tion, No. 74 BALTIMORE STREET, SEAR GAT. The usual deduction in favor of Newsmen and Agenta All communications abould be addressed to the Publisher of The South.

Six lines or less make a square. Contracts to be subject of pecial agreement. Marriage and Ubiteary notices, 25 cents. Adverticements will be received at the office of Publication, No. 74 Baltimore street, near Gay.

Price of Advertisements.

Advertisements should be sent in early.

Baltimore, Friday Evening, September 6, 1861.

Th. W. Hall, Jr. Editor.

The South.

Vol. 1. No. 117.

CHUSETTS.—Captain Arthur Lee Rogers. who commanded the Loudoun Artillery at the battle of Manassas, communicates to the Richmond Examiner a copy of the following letter from General Washington to Richard Henry Lee. The letter has been | preserved in the Lee family, who though applied to repeatedly for copies for publication, have heretofore declined all such requests. Of the authenticity of the origireference to any letter of Washington, published in Sparks' collection. The copy furnished for publication is certified to by the Presiding Justice of Loudoun county.

CAMP AT CAMBRIDGE, Aug. 29th, 1775 rough persuasion of his integrity, my own and within point-blank shot of the enemy as every one says.

principal objects of their attention. I submit it, therefore, to your consideration, examples to make, and so little inclination whether there is, or is not, a propriety in in the officers of inferior rank, to contribute I would require to write many pages to rethat resolution of the Congress which leaves their aid to accomplish this work, that my late some out of the much which is seen above as that of the close of the cannon- Artillery, now at Camp Boylan, and under waters? Where else would they be reit is giving that power and weight to an so little countenance to irregularities and have been transferred more to the northindividual Colony which ought of right public abuses as to render myself very ob- ward. I believe if the Southerners avail count at this time, but expect further de- men on our coast. to belong to the whole. Then it stamps noxious to a great part of these people, themselves duly of time and circumstances tails before we put this extra to press. the spirit and ardor of volunteers from all But as I have already greatly exceeded the they will very soon oblige their enemies to For this disastrous result somebody is to learned that Commodore Barron, Captain but the four New England Governments, bounds of a letter, I will not trouble you evacuate Harper's Ferry, offer battle to the blame. Who that somebody is, must re- and Lieutenant Sinclair, with the steamer led to believe, through the Executive Deas none but their people have the least with matters relative to my own feelings. corp of Federal troops marching through main a subject for future inquiry. In the Winslow, and Captain Bradford have been partment of the State, that our coast was chance of getting into office. Would it not As I expect this letter will meet you in Western Virgit a, and also present them- meantime let us not hastily censure any of captured by the Nationals. be better, therefore, to have the warrants Philadelphia, I must request the favor of selves at Baltime e, threatening the forces those engaged in the arrangement or exe- Friday, 11 o'clock A. M.—A despatch to this has happened I know not, nor will I which the Commander-in-Chief is autho- you to present my affectionate and respect- in possession there. In that case the army cution of the affair. In ignorance of the Governor Clark has just been read in the attempt to guess. But we see now what rized to give pro tempore, approved or dis- ful compliments to Dr. Shippen, his lady which is here encamped will have to retire truth, we may censure the bravest and the House of Commons conveying the intelli- the boasted strength of our coast defences approved by the Continental Congress, or and family, my brothers of the Delegation, to Philadelphia, and then Virginia and best. We look for much good to come out gence of the surrender of our troops at amounted to. What does the entrance of a committee of their body, which I should and any other enquiring friends—and at Maryland will remain in the power of the suppose in any long recess must always the same time, do me the justice to believe Southern Confederates. I am thoroughly designs of the enemy. If they intend to surrendered was Col. Martin, brother of It amounts to this: The whole of the eastset? In this case every gentleman will that I am, with a sincere regard, stand an equal chance of being promoted. according to his merit; in the other, all offices will be confined to the inhabitants | Richard Henry Lee, Esq. which, in my opinion, is impolitic to a de- A Spanish General's View of the country people, in which case to penetrate have the advantage of us in the marine, "A little civit, good apothecary." gree. I have made a pretty good slam FEDERAL ARMY.—In his last letter to the the country it would be necessary to take a that may skulk about the coast and annoy among such kind of officers as the Massa- London Times, Dr. Russellquotes the opin- great round, for which I have not sufficient us—but let them come in contact whenever The Wilmington Journal of Friday af-Captains for drawing more provisions and organization, discipline, &c., in the Federal St. Lawrence (7), proceeding on the 5th to pay than they had men in their company, army. A Spanish paper, the Diario de la Quebec to embark for Europe on the 6th. and one for being absent from his post Marina, of Havana, contains a letter from when the enemy appeared and burnt a General Lana, which we subjoin: house just by it Besides these, I have at | Washington, July 31, 1861.—You will [

