command the bar, but the chan- The following letter from Major Andrews within a short distance of the fort, and be- | nel of approach. They require 15 to 16 | indicates the comparatively defenceless confore we ceased firing some of our men got | men to work them, which is a great expo- | dition of Fort Clark, and the insufficiency | in and raised the Stars and Stripes. The sure of human life, when the barbette car- of the garrison: place was too hot for the men, but the flag | riages require only 5 or 6. was left waving. Coxswain Benj. Sweares, I had hoped from the tenor of your last small battery, mounting ten thirty-twos ringes, 2 for the 8-inch seaconst howitzers, attacks. and four eight-inch guns, which had till Paixhan gun, the dimensions for which I fairs. Things did not look cheerful at will reserve that platform for such a gun dark. We had men ashore who were pro- until I hear further from you.

them from the Harriet Lame. bright bivouac fires on the beach, with respectfully, passed without an alarm, the enemy, as we P. S.—Send fuses, sabots, and have you ingress and egress for illicit trade; it is immediate payment. groups of men about them. The night all night, expecting an attack.

At early daybreak on Thursday the men | went to quarters in the fleet, and at a quar- | Col. W. Window, Pres't Military Board.

land the troops the following morning, at ly, at five minutes past cleven, A. M., an therefore respectfully urge that Marshal Hatteras Inlet is of vast importance to the which time the transports ran near the eleven-inch shell, having pierced the bomb- Parks be directed to send no more of them. cause of the Union. With Ocracoke and beach, two miles north of the Inlet, and proof through a ventilator and exploded in- The barbette carriages require only five to Hatteras Inlets closed, North Carolina may covered by the Monticello, Harriet Laure side near the magazine, the enemy gave up six men to work them, and are infinitely be said to be completely shut in from the and Parence. About three hundred men the fight and raised over the ramparts a superior, when the naval carriages cannot ocean. Privateers can no longer be sent consisting of Capt. Larned's company of The Tribune's correspondent adds, that men, which is an unnecessary expense of and Albemarle Sound to annoy our comregular artillery, Capt. Jardine's company a short time before the surrender of Fort human life, especially as it is difficult to merce, and all communication between

Ninth New York, two companies of the Hatterss, about 300 of the rebel garrison protect them by a breastwork. The bar- Virginia and Europe is effectually cut off. Twentieth New York, with Col. Weber and had taken refuge in the homb-proof maga- bette carriages are in Newhern, and can be Newbern, on the Neuse river; Washing-Lieut. Col. Heise; a detachment of marines zinc, which was so crowded that several made as soon as the iron can be procured ton, on the Pamlico river; Elizabeth City. from the frigates, under command of Majors fainted, and when a shell struck and pene- for them. The naval carriages will be used on the Pasquotank, and a number of other Doughty and Shuttleworth, and a detach- trated it, a panie ensued which the officers affoat. Yours, respectfully, ment of sailors from the Passner, under | could not control. Within ten minutes af-Lieuts. Croeby and Bluc, with Drs. King | terward, our shots meantime raining in range. At ten o'clock the Walnish fired the one thousand men, but were warned away The steamer was a forty-two gun steamer, vessels which have been continually annoyfirst gun, the cleven-inch shell striking by the guns of our men at Fort Clark .- showing twenty-one guns on each side. She ing the Government, by bringing in supdous force. The battery, which was of the rest were in citizens clothes. There south-east from the fort, standing in to- mitted to carry on their nefarious traffic. long thirty two's, instantly returned the recently organized into regiments under mile and a half from the fort she traced the miles southwest of Hatteras Inlet, is defendfire, the shot falling short. The Minnewda Colonel Martin, one of the most prominent breakers down towards the inlet. Feeling ed by a battery of 32-pounders, 6 in num- H. F. ALBERTI & CO., and Cumberland immediately opened fire North Carolina lawyers. A number of the certain that her intentions were hostile, as ber. It is probably ere this in the posses. Here and rained nine and eleven inch shell into defenders were from the country, having she had nineteen guns run out, as soon as sion of the Federal Government, as it was and about it. The fire was terrific, and volunteered since the arrival of the fleet, she uncovered the encampment Mr. Allen well understood that Com. Stringham would when the enemy's fire was most spirited. the fort, and are in the custody of the cap- rected a shot from one of our eight-inch equally as important as that of Hatteras N No damage was sustained by our ships, and tors, was the letter-book of Major Thomp- howitzers, both shots falling short. She re- linet, as it affords an easy entrance to when they again took their position the son, the Engineer-in-Chief of the Coast De- turned the fire with an eleven-inch Dahl- Pamlico Sound and its numerous tributa- allas warser, or the weaven of RAVELOE, cannonading was intensely hot, the shells fences of North Carolina. The two letters gren gun. The shell exploded three hun- ries: Through this inlet vessels from Tardropping in the enemy's works or falling which we published yesterday were taken dred yards from our battery, one of the borough, Greenville, and Washington, on on the ramparts, exploding in death dealing from this book. We subjoin three more, fragments falling into it and another pass- the Pamlico River, and Waynesborough, currents and countries currents. fragments, and carrying death and destruct which will be read with interest, the first | ing over it. Nobody hurt. Return shots | Goldsborough and Newbern, on the Neuse | 1 tion with them. The small wooded struc- two as throwing additional light upon the were made from both sides, until some nine | River, have been in the habit of proceeding | tures about the fort were torn and perfora- condition of the works, and their capabili- shots were exchanged. The remainder of to sea and carrying aid and comfort to the ties for defence—the third, as recalling the her shot and shell all fell short of our bat- enemy at will. But thanks to our intrepid

