FROM NEW YORK

A letter from New York mys: Agreeably to suggestions but forth him with the clergy, and alluded to in a recent letter, 4 was a very general concurrence in most of It churches to-day in the propriety of preaching no sermons on the approaching fast day, under the sensible conviction that the nation is more in need of Divine mercy just now than mere exhibitions of human wisdom, pulpit oratory or "sensation" discourses. The Episcopalians and Roman Catholics will almost all adhere to this resolution. Dr. The capture of Lexington is confirmed by the Tyng and Dr. Hawks may possibly prove excep-

The pastoral letter of Bishop Gdeubeimer was read in all the churches in Jersey City this mornng. You are aware that objection had been urged in some of the city papers to this communi cation, on the ground that it omitted to recommend the clergy to pray for victory to our arms an offence, which the Pharisees among us attributed to the fact that the Bishop is unfortunate enough to have a son acting as an officer in the Chicago Irish Regiment, Col. Mulligan, 900; rebel army. When the "pastoral" was reading Illinois Cavalry, Col.