to everything but their interest. number of men are necessary to defend a his power to post me as fully as possible in ing:--The National steamers, eleven in num- ed at that point, with about 500 troops.— State, hovering over our own coast, threatplace: how it can be supported, and how regard to the military and political state of ber, commenced the hombardment on Wed- The force of the Nationals is variously es- ening our own homes, approaching to our furnished with ammunition.

ed without our having (if the enemy will pass days and nights in the camps without his statements were made, we have great friends in the eastern counties will rally no provision made to secure their retreat. keep their own counsel,) an hour's previous doing anything, with the exception of bat- confidence in them. notice of it, and that it would not be pru- talion drill for a short while in the morning The National fleet consisted of eleven Let them be cool, determined and vigilant. has heretofore been, "Oh! no, there is no dent in me to attempt a measure which and again in the evening. As far as I steamers, four of which were large war Watch the enemy's movements, and be sure danger; you are only scared." The people . would necessarily bring on a consumption have been able to observe, they have no steamers. The bombardment is represent to provide against the tampering with and have had enough of this; they must act at of all the ammunition we have, thereby large fields for manœuvring or target exer- ed by our informers as most terrific. Lieu- the near approach of the enemy to your per- once themselves. There has been no earthleaving the army at the mercy of the ene- cises, which surprises me, since I know the tenant Knight and Lieutenant Murdoch sonal property. Remove it beyond his ly use in depending upon the authorities, my, or to disperse and the country to be fondness they have for it in this country. were brought up wounded-Knight slight- reach at the first indication of his approach so far at least. ravaged and laid waste at discretion. To Nothing impresses you that there are seven- ly in the arm, and Murdoch with his arm to the main land. ledge of his character, induced me to take consciousness of having done my duty to never seen anywhere; the harness and gun at Fort Clark on Wednesday, and the guns Raleigh was filled with rumors on yes-