FORT HATTERAS, June 17, 1861.

of the Pairnee's first cutter, stood for some letter that barbette carriages would be sent To His Excellency HENRY T. CLARK: time on the ramparts, waving the flag amid from Norfolk. I would respectfully suggest | Governor-Since my last report we have a flight of shells. When the firing ceased | that the agent at Norfolk be directed to | been successful in getting four guns mountthe firing was occupied in force and held send no more of the navy carriages. What ed in Fort Clark, which places us in a powe have can be used to advantage affoat, sition to defend our camp on the sea-side within which it was possible to get their litar Pressure. reached the inlet, when the large fort, of an tached battery. Give orders to Howard to on our six-pounders and musketry from the

For fifty minutes she held her own, and ago. They will throw half a peck of can- and sixty-four men to man Fort Clark with finally getting off the ground she came out, mister or grape, and sweep the ditch. I one relief, leaving me only seventy-five men This is to Give NOTICE, That the subscriber finally getting off the ground she came out, mister or grape, and sweep the ditch. I one relief, leaving me only seventy-five men This is to Give NOTICE, That the subscriber finally getting off the ground she came out, mister or grape, and sweep the ditch. I one relief, leaving me only seventy-five men This is to Give NOTICE, That the subscriber having been shot through and through by left the drawing with Howard and directed to defend the beach, furnish guards, pickets, seven eight-inch shell, one going below the him to make the carriages. The captain of &c., and relieve the two posts when exwater-line. She fired fifty-five shell in fif- the vessel which brought the gun carriages hausted. ty minutes, and partially silence the bat- says that the heavy 30-pound guns lately | Our privateers are very busy. The pritery. She withdrew at dusk for repairs, shipped from Norfolk are bound for Fort vateer Gordon brought into our port yeswith one or two men slightly bruised, but Morgan and Newbern. He must be mis- terday the brig Mclillery, of Maine, with management none killed or wounded. The escape of taken, as you wrote me some were bound three hundred and fifteen tierces and hogs- This is to dive Notice that the subthe vessel and crew was miraculous. Un- for this fort. I think it important that we heads molasses, and the privateer Florida . til this time we supposed the day was ours, should have at least one columbiad to place captured a brig, laden with machinery, course of Joseph Maders Baring claums against said Relate, are but the unexpected opening of the large on the pen compressionaling the bar and which she had to run on shore to escape rebattery rather changed the aspect of af-the sea front up to the encampment. I capture. Very truly yours

bably in need of provisions, and in case of The frames you spoke of in your last leta night attack no assistance could be sent | ter as necessary had already been anticipa- | The Herald of yesterday has a descrip- CHTY COLLECTOR'S OFFICE, BALTIMORE, Auted The plans you refer to shall be made tion of Hatteras Inlet, its approaches, &c., parts of discount will cease after the Ordinances of the long the thorough the from which it will be seen that the only but of services and that under the Ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the only but of services and that under the Ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the only but of services and that under the Ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the only but of services and that under the Ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the only but of services and that under the Ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the only but of services and that under the Ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the only but of services and that under the Ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the only but of services and that under the Ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the only but of services and that under the Ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the only but of services are the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the only but of services are the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the only but of services are the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen that the ordinances of the long which it will be seen tha As we lay close in shore we saw the out at the carlies possible moment. Yours from which it will be seen that the only have since learned, laying on their arms ordered the copper fuses from Norfolk, to simply making the blockade a little more back years for as Chy Auditor I shall be compelled abordy to T suit the shell cent?

