Criticized by conservative presses, North and Houth, as "the best book" ever published on the Society of the South. Four Hundred Copies subscribed for by Southern Memberse READ THE OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. Remarkably free from sectional prejudice and acerbity, and, in truth, contains akerches that are amongst the most catholic, and tolerant, and genial we ever had occasion to peruse. How appreciative, how lowing, how tender and sympathetic the author is in delineations we will let a few extracts show .- New | Bo many jewels in their way-black by the autiject, but brilliantly lightsome in it. It is a little mine full of promised dismends .- New York News. Rabid abolitionists and prejudiced foreigners should read this book -New York Hersill. Defending "the institution" more than all argument from the ; Munt have edected much grant in free latter regions. It will be read with interest at the Fouth also - Mobile Register. The author is sometimes a philosopher, sometimes a poet, and in every character readable .- New Torker An exceedingly interesting volume, quite in a new and unaf fected at the - Bullianure Num. upon present topics of excuement, will be sold in Balumore and le Bouth, by direction of the author, at 38 cents a volume (the The remainder of the very large edition of this remarks.