my opinion, to fear from the enemy, provi- work, and with the loss of 4 men only, 2 dance; but there are things which cannot Let the militia be called out to aid the reg- having left Hatteras on Wednesday at 12 \[ \] my opinion, to their duty, of which were killed through their own fol be improvised. Hence it is, that, accord- ular forces, and if the Hessians dare ad- o'clock, M., and reports that when he left represented their insecure position. Aid del we can keep our men to their duty, of which were killed through their own fol be improvised. Hence it is, that, accord- ular forces, and if the Hessians dare ad- o'clock, M., and reports that when he left represented their insecure position. Aid and make them watchful and vigilant: but ly. The insult of the cannonade, however, ing to my opinion, these gentry will be vance, let us make them rue it. We can, the Nationalists were bombarding Fort Hat- was promised, but whether it was furnished it is among the most difficult tasks I ever we were obliged to submit to with impunity, beaten as often as they go into battle, at we must. To arms! to arms! undertook in my life to induce these people not daring to make use of artillery, on ac- least for the present. Nothing of all that | The Goldsborough Tribune issued a small piration of about ten minutes. Captain G. to believe that there is or can be danger, count of the consumption of powder, except is said by the Southern papers on the result | "extra," dated Friday, which we annex: | further stated that he heard from a pilot, till the bayonet is pushed at their breasts: with one 9-pounder, placed on a point, with of the battle is exaggerated. Here it is We had not in our last issue sufficient who was moving his family from the island, not that it proceeds from any uncommon which we silenced, and indeed, sunk, one of known perfectly well that the Federalists, reliable information to announce that the that on the previous night (Tuesday,) the done as he said. prowess, but rather from an unaccountable their floating batteries. This move of ours besides having run away helter shelter, lost enemy have taken the forts and forces at enemy had landed a large force between kind of stupidity in the lower class of these was made to prevent the enemy from gain- about 19,000 muskets, 70 old cannon, all Hatterss. The main fort, Fort Hatterss, Cape Hatters and the fort. people, which, believe me, prevails but too ing this bill, and we thought was giving their wagons and provisions, field train, is at a point commanding Hatteras Inlet. The following is the number of the Nagenerally among the officers of the Massa- them a fair challenge to dispute it (as we tents, and a great part of their knapsacks. Fort Clark is a small battery, two miles tional fleet seen off the Cape:—8 steamships at pleasure, and our guns not being able to generally among the same really had been told by various people, who had It is only necessary to take a peep at an enof the same kidney with the privates, and just left Boston, that they were preparing campment to notice that not one of these that not one of these that not one of these that not one of the same kidney with the privates, and just left Boston, that they were preparing campment to notice that not one of these or the same active, and private, and just left hoston, that they were preparing companion to the same and the seventh launches or surf-boats. Under this state of scarce, all that could be done was to suradds not a little to my difficulties, as there to come out); but, instead of accepting of latter is to be seen. The soldiers use no was to suradds not a little to my difficulties, as there to come out); but, instead of accepting of latter is to be seen. The soldiers use no was to suradds not a little to my difficulties, as there to come out); but, instead of accepting of latter is to be seen. The soldiers use no was to suradds not a little to my difficulties, as there to come out); but, instead of accepting of latter is to be seen. The soldiers use no was to suradds not a little to my difficulties, as there to come out); but, instead of accepting of latter is to be seen. is no such thing as getting officers of this it, we learn that it has thrown them into more clothing nor uniform than what we North Carolina Volunteers. The troops in affairs, we feel warranted in entertaining render. stamp to exert themselves in carrying orders great consternation, which might be im- understand by barrack dress, and their both forts were under the command of the most serious apprehensions for the safety. So the defence of our coast at that iminto execution. To curry favor with the proved had we the means of doing it. Yes- clothes are so clumsily worn, dirty and mot-

Your affect'ate friend and ob't serv't, GEO. WASHINGTON. (Signed)

this time, one Colonel, one Major, one Cap- | be surprised on seeing my letter dated from | spare none, and yet fear it will not all do, already in Madrid. It would have been so We find in such of our North Carolina impression was they designed an attack up- yesterday morning. It is about ninety State, who has a company to offer to the as these people seem to be too inattentive had it not happened that I found, on my exchanges as have reached us since Thurs- on our coast. Gov. Clark at once ordered miles from the battery to Newbern (by service of the State. He says if arms can't arrival at New York, that the famous steam- day brief mention of the disaster to Con- the 7th Regiment of State troops, command- water,) and a steamer had time to get up be obtained, they will arm themselves with 1 have not been unmindful of that part ship Great Eastern was expected, a circum- federate arms at Hatteras on Wednesday ed by Col. Campbell, to Newbern. On to Newbern last night for an extra train to double-barrelled shot-guns, and make the of your letter respecting Point Alderton stance which created in me a hope of mak- and Thursday last. They give but very Wednesday a despatch was received at be sent to Goldsborough, where the news moulds for their own cartridges. It is cer-Before the receipt of it, it had become the ing my trip to Liverpool in that colossus few particulars that have not already ap- Newbern that the fleet had anchored off could be telegraphed to this place this tain that something very active must be accounts of its situation differ exceedingly of my time, I visited Saratoga, where I in respect to the command it has of the learned the news of the Battle of Bull Fort Hatteras was surrendered to the ship channel. But my knowledge of this Run, and since the Great Eastern does not National authorities at 11 o'clock on yester- that Fort Hatters had been captured by matter would not have been confined to sail from Quebec till the 6th of August, I day, Thursday. The steamer Winstow, the Nationals—that the guns of the fort place the fullest confidence in the despatch, throughout the State, as far as this news inquiries only if I had ever been in a con- telt a curiosity to see what was going on, which left there soon after the surrender on were silenced at an early period of the day. as we know it to be official. Recrimina- has reached. dition, since my arrival here, to have taken now that these people appear to be fighting yesterday, arrived here about 10 o'clock From these rumors additional ones have tions are uscless, we suppose. It is better possession of such a post; but you well in earnest; and at one bound I planted myknow, my good sir, that it becomes the self in the Capital of the old Union. Her