FORT HATTERAS, June 17, 1861. our naval forces have been so triumphant ter-past eight, the vessels having borne My Dear Sir:-Fort Hatterns is begin- cannot fail to prove interesting to our rea-More about the North Carolina Forts. down nearer than the previous day's posi- ning to assume the appearance of a respec- ders. Situated about 12 miles from Cape The correspondent of the New York tion, the action began, the Susquehanna table fortification. The sand is kept con- Hatteras lighthouse is the inlet in question. Herald furnishes that paper with the fol- opening the day's work by a shell from one | tinually in motion on this bald sand beach, It is known to the mariner by a low sand lowing detailed account of the taking of the of the eleven-inch guns. The Minnesota by the strong winds which prevail here, island, which was formerly a round hamforts at Hatterss Inlet, from which some and Wabash joined in immediately, and and the work would be levelled down as mock, covered with trees on the eastern additional particulars may be gleaned, be- again the hum of shell and their explosion fast as it could be put in shape, were it not side of the entrance. The breakers selyoud those which appear in the official re- were heard. They fired nearly half an hour that I was fortunate in finding, some three dom extend entirely across the entrance to before the battery responded, when it an | quarters of a mile up the island, some | the cove or harbor, but at nearly all times | The expedition, consisting of the frigates swered briskly. Our fire was more correct marshes, from which I obtained a good sod make on each side, and between them lies are like and between the lies are like and like are like and between the lies are like and like are like are like and like are like are like and like are like and like are like are like are like are like are like are like and like are like a Minnesota, Commodore Stringham in com- than on the previous day. The range had to revet the work with and hold the sand the channel. The bar should be approach HANDY BUNK FOR THE UNITED STATES SOLDIER mand of the expedition; Wabash, Captain been obtained, and nearly every shot went in place. I have been very much annoy- ed from the northward and eastward, and Mercer; the gunboats Parnee, Captain into the battery, throwing up clouds of sand ed with the naval gun carriages sent from vessels should keep in 4 or 5 fathous of Rowan; Monticello, Commander Gillis, and and exploding with terrific effect. At twen- Norfolk, which are no doubt well adapted water along the breakers until up with the | THE MOLDING OUTER, a Manual and Drill for the transports Adelaide and George Peuboly, opened fire, and soon after the Cumberland to fire through, but which are not at all feet mean low water, and the rise and fall volunteers MANUAL, by Col. Baster, meaning conveying troops to the number of about a came in from the offing and joined in the adapted to fortifications, as they carry the of the tide but 2 feet. Unce inside the inthousand, left Fortress Monroe last Monday attack. The Harriet Lane, with her rifled gun so low as to render it impossible to let the mariner finds good anchorage in a and reached the rendezvous off Hatterss In- guns, did good execution, several projectiles raise a parapet of sufficient beight to pro- hard sand bottom, except a few sticky spots let, fifteen miles below Cape Hatteras, on from the eight-inch shell going into the bat- teet the men who work the guns if I at the head of the channel. The anchorage Tuesday morning, the Minnesota and Was tery, and one going directly through the were to construct embrasures for them the affords protection from all winds except largh coming in in the afternoon, and the ramparts. The fire was so hot that all of field of fire would be entirely too limited, those from the southward and westward Comberland joined the fleet the same day. the enemy that could do so got into a bomb- as it is necessary not only to command the As an entrance to Pamlico, Albemarle Preparations were immediately made to proof in the middle of the battery. Final- bar, but the channel of approach. I would and Currituck Sounds, the possession of ounkers were accepted. be worked with less than fifteen to sixteen to sea through the Dismal Swamp Canal

> Col. W. Bevernout Thompson. Chief of the Engineers, N. C. coast. FORT HATTERAN, July 14, 1861. Colonel-Since my arrival at this fort I on the north, and the Pamlico and Neuse The fort was reinforced by the arrival of have received a correct account of the ac- rivers on the west) can no longer be of

soon the battery's responses were few and far between, save when the frigates suspend owners, tar-boilers, proprietors.

| Soon the battery's responses were few and far between, save when the frigates suspend owners, tar-boilers, proprietors.

| Consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the Stars and consisting of substantial men, planters, ship is immediately displayed the substantial men, planters, ship is i eight-inch guns, there was great excitement this game has been stopped, and North on board the stermer. A man was seen | Carolina suffers from something more than lowered on her side. She immediately low- a mere paper blockade.

