The horses started neck and neck, but the grey again showed his superior foot and took the lead. He broke slightly after passing the halfmile post, but recovered himself instantly, and came home winner in 2:381, the best time made on the track this season. The mare broke hadly on the quarter stretch, and is said to be slightly out of condition, otherwise, her friends think the result might have been different. The following is the summary:

MORE CONFEDERATE PRISONERS ON PAROLE .-Three Confederate soldiers, who were taken prisopers at the time of the surrender of General Garnett's forces in Western Virginia, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, by the Northern Central Railway. They were quartered at the Susquehanna Hotel, where every attention was paid known until late in the afternoon. One was wounds, and the third had been wounded in the in that amount. left leg, near the knee. As soon as their identity was discovered, some ladies set themselves to work to procure clothing for them, which they be accomplished, an order came up from Fort McHenry for their immediate removal to that fort. They stated that until they reached Baltimore their liberty was not restricted. But the order sleep, and all three were taken to the fort. They of this city are all Virginians, and men of intelligence and l standing at home. They will be sent down to Fortress Monroe, and thence to Norfolk under a flag of truce.

UNION NOMINATING CITY CONVENTION. - This L. hody convened last night, in Temperance Temple, Mr. S. J. K. Handy in the chair. They proceeded to ballot for candidates for the Legislature.