| Vesterony, arrived acts adding adding to the self in the Capital of the old Union. Her
| Vesterony, arrived acts adding adding to the self in the time of trial to suggest what can be last night. She brought up five wounded been manufactured, and the most serious done—to urge its doing, and to do all that | Martiago issueron and one dead body. From Lieutenant results are said to have occurred. At this duty of an officer to consider some other Catholic Majesty's Minister, Sr. Tassara, re- Citizen, of Capt. Lamb's Company, who es- writing, nothing is certainly known here as | can be done to help it forward. matters as well as situation, namely: what ceived me very well, and did everything in caped and came up, we gathered the follow- to the result. We had 19 cannon mount-

In respect to the first, I conceive our de lieve I have formed a sufficiently accurate returned the fire. It was kept up until if they had more than 4,000, if that, as were panic stricken when we appealed so fence of this place (Point Alderton.) must idea of the actual situation, although here- dark, with but little loss on our side. On more could not have well been spared from strongly for the construction of efficient Gage's whole force, leaving him just enough tain matters, and have very little news of and continued until about 11 o'clock, when, It is, however, quite certain that, accordto man his lines on Boston and Charles- what is taking place on the other side of after a desperate resistance, our forces were ing to our predictions and warning for until we have made ourselves odious to the lit isola and resistance, our forces were ing to our predictions and warning for until we have made ourselves odious to the lit isola and resistance, our forces were ing to our predictions and warning for until we have made ourselves odious to the lit isola and resistance, our forces were ing to our predictions and warning for until we have made ourselves odious to the lit isola and resistance. town Necks. And with regard to the sec- the Potomac. It is necessary to see this compelled to surrender, and the whole gar- months, our coast is menaced, if not sucond and most important, as well as alarm- place to be convinced of what is occurring rison are now held as prisoners, save a few cessfully invaded. If we are not prepared thing which we regretted, but for which we learn the restriction of th ing object, we have only 134 barrels of and to form an idea of what kind of affair who escaped. Commodore Barron, Colonel to meet the foe at the entrance of our in- did not reproach ourselves. Can those who powder in all, (including the late supply an army is composed of men without any Branford, Colonel Martin, Lieutenant Colo- lets, it is not the fault of the Standard. so vehemently did not like our course say from Philadelphia,) which is not sufficient military habits, and led by officers—chiefs nel Johnson, Major W. S. We have labored earnestly to direct the at. that they have nothing with which to reto give twenty-five musket cartridges to and generals—who are for the most part G. Andrews, and all the Captains of the tention of the Government to the absolute proach themselves? If they do, who will each man, and searcely to serve the artil- devoid of the knowledge necessary. Ex- post, are prisoners. Our entire force at necessity of full preparation. If there be believe them?

carriages are magnificent, all bran new, were spiked and abandoned, but Fort Hat- terday and the day before, in relation to the iment, consisting of eight hundred men, the room of Major Mifflin, who I have ap- On Saturday night last, we took possessince they lost those they previously had in teras returned the fire of the Nationals till bombarding and silencing of our batteries stationed there and at Ocracoke Inlet. pointed Quartermaster General, from a tho-sion of a hill advanced of our own lines, the battle, and that, too, in great numbers, eleven o'clock and after yesterday chusetts Government abounds in since I ion of General Lana, in command of the time. To-morrow I start for New York, they dare, and we have no fears for the re- ternoon has the following: vior in the action on Bunker's Hill, two expressed in regard to the lack of proper which the English have built over the river anxious to do something.

AFFAIR AT THE HATTERAS IN-

LET. Confederate Accounts.

the country, from which information I be- nesday, and the forts, Clark and Hatteras, timated at from 4,000 to 8,000. We doubt own doors, will go far to show whether we Actuary at the Institute, which information I be- nesday, and the forts, Clark and Hatteras, timated at from 4,000 to 8,000. We doubt own doors, will go far to show whether we Actuary at the Institute of the Inst Under these circumstances, I dare say you tion department, such as wagons, gun care will agree with me that it would not be rieges ambulances to the melicines of the mention of the such as wagons, gun care them informed us, was 853. Some few But we must not give way to complaints.