Chief Engineer Coast Defences.

HEADQUARTERS, CAMP HATTERAS, July 27, 1861.

I send you enclosed the morning report then been silent, opened on her with eight have given him, and 16 carriages for heavy of the force here of this date, by which you at short range. At the same instant she 32-pound guns. Before I left Fort Morgan will see that we have a total of only two amount to some hundreds of thousands of in the same instant she 32-pound guns. Before I left Fort Morgan will see that we have a total of only two amount to some hundreds of thousands of in the same instant she is a second guns. got aground and stuck fast, the enemy last, I got a plan of flank casemate car- hundred and twenty-three effective men. pouring in a fire, hot and heavy, which the riages to mount the 30-pound carronades It takes eighty-four men to man the chan-Monticello replied to with shell sharply .- upon, 7 of which reached the fort some nel battery at Fort Hatteras for one relief, great credit for this one.

W. L. G. Andrews, | Major commanding Fort Hatterss and dependencies:

W. H. Thompson, advantage coming to the Government from Government from the large due on Personal Property after the first day of Chief of the N. C. Coast Defences. the forts, will be the closing of one door of The winding to avail themselves of the discount, and also

A geographical sketch of the spot where MILITARY BOOKS.

COLDIER'S GUIDE TO HEALTH 25 HARDEE'S RIFLE AND LIGHT INFANTET MILITARY TEXT BOOK, by L. D. Williams, illustrated. ? the Articles of War and Dictionary of Military Terms 1.28

Ann Iron Ballding.

EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN 4 APP & JARVIE BUILDINGS, CORPER PORTE APP SALTIBORS STS., Links

Bultimore, Maryland. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL AGENT FOR ALL THE LEADING DAILY AND WEEKLY PAPERS AND MAGAZINES.

creating by reliable carriers and agente. LAMBERT GITTINGS &CO.,

No. SA BUCHANAMA WHARP. my31-enlm*

AUCTIONEERS & COMMISSION MERCHANTS

No. 20 FOUTH CHARLES NT.

Will give his parsonal attention as Accreonage, to sales of] urse gun, the cieven-inch shirt strains by the guns of our men at rote Clark.— showing twenty-one guns of cast plies to the rebels, will no longer be pervery description, and respectfully salkenerous his triends and uear the battery and bursting with tremen. But two companies were fully uniformed, was seen about eleven o'clock A. M., east plies to the rebels, will no longer be pervery description, and respectfully salkenerous his triends and

FANCT GOODS.

MACAULAT'S HISTORY OF ENGLAND, SETERAL EDITIONS,

By Halzac, author of Petty Annoyanors,..... 1 (0) SEIZURE OF SOUTHERN VESSELS .- The ALL THE POPULAR MAGAZINES AND NEWSPA The proclamation of the President, issued

return the fire with any regularity, the bat- were much needed, and sent the balance to give them a one hundred and twenty-eight intended confiscation, according to the Act, | IRVING COLLEGE, MANCHESTER, CARROLL.) return the are with any regularity, the outtery being too hot for them, from the explosion of the shells that dropped in at the were much needed, and sent the oniance to give them a one numbered and twenty-eight of property owned in Rebel States, was pound shot, which will be apt to do their carried into operation yesterday in quite an operati concerned. There are, or rather were, it seems, about twenty-five vessels of one sort or another in this port, owned, in part, at the South. This property, in accordance of The Baltimore and Havre and the Chesapeake Bank, on the South. with the proclamation, became liable to confiscation at the expiration of fifteen days, LARMERS AND PLANTERS' BANK, BALTIiscation at the expiration of fifteen days, at and that time had elapsed on Saturday, at midnight. There have been attempts to midnight. There have been attempts to Transfer broke closed until the lat July Transfer broke closed until the lat protect similar property from confiscation, in one way or another, but the owners of LY WHITMAN & CO., these twenty-five vessels seem to have relied upon the law's delay, or the delay of its | Horsepowers, officers, and permitted the time to pass Wheat Fana, Corn and Cob Mills.