I me force at traiteras has failed into the grown any want of mention points and any want of mention any want of mentions and the large for tation or books. For a catalogue and the such as wagons, gun care the mention and the same want of mentions and t will agree with me that it would not be riages, ambulances, &c., &c., which is mag- escaped, perhaps 50 or more, and Lieuten- We must up and at them, and drive them gallantry on their part, but because they as zeros. S.C. BROOKS, LL. D., President.

distant (by land) from this place, when we men without any military instruction, and, killed and wounded; probably 40 killed and his best to effect that object speedily, and and because they were neither sustained have already a line of communication round what is worse, without trying to acquire it, about 20 wounded. He remained in the we have no doubt President Davis will nor had works sufficiently tenable to resist Boston of at least ten miles in extent to according to appearances, since during the fort till half an hour previous to its surren- promptly meet the case. There is no the heavy force brought against them, GEN. WASHINGTON'S OPINION OF MASSA- defend, any part of which may be attack- time I remained there I have seen them der, and from the lucid manner in which time for delay. We hope and believe our (4,000 men and 100 guns) There was

you, sir, I may account for my conduct; ty thousand men in the neighborhood pre- badly injured. Probably amputation will The Standard has also the following: nal there is no more doubt there exists in but I cannot declare the motives of it to paring for war. Silence and tranquility be necessary. The dead body of a Mr. We stop the press to announce the startevery one, notwithstanding I knew, by not | reign in the city and camps, neither more | Tindell, we believe from Lenoir, was brought | ling intelligence that a despatch has just | doing it, that I shall stand in a very un- nor less than if everything were in a nor- up. The news is sad, and we can give no been received in this city that Fort Hattefavorable light in the opinion of those who mal state. For all I have scarched, I have expect much, and will find little done, with- not succeeded in finding either cavalry or lars hereafter, as they reach us. Lieuten- o'clock on Thursday, and that our whole out understanding, or perhaps give them- artillery. True, the latter they abandoned ant Citizen says our men fought bravely, force, amounting to nearly 600 men, have selves the trouble of inquiring into the on the Bull Run field of battle, and the for- until they were compelled to surrender, and been made prisoners. Arouse, North Carby Mr. Randolph, came safe to hand—the cause. Such, however, is the fate of all mer they have never had except in commerits of this young gentleman, added to those who are obliged to act the part I do. paratively insignificant numbers. What buted to the superiority of the fleet over The Register, of Saturday, has the folyour recommendation and my own know- I must, therefore, submit to it, under a they have is draught cattle such as I have our batteries. The ammunition gave out lowing:

Men of Eastern Carolina, arouse! We Wednesday last. We have reasons most Carolina Volunteers. Its field officers experience of his activity, and finally, he- on Charlestown Neck. We worked incesvaluation of the stands unconnected with either of santly the whole night with 1,200 men, and tiful mules, as good as the best which are vou heeded not. Now your property, your true, and that the batteries at Cape Hatte- Johnston, Lieutenant Colonel; H. A. Gilthese Governments; or with this, that, or before morning got an entrenchment in such | bred for the pastures of La Mancha (New | homes and your families are in danger! ras have been captured by the Yankees. | liam, Major. The entire regiment, with there troveruments, or will there forwardness as to bid defiance to their can- Castile). All of them were destined for leave the invaders were indebted to a friend for the follow- the officers were taken prisoners by the stocker will be the officers will be the officers were taken prisoners by the stocker will be the officers will be is more in this than you can easily imagine | non. About 9 o'clock on Sunday they be- draught service in the army; they had just from your soil. A little preparation might ing information: As we have now nearly completed our gan a heavy cannonade, which continued come from Kentucky. Certainly all that have saved this disaster, but now it is too | Capt. Gates, of the schooner Imbella lines of defence, we have nothing more, in through the day without any injury to our money can procure is had here in abun- late and we must make the most of it.— Elizu, reached Newbern on Thursday last, more entire coast. Col. Campbell's regiment, And yet there has been every warning then by whom they were chosen, and on terday afternoon they began a bombardment, ley, that it is necessary to see to believe. The attack was made on Wednesday morn- entire coast. Col. Campbell's regiment, And yet there has been every warning Beards and long hair are also very much in | ing at 8 o'clock, and | kept up until eleven | recently stationed at Graham, and original- | which prudent men ought to require in remay again rely, seems to be one of the There have been so many great and capi- fashion. I wonder if they imagine the en-the ultimate appointment of all officers life has been nothing else (since I came below the rank of General to the Govern- here) but one continual round of vexation ments where the regiments originated, now and fatigue. In short, no pecuniary re- ficient time for that, nor would you have pa- Martin, Major Andrews and Commodore their services are needed on the coast. Had zens, and military men. And with all this the army is become Continental? To me, it compense could induce me to undergo what tience to read it. By the time you receive Barron, son of the celebrated Commodore the earnest and repeated advice of General warning the Yankees have come upon us appears improper in two points of view; first, I have; especially, as I expect, by showing this letter it is very probable the scene may of that name. Some eight or ten escaped. (I wynn, Capt. Crossan, and other officers, entirely unprepared, so far as effectiveness

ACCOUNTS FROM RALEIGH. The Standard of Saturday says:

very eligible to take a post thirty miles | nificent, all else is a confusion of ill-clad | ant Citizen thinks not more than 60 were | from our coast. Governor Clark will do | had not a sufficient amount of ammunition, promptly to resist the Lincoln hirelings. But the reply to all who urge anything at Cape Hatteras by the National fleet on This was the Seventh Regiment North teras, the fort not responding after the ex- I know not; but if it was, it was certainly

Since the above was written, we have convinced that this must happen very soon. demonstrate an invasion, let them come, if Adjutant General Martin. For the sake of ern part of the State is now exposed to the I endeavored in vain to get a glimpse of they can, we say—the Confederates will the credit of the State, we forbear to de- ravages of the merciless vandals. Newbern, the Southern troops, and convinced myself teach them how to go, as they have in ev-scribe the effect which this despatch pro-Washington, Plymouth, Edenton, Hertford, that it was useless to attempt it. Their ery case of conflict, of any importance, since duced on the House. And yet this is the Elizabeth City, are all now exposed, bepickets allow no one to pass, not even the the first inroads of the ruffianly host. They body that has arraigned the Convention !

came to this camp, having broken one Col- Spanish forces in the Island of Cuba, in and after resting there a day, will make an sult. This event will perhaps give our An official despatch received this morn- which certainly would have been avoided onel and two Captains for cowardly beha- confirmation of the views he had himself excursion to Niagara to see the bridge boys something to do, who are ready and ing from Newbern via Goldsborough, says had the proper steps been taken. It was including Commodore Barron and Captain tion, during the late session, that if the Bradford, have been taken prisoners by the Government had had nothing to do with "On Tuesday last, Gov. Clark received a National fleet. The despatch says that the the coast defence, but left it to the people of despatch from Gen. Huger, at Norfolk, batteries were taken yesterday at eleven the castern part of the State, it would have stating that 2 steam frigates, 8 armed ves- o'clock A. M. This confirms the report been put in a proper state of defence. No sels, with other small craft, had left Old brought here last evening by a gentleman doubt but what he said was true. Point on Monday, and steered South. The from Beaufort, that firing re-commenced I saw a gentleman to-day from up the works for the defence of our coast. Over UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND.

THE DISASTER AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.

Special Correspondence of the Petersburg

Ralgian, N. C., Friday, Aug. 30, '61. Their Express:—Sad are my feelings. to-day is of a very sad character. Our coast is certainly in possession of the Yankees. They entered Hatteras Inlet on yesterday and took possession of our batteries and men there. From accounts I suppose their entrance was effected with very little trouble. We had only one reg-

This, however, was expected by the offi-; cers whenever an attack was made. Col. Johnson was here several weeks ago, and very meagre Colonel J. said while here that the Yankees could take them whenever they tried. They have tried, and have

The Yankee force consisted of 16 war vessels, among them 2 very large ones.— They stood out and bombarded our batteries

The people of North Carolina have been sides the whole of the adjacent country.

The strength of the Yankee force already landed is not definitely known. It is supposed to be about 8,000 men. Our State is now plunged into a great deal of trouble

There will be write new teatures in the Bahan, with saver, That will contained the more restricted attractions of themer habits. Mechanica. Manufacturera and others are most respect (%) of the principles of Medicine and Nursery O. W. MILIESBERGER, M. D.

IDALTIMORE FEMALE COLLEGE .- This insti-The force at Hatteras has fallen into the steet or BOARDING AND DAY PUPILS, will be RE OPEN.