to, and yesterday seized the vessels. The value of that portion which will be confiscated to the Government will, no doubt, DAY, July 17th, 1961. dollars. We need such examples of prompt- THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD.—STOLEN from ble terms, next said expeditions and city, deceased. All persons having claims against the said excluded from all twurfft of said estate. All persons indebted Given under my hand this 19th day of July, 1861.

THIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE, That the subscriber |

HARRIET ANN DUSHANE,

I scriber has obtained from the Orphan's Court of Baltimore city and State of Maryland, letters testamentary upon the hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers, to the subscriber, on or before the FIRST DAY OF FEBRUARY,

142. They mus otherwise by law he excluded from all benetic of said Estate. All persons indebted to mid finishe are requested

Particular att atton is now called to the arresse of Taxes for

HIRAM GREENTREE, Adm'r.

K. R. SPRAGUE, Attorbet.

thren under my hand this 11th day of July, 1961

estate, are hereby warmed to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, properly anthenticated, to the authoriber, on or beli the 19th day of January, 1962, they may otherwise, by law

I so said estate are requested to make immediate justment.

London," and "Newark RYR FLOUR-Made of pure Virginia White Rye. For sale by manufacturers agents,

C. D. HINKS & CO., No. 41 South Howard street, near Lombar 1.

THENRY R LOUDERMAN. ALEXANDER KIKKLAND,

arold any turber expense, are respectfully called upon to make | enter. BILL POSTERS AND DISTRIBUTORS. Th. W. Hall, Jr. Editor. TOBACCO AND SEGARS.

ARMISTEAD, RIGGS & CO.

MARKETS FOR THE SALE OF VIRGINIA MANUFACTURED TOBACCO,

No. 57 EXCHANGE PLACE.

BALTIMORE.

CHARLES BAYNE & CO.

AGESTS FOR THE SALE OF MANUFACTURED TOBACCO,

HAVANA, GERMAN & DOMESTIC

SEGARS, No. 70 EXCHANGE PLACE, BALTIMORE.

P. L. CLAISORNE.

CLAIBORNE & FERGUSON, AGESTS FOR THE BALE OF

VIRGINIA MANUFACTURED

TOBACCO,

No. 20 HOUTH CALVERT STREE ALTIHORE, MD. ap 24 3m

WARWICK, FRICK & BALL, AGENTS FOR THE SALE OF

MANUFACTURED AND LEAF TOBACCO,

No. 60 SOUTH STREET, BALTIMORE. DAN'L J. WARWICE. FRANK PRICE.

PRILIP A. BALL. BANKING AND EXCHANGE.

THOS. J. CARSON, BANKER,

No. 204 Baltimore Street, WILL BUY AND SELL DOMESTIC RT-VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA CUR-

DYE WOOD, CHEMICALS, &c.

R. J. BAKER,

Importer and Manufacturer of DYE WOODS,

CHEMICALS, &c. Used by Woolen, Cotton, Soup and Paper Manufacturers, Tan-Lers, Leather and Morosco Dressers, Machinests and Dyers. 36 S. Charles Street.

SAMUEL S. MILLS, BOOK AND

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 122 BALTIMORE STREET, (I door from North Street, Up Stairs,) BALTIMORK.

LEONARD PASSANO. LMPORTER AND DRALER IN

Barkvery description of JOB PRINTING executed on reason

GERMAN ENGLISH AND DOMESTIC PLOUR.—FLOUR.—A choice assortment of superior FLOUR, suitable for Bakers and Family purposes. IFANCY GOODS

NOTIONS,

32 Centre Market Space, BALTIMORE, MARTLAND.

S, W. SIPBALL, P. W. BODEWALD. Rodewald & Sindall. COMMISSION MERCHANTS. ISPORTERS AND DYALLES IN INDIGO, RODA ASII, CAUSTIC SODA, SPICES, MOAP

STARCH, SAL SODA, BICARB, SODA, AND GROCKES' DREES GESERALLY, 0003-8m OF RECHANGE PLACE, BALTIMORS